

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bezer spent Sunday with friends in Williamsport. A crowd of other matter obliges us to condense correspondence somewhat. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards returned home Thursday evening from Philadelphia. Mrs. James A. Stein and children left Friday for Carlisle where they will visit friends for several weeks. Wm. Gainsford left Friday for Philadelphia where his wife has been visiting for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Florence Dale left Thursday for Williamsport where she consulted Dr. Hoskins, the eye specialist. Mrs. Frank Derstine, who has been visiting friends in Bellefonte, left Thursday evening for her home at Altoona. Mrs. Jennie Hastings and daughter Sarah, left Bellefonte Friday for Harrisburg to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ross Hickok. Dr. and Mrs. David Dale went to Philadelphia where they attended the McPherson-Cloud wedding, Wednesday of last week. Miss Helen Ceader went to Philadelphia recently expecting to spend two weeks there, in South Bethlehem and near Wilmington. Norman Thompson, the young automobilist, and Arthur Bezer took in the sights at the automobile show in Philadelphia last week. Mrs. James B. Lane has closed her house for the winter and left for Philadelphia Thursday where she will be with her mother and sister. Mrs. W. C. Cassidy left Thursday for quite an extended trip which will include Pittsburg, Canton, Ohio, Philadelphia and New York. Col. Hugh S. Taylor left Thursday for Williamsport where he attended a state meeting of the officers of the Pennsylvania National Guard. Dr. Wm. Laurie attended the adjourned meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery which was held at Winburn, Clearfield county, on Tuesday. Mrs. C. F. Yorks and young son arrived in Bellefonte, Thursday, and became guests at the home of Col. and Mrs. Emanuel Noll on Allegheny street. Monday evening the Bellefonte Council gave the policemen instructions to arrest any one who runs an automobile through the borough over the speed limit which is ten miles an hour. Morris W. Cowdick and daughter, Mrs. P. M. Kamiser and little son, arrived in Bellefonte on Thursday evening from Niagara Falls, called here on account of the serious illness of Paxton Cowdick. Tomorrow evening if you desire to see an interesting game of basketball go to the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The Milton team will be present and will interest you. Turn out and help the boys defray expenses. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company contacted with the Bellefonte Electric Company to light their passenger station in this place, the baggage room and signal tower and for about sixty incandescent lights distributed throughout the Bellefonte yards. Capt. Henderson, who has had charge of the local Salvation Army for the last fourteen weeks, will say farewell to his friends here on Sunday evening. From here he will go to Philadelphia where he will take unto himself a bride. He is quite a fluent speaker and while in Bellefonte labored hard and gently in the cause. He is a pleasant gentleman and while here made many friends. Milt Johnson, the Bellefonte marble man, laid a magnificent stretch of concrete pavement in front of L. T. Munson's and J. H. Sands' residences on Allegheny street, which greatly improves their appearance and adds much value to the properties. It is now up to the residents on that street to continue the good work and give the town in that section the appearance as though somebody lived there. W. E. Tyson, formerly of Bellefonte, has disposed of coal business at Tyrone to Jos. M. Howell. "Billy" as we are wont to call him, has gone back again into the employ of the P. R. R., having accepted an excellent position as assistant to A. A. Witter, chief operator of the Tyrone division. Mr. Tyson's long experience as a telegraph operator in past years amply qualifies him for the new position. By action of the Bellefonte Ministerium held on Monday it was resolved that the Union Thanksgiving services be held in the Presbyterian church, 10.30 o'clock Thursday morning, Nov. 28th. The Thanksgiving sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Fred W. Barry, pastor of the Lutheran church. The offering for the day will be given to the Women's Auxiliary for the benefit of the City hospital and it ought to be large. For the benefit of the piano fund the Bellefonte Young Men's Christian Association has booked the following three entertainments: On December 3rd, the Otterbein male quartette with H. U. Engle as impersonator. December 17th, "At the Ferry," a home talent entertainment under the direction of the Central Lyceum bureau, and on January 27th, the Khony Boys concert company. All the above are good entertainments and friends of the association as well as the public at large should patronize them liberally. One of the progressive business men in Bellefonte is John Dubbs, the implement dealer, but if he wants to do business in his new building before the ground is covered with the "beautiful" he will have to hustle. The large warehouse is located over the race, north of Peter Keichline's store, the dimensions of which are 60x35 feet. The sides will be covered with pressed steel, representing brick, and will have large double doors on the east and west sides, so it will be convenient for taking machinery in and out. The railroad track is within a couple of feet of the large entrance, on the west side, so that farming implements can be taken off the cars into the building without any trouble, and at little expense. The erection of this edifice is an indication that Mr. Dubbs is flourishing like a green bay tree, which his friends are glad to see. Prosperity continues until a building will be required that will cover the race from the present building to Gen. Gamble & Co's mill. Remember, however, to trust or combine will be allowed.

