THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

officiating.

Wert's.

to elsewhere.

Yearick.

Sunday at Farmers Mills.

PENN TWP

GREENS GAP.

We are sorry to note the death of Mrs.

the final summons came. Her age was to public sale 250 acres of timber land

F. P. Duck, wife and son Alva, spent

The Bressler birthday party is referred

Della Spayed spent Sunday with Kate

According to the Chestnut Grove items, the West must be all seaport. I hope that when "Domino" returns he will give us some faint idea of what that editor, lawyer or be it even a minister of the gospel, and the farmer brings the dollar, they never dream to ask him whether it was earned on Sunday, just Philips, Chas. Duck, Lizzie and I. C.

Wert, spent Sunday at Frank Grenoble's.

sor is a man who has an unpleasant office. For if he goes and puts up the

The most recent topic of discussion was the Farmers rural telephone line, which was looked for by the farmers, from Penn Cave down to Madisonburg.

act some business which you can do by less somebody takes hold of it, and goes ahead, we will never get it. You often hear somebody talking about this mat-ter, but by talk very little can be accom-

HOWARD.

Charles White, of Beech Creek. con-

H. F. McDowell and D. G. Allison have been purchasing stock.

Rev. Dudley, of Blanchard, preached his farewell sermon in the Christian chapel last Sunday evening. The mem-bers all mourn the loss of this esteemed divine, and to show their appreciation

Pletcher, rendered excellent music for

A series of meetings are being con-

Ed. Green has been mourning the loss

OAK HALL.

weeks visit with relatives at Altoona.

Mr. Harrison, wife and daughter,
Rhoda, of Boalsburg, and Howard Bigelow and family, of Baileyville, were visitors at the Burn's home, Sunday.

Market Barn's home, Sunday.

Margaret Peters, visited over Sunday, with her mother, Mrs. Sue Peters.

Harry Ishler and family, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday at Elmer Ishler's.

Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Rishel and Mrs. Irvin were visitors in Boalsburg, Thursday.

Mrs. Shugarts returned home after a tractor, erected a barn on the W. H.

Long mill property, last Tuesday.

with relatives at Lemont.

move around in his bome.

the occasion of immersions were made.

mother and the boys.

information of the same.

Samuel Reitz's, Saturday.

great "western seaport" is like.

inflammatory rheumatism.

Rev. S. A. Snyder officiating.

Don't worry about the Unionville scribe, I met him out in Klondike; he is getting subscribers to the Centre Democrat; on my way home I stopped at Yarglad to say, is much improved. nell, took dinner, it being Andrew Walker's 75th birthday; and his friends and and Sunday in Madisonburg.

We are sorry to note the death of John William Hazel, infant son of A. J. Hazel, of Madisonburg, which occurred on Wednesday noon. Interment was made relatives were giving him a surprise. had the pleasure of meeting many old friends and relatives, formerly of Centre county, and relatives of Andy Walker's, and had the pleasure of shaking hands with Mr. Sharer and wife, of McCartny, Clearfield county; he says he is an old soldier and a subscriber to the Centre Democrat-his wife is a sister of Andy Walker, the only full sister living; 54 morning. Thursday morning previous, took dinner and in the evening there was a crowd of youngsters, headed by the Yarnell scribe, who took us by surprise; you bet they were a jolly crowd. paralytic stroke, and never regained consciousness till Sunday morning, when There we met Florence Leathers, of Mt. about 65 years. Interment was made in Eagle, one of the teachers at Yarnell and the St. Paul's cemetery on Wednesday, also Mildred Ogden, of Bellefonte, both also Mildred Ogden, of Beneforde, both ladies are giving good satisfaction as teachers. After spending a couple of hours in amusement, such as ringtag band and one daughter. The friends and neighbors will certainly miss her. She is survived by her husand the bear dance, they left for home Last Saturday p. m., the administra-tors of R. A. Douty, deceased, exposed Out there in the woods they always take their dog along with them, as on the way home, this time in the year, they can catch a coon or two for breakfast. After situated in Greens Gap. The tract was sold to J. A. Ertel for the consideration traveling a quarter of a mile the dog of 1 dollar per acre.

