BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Mrs. Nannie Orbison arrived home on Thursday.

-W. P. Humes transacted business in Baltimore, Md., this week. -Mrs. Oscar Wetzel. of Bellefonte, was a recent visitor in Williamsport.

F-lessie Derstine, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in Altoona with his brother Frank.

-Miss Arnold, of Williamsport, has been a guest at the Heylman home on Curtin street.

-Ex-Sheriff Wm. Cronister, of Martha, spent Sunday very pleasantly in Bellefonte.

-Jacob Finklestine, manager of the 5 and 10 cent store, is transacting business in Philadelphia.

-Mrs. Ambrose M. Schmidt and her mother returned Friday from Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

-Mrs. George Levan, of Altoona, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Irvin, on Spring street. -Miss Emma Shreck, the efficient manager of the Theatorium, visited her sister in Lock Haven Sunday. -Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Farley, of Lewisburg, are guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Cox on Willowbank street. -Mr. and Mrs. Strickler were guests on Monday of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk.

They were on their way home to Clad--Mr and Mrs. J. Irvin Underwood and little baby arrived in Bellefonte and are guests at the Underwood home on Spring street. -Mrs. George Evans, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Bess Man, of Philadelphia, have been guests of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on Linn street. -Mrs. F. H. Thomas and daughter

-Mrs. Louise Bush and her daughter, friends at Jersey Shore. -After a delightful visit among their children at Beaver Falls and Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Bartley returned to Bellefonte, on Friday. -Mr. and Mrs. Will Katz, of Bellefonte. are happy over the arrival of a little daughter which came to their home about 2 o'clock Monday morning.

-Prof. Rissel, principal of the Snow Shoe schools, Miss Mary Penny and Miss Amelia Huston, of Snow Shoe, were pleasant visitors in Bellefonte, Saturday

-Mrs. D. H. Hastings visited friends at Williamsport last week. Mrs. Kinsloe. who has been a guest at the Hastings home, left Monday morning for Harris-

John Raymond, of Bellefonte, went to Lewisburg Tuesday where he attended the 9th reunion of the 12th Regt. Pennsylvania Volunteers, of the Spanish American war.

Miss Ada Welshans, a graduate of

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Walker re-

-Rev. A. M. Schmidt will give the last of his talks on Foreign Travels.
Friday evening at 7 30 in the chapel of St. John's Reformed church. His subsect will be in London and the youage.

-Rev. Sidney Winter and wife, of Dunmore, Pa., arrived in Bellefonte this ject will be "London and the voyage home.

*—George W. Rumberger. of Bellefonte. assistant to County Treasurer
Frank K. White, was in Philipsburg Friday visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ed.
Griest, and his son. Harry, as well as

The St. John's Episcopal church. The Bellefonte Academy fo t ball services for next Sunday are as follows:
8 and 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school at 12
a. m. and preaching in the evening at 7.30.

—Miss Olive Hinman, of New York

—Miss Olive Hinman, of New York greeting his many old-time friends.

Harper and Anna Shortledge and Robert returned home in the afternoon.

county returned to their homes at Downs Thursday of last week was elected presi-Osburn county. Kansas, on Sunday. dent of the Independent Telephone As white in the east Mr. Florey purchased sociation of Pennsylvania at its convena car load of apples and shipped them tion in Harrisburg. Frank has been enhome to Kansas

-The Bellefonte hospital is being completed as rapidly as possible, and it will of considerable standing in the associa-not be many more weeks until it will be tion.

-An enjoyable entertainment is promised for Thursday evening, Oct. 31st, Hallowe'en, when the Glee & Mandolin clubs from State College will give a concert in Garman's opera house. A varied program consisting of combined and separate selections by the two clubs as well as vocal and instrumental solos etc. will be given. Admission 25. 35 and drawing large congregations. The sermons by Rev. H. D. Daugherty, of Tyrone, Rev. H. C. Jacobs, and Rev. Alex discourses and cannot help but be productive of great good. This evening Rev C. M. Klepper, of Altoona, will occasion to the finest teams to be seen occasions was such as to almost compeliate and Rev. E. A. Pyles, coal and grain dealer. The of the house, to leave before the show of the house, the house house the house the house house the house had been dealer. evening sermon. Mind these services will be continued every night next week by the pastor, Rev. Stein, assisted by M. C. Piper, of Milesburg.

