Another fellow wants to know what's doing at Unionville. This time it's Walter Bruggler, of Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Bruggler is managing an employment bureau in that city and is doing a "land office business" and, now, that he has become a subscriber of the Centre Democrat, his continued prosperity is assured.

Perry Hall's a farmer, good; with corn and beef a plenty—but he says his victuals never taste as good as when he has his subscription to the Centre Democrat paid in advance. That's what Perry did—paid in advance.

Will Eckenroth also keeps a pace with the times by renewing his subscription to that popular weekly. Some time I will give Willie a ride on my new flying machine.

Claire Bird and Miss Laura Calhoun, two of our most popular young folks, went right off and got married, but I failed to get particulars; therefore I must be content with wishing them a long and happy married life, and may their pathway be cheered by the "little Birds" that may eventually chirp around their happy home.

As I have been working strenuously on my new flying machine, which I have about completed, I was compelled to cut this article short.

Talk About Sleeping.

Women are like men when it comes to sleeping. Plenty of restful sleep makes a man strong and vigorous, and it makes a woman happy and beautiful. But both women and men can procure restful sleeps by using Seline Pills. It is well known that nervousness and overwork prevent sleep. It is equally well known that Seline Pills produce that delightful relaxation that folds one's tired limbs in Nature's arms while the unconscious body draws new life and vigor. Seline Pills are the perfect tonic. They are guaranteed. They cost $1 a box; six boxes $5, with full guarantee enclosed. Address or call on C. M. Parrish, Druggist, Bellefonte, where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

A Mistake.

When Jared Hazel, of this place, died suddenly at Williamsport, a telegram was sent to Niagara Falls notifying relatives. By an uncertain wording it read as if it implied that J. Adam Hazel, a brother of Axemann, had died; as a result Adam Hazel's sons who reside there came on at once. When they reached Lock Haven they telephoned to their home at Axemann to get some particulars. You can imagine their intense surprise when they found themselves talking direct to their father. It was not long until the matter was explained when they were informed that it was Mr. Hazel's brother who had suddenly passed away.

Confer and daughter Miss Ethel, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gates on their western tour, who will also visit relatives and friends in Michigan for several weeks.

Good intentions won't pave the road to success.

Methodist Conference.

The fortieth session of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church will convene in York, March 18, and will continue one week. The sessions will be held in the First Methodist Episcopal church, the corner of Beaver and Philadelphia streets, of which the Rev. J. Ellis is pastor.

Bishop Luther B. Wilson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will preside. The conference are composed of the following districts: Altoona, Danville, Harrisburg, Juniata and Williamsport, and comprises the following counties: Blair, Cambria, Clearfield, Cameron, Centre, Lycoming, Huntingdon, Franklin, Northumberland, Carbon, Clinton, Schuylkill, Columbia Snyder, Wyoming, Bedford, Sullivan, Luzerne, Somerset, Perry, Juniata, Fulton, York, Potter, Montour, Adams, Elk, Union, Dauphin and Cumberland.

The Central Pennsylvania conference is one of the strong conferences of the denomination, and numbers over 300 ministers. Beside the ministers, there will be in attendance, the lay delegates and their alternates, who will swell the attendance to the 1,000 mark.

The membership of the Methodist church within the bounds of the conference is about 74,000. The number of churches in the conference is 620, and the value of the church property is $3,679,235. Postal Causes a Scrap.

Several parties about Howard got in trouble the past week over the misuse of the mails. Henry Weaver, it appears received a post-card by mail that was somewhat offensive to him. He thought he knew who sent it and drawing a line over his name recalled it to Albert Quay, and on the other side placed an inscription that was a reflection upon Mr. Quay. Weaver and Quay were enemies, and Quay claims he had not sent the card originally. Quay reported the affair to the postal authorities, and as a result an inspector came along and made an investigation, the result of which has been submitted to the department. What action will be taken will be announced later. The inscription on the card is said to have been a serious violation of the postal laws.

After the hearing the controversy was continued by a first class scrap between the parties.

DON'T FORGET IT.

The new ruling of the Post Office Department makes it necessary for all publishers to discontinue subscriptions to all persons who are over a year in arrears. By carrying such persons publishers are liable to lose the "second class" postage rate which would mean a discontinuance of the publication.

Look at the date on your label at once. Don't delay this matter, as it is important to us to hear from you.

Remember, this order is made by Uncle Sam and publishers must comply with it.

$100 for Prescribing Whisky.

Ora Odell, who last May shot and killed his wife and then shot himself two times in an unsuccessful attempt at suicide, was Friday night in court at Emporium convicted of murder in the first degree. Saturday Judge Hall sentenced him to be hanged. This is the first time in the history of Cameron county that the death penalty has been pronounced.

Wm. T. Lucas, died suddenly at his home in Howard, on Tuesday, from heart failure. He had been doing some work about the property and when he came into the house complained of not being well and died in a few minutes. He was about 74 years of age. He had been in apparently good health until Sunday afternoon when he became ill, and sent to Bellefonte for a physician but before the doctor reached his home the man was dead, heart failure being ascribed as the cause. He was born September 15th, 1847, hence was 60 years, 3 months and 27 days old. The funeral was held on Wednesday, interment being made in Meyer's cemetery.