D. E. Rachau and wife Sundayed at scented a track, and was soon heard to bark up a tree, on the hill; so all started to see what the dog had; having no gun nor light, they came back for help, and reported having a half dozen coons on a tree. Some 15 or 20 of us went there to assist and help kill the coons. Before getting there they had made all calculations as to what they would do with the coons' hides and how they would knock out the teddy bear; and soon all the young kids would be carry-ing zip coon in their arms. They formed in a ring around the tree; then one young man volunteered to climb up and knock coons down, and keep them in the ring until the dogs catch and kill them; when he got up, so he could see what to do, just think, it was a poor old cat. When you go to Yarnell don't mention "coon hunt," if you expect to stay all so they have the dollar. No difference when it was earned. But as soon as On Friday Wm. Oscar, a son of Green they hear of a man doing a small piece Watson, killed a wild turkey, that dressed to lbs. On Sunday they had it of work that is actually a work of necessity, they raise a kick and denounce roasted-D.W. McCloskey and wife were invited and made the guests of honor, effort to stop these great corporations from working on Sunday? We know report having a good time, and say that Watson and daughter Theresa, why! The corporations are rich and know how to get a good dinner and how to entertain their guests.

WADDLE.

Bond Hartsock, formerly of this place, but now of Columbus, Ohio, spent a few weeks at his parental home, J. W. Hart-a very jolly party at their home on Thursday evening. Oct. 31; those who were present were: Ethel Furst, Mary The Misses Mary and Bessie Hoy gave Furst, Ruth Stine, Elsie Hartsock, Mary Furst, Ruth Stine, Elsie Hartsock, Mary Hartsock, Lillie Stine, Jessie Way, Lizzie Jones, Annie Jones, Ella Moore, Inez Sellars, Mary Hoy, Bessie Hoy, and Howard Hall, Guyer Stine, Clark Hartsock, Lester Meek, Ross Sellars, John Clark, Joseph Miller, John Hoy. The refreshments served were cake, four kinds of candy, popcorn and ice cream. They spent a very enjoyable time playing games, and as there were several musicians present they made good use of the piano, and, of course, it being Halloweer night, those who came in rigs had to look out for jokes, and Mr. Miller did not even get cross, if his rig was taken up to Lamburn bank, and Clark and Howard were not cross because they had so many fences to tear down; they took their departure at the wee small hours of the morning, feeling very grateful to Mary and Bessie for less some business which you can do by phone, you have to go two to three miles to the nearest phone. Why not make an effort to have a line installed. Unless somebody takes hold of it, and goes their good time.

Gray Hartsock, of Altoona, spent Sunday at his home, J. M. Hartsock's.

BOGGS TWP. BELL GROVE.

Thomas Boggs and Wm. Walker, of Milesburg, were pleasant callers at Harry F etzer's, Sunday. Mrs. Alice Walker and daughter Ellie, were callers at her mother's. Mrs. John Spotts spent Sunday with Mrs. Fetzer. L. V. Wagner has purchased a new

John Mokle and wife Bears are getting very tremendous around here. George Spotts say they have destroyed about twenty five bushel of corn for him. Michael Witherite is working for Harry Fetzer, of Runville. Mrs. Edna Bush was a pleasant caller at her parents, Sunday. Tracie Shipley was a pleasant visitor at her sister's, Mrs. Bush.

SNOW SHOE TWP.

· CLARENCE. Harvey Witherite is on the sick list. Messrs Chambers and Uzzle are rushing business at Clarence. Earl Brown was seen on our streets

Ray Crispen and Karl Krone spent Sunday at the home of Herman Lucas. What's the attraction boys?

Mary Chambers and sister Lizzie, after being employed at the Park Hotel, Williamsport, has returned home. Wm. Hansom, of Orvis, was seen on Mrs. Mary Holt, of Johnstown, is vis. came home last Saturday to gather in the winter apples and chase the "bunour streets Saturday night.

iting friends here.
Mabel Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, on Hallowe'en night gave a party to a number of friends; all report having a fine time.

of his bird dog, which he values very highly, and would thank anyone giving

BOALSBURG. Mr. Black and wife returned home after visiting friends at Altoona and May and Sallie Stover, of State College, spent Wednesday eve in town,

The primary school, will hold an entertainment Friday eve, Nov. 8. Admission 1sets.