M. C. Piper, of Milesburg.

—Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock there will be a mass meeting for men in the court house under the auspices of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. The address will be made by John Feltwell, M. D., of Altoona, an elequent and forcible speaker who cannot help but interest and please all who will go there. The special music for this occasion will be furnished by the Altoona Male Quartette is composed of four paid choir singers who are highly talented and very popular in the railroad town. Every man in Bellefonte and vicinity should make a special effort to be present.

Class that Mr. Geiss is a pretty good judge of horseflesh. Then Harvey Lutz, the driver, feels as proud of the animals as a boy with a pair of red topped boots.

—Commissioners John Dunlap and moved the same to State College. This week he moved his family and house hold goods to that place where they expect to make their future home. During their residence in Bellefonte Mr. and Mrs. Williams have made many friends down of the ballot, and they should approach there will be a success. Mr. and Mrs. Every man in Bellefonte and vicinity should make a special effort to be present.

-Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowry and daughter returned on Sunday evening from Williamsport.

-The "Beauty Doctor" in the opera house Monday night was only skin deep. She would do in a pinch.

-The little son of Mr. and Mrs. David Kelley, who had been seriously ill, is now on a fair way of recovery.

-W. D. Walker and daughter, of Wilkensburg, were callers and saw how work was done to get out a newspaper. -John F. Harris, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday in Bellefonte at the home of his mother, Mrs. Henry Harris on Howard street.

-Next year Washington's birthday, Memorial Day and the Fourth of July all fall on Saturday, giving the public three "double holidays."

-Mrs. Reuben Minnick and Mrs. John Minnick and son, of Tyrone, were re-cent guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Newcomer, on Curtin street.

-Dr. Joe Brockerhoff has a crop of about three hundred bushels of fine apples on his farm east of Bellefonte, most of which are ready for market.

-Thad Longwell, of Bellington, W. Va., spent a short time in Bellefonte re-While he is much pleased with the South we think he prefers the North in which to live. -Al. Kline underwent an operation in

Bellefonte hospital last week by Drs. W. S. Glenn, of State College, and M. J. Locke, of Bellefonte. The operation was a success and Mr. Kline is now getting along in good shape. -Grant Charles, one of the obliging clerks at the Bush House, spent Saturday at his home in Boalsburg. They say he was hunting for rabbits but some of his friends would rather believe he was up in that vicinity chasing "dears."

returned to Bellefonte, Friday, after a delightful visit among friends and relatives in Cumberland Valley.

—Mrs. Louise Bush and her daughter, week, and while his father attended to Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway, have been business Arthur was visiting friends and spending part of this week among taking in the sights in the Quaker City.

-Norris Bogle, who is now stationed in Columbia, Central America, came home recently for a short vacation. Budd Good Nice, who has been a guest at the Bogle home for a week or i left Thursday for his home in Philadel

-Thursday afternoon Mrs. H. M. Hiller entertained a thimble party in honor of her guest, Miss Laura Hempnill, of Erie. Mrs. F. W. Crider a flinch party Friday night and Mrs. H. S. Taylor gave a Hallowe'en party on Wednesday and Was in Bellefonte on Tuesday and with Supt. F. H. Thomas went up Buffalo graphic description of the beauty and vastness of the country in which they after some prospective quarries for the

-Mrs. Joseph Borches, with her child and nurse, of Knoxville, who have been visiting in Lewistown for some time, and was at the Bush House for a short time. She is a sister of Mrs. W. F. Reeder.

-Edward Thompson, (colored), has opened a shoe shining parlor in the room next to C. W. Miller's cigar store in Crider's stone building. As Eddie is not W. F. Pander, Mrs. Lang. Harry Valentine, Mrs. Katharine, Dinges, Mrs.

-Miss Betty Heinle will shortly esturned to Bellefonte on Saturday from their wedding tour and left Sunday for their home in New York City. Mrs. Walker's maiden name was Miss Ida ncient in all the above we bespeak for > week. Rev. Winter is the new rector at the St. John's Episcopal church. The services for next Sunday are as follows:

-Miss Olive Hinman, of New York City, was in Bellefonte recently instruct--J. S. Walker and wife, Misses Lula ing both the teachers and pupils in the public schools in drawing. Walker, of Bellefonte, composed an auto subject that has never been taught to party who spent several hours in Lock any great extent but it is really one of Haven, Thursday. After being guests so much importance that it will very at the Fallon House for dinner, they likely be made a regular study in the Bellefonte schools in the future.

