UNIONVILLE.

Prof. J. E. Hall, of this place, and W. E. Smith, of Pittsburg, have canvassed several portions of the county in the interest of the Pittsburg Life and Trust Co. Mr. Hall has been appointed agent for Centre county and if any readers of the "Items" contemplate taking a life policy, I can assure you, you will find no more honest and reliable fellow than "Gene" Hall.

Kate Sheffer, a pretty "Hello" girl of Bellefonte, was a pleasant visitor over Sunday at the home of Billy Parsons.

Mrs. Allie Richie, of Philadelphia, arrived here on Saturday, and will remain at her old home for some time.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the M. E. church conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Piper. This is one field in which it may be truly said, "The harvest is ripe, but the laborers are few."

Mrs. Susie Taylor will leave on Saturday for Washington, D. C., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Clara Leathers.

Ed Morrison is "it." He killed the heaviest hog in the village this season, weighed 457. The village blacksmith is a close second, his largest one weighed 95 lbs. He scalded it in a wash basin. His name is Harry Lindemuth.

Frank Smith and family, who went to the state of Washington last spring, are on their way home and are expected to arrive on Saturday. Frank thinks the old Keystone State is plenty good enough for him.

John Brass, the Dan'l Boone of Unionville has, thus far, shot and gathered in 20 rabbits, and on Tuesday shot a 14 lb. gobbler. His father and younger brother had each, previously, killed one wild turkey. John has eaten so much rabbit that the down has commenced to grow on his face.

Billy Dukeman was a pleasant caller at my den on Tuesday. "Duke," like millions of other good people, is mashed on the Unionville Items.

Geel! Oh, Gee! but didn't I catch Jesse in the past week for having failed to write up the Unionville news last week. The fact is, I thought I had served my time and intended to drop the pencil permanently. Then, owing to an unusual amount of pressing business, caused by the great influx of school marm, had also much to do with my delinquency. My, Oh, My! what a lot of rubbers there were last week when the Centre Democrat made its appearance on Thursday. Hannah Holt and May Turner halted me on the street and demanded the cause of my failure, wanted to know if I was sick. Ben Fredericks called to his mother who was reading the Centre Democrat "Say Mom, let me see the paper I want to see when "Domino" will have me married again."

J. C. Rankle, who moved from this place to Ohio, a few years ago, has been a constant reader of the Democrat ever since. Jake was sitting on a store box outside of the postoffice, eating peanuts by the peck, when the mail train pulled in on Thursday. "There she comes" he explained with great enthusiasm, but when he got his paper and found the "Items" lacking he threw a hand full of peanuts on the floor and stamped the life out of them. Jim McEwen, who but recently subscribed for the C. D. on purpose to read the Unionville news explained "Well, Well! sold again." And thus it went on, all around.

Miss Nora Richards, of this place and John Hazard, of Snow Shoe, were happily married on last Thursday by the Rev. Zahniser, and left on Monday for Snow Shoe where they will be at home in the future.

COBURN.

Lewis Fansler, an aged man and for a number of years a townshipp charge, died at the Wingard home on Sunday and was buried on Tuesday at Aaronsburg.

G. B. Shaffer, who has been working at State College for several months, is preparing this week to move to that educational and progressive town.

W. J. Harter, senior member of the firm of Harter Bros., who are engaged in lumbering on a large scale in West Virginia, spent a few days visiting his parents, leaving again on Tuesday morning.

The glorious revival services that are being held in the United Evangelical church, are growing still more glorious and thus far resulted in reviving the church and in leading sixteen young men and women to seek repentance, of whom five were most happily converted. On Sunday evening the power of God was manifested in such an uncommon, never in less biblical manner, that about fifty persons remained in the church until nearly three o'clock in the morning, and strange to say, no one complained of feeling tired or sleepy the next day. Talk about birthday parties, spending the night in playing social games until the wee hours of the morning! They do not compare with a true birthday party where a soul is born into the kingdom of Christ. Those present say it was worth more than any worldly social or entertainments they ever saw, and the results are surely more lasting.

RECENT DEATHS.

EARL F. ROBERTS:—the twenty-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roberts, of Pittsburg, died at their home on Saturday and was taken to Howard on Monday and buried.

MRS. MARY KNOFFSINGER:—died at the advanced age of seventy-seven years. She was the wife of Wm. Knoffsinger, of near Pleasant Gap, died Thursday Nov. 14. Interment was made at Pleasant Gap, Sunday. Deceased is survived by her husband and seven children.

MRS. W. L. LINGLE:—died Wednesday morning at her home in the vicinity of Beech, in Georgesvalley. She had been ill for some time with cancer of the stomach. Her age was about 45 years. She is survived by her husband and four children. The funeral took place Saturday.