Mr. McCrie, wife and daughters, Margaret and Elizabeth, of Pittsburg, are spending some time at the home of S. H. Bailey

Don't forget that your conduct in your business and social life, reflects the amount of Christianity that you really Robert Reitz and wife were visitors at Another season has come and gone, and autumn, in all her grandeur and beauty has crowned the mountain and valley with a beautiful tinge of colors

Miss Virgin Lucas, of Bellefonte, was a guest of her parents', J. B. Lucas', Sunday. Claude Johnston and Mr. McQuilien, two pleasant young men, of Wallaceton, having had a jolly time hunting on the Geo. E. Grenoble, who has been very mountains, near our town, departed for their homes, Friday, with their pockets ill with inflammatory rheumatism, we are flowing with wild game—such as squir-rels, rabbits and turkeys. C. N. Philips and wife spent Saturday

Tuesday night, Oct. 29, quite a jolly crowd gathered with a harvest home donation, and wended their way towards the parsonage, where they surprised Rev. and Mrs. Stewart to the full extent.

in the Reformed cemetery at Madison-burg, on Friday forenoon. Rev. Wetzel Rev. Kelley, of Altoona, was seen on our streets recently.
Miss Nelly Rothmel spent Sunday

Israel Rachau, which occurred Sunday with her parents at Hublersburg.
Charles Williams and wife, also Danwhile in the barn milking, she had a iel Nabe, of Williamsport, are guests' at the home of D. F. Poorman. Charles Rodgers and lady friend, Miss Sager, of Tyrone, are being entertained at the Charles Lucas home.

Some say they are sleeping, others say they have gone on a strike. Who? The people of Runville, on Sunday morning; to the scribe's eye, it reminds him of the farmer who couldn't be religious in fly A farmer once came to a pastor and asked that his name be taken off the church books "What is the trouble, brother, Jones?" asked the surprised pastor. "I supposed you were a faithful follower of the lamb." "Well, I sorter believe that myself, but there is just no use talkin, a man can't serve the Lord where he has to milk four cows in fly time. After the first heavy frost, I'll try this church business again, but just now, I'll either have to sell the cows, give up the church, or be a durned hypocrite."
So now, kind friends, think it is high time to awaken and, "Fly to the church next Sunday," for fly time is over now.
Claton Ramsey and family, of Altoona, are visiting at Forden Walker's.

Hiram Walker and wife, of Altoona, I agree with the Spring Mills scribe in reference to Sunday farthing. When a farmer owes a dollar to a merchant, Wednesday Nov. 20

Wednesday, Nov. 20. Ouite a lot of mischief was done on Hallowe'en night; mischief that led to destruction. We have what you call a "smart set" of little boys in our commu-We have what you call a nity, who need the careful attention of the "persuader" more than anything

John Johnson, of Indiana county, is siting his sisters here. him as a mean cuss. Why not make an Miligan Walker was the first man to atcher porkers in the village-"Toddy" always at the head, Mrs. Jacob Lucas and Mrs. Mary Eckthe farmer is poor.

Minnie Grenoble is helping to take care of her brother George, at Madisonley were called to the bedside of Mrs. Eckley's daughter, Miss Mae, who was very poorly at Bellefonte, Sunday. burg, who has been seriously ill with Mrs. Willis Poorman gave a "pumpkin party" to a few of her intimate G. G. Jackson, Elmer and Clarence friends one evening last week. Dr. E. S. Dorworth, of Bellefonte, has been seen on our streets quite fre-The public roads at some places are in Furst Harnish, one of Altoona's sporty young men, was seen promenading our > Williams, Mrs. George Jodon, Mrs. Alice Walker and daughter, at Bush Grove, Friday.

UNION TWP.

The farmers in our section are busily This is one thing that would make this engaged in storing away their seasons part of Centre county look more procrop and preparing for the bleak and cold winter, which is fast approaching. gressive like, and, besides that, would make it very convenient to all of the We are glad to note that Jacob Spotts, farmers. As it is, if you want to trans-who was seriously injured by falling from an apple tree, is slowly recovering.

O. A. Shirey, wife and two little daughters, departed last Saturday for Harrisburg, where they will make their future home for an indifinite time. Miss Sarah Resides has returned home after spending a few days with friends at Bell Grove. Mrs. Lona Hinton, after spending the summer at Pittsburg, has returned to Mrs. Maud Rider and sister, Edith Eckley, of Bellefonte, visited their parental home recently.

John Hagan, the cider press man, has been constantly employed the last two weeks.