-Messrs. Joseph C. Florey and R. L. Kramer. who have been visiting friends in Bellefonte and other places over the be well remembered by Bellefonters, on gaced in the telephone business a num-ber of years and has come to be a man ready for occupancy. The hospital is over crowded with patients and the final work on the new addition will be hailed Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds. He, at one raising bees, and he takes every opporwith delight by the matron and the nurses who have had a good deal to contend with during the last few months.

—An enjoyable entertainment is promessed in the popular rector of the St. It ime, was come eminent in their professions, especially the former who is regarded as one of the finest of electrical experts in the country.

-The Forty-ninth Regiment Penna. Vol., which recently held its reunion at Huntingdon, decided to come to Bellefonte next year. Capt. James A. Quig-ley, of Blanchard, one of the surviving -The special meetings now in progress captains of the regiment was elected in the Bellefonte Methodist church are president of the association for the ensuing year; Capt. J. Miles Green, of Milesburg, one of the vice presidents; R. S. Westbrook, of Altoona, secretary; and G. S. Rumbarger, of Warriorsmark, Rhoads, the coal and grain dealer. The of the house, to leave before the show over the county would not now be negohorses are matched blacks; and are beau- was over. Mr. Garman will, hereafter tiating, with Charles E. Dorworth, an Geiss, the efficient bookkeeper for Mr.

-Mrs. Sabra Garman visited Lock Haven this week.

-Progress is being made on the large sewer on Howard street. -Frank Naginey transacted business in Philadelphia this week. -Harry Hartsock, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents at Pleasant

-James McClure, who is employed at Lock Haven, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his family. -H. H. Rook, wife and interesting little son, of Bradford, formerly of Port Matilda, were pleasant callers. -Father McArdle, the popular pastor of the Bellefonte Catholic church, transacted business in Snow Snow on Tues-

-Miss Kipe, sister of Mrs. M. J. Lock who had been visiting at the Lock residence, left for her home in Philadelphia on Monday.

-Boyd Noland and mother returned home Monday from a pleasant visit among friends and relatives in McKeesport and Pittsburg. -Among the Bellefonte attorneys who had business before the Superior Court this week in Philadelphia were John G Love, John Blanchard and William Zer--Mrs John Lyon was among the Bellefonte ladies who attended the convention of the Daughters of the Amer-ican Revolution in Williamsport this week -Peter Keichline, the confectioner and green grocer, is now illuminating his place of business on west High street with acetylene gas. The plant was put in by A. E. Schadd, the plumber. -Miss Leah Woodson left Wednesday morning for Zerna. Ohio, where she will enter a ladies college. Miss Woodson graduated from the Bellefonte High School last June and is a bright young -If one half we hear in regard to our policemen is true it is high time that council takes action. Conditions are coming to a pretty pass in Bellefonte-there is little hope in our burgess—the problem is up to our council. -Members of the Y. M. C. A., Boy's Department are invited to attend a Hallowe'en reception at the Association building this Thursday evening from 7 to 8.30 o'clock. There will be gymnasium contests etc. and refreshments. -William Bottorff, clerk in John Olewine's hardware store, is now one of the permanent boarders at the Brockerhoff

-Mr. Moore, a representative of the Cambria Steel Company, of Johnstown, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday and with after some prospective quarries for the Cambria Steel Company.

-Miss Winifred Gates, the estimable visiting in Lewistown for some time, came to Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon and was at the Bush House afternoon and was at the Bush House afternoon and was at the Bush House afternoon at the Bush House afternoon and the Bush House afternoon at the Bush Hou Furst, Esq Miss Gates is an exceptionally bright and talented young lady who will certainly make her "mark" in her chosen vocation.

the Western Union Telegraph office in Lock Haven, came to Bellefonte, Monday, where she took charge of the Western Union office.

der's stone building. As Eddie is not able to do hard work, on account of his physicial deformity, he is trying to make a living in this manner. Help him along.

W. F. Reeder, Mrs. James Harris and Mrs. Howard Lingle, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. James Thompson, of Port Matilda, are attending the State Convention of along. the Daughters of the American Revolution which convened in Williamsport this week.

-Alfred Hosterman, of Centre Hill, was a caller on Monday, having re-turned from a six-week's visit to Michigan, taking in some parts of Indiana and Illinois. The trip gave him the picture of perfect health, and he informs us the many Centre county friends out West, as a general thing, are getting the stomach and contents for analysis. along well.

