Thomas McClellan, wife and little daughter, of Altoona, were recent visitors at the home of Geo. Morrison.

Will Kreps and family, of Altoona, came down from that mountain city to get a little fresh air, and greet their many friends here. Will is a good Odd Fellow and was a very welcome visitor to Lumen Lodge Saturday night.

If there's a place in Centre county that needs looking after, it's the diamond and pavement in front of the soldier's monument in Bellefonte. Gee! It's bad housekeeping to permit such a condition of the streets in the County town.

As Leroy Lucas, son of Walter Lucas, of Viaduct, who is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lucas was coming in from the cornfield, carrying a large pumpkin on his shoulder, and while crossing the fence a load of shot struck the pumpkin. The boy heard the shot but could not see any one, nor could he tell just from what direction the shot came. It was, evidently, the work of some reckless hunter. That the boy had unconsciously carried the pumpkin on his shoulder as a shield which saved his life seems miraculous.

A very nice old lady lives up the pike. Recently another very nice old lady was the guest of this nice old lady U. P. for several days. One night, this nice lady took out her artificial teeth and laid them on the stand in the parlor. Her guest took her's out in the bed room in which they both slept, and laid them on the stand. Next morning the hostess arose first, dressed and, seeing the teeth lying on the stand, appropriated them to her own use, thinking, of course, they belonged to her. When the guest arose she missed her masticator, and as a matter of course, she inquired of her hostess when the fact revealed itself that she had appropriated the missing teeth to her own use, and that her's were lying on the parlor stand. The joke was too good to keep and it leaked out through the medium of a little bird, and as those two nice old ladies, Mrs. Fredericks and Mrs. Ammerman, are such good friends of mine I will not give them away this time, but be careful of your teeth in the future.

On last Friday night Howard Peters persuaded Roy Hazel to accompany him to the P. R. K. station to see that the 8 o'clock train goes through o. k. After halfpast eight, Roy started for home, and Peters went with him. The blinds were down in the parlor and Roy did not know what that meant as it was something unusual. He, however, soon found out, for when he entered the hall door, about twenty-five young people riz right up and raised such a din and clatter that nearly frightened the poor boy out of his wits. You see it was the anniversary of his 20th birthday, and his mother connived to give him a surprise, which was a most decided success. What followed the first surprise can better be imagined than told. Suffice to say, that the young folks voted it the most enjoyable event of the season. The layout was simply beyond description and soothing syrup. Bateman's drs. ps and other harmless remedies were in demand next morning. We failed to get a list of those present but were informed that about 25 of the elite of the town were present.

Mary Zahnizer went to Bellefonte on a shopping expedition, on Tuesday.

Wm. Hosband, of Camp Hosband, Bradford county, was home on a visit to his mother, recently.

The following persons have made themselves liable to arrest for conspiracy the penalty of which is very heavy, to wit: Mrs. Margaret Brugger, Victor Wagner and wife, operator Pearson and wife, John Emerick, wife and son Clark, James Holt and wife, Geo. Hall, Mrs. Fredericks and son Benjamin, John F. Holt, wife and daughter Sarah, Mrs. D. Duck, Alex Shipley and wife, Harry Harper, wife and boys, Ed. Barton, wife and son, David Keatley, wife and three boys, A. B. Hall, wife and family, Mrs. Maggie Holtzworth, Jos. E. Brugger and wife, Allie Senser, Anna Underwood, Mrs. Geo. Holt, Geo. Morrison and wife, Sam Holt and wife, Mrs. Mattie Musser, Mrs. Wm. Eckenroth, Mrs. Toner Irvin, Medie and Clyde Bowmaster, Mrs. Larry Brisbin and daughter Flora, Joe Stover, wife and children, and Mrs. Ammerman, and then some. The charge against these people is that they conspired to meet at the home of Wm. Keatley, on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of Mr. Keatley's 71st birthday and to do it so sneakily as to surprise him and almost frighten him out of his senses—all of which they accomplished with the utmost success. The only redeeming feature of the event was that these conspirators brought with them baskets galore, all filled with good things to eat which were emptied on the table until there wasn't room left for a pepper duster. The warrant has not yet been issued. Billy thinks he'll enter a nol pros this time. It was a surprise party, that's all, but really I was ashamed of Britton Hall, Joe Brugger and John Halt, for the way they stowed away the victuals under their vests as a caution to hardened sinners. Sude Emerick wanted to "kiss in the ring." Bennie Frederick's put in most of the evening in the gloaming by moonlight, with his best girl. Its a go this time. Gee, but it was a nice party.

As I will take my week off, commencing on Thursday, there will be no Unionville items next week. I expect to go west as far as Julian and may visit the famous Cronister and Miles' mullein and Canada thistle plantations; and will probably go to the Gum Stump and visit other places of like interest.

How to Get a Nice Home.

The Bellefonte Trust Co. will pay you 3 per cent interest compounded twice a year.

Let us see how this plan will work. Suppose right now you begin to save $1 a week, and at the beginning of each new year you increase your savings $1 a week, at the end of five years, with the compound interest you will have $824.08.

Weekly deposits of $1, compounding interest thereon will amount to $286.11 in five years. But this is not all, once you have formed the habit of saving, you are on the road to success. With $500 saved in cash you can purchase a nice home to live in or rent, by making a loan for the additional cost. But the savings habit is so beneficial that a whole bookful could be written. May we have your saving account?

Bellefonte Trust Company,
Capital $125,000,
Surplus $20,000.
BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

SHE DID NOT FEAR DEATH

An old lady on her seventy-third birthday once said, "I do not mind getting old, and I do not fear death, but I live in constant dread of paralysis."

"For some time I have been wanting to tell you of the great good your wonderful Sloan's Liniment is doing here," writes Mr. James P. Abernethy, of Rutherford College, N. C. "In fact, all your remedies are doing noble work, but your Liniment beats all. In my eight years' experience with medicine I find none to go ahead of it, having tried it in very many cases. I know of one young man, a brick mason, who suffered from a partial, yet, almost complete, paralysis of one arm. I got him to use your Liniment, and now he can do as much work as ever, and he sings your praise every day. I get all to use it I possibly can and know there is great virtue in it. I have helped the sale of your noble remedies about here greatly, and expect to cause many more to buy them, as I know they can't be beat."

It doesn't require much strength to break a promise.