Miss Mittie Lucas, our popular milliconsequently one little girl in Bellefonte

Miss Mittie Lucas, our popular milli-ner, has been supplying the head gear for many ladies in parts of Nittanyval-Lewis Shirey Lewis Shirey and wife have departed for Arrow, Pa., where they will make John Mokle and wife spent a few days | their future home.

rith relatives at Lemont. Harry Lucas, of Pitcairn, has return-Geo. Wistar has been an invalid for ed to his work after a few weeks' sojourn almost a year and at this date is able to at his home. He was successful in capturing two turkeys during his bunting Huston McKibben, one of Nittany valley's prosperous farmers, spent last Sunday with D. L. Allison.

Dora Lucas, of Unionville, spent Sunday with her mother.

SNOW SHOE TWP. FOUNTAIN.

L. C. York, wife and three children, spent Thursday in Bellefonte. Edward Mayes and Benjamin Richard of his services, resolutions of respect departed for I were handed him by Walter Cook. A be employed. choir, under the leadership of A. A. Mrs. Andy departed for Driftwood, where they will

Mrs. Andy Oswalt, after visiting friends and relatives here, returned, to her home at Altoona. Frank McCartney, who has been ill of typhoid fever for some time, we are ducted in the Disciple church; a number ad to say, is improving very fast, Mrs. Harry Yeager, of Gorton, was a pleasant caller at the home of Mrs. Clara Howard, is spending the winter with her son Logan, at DuBois.

Mrs. Lizzie Poorman, who has been spending some time here with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Heaton, has gone telling Ezra Fisher who the Hallowevers Prof. Jesse Leather, principal of Miles- to Yarnell where she will visit her many burg high school, spent Sunday with his friends and relatives. Ed. Beightol spent Friday at Mo-Toner Robb and wife, of Pitcairn,

Mrs. Park Bullock met with a very serious accident a few weeks ago by falling down the cellar steps and hurting her arm badly; we are glad to say bership to ask a fellow member a favor that she is getting along very nicely.

YOU HAD A NECK As Long as This Fellow,

Some of our women are so absent minded that they forgot to milk the cow, one evening, but said the cow gave a lot of milk the next morping.

Blanche Snavely and Helen Minnick left on Saturday for Ohio, where they will visit friends for some time. Clyde Swartz has returned home after ents and friends. Gee, but didn't it rain, on Saturday. Sam Hoy and wife, of Hublersburg, vere guests of James Gunsallus and famly, on Sunday.

Mrs. Ed. Dorman and children, of Snydertown, visited friends here, on one day last week on business. Rose sheats and sister, Mrs. Joe Miller are visiting friends in Jersey Shore.

Harry Kessinger, of Flemington, visited his parents here over Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Mitchel and son James, of Williamsport, and Jim Treaster, of West Virginia, were all guests of D. O.

Dorman and family, last week. George Lowery and family, of Jack-

Mrs. Howard Brickley, after spending a week under the parental roof, has one to Altoona, where they are going to take up housekeeping.

John A. Minnick has returned home from Crossforks, where he spent some ing to di time very pleasantly with his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Young, and family. Mrs. Rossman was having her teeth extracted while there. William Sheats was to Bellefonte one day last week on business. Mrs. G. W. Tolberthas returned home after spending a very pleasant time with friends and acquaintances in Penns be there and wishing Mr. Walker many and Brush valley.

Mrs. Fred Tillman and children, of Mrs. B. F. Crawford, who is ill, is reported some better.

hunters, and trappers, while making his of Roland; Adam Walker, of Vail; Wm. round Sunday morning, looking at his traps, came to one in which there was a large black bear, the bear put up a desperate fight, but Mr. Snavely soon put an end to bruin with his trusty gun. The bear was too big to carry, so Mr. Snavely came home and reported his luck to his brother Elmer and Charley Gunsallus A. Confer Mrs. Rachel Walker, Wing brother Elmer, and Charley Gunsallus. A. Confer, Mrs. Rachel Walker, Win-who hitched up and went after Mr. Bru-in; there was quite an excitement at the and Misses Gertrude and Frances Con-Snavely home when the bear was fer, of Yarnell. brought in as nearly everybody in town was there to see it. Budd Allison was there to see it. Budd Allison and Clyde Swartz were there with their cameras and took different views of bruin and his slayer, Mr. Snavely as well as his dog. The bear weighed 133lbs. Mr. Snavely said the bear tried its best to get at him, but it could not get any farther than the chain would allow him to, and he only shot him once. The bear dead. Mr. Snavely then poked him with the end of his gun and the bear bit into the end of the barrel of his gun till it left deep marks on the gun; anyone doubting this can come and see for him-

MILESBURG.