-The Bellefonte Academy fort ball were finally forced back. The Academy played a good game but they were up against the real thing and thus they had to take their medicine.

Academy will buck up against the Capitol, with a view to ascertaining strong "Kiski" on the Beaver field at bow they can be operated the most State College. The Academy hopes to economically and to develop their full date.

-Col. Emanuel Noll left Tuesday morning for Harrisburg to attend the meeting of the Pennsylvania Bee Keepers Association. He also is attending the meeting of the National Bee Keepers Association which convened in that tunity to secure further information on

-Harry Otto has purchased the barber shop of William Storm He will have a large door set in between the cigar store and the shop, and will manage both places. He has secured the services of Fern Showers, one of best tonsorial artists in the county, who will look after the many customers in the barber shop. Mr. Otto is one of our most progressive business men and there is no doubt but what the venture will be a success.

-Edwin Garman, manager of the Garman opera house, hit the 'nail fair on the head when he made up his mind stop the carousing on the gallery of the opera house which has become a nui-sance, and is driving the best people of If T. H. Harter, (the Emigrant from They were secured by Wagner place two secret policemen on the gal-

-Fred Hollobaugh, of Altoona, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte

-There will be some fine pictures at the Theatorium this evening and Satur- Bellefante as "Scottie," the famous base day evening. Don't miss them.

-Miss Emma Stevens, who has been one of the competent operators at the Commercial Exchange, resigned her

-It is high time that council investigates the conduct of the policemen in this boro. The charge has been openly was one of the star players in the box. made in another paper, and it is thecommon talk of the street, that officers are seen on duty in an intoxicated condition, and have been guilty of disorderly and unbecoming conduct. If this is true, such men should not be tolerated a moment longer. -While at work in the trenches for old abandoned sewer, constructed of than the original grade.

out who had the audacity to usurp his were beautiful. royal prerogatives and write the "Unionville Items" this week for the "Centre clenched fist of the size and shape of a Hughes and a most excellent lady who conscientions life. In addition to by both gentlemen.

-Thursday evening Bellefonte was a Gray's cemetery. sort of a mecca for pictorial entertain-ments. Edwin Hadley held forth in Garman's opera house while they continued to do business at the Theatorium. the court house Rev. James B. Stein en-House, what he needs is a good wife, and he oughtn't to study so long about it, either. There are girls in Bellefonte who would be glad for the chance. tertained a large audience with ster ticon views relative to some wond sights to be seen in the far west. colored pictures were beautiful, and tertained a large audience with stereop-ticon views relative to some wonderful colored pictures were beautiful, and the explanation of them by Rev. Stein was interesting and instructive. Those who never visited the far West were given a the entertainment for the benefit of those who could not be present. In passing, we would just say that the Hadley pictures this time failed to size up to expecations of those present, and thus many persons went away somewhat disappoined. The pictures in the Theatorium, from night to night, have been of a superior class and should be liberally patronized. It is not only a place of amusement but it is a place where the propie can get now ideas of things in general, thus they are greatly benefitted by gainst there. ronized. It is not only a place of by going there.

Body Exhumed.

gar Nearhoof who died on the 24th, of september had been poisoned, an order for the exhuming of the body for examnation was procured by E. R. Chambers Esq., from Harrisburg, who, in company with Dr. M. J. Locke and Co. Coroner P. S. Fisher, went to Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Tuesday afternoon, and secured The general appearance of the mucous membrain of the stomach and intestines indicated that no poison had been taken and that he died from natural causes.

Few Good Things in Capitol.

The mechanical engineering class of the State College, headed by Professor A. J Wood, has been engaged for three days in testing the boilers, engines -On November 18th the Bellefonte and electrical machinery of the new line up her strongest eleven on that date. In the game Saturday Bellefonte every electric light in the building for 24 played without Davis and Lyon the hours, and at the close it was announced quarter and best ground gainer on the that the test was most satisfactory, the Considering this machinery having met every require-

Met With Painful Accident.

Russel Hoffman, of Madisonburg a oung man employed at the paper mill in Lock Haven, met with a painful acleft hand were drawn into the callendar ters. rolls and were crushed. In trying to release them with his right hand the thumb on that hand was also crushed. The injured man was taken to the Lock Haven hospital, where all the crushed members were amputated at the first joints. Express.