MRS. NANCY ELLEN WAINWRIGHT:—wife of Ex-County Surveyor John Wainwright, died of Bright's disease at her home in Grantonia, Elk county, October 28, 1907, aged 55 years, 3 months and 25 days. Her maiden name was Nancy Ellen Rorabaugh, daughter of David Rorabaugh, of Beech Creek, Clinton county, the home of her childhood.

MRS. DIANNA KING:—wife of Abraham King, died Sunday morning of heart failure at her home in Millheim, aged 61 years, 11 months and 22 days. She is survived by her husband and five sons: Archy, of Aaronsburg; Newton, of Karthaus; and Simon, Boyd and Wallace, of Millheim. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning; interment was made in the Union cemetery.

CHARLES W. REEDER:—a well known and highly esteemed resident of Phillipsburg, died on Thursday evening 21st, from chronic Bright's disease, aged 67 years. Deceased was an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad company for thirty-two years, and was a member of the Order of Railway Conductors, and also of Tyrone lodge No. 194, F. and A. M. and of John W. Geary post No. 90, Grand Army of the Republic, having been a Civil War veteran. His wife and one son survive him.

WILLIAM B. KEMMERER:—reputed to be the oldest citizen of State College, died of diseases incident to old age Tuesday noon, of last week. He is survived by his widow and five children. Private services were held at the home conducted by Rev. J. I. Stoneycipher. The remains were taken to Milton; interment was made in the Paradise cemetery.

The deceased operated the old mill between Milton and Watsontown for many years and later the mill located at the corner of Arch and Locust streets, Milton. The family is an old one, having settled in Northumberland county many years ago.

EDWARD BOOB:—died at his home near Centre Hill, at 4 o'clock, Monday the 18th, aged 37 years, 11 months and 16 days. About six years ago Mr. Boob was kicked on the stomach by a horse and ever since he was at intervals a great sufferer from pain caused by some internal injury. He leaves to survive a widow and three children, John, Viola and Lloyd. He was a son of Nathaniel Boob, of Millheim, with the following brothers and sisters survive: Elmer, of Fiedler; Harry, of Loganton; Newton, of Bellevue, O.; Clarence, of near Mifflinburg; Mrs. Ida Gutelius, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Sara and Gurney, of Millheim. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery at Millheim.

MRS. JOHN F. POTTER:—of Milesburg, passed away at 9.10 o'clock on Wednesday morning of last week. About three months ago Mrs. Potter was stricken with paralysis, while away on a visit, from which she never recovered. Her maiden name was Jane Krape, and she was born near Spring Mills. Aged 61 years. She leaves to mourn her death her husband, John F. Potter, Esq., with eight daughters and one son. Deceased was the daughter of George Krape, of Farmers Mills, and is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: William B., of Spring Mills; James S., Washington; Mrs. Harriet Best, Zion; Miss Christie A., Pasadena, California; A. Samuel, Lorin, Ohio; Alfred P., Centre Hall; Charles A., Spring Mills; Howard G., Rebersburg; Mrs. J. Frank Rearick, Philadelphia. The appropriate funeral services Friday morning at her late home in Milesburg. Interment in the Union cemetery in Bellefonte.

MRS. IDA M. SANKEY:—wife of Samuel M. Sankey, chief of police, died Sunday morning at her home in Phillipsburg, the result of congestion of the lungs. For a year or more the deceased had been in poor health, but had been improving materially and her friends were hopeful that she would soon be restored to her wonted condition. Saturday morning she suffered a sudden relapse, and her condition became hopeless. The deceased, whose maiden name was Ida May Garner, of State College, where her father still resides, was aged 42 years and 20 days. She was united in marriage on December 8, 1901, to Samuel M. Sankey, who survives, together with two children, Mildred and Edna. Besides her father, Samuel Garner, she also leaves two brothers and four sisters, viz: John, of Fillmore; Fred, of State College; Mrs. William Rothrock and Miss Nettie Garner, of Cannonsburg; Mrs. Sterl Fowler, and Mrs. Fred Krumrine, of State College. Mrs. Sankey was a member of the Methodist church, an earnest worker in the Trinity Guild and a lady whose kindly disposition made her many friends. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon.