Mrs. Jennie Sellars, from Lewistown, and her two little poys, visited her sister Mrs. W. B. Grafmyre, of Milesburg, recently; then on last Sunday all went Millhall to visit their aged mother, Mrs. Mary J. Armstrong, who is in her 83rd year. All her children met her at 83rd year. All her children met ner acher son Charles on the Sanders farm, with the exception of one, as follows: Irvin, of Salona; Charles B., of Millhall; Grant, of Warren; Mrs. W. B. Graffmyre, of Milesburg; Mrs. Jennie Sellars, of Lewistown, also her son-inlaw, Henry Meyers, of Millhall; Walter Meyers, her grandson, with his little daughter-making four generations. Mrs. Sellars expects to take her mother to Lewistown to spend the winter.

Henry Kohlbecker and Charles Metz are off on their vacation trip to Philadel-phia, Patterson, N. J., and New York

Frank Kohlbecker, of Jeanette, is at-tending to business of the hotel while Henry is away.

On Friday evening, Nov. 15th, at 7.30, p. m., the Rev. J. C. Reeser, presiding elder of Centre District, will preach in the Evangelical church in Milesburg; all are Bessie A. Miles entertained the senior class of the Bellefonte High school at a fancy dress party on Hallowe'en. Mrs. Levina Scott, Frank Scott and family, Gertrude Scott and Margaret Brooks, of Allegheny City, were recent visitors of Mrs. Mary McKinly.

Mrs. W. M. Way, of Stormstown, spent Wednesday with her brother, W. S. Fisher. Martha Peters, of Hecla, spent a few days at her uncle's, D. D. Hoover's. Raymond Fisher left this morning for Derry where he has secured a position were that stole his buggy and scratched the paint on it.

Hello! boys, how did you like drinking cider out of the gum hose up the road, the other night? Don't presume on your church mem-business associates.

Provide PROTECTION for your HOME and to your FAMILY. A Certificate of Stock With Life Insurated Details on Request. Send for Calendar-1908.

PENNSYLVANIA SAVINGS FUND AND LOAN ASSOCIATION 48 FOURTH AVE. PITTSBURGH, PA

YARNELL

Geo. Quick, of Milesburg, is doing carpenter work at J. A. Confer's.
Claude Yarnell, of Altoons, spent a few days recently with his father.

Messrs Chas. Poorman and Walter Wensel, of Holts Hollow, spent Sunday

Typ, from Northumberland, were visiting friends and relatives here.

The Reformed church held commu-

A party of Blanchard people spent pending some time taking in the sights Sunday, very pleasantly at J. A. Confer's. It was composed of the following: at Pittsburg.
William Webner, Jr., who is employed C. A. Williams and wife, Milford Gard-Harry Shawley departed last week for Altoona where he has secured a good November and December.

> circulating among friends here last week munity, which was a sale advertised. W. M. Grove has his sale advertised and taking orders for "Teddy Bears," W. M. Grov He gave a free show last Thursday ev- for March 25.

ening, being an up-to-date clown. Gorton the first of the week.

Elwood Winkleman, of Altoona, and Guy Ertly, of Walker, were visitors in our town, on Sunday.

J. Ed. Confer sold his coon, last week, to O. J. Smith at Howard.

Stit Mrs. Lizzie Poorman departed Friday 22. our town, on Sunday, George W. Young was to Bellefonte for Clearfield, where she will assist in who is ill with typhoid fever. One of the most enjoyable gatherings ed and fenced, last week. ever held in this vicinity, took place at the home of A. G. Walker at Yarnell, spirited horse and is seen going at a last Thursday. It being his seventy-fifth birthday. The day was an ideal one, and friends from far and near came meetings at the Swamp church at Farm sonville, were guests of Oliver Yarnell to spend a most enjoyable time. The ers Mills. and family, on Sunday. getting up and serving a fine dinner, need not be learned. David McCloskey, a highly respected gentleman, of Win ed with corn grains, the morning after gate, was present but spent the greater Hollow eve. part of the p. m. under a shade tree try-ing to digest the large amount of dinner he ate. The services of a Dr. were not Mrs. A. C. Young, and family.