J. B. Buddinger's wholesale store at Clarence has been purchased by David Chambers and George Uzzle who will take possession to morrow. Mr. Buddinger has been there a long time and built up a large trade, Messrs. Chambers and Uzzle are both up-to-date business men, hard working and honest, who will, no doubt, retain the large patronage of Snyder county) were competent to run a paper that was satisfactory to his party, leading republicans in Bellefonte and lery who will arrest anybody found editorial writer on the Philadelphia Press Rhoads, which shows that Mr. Geiss is a whistling or stamping their feet on the to come to Bellefonte and edit the "Re-

BE sure and go to the polls next Tues- sale.

RECENT DEATHS.

CHARLES SCOTT :- better known in ball player, died Wednesday evening of last week in the Allegheny hospital, from typhoid fever, after an illness of about ten days. He was born in Bellefonte 22 years ago and was the son of the late William Scott. He was of a kind disposition, always willing to do was one of the star players in the benefit base ball games for the Bellefonte hos pital, thus doing his share to make the games a success. Later in the summer he signed with Orvisand then with Winburne. When the season closed he went to Allegheny where his mother and sister now live, and was employed as one of the instructors in the large skating rink the new sewer, at the corner of Howard in that city. He leaves to mourn his and Allegheny streets, ten feet deep an death his mother, Mrs. Lavina Scott, one old abandoned sewer, constructed of sister, Miss Gertrude, and two brothers, heavy oak, was found in good state of Frank and Fred. The remains were preservation. It was laid there so long brought to Bellefonte Sunday morning, ago that no one at this time can recall for interment in the Union cemetery. of it being placed. The street grade at Six members of Co. B, of Bellefonte, that point now is about six feet higher acted as guards of honor, walked on either side of the hearse from the train -"Domino" called last evening to find to the cemetery. The floral tributes MRS. JESSIE GRAY MATTERN:-wife of Democrat." In his rage he displayed a father, Green Gray, at Stormstown, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. She was a through the individual's anatomy who victim of that dread disease, cancer, and through the individual's anatomy who trespussed on his exclusive privilege, Domino" is on a ramage—look out. Domino" is on a rampage-look out, Gray, was born in Halfmoon valley and was 37 years. 7 months and 7 days old.

—Friday we had a pleasant call from W. A. Lengert, Jr., of Philadelphia, who represents Chas. Eneu Johnston & Co., moved to Braddock where they lived manufacturers of printers inks. While until her illness compelled the breaking talking to him we found that his mother up of their home. She was a woman of was a cousin of Rev. James P. Hughes, charming manner and one beloved by all and sometime in the seventies was a who had the pleasure of her acquain-student of the Bellefonte Academy. Her maiden name was Miss Hattie church, she always lived an upright. may be remembered by the older mem- husband she is survived by four chilbers of the institution, Mr Lengert dren, namely: Joseph, Marion, Helen went up to the Academy on Saturday, and Mary. She also leaves her father, and was royally received by Rev. two brothers, Paul and Edward, and one and was royally received by Rev. two brothers, Paul and Edward, and one Hughes who was glad to see him. Mr. Lengert spent part of Sunday with Rev. eral was held at 10 30 o'clock on Moneral was held was held at 10 at 10 o'clock on Moneral was held was held was held was h Hughes on the hill talking over the days day morning. Rev. R. O. Taylor, of long ago, which was thoroughly enjoyed the Stormstown Methodist church, officiated and interment was made in

STURGESS CHARLES :- a former resident of Bellefonte, died early Saturday morning at the home of his son, Clarence, at South Fork. He was about 63 years of age and during his life traveled almost around the world. His life throughou had been one of excitement and varied experience. He was with Philip Collens when they built their rail-road in South America. He was once shipwrecked and had a marvelous experience in saving his life and the lives of others. He had a kind heart and never left an opportunity pass where he could do some good. During the Civil war he served his country faithfully from 61 to 65. He was a member of Company A. 131 P. V. I. Others who were comrades of Mr. Charles say he was a brave soldier and was always found at his post of duty. He was a member of the Grand Army Post at Hastings. He leaves to mourn his death FOR SALE-Bay colt 6 months old. Call on J. two sons and one daughter, Clarence and Paul Carper. Hubbersburg. two sons and one daughter, Clarence and George Casher ;-a prominent citizen of Snow Shoe, died on Thursday, from FOR SALE-Three good work horses, balf mile typhoid fever, from which he had been a north of Robb's Store at Romola. Geo. S. Reports having been circulated in the typhoid fever, from which he had been a sufferer since July. He was getting Quay. when he ate sweet potatoes, causing a rupture of the bowels. He was well and favorably known in that community and will be greatly missed. The funeral shingles. Apply to Mrs. Edward Wasson. Bellefonte R. F. D. 1. took place Saturday.