Miss Lula Pacini returned Tuesday from Philadelphia. D. F. Luse and wife, of Centre Hall, transacted business in town a few days ago. Mrs. Edward Woods, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday among friends in Tyrone. Guy Kling and friend, Miss Goldie Cane, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. Harry Hutchinson, the P. R. R. ticket agent, spent part of Sunday with friends in Tyrone. James McClure, who is working in a harness shop in Lock Haven, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his family. Mrs. J. W. Gephart recently purchased the Hagerman property on East Linn street, the consideration being $31,250. Dr. John Sebring sold his old Franklin machine to Dr. Huff, of Milesburg, and bought another Franklin, of a later model. Mrs. Benj. Gentzel and granddaughter, Miss Clara Cole, left Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole, in Williamsport. Friday morning Harry Garbrick, Harry Hafer, Ed. Nolan, Harry Emehizer and Jake Cole left for Benners Run in search of game. D. A. Russel has resigned his position as chemist at the Bellefonte furnace to accept a similar but more lucrative position at Meadville. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nolan and son, and Miss Rebe Nolan, spent a couple of days in Curwensville as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nolan. Miss Lizzie Dosler, one of Tyrone's attractive young ladies, is having a pleasant time in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David O'Neil. John Love and Thomas Howley took Mrs. Henry Gordon to the Danville asylum Saturday morning. She had been in delicate health for sometime. Frank Bauer is now Frank Sasserman's assistant tonsorial artist in his parlors under the Centre county bank. He is a pleasant gentleman and a good shaver. William Baird, assistant postmaster at Juniata, spent Sunday in Bellefonte and Milesburg. "Billy" is a good fellow but for the life of him he can't remain away from Bellefonte. Edwin F. Garman intends to close up his store on Allegheny street as soon as possible and retire from business for the purpose of devoting all of his time to managing the Garman estate. A new brick crossing has been laid on Howard street from the Curtin residence to the G. Murray Andrews corner, a decided improvement over the old rickety stone crossing that has been there for years. The young Indiana Normal student who was injured in a football game, with the Bellefonte Academy several weeks ago, and who has been in our hospital ever since, was able to be taken home Friday. Pavements should not be flooded with water during freezing weather, the ice resulting thereby making it dangerous for pedestrians, and injuries resulting makes the property holder liable for damages. J. W. Wilson left Philadelphia Monday morning on a week's visit to his daughter, Mrs. Ida McClintic, at Linden Hall, and on his way back will stop off at Port Matilda to see his half brother, Geo. Ammerman. Harry Otto opened his barber shop for business last Saturday with Mr. Bower, of Lewistown, in charge. He has had the room thoroughly done over and renovated and patrons will find every convenience there. William Witmer, a brother of Oliver Witmer, who is employed at Allison's plumbing establishment, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital Friday suffering from an attack of appendicitis. The young man was operated upon Saturday morning. Monday brought light skies of snow and sprinkles of rain to make things disagreeable generally—but there was a silver lining when the pretty school girls came flocking in by 2 1/2 and 4 o'clock with the arrival of each train, to attend the Institute. John Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg, ex-county superintendent of schools, honored our sanctum with a call and an hour's pleasant chat, a few evenings ago. From having been a soldier in the late war, he became a member of the legislature and at present is serving as a J. P. for Miles township. T. G. Purdue, who has served as a watchman at the Huntingdon Reformatory for nearly twelve years, has been compelled to give up his job at least until spring on account of ill health. He will make his home with his son E. J. Purdue in Coleville, and if he sufficiently recovers will return in the spring to his job which is held open for him. The exterior of L. T. Munson's new house on Allegheny street is about completed but it will be two months yet before the interior is finished and the house ready for occupancy. During the past week he has had a concrete pavement put down in front of his property and in order to keep in style Mr. J. H. Sands also had one put down, so that the pavement on that side is concrete from the alley to the Hamilton property. On Sunday morning a colored representative of Booker Washington's Normal and Industrial Institute, at Tuskegee, Alabama, appeared in the Lutheran church, and delivered an address in behalf of that institution, for the education of colored students. The object is to raise its endowment fund to $1,000,000, for which purpose $1,724,336 are needed. In the evening the young man also delivered an address in the Presbyterian church in behalf of the Institution. He is a colored individual of pleasing address, speaks fluently and ably presented the laudable purpose of Booker Washington's Normal, which now has 1,504 colored students. The train work at the P. R. R. in Bellefonte has been transferred from the ticket office to the tower north of High street. All the railroad business will be done there, thus relieving Harry Hutchinson, the ticket agent, of considerable work. The Postal Telegraph Co. still has its quarters in the ticket office, and there are two operators in the tower, Samuel Tressler, at one time a clerk at the station at Lemont, goes on at 6 o'clock in the morning and remains until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Otis W. Pearce, of McGartney, Pa., goes on at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and works until midnight. A man by the name of Fetzer is in the tower at the Morris branch, between here and Milesburg.