Mrs. P. S. Rossman and Miss Marie
Young were to Lock Haven, Saturday.

Mrs. P. S. Rossman was having her teeth ex
Were made. Mrs. Rachel Walker, the were made. Mrs. Rachel Walker, the bear roaming around in Chillisquaque township, making the natives feel un-Bellefonte, were visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Baker, and family, several days Walker, wife and son, of Invista. I week. happy returns of the day. Following is Walker, wife and son, of Juniata; Isaac Sharer and wife, of McCartney; James Christian Endeavor, in the Ev. church Sunday evening at 6.30; preaching at 7.30 McCloskey and wife, of Wingate; James everybody welcome. Poorman, wife and Miss Elsie Bottorff. of Snow Shoe; Clayton Ramsey and family, of Altoona; Albert Gill and wife, William Snavely, one of our expert of Pleasant Gap; Ez. Confer and wife,

BOGGS TWP.

FAIRVIEW.

Those who visited Snow Shoe this an attack, week, from this place were E. Z. Con- Get from fer and Irvin Confer. and Katie Confer spent Sunday at E.

cut finger.

Mr. Brown, of Philadelphia, was a caller at E. Z. Confer's, last Saturday.

mit Hill, visited at A. J. Lucas, Sun-Mrs. Kattie Loder, of Mingoville, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Hannah Lucas.

een party was, ask Saddie.

The young folks attended church at Pleasant valley, last week. If you want to know how the Hallow-

SPRING MILLS.

On Sunday a few snow flakes were seen flying.

Amelia Hettinger and daughter Kath-nion, on Sunday forenoon. Carrie Rutter, who was visiting Mrs. John Shook, and other relatives here, during the summer, has returned to her home in Ohio.

Oliver Corman has advertised that he will have oysters and fresh fish during Harry Allison, health officer, has been

D. W. McCloskey, of Wingate, was making trips to the schools in our comning, being an up-to-date clown.

Clayton Yarnell transacted business at be ready for travel the latter part of this

Our teachers will attend Teachers' Institute during the week of November 18-for Clearfield, where she will assist in narsing her son-in-law, Ivan Dunlap, to the residence of C. C. Bartges, which was granted to him by Court, was open-and family, on Sunday.

William Long and wife expect to go cellent dinner that had been prepared to housekeeping on November 12th, in Mr. Romick's house in Snydertown.

greatest feature of the day was the exstyle. It was carried on until several men got provoked and presented arms which quelled the racket. Talk about which quelled the racket. Talk about corn being scarce, it didn't seem at all true by the way the streets were cov-

The miller has much meal from new

A number of hunters, from Altoona, only aunt of the host, who is eighty-nine township, making the natives feel un-years of age, was present and gave a pleasing recitation. Late in the day the and if the bear shows his teeth, we

WARM AND DRY TO STAY WELL

Noted Authority Gives a Simple Prescription.

ALSO TELLS HOW TO TAKE

Tells the Readers of This Paper How To Prepare the Mixture at Home And Other Advice.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufac-turers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of

Get from any good prescription phar-macy one-half ounce Fluid Extract R. B. Lucas and wite. James Krebbs Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bot-Charley Shawley, from Milesburg, tle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or Mr. Brown, of Philadelphia, was a caller at E. Z. Confer's, last Saturday.

The people in our vicinity began butchering already.

James Watkins and family, of Summit Hill wisited at A. L. Lucas, Summit Hill wisited at the first sign of the latter that the first sign of the latter than the uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggist in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these in-gredients, or if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for

The best light to read by is the natural, steady white flame from

Family Favorite Oil The Best for Illuminating. The Best for

The nearest approach to the natural white rays of the sun. Odorless, clear-white as water-won't soot, won't smoke, won't char Your dealer recommends it. Ask him.

WAVERLY OIL WORKS

Oils for all Purposes PITTSBURG, PA.

Three for One!

No. 1, Harland's Cook Book, Price $2.00. No. 2, Home Magazine, one year,

TheHoosier Kitchen Cabinet

No. 3,

ALL FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.

Come at once, for the supply of these premiums is limited,

R. BRACHBII Both Phones

[BELLEFONTE