REV. ANDREW JACKSON HARTSOCK:—died at his home in Pasadena, California, on Friday, Nov. 8, after an illness of only three days, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. The remains of Rev. Hartsock was taken to Salina, Kansas, where it was interred beside that of his wife, who preceded him to the grave. Rev. Andrew Jackson Hartsock was a native of Centre county, having been born in Buffalo Run Valley, July 24, 1832, thus making his age at time of death 75 years 3 months and 14 days. He was the son of Henry and Nancy Hartsock, both deceased. For several years he taught school and later determined to enter the ministry. As a Lutheran clergyman he filled a number of charges in Centre county, among them being that of Boalsburg, and was later stationed at Johnstown. Here he was united in marriage to Miss Ruth Pringle, of that city, on the 16th of Nov. 1865. At the outbreak of the Civil War he went to the front as chaplain of the 133rd Reg. Pa. Volunteers. After the Civil War he moved to Kansas, where he purchased several fine farms and lived till the death of his wife. He then settled up his estate in that state, and after a summer spent in old Centre county, he in company with his sister, Miss Lizzie Hartsock, went to California to spend the remainder of his life. Surviving are, one brother, J. C. Hartsock, of Buffalo Run; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Phillipsburg, and Miss Lizzie Hartsock, of Pasadena, California.

JOHN A. HETZEL:—son of Mrs. Anna Hetzel, died Saturday at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, at his home at Aaronsburg, of stomach trouble, aged 33 years, 11 months and 16 days. He left to survive a widow and one daughter. Funeral services were held Tuesday forenoon.

MRS. KATHERINE SEXTON:—died Sunday evening at her home on Lamb St. The cause of her death was due to a general breaking down of the system incident to old age. She was 76 years of age, and has all her life been a member of the St. John's Catholic church. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

JOHN THOMAS:—a retired farmer, residing near Loganton, died on Tuesday afternoon of diabetes, after a long illness. He was aged 73 years and 7 months and leaves a wife and one son. Funeral Friday forenoon in the Greenburr Reformed cemetery. The deceased was a son of farmer Jacob Thomas, who died many years ago, and lived on a farm about two miles east of Aaronsburg. Zack and Aaron Thomas are brothers, and several sisters also survive.

CENTRE HALL.

The installation services held in the Lutheran church, Sunday, were largely attended. Rev. Farr, of Lock Haven, preached a very able sermon in the morning, and Rev. Rearick in the afternoon.

Mrs. D. F. Luse is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Oscar Gill, at Pleasant Gap. Mrs. Gill has been very ill for several weeks. Monday she was taken to the Bellefonte hospital, where an operation was performed yesterday.

Mrs. W. O. Rearick, of Milroy, is visiting at the home of Mr. Rearick's mother, Mrs. George Rearick.

Mrs. John S. Alexander closed her house for the winter. She left Tuesday to visit Mrs. Voght in Pittsburg.

Mr. James is confined to his bed on account of rheumatism.

Andrew Gregg was called home from Harrisburg, on account of his son John being stricken with scarlet fever. He is improving slowly.

Kell Flack and Bell Lowery, of Bellefonte, Mary Glass, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Murray.

Geo. Bradford and wife returned home Tuesday. They visited their son, Alfred, who had an operation performed for appendicitis. He is improving rapidly.

SPRING TWP.

GILLVILLE.

E. G. Kline is doing quite a large business at our town, he intends putting quite an addition to our camp so as to keep boarders and horses there; he is shipping props.

Mrs. James Hanch and nephew, of Philadelphia, had a narrow escape of being killed while in town, doing some shopping, on their going home, at Gillville their horses became frightened at a freight train and ran away throwing both out into the mud; the horses were caught by Minerva Hall's and Edward Parsons who saw the runaway and ran to their assistance.

Will Moran and Joseph Gill, who were in the Alleghenies hunting, came home the other night, and say game is very scarce. They didn't get anything but tired.

CLARENCE.

Clair Boyce and wife have departed for their future home in Clearfield.

Mrs. David Chambers was a guest at the home of Lydia Breen, Sunday.

Howard McCloskey Sunday with his brother Lloyd.

Merril Lucas spent Sunday at the home of Edward Bullock.

All schools opened on Monday with a good attendance, after a week's vacation.

Norman Casber, of Snow Shoe, made a business trip to Bellefonte last week.

Henry Gunsallus and his crew killed 50 rabbits in four days; who can beat that?

We are sorry to hear of the little son of Mathias Shank being ill of pneumonia. Karl Krone is operating at Stark.

Vesuvius Again Active.

Mount Vesuvius, after two months of inactivity, is emitting clouds of dense smoke, accompanied by considerable roaring from the fissures around the old crater. Some alarm is felt by the population in the surrounding towns in view of the recent earthquakes in Calabria, it being recalled that the great eruption of April, 1906, followed the calabrian earthquake of 1905.

The trouble with the dead beat is that he never says die.
