

The Centre Democrat.

CHAS. R. KURTZ, - - PROPRIETOR

FRED KURTZ, SR. ( - - EDITORS

CHAS. R. KURTZ, ( - - EDITORS

W. FRANCIS SPEER, - ASSOCIATE ED.

CIRCULATION OVER 5300

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

SUBSCRIPTION - - $1.50 PER YEAR

Persons who send or bring the money to the office, and pay in advance, $1 per year

CENTRE DEMOCRAT clubs with

N. Y. 3-4 World for..... $1.50

Pittsburg Stockman for..... $1.50

The date your subscription expires is plainly printed on the label bearing your name. All credits are given by a change of label the first issue of each month. Watch that, after you remit. We send no receipts unless by special request. Watch date on your label.

Subscribers changing postoffice address, and not notifying us, are liable for same.

Subscriptions will be continued, unless otherwise directed.

We employ no collector. You are expected to send or bring the money to this office.

Democratic State Ticket.

For State Treasurer

JOHN G. HARMAN, of Columbia county.

Democratic County Ticket.

For Prothonotary

ARTHUR B. KIMPORT, of Bellefonte.

For District Attorney

WILLIAM G. RUNKLE, of Bellefonte.

For County Surveyor

J. HENRY WETZEL, of Bellefonte.

EDITORIAL.

BERRY "lived the lid," in fact did more than ever promised. Now elect Harman to continue that work.

If you want to put and end to capitol steals be sure and go to the polls on next Tuesday, November 5th.

TUESDAY NEXT, Nov. 5th, is the day when honest voters can cast their ballots against the gang and its rascality.

CHAMBERS WAS ON GOV. Pennypacker's Staff for four years and always took orders from the Gang. Do the honest taxpayers of Centre county want a Pennypacker District Attorney in Centre county? We think not.

STATE SENATOR A. B. Roberts, Republican, of Montgomery county, in a speech at Ardmore on Wednesday evening said:

"I may be accused of party treason if I utter the words, but say it I will, that I sincerely believe it was a blessing for Pennsylvania that William H. Berry a Democrat, was elected State Treasurer."

Yes, and if the rascals, who robbed the state of millions, get to the penitentiary, it will be an additional blessing.

TALK ABOUT "INCOMPETENCY," the present postmaster should sweep at his own door. At least a dozen different individuals at different times have called at this office to relate the lack of service at the Bellefonte postoffice and urged this paper to write it up, thus make a public protest. In charity we have thus far refrained, but patience in time ceases to be a virtue and if conditions don't improve, the Emigrant might lose his "velvet."

ARTHUR KIMPORT has proven an ideal county official. As Prothonotary the records in that office have been carefully kept to the great satisfaction of the public and especially the legal profession. Further than that, he has ever been courteous and obliging to the public, so that all who have had occasion to transact any business there attest to his uniform kindness. It is the custom to reward faithful officials by a second term and on that basis Mr. Kimport merits the most favorable consideration.

THE ISSUE STATED

In his speech in the opera house, Thursday evening, Senator Dewalt said, in part, "This is not a campaign of politics, but one in the interest of clean and pure institutions and government. If you believe in fostering these institutions, then you must believe as I do, and you must vote as I will, for John G. Harman for state treasurer; not because he is a Democrat, but because he represents what is right and true in the continuation of reform administration. So far as John O. Sheatz is concerned I have not a word to say personally, but it is because he represents the Republican Machine that I am against him. This has repeatedly been denied; but I know it is true, and can prove it.

"It may seem strange, if I should tell you; but I knew Sheatz to be the Republican nominee three weeks before the convention which nominated him, I was told so in Harrisburg by one of the leading Machine Republicans, and all the time Penrose was fooling the country people and getting them in line by telling them he was for Captain Cumings, a good old soldier, by the way. And you all know what the Republican Machine is. It has never dealt fairly by the state or by you; and, knowing this, will you cast your vote to continue those men in power? There are no more state capitols to be built, unless the present magnificent palace of graft burns down or is indefinitely enlarged; but there are lots of opportunities for graft on capitol hill, and they are still after it.