MRS. MARY YINGLING:-wife of Henry paralysis during the night, and had not previously been ill at all. Her age was 71 years, 9 months and 15 days.

WANTED-Fifty men; steady employment and good wages. Apply at once to Hayes Run Fire Brick Co., Orvis. Pa. Yingling, was found dead in her bed

MRS. MARY LOVETT: - wife of John T. Lovett, died suddenly at 2 o'clock on 24, morning, at her home in Gallagher township, Clinton county, of heart disease. Deceased was aged fifty-six years and is survived by her husband and fifteen children.

FOR SALE:—team of well-mated driving mares, broken to drive single or double, will be 4 years old in the spring. R J. Hartle, Bellefonte, Pa.

JOSEPH MURRY: - a well known veteran home at Sandy Ridge at 7 o'clock Monday morning of the natural debility of old age, in his seventy-second sear soldier of the Civil War, died at his FOR RENT: 4-horse farm located 5% miles east of Jackson ville; reference required. Apold age, in his seventy-second year.

HARRY OVERDORF:—a resident of Booneville, died last Sunday night after a long illness with tuberculosis, aged 34 a long illness with tuberculosis, aged 34 years. Deceased leaves a wife and four young children.

MARTIN ROOK:—who was born in Philipsburg, died in Clearfield, Friday morning. He was a clothing merchant and is survived by a wife, 4 sons and 3 daughters.

They call Ed. Chambers "Colonel"

CAUTION—Notice is hereby given that I will pay no bills whatever contracted by my wife. Collie Keen, of Gregg township, unless ordered by me. Thomas O. Keen. Haas. Schuylkill by me. Thomas O. Keen. Haas. Schuylkill work or Arive anywhere he is hitched: perfectly sound; dark bay, with plenty of life and style: a fine roadster; rising 8 years old. G. G. Fink. Martha. Pa. cident Monday morning. In some man-ner, three fingers and the thumb of his survived by a wife, 4 sons and 3 daugh-

THEY call Ed. Chambers "Colonel" because old Pennypacker appointed him on the Staff. That is enough.

Horse Sale!

At MILLMEIM,

Saturday, Nov. 2 AT NOON.

IOWA HORSES! FROM 2 TO 6 YEARS OLD.

1100 to 1500 pounds

Mated Teams, Single Drivers, Good Strong Feeders. 20 head at the Musser House Stables for inspection prior to HENRY TINGWAD.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Benj. O. Richards - Washington, Pa Rebecca Mayes - Clarence

E. Lewis Shirey - Arrow, Pa

Edith M. Spotts - Fleming Amos M. Singiser Renova Adaline Sarah Woodring - Bellefonte Charley Ross - - Bellefonte Sidney Hendson

VOTE for Kimport as he is a clean, efficient and competent man for the of-

SALE REGISTER.

SATURDAY. Nov. 2:—at his residence, near the Milesburg station, Simon P. Neyhart will self household goods and tract of land containing 33 acres. Sale at 1 p. m. Donald Wensel, auct. WEDESDAY, NOVEMBER 6: sorrell mare cows, all kinds of eattle, bull, sow, shoats, binder, mowers, all kinds of farm machinery, implements, carriage, wagons, etc. by Mrs. James Lingle, 1½ miles cast of Milesburg. Sale at 12 o'clock, sharp. S. K. Emerick, auct.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9:-1% miles north at Yarnell, John R. Eckley will sell a large lot of cattle, sheep hogs and implements. Sale at THURBDAY, NOVEMBER 14:—Live st ck. farm implements, household goods, and real estate, consisting of farm, buildings, etc., of Emanuel Harter, dec'd, i mile west of Rebersburg. Sale at 9:30 a. m. By the executors, Mrs. Etc. lie Loose and Mrs. W. C. Hillbish.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15:-2% miles north of Yarnell on the M. P. Heaton farm, Thos. C. POORMAN will sell farm stock and imple-ments. Sale at 10 a. m. D. P. Wentzel, auct. Saturday. Nov. 16:—George Confer. 2½ miles north of Curtin Iron Works, will sell 2 good work horses, cow. 6 head fine young cattle, lambs of fine breed, brood sow, pigs, buggy, wagon, sled, full line of farm implements, bay, corn. fodder, and other articles. David Wenzel, auct. Sale at 1 o'clock sharp.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 20:-Willis Poorman, of pear Runville, will offer for sale horses, cows, young cattle, hogs, grain, hay and farming