Miss Bertha Noll spent Sunday in Altoona with her sister. Mrs. David Barlett has been spending a few days with friends in Altoona. W. Harrison Walker, Esq., has been transacting business this week in Johnstown and Ebensburg. Lieut. Charles Taylor, of Huntingdon, spent a couple of days recently in Bellefonte as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Garman have moved from the Garman residence on the corner of Spring and High streets, to rooms in the Misses Benner residence over Bezer's meat market. Mortimer Donohue, at one time connected with the operations of Nittany Furnace, but who is now in business in Philadelphia, is spending this week among friends in Bellefonte. J. B. Eckley, of Curtin, was a caller; Mr. Eckley had sale of farm stock a few days ago and informs us his live stock and all else brought good prices, and knows now that it pays to advertise in the Centre Democrat. The Ladies Aid Society, of the Bellefonte Methodist church, are making preparations to have a "Dutch Market" December 7. The market will be held in the vacant rooms in the Garman Mansion, on High street. The Gypsy concert company in the Patriotic Hall Thursday evening, made up of young ladies from the leading churches in New York City. It is praised by both press and pulpit and said to be exceptionally fine. Admission 50 cents. Mrs. R. S. Brouse, Mrs. Ross Parker, Mrs. C. D. Casebeer, Mrs. Harry Yeager, Miss Bessie Brouse, Miss Carrie Harper and Miss Jennie Irvin were among the ladies who went to Altoona this week to witness the production of "Ben-Hur". George R. Rhoads, of Bellefonte, who had the contract with the York Bridge Co. to erect abutments for a large bridge at Leslie's Run, Carbon county, has completed the job and returned here because its there and Papa and Mama are overly delighted, only Charles would have much preferred walking the floor at midnight during the summer, instead of winter. For the Pennsylvania Day, Nov. 22nd, at State College a special train will leave the Pennsylvania station at 8.50. The Governor's special car from Tyrone will be attached to the Bellefonte Central train at the Bellefonte Junction and will run through to the College. Return train will leave State College at 3.30 p. m. connecting with Pennsylvania trains. Leaving time Friday morning 8.50. "What was the use of 'Dutch' Otto, of Bellefonte, advertising for a tonsorial artist for his barber shop. The stork saw he was in need of a handy man of that kind so he furnished him one on Friday evening. Now the family consists of a son and daughter which should make any young man rejoice and feel proud. Some day the news will go forth that "Dutch" Otto, II, has made a three bagger and cleaned the bases, thus winning the game. The people will then say, "He's a chip off the old block." Saturday morning the Altoona High School football team arrived in Bellefonte in a large number of rosters. They were living in bright anticipation of going home with the scalps of the Academy team dancing from their belts. The game was played in the afternoon, and to the surprise of the visitors the Academy team didn't give them even a half of a show. It was a good game but the home team worked right around their competitors. The result was the score was 11 to 0 in favor of the Academy. Once in a while the home team gets a cleaning up, but you can't keep 'em down. W. A. Carson, of near Bellefonte, has become a public benefactor to the extent that when the other day he commenced to raise the price of milk from 6 to 8 cents he bought cows and began selling at the old price. The result is that Mr. Carson is doing a big business. For several mornings he had not enough to make the round but he is getting in shape to supply the demand. To do this Mr. Carson has gone to considerable expense, and our people ought to appreciate his services enough to stick to him under any circumstances. His milk is of the highest quality, and from now on he will render the very best of service. This is a case where you tickle me and I'll tickle you. Adjoining Counties G. G. Gingery, of Woodland, informs the Democrat that the Juniata Hunting Club killed a five prong buck, weighing about 200 pounds. And none get the buck fever. (Altoona papers please copy.) The farmers of Clinton county will be interested to learn that there will be held this year a series of Farmers' Institutes at Mackeyville, December 2-3; Woolrich December 4-5; Swissdale, December 6-7. First Lieutenant Chas. I. Wenker, of Co. H, N. G. P., of Lock Haven, was elected captain of that company to succeed Capt. Wm. A. Simpson, Jr., who handed in his resignation some time ago. The election was unanimous and he will hereafter be known as Capt. Wenker. Corporal Albert R. Poorman was elected first lieutenant to fill the vacancy occasioned by the advancement of Mr. Wenker. A correspondent from Beech Creek says the application of Charles F. Beachdel of Driftwood for a licensed hotel in this borough is being vigorously opposed and several remonstrances have been filed with the court setting forth the facts in matter. The remonstrance from this borough is undoubtedly the strongest in many respects that has ever been presented to the court from this borough and contains more signatures than any other heretofore. The case will come before the court on the 25th inst. The general opinion prevails here that the license will not be granted. Most things are going up, but writing paper still remains stationary.