"You have heard nothing of new graft there in the past eighteen months, since Treasurer Berry has sat as a watchdog over the treasury; and now you have a chance to put another just as good watchdog there in the person of John G. Harman. With him elected the Machine will continue to be shorn of its power to rob the treasury and the people."

COL. CHAMBER'S PLATFORM.

"Colonel E. R. Chambers, in his letter accepting the nomination for District Attorney said: 'The farmer who works from daylight to late evening at hard labor in order to meet his living expenses, should not be forced to pay extra taxes for mistakes made in our criminal courts. Larceny, burglary, and murder have run riot in our county of late, and if I am elected I pledge myself to break this up and stop it without unnecessary expense to the taxpayers.'

The above has been a sort of a standing advertisement in the Gazette. It has at least run for some weeks. There is a thing or two about this platform to call the attention of the public. The "Kornel" says "if elected he will put a stop to the committing of larceny, burglary and murder in the county without unnecessary cost to the taxpayers." How he will do this he does not explain. He cannot convict anybody without legal evidence. The present District Attorney can, and does, convict every criminal arrested against whom competent evidence is obtained.

The "Kornel" has failed to tell us how he will obtain evidence to convict a man of murder who commits the crime under cover of night on a mountain road miles away from any living being. He does not even tell us how he will ascertain, under such circumstances, who the criminal is.

The "Kornel" may have some supernatural way of ascertaining these things that people are not aware of but we rather think not.

The truth is, this advertised platform, is the greatest piece of balderdash that has been put out by any candidate at any time. How very promising and wise some men become in their own conceit when they become candidates. It is enough to disgust a sensible man.

GET OUT THE VOTE.

This may be termed an off year in politics, lethargy prevails everywhere. The ticket is a small one and the average individual scarcely realizes that on next Tuesday, November 5th, an important election will be held. This condition points to a light vote in the county, as well as over the state. Under such conditions eternal vigilance is the price of victory; a little special effort at the close of the campaign means success at the polls.

There is much at stake in this campaign. The election of a State Treasurer two years ago, who was opposed to the Gang, resulted in the exposure of the $13,000,000 capitol steal, and about $1,000,000 more saved in other ways by Mr. Berry's careful administration. Why not keep up this good work and have another "watch dog" in the state Treasury?

Harman was nominated for that purpose; Penrose and the Gang named Sheatz—which do you want? We implore every intelligent reader and patriotic citizen to study this question over carefully, and then to be sure and go to the polls on next Tuesday, November 5th, and vote according to your best understanding and conscience.

Not only go and vote yourself, but see that all your neighbors go and vote. The duty of the hour is GET OUT THE VOTE.

The Gazette is anxious to have Chambers elected district attorney so the "wrongdoers of the county" may be brought to speedy trial. There has been no neglect by Mr. Runkle in this matter as the Gazette falsely charges. The Gazette, however, only plays flabbergab, which it is noted for. When the Auman boy was accidentally shot, and Mr. Runkle was quick to have the man, who made the mistake put under arrest, the Gazette was in haste to tell the man under arrest, that there was too much haste, "and that it was Runkle and the democrats who are doing it." This was done, believing that a vote could be made for the republicans by so unsavory an attempt. If it were sincere in its desire to have evil doers brought to speedy justice, why does it endorse, by its silence, the delay in the matter of the guilty capitol grafters whose friends, and who stole millions from the public? Bah! And why, when Sheriff Taylor was prompt in arresting the fellows, who so foully killed turnkey Condo, why did this "enemy of evil doers," hasten to jail and offer to give the criminals a good supper at the Brockerhoff and supply them with cigars.

The Gazette last week charged Wm. G. Runkle with incompetency in office. How appropriately Mr. Runkle could prefer the same charge against the present postmaster of Bellefonte for notorious incompetency and general neglect of his duties, as the service here receives the universal complaint of the town. All that seems to concern him is the handsome salary he draws which he brands as his "velvet" and that is his conception of his duties as a public servant.

If the Democrats over the entire county were as negligent about getting out the vote as in some sections of Pennsylvania, there would be no Democratic majorities left in the county at all. This is a cold fact. We hope Pennsylvania Democrats will do their full duty by getting out the entire vote.