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21st :- at the residence of C. M. Meyers. 1% miles west of Julian, will sell a large lot of cattle. Full description will be published later.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22:—on the John P. Harris farm. 2 miles north of Yarnell postoffice horses, cows. bogs, all kinds of farm machinery, and implements. Sale at 1 o'clock. David Wentzel, anct. Henry Confer. David Wentzel, auct. David Wentzel, auct. Henry Confer.
SATURDAY, Nov. 23:—On the Mrs. Edward Wasson farm. 1½ miles north of Dorsey Green's farm. Buffalo Run, will be sold horses, cows. young cattle, pigs, sows. binder. mower and all kinds of farm machinery, and implements. E. H. Grove, auct.

FRIDAY, Nov. 29: —James W. Gunsallus, of Nit-tany, will make sale of 10 horses, 8 milk cows. 14 head of young cattle, other live stock, farm machinery, implements, &c. A. C. McClin-

THURSDAY, DEC. 12:-G. T. Tibbens, who resides on the Dr. Hale farm. I mile east of Axemann and 2½ miles southeast of Bellefonte, will sell 8 head of horses and colts. 5 mileh 20ws, 15 head of young cattle. 30 shoats and pigs. 3 brood sows, 1 boar, together with bridles, collars, harness and farming implements.

Wm. Decker farm, Daniel Kerns will sell full line of farm stock. A. C. McClintic, auct. MARCH 26th 1908:—1½ miles west of State College, O. A. Johnson will sell a full line of farm implements.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; 2 issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

WANTED - apples. J. C. Rumberger, Belle-fonte, Pa. 41-tf

NOTICES-Trespass notices for sale at this of-nee-5 cents a piece, or six for 25 cents.

POR RENT: -farm of 40 acres near Hecia Park. Apply to Lewis Deitrich, Hubbersburg. 2-43 sufferer since July. He was getting along nicely until last Saturday a week MEN WANTED :- six to eight men wanted to

FOR SALE: sorrel team, weight 700; 3 to 4 years old; broken to harness. Apply to L. Lindemuth, Fleming.

FOR RENT-A house in Bellefonte with bath and all modern conveniences. Location desirable. Inquire at this office.

WANTED-To rent a four-horse farm in this county, at money rent preferred, and occupy ist of April, 1908. Apply to A. D. Ingram. Coldbluff, Washington Co., Pa. 34-4f

WANTED-Lath and shingles, oak and chest-nut, small dimension stuff. A million pieces of each. For dimensions required and other lin-formation call on or address Yeager Mfg. Co.. Bellefonte. Pa. 7-12

FARM FOR SALE:—a fine farm of 152 acres with all modern improvements built 1892; running water, fine fruit; also 500,000 feet of timber. For information inquire of the undersigned, D. D. Royer, Rebersburg.

41-47

AUCTIONEER-L. Frank Mayes, of Lemont, offers his services to the public as an auctioneer; farm and stock sales a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Rates reasonable. Both phones. Address L. Frank Mayes, Box 3, Le-Address L. Frank Mayes, Box 3, Le-

PARM FOR SALE:—known as the Harrison Kline, dec'd, farm, 2 miles east of Bellefonte, in Spring township, containing 270 acres of which 20 acres is woodland. Buildings are in excellent condition; choice fruit. This is one of the finest farms in Nittanyvalley. Will be offered at private sale. D. M. Kline, Bellefonte, D.

INSURANCE:—for cheap insurance see George Garbrick, of Bellefonte, who represents the Sugar Valley Insurance Co. The rate is 30 cents a hundred and the company issues a perpetual policy. It will pay you to call on or acdress Mr. Garbrick when you want anything in this line.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

RELLEFONTE-PRODUCE. The following prices are paid by Sechler & BELLEFONTE-GRAIN.

The following prices are paid by C. Y. Wag-per, for grain :

Wheat, old.