RECENT DEATHS. Mrs. CATHERINE SCANTLING, of Eagleville, died at home Nov. 17. The deceased was one of the pioneers of Blanchard and was 64 years of age. CASPER PETERS—died at his home in Beech Creek, evening of 5, aged 79 years and 10 months. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and five sons. MISS GUSSE HETZEL—died Tuesday of last week in the hospital in Lock Haven after being operated upon for appendicitis. She was a niece of Robert Detlinger, of Bellefonte, and the young lady visited here quite often. She was a pleasant, jolly girl who had a number of warm personal friends here who were sorry to hear of her untimely death. Mrs. SAMUEL B. PARKER—died in Philipsburg, Saturday, after a serious illness covering more than two months. The deceased was born at Jacksonsville, aged 52 years, 4 months and 7 days. She was the daughter of John and Catharine Howder, deceased, who were well known residents of Jacksonsville. She was united in marriage to S. B. Parker on October 29, 1876, in that city, who survives her, together with two sons and one daughter, Hershel, Arthur and Miss Pearl. Mrs. Parker had three sisters, viz. Mrs. William Blake, Houtzdale, Mrs. Millard Peighal, that city, and Mrs. S. Wilson, of DuBois. The funeral took place Tuesday. GEORGE B. BRUSS—who had been afflicted with inflammation of the brain for the past six weeks, died on Sunday at his home at East Tyrone. He had been in a comatose condition for several weeks preceding his death. His age was 45 years, 10 months and 12 days, and was born in Penns valley, Centre county. He had resided in Tyrone for the past eight years. The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Bruss, and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Georgiana Fight, Mrs. Lulu Campbell, Budd, Ellis, Lena, Gilbert and Goldie. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Ellen Swisher, of Julian, and one brother, William Bruss, of Unionville. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon. OLIVER GLOVER—at one time a resident of State College, died at his home in Millifinburg on Wednesday evening of last week, from asthma that had its conception about two months ago. He was confined to his home, and as time elapsed other complications developed of a dropsical nature, and he grew rapidly worse. He was aged about fifty-five years and leaves to survive him a wife, two sons, and three daughters, and the following brothers, namely, Hon. H. F. Glover, D. L. Glover, of Millifinburg, Dr. Samuel P. Glover, of Altoona, and J. Newton Glover, of Vicksburg. Mr. Glover was a highly respected citizen. He was a director of the Millifinburg bank and a member of the town council. He was one of the principal stockholders in the company that supplies State College with water and while a resident there acted as its superintendent. Last summer Mr. Glover spent part of his time at State College superintending the laying of a water main through town. His funeral took place Saturday morning under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity. MILES TWP. CENTRE MILLS. Aaron Harters' farm was sold at public sale to Mr. Hockman. Mr. Bird also sold his farm to Charles Weaver; both parties are moving this fall. Vole Diebler, of Rebersburg, is very poorly. Mrs. Wallace Diebler gave birth to a child; the baby died, but the mother is well. Edward Boob, son of Nathaniel Boob, of Millheim, died on Monday. Charley Miller, son of Edward Miller, started in at Centre Mills mill to learn the milling trade with J. A. Kline. Joseph Mays put a new roof on his front porch. MARRIAGE LICENSE. Wm. H. Walker Runville Katharine Irene Witherite Wm. A. Facker Yarnell Linnie May Fetzer Lewis E. Morton Scranton Alice May Williams Bellefonte Ira Moore Sandy Ridge Ada L. Kennedy Church For Sale.