ELECTION NEXT Tuesday. Go to the polls if you disapprove the iniquitous capitol graft. It is a sacred duty of every Pennsylvanian to administer a rebuke to the gang on Tuesday by his ballot.

GET OUT EVERY VOTE NEXT TUESDAY.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Joe Goss, of Bedford, has been rusticating for several weeks at his old home at Pine Grove Mills.

See that your neighbor goes to the polls on next Tuesday, November 5th and vote. Votes count, not talk.

John C. Lingle, of Gregg township, an old veteran of the Civil War, has had his pension increased to $15 a month.

Frank Goodhart, of Centre Hall, went to Johnstown last week, where he will be the guest of his brother, Samuel M. Goodhart.

Rev. A. A. Black and Elder R. B. Harrison, of Boalsburg, attended the meetings of the Eastern Synod, at Lancaster last week.

Miss Gertrude Wagner, of Spring township, is recovering from typhoid fever. Her little sister, Mabel, is now ill with the same disease.

The masons have the foundation built and the carpenters are at work erecting a large new barn for W. H. Long, of Howard, to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman, of Centre Hall, went to Lancaster last week and will be absent until November 4th, consequently the dental office will be closed until that date.

John Dreiblebs, of Minn., is visiting his brother, Daniel, and other relatives in old Centre, his native home. He is a farmer and says that corn and oats is a short crop out in his locality.

Electrician Clyde Thomas, of State College, is suffering from the effects of a bad fall last week. While engaged in wiring one of the buildings he lost his balance and fell a distance of 15 feet, breaking several ribs.

Mrs. Mary J. Odenkirk, of Centre Hall, has been visiting the family of her son, Odenkirk, in Lewistown. The Odenkirks, and Miss Aida Sankey, who makes her home with them, expect to move from Lewistown to Burnham.

Dr. T. O. Glenn, of Rixford, visited his wife and two children who have been with Mrs. Glenn's mother Mrs. Woods, at Boalsburg. Dr. Glenn has been spending his time in Centre county, his greatest prize being a large wild turkey.

One day recently Clyde Long, of Howard, was injured at the rolling mill. He was hit on the jaw with a piece of iron. The jaw bone was cracked and nearly all his teeth knocked loose. He is now getting along as well as can be expected.

Marx Brown, of the firm of Brown Bros., of Elmira, N. Y., formerly of Lock Haven, was in Centre Hall recently. He reports that C. W. Danke, who made sale at Centre Hall last month and went to Elmira to live with his daughter, is gradually growing weaker and is confined to his bed.

Recently James Holloway, of Aaronsburg, fell down the hay hole at his barn and dislocated his left shoulder.

The late George W. Foot has been succeeded by his daughter, Miss Alice A. Foot, as editor and manager of the Millinburg Times.

The Houseman carpenter crew have been making extensive repairing and painting on the buildings on the Mensch farm in Penn township, occupied by W. P. Catherman.

Tuesday morning of last week Capt. George M. Boal and Col. John W. Stuart, postmasters at Centre Hall and State College, respectively, started for Washington, D. C., to attend a convention of postmasters being held in the National Capitol. Before returning they will visit the Jamestown Exposition.

The members of the Reformed congregation of Millheim are making preparations to repair their church in that place. A new platform for the pulpit will be built; the entire inside of the church will be re-papered and the outside will be given a new coat of paint. Other repairs are contemplated and when finished the church will present an entirely new appearance.

A new camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America will be instituted at Aaronsburg on this Thursday evening, October 31, in Mench's hall. It is expected to initiate about forty or fifty members. A good degree team has been engaged to exemplify the ritualistic work. The officers will be elected and installed and the evening's work will end with an oyster supper.

Robert Brennan, who lives back of the college farm, is suffering from a broken collarbone. While picking apples, he lost his balance and fell to the ground with such force as to render him unconscious. It is a wonder that he did not break his neck, as he had a bag of apples thrown over his shoulder, and when he fell it encircled his neck, thus adding an additional element of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stover and little daughters Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Abner Stover, all of Altoona, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Stover, in Centre Hall, for the past two weeks. The men were hunting small game while the ladies were devoting most of the time making it comfortable for baby Stover. Ira is engaged in the wood-work department and Abner in the machine shops of the Pennsy.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While