

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Al. Stine, of Pine street, Bellefonte, will make his future home at Yarnell. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends in Howard. Miss Blanch Straub, of Bellefonte, is dangerously ill at her home near the hospital. Mrs. T. A. Kling, of Wilkesbarre, is a pleasant visitor at the McGowan home at Roopsburg. John Porter Lyon has moved his garage from the Bush Arcade to Bezer's livery stable on Water street. Mrs. Joseph Twitmore, of Sunbury, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday, accompanied by her little daughter. Henry Kohlbecker, the ever obliging young landlord of the Central Hotel, of Milesburg, was a caller at this office last week. Misses Mame Hamilton and Louise Armor left for Tyrone Saturday afternoon where they spent Sunday with friends. Yes, Sammy Williams, the old soldier is still a candidate for the Bellefonte postoffice. Right and honesty will eventually prevail. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burket, of Stormtown, spent a couple days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tressler on Valentine street. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas and two children, of Altoona, have been spending a couple days in Bellefonte with Mrs. Sam Thomas. C. F. Montgomery returned from Philadelphia Friday morning after a ten day visit. Mrs. Montgomery will remain there for a more extended visit. Joseph Rightmire, of Williamsburg, Blair county, spent a couple of days in Bellefonte this week. It is reported that he has decided to make Howard his future home. A son of H. F. Bartley, of this place, writes to his father, from Altoona, that times are anything but encouraging in that railroad city, and that the outlook ahead is for even worse things. After the day electrical current is established in Bellefonte you can cook by the electrical spark. All you will have to do is to press the button and the steak will be either fried or broiled. The Misses Uzie, daughters of John Uzie, of Snow Shoe, spent Friday night in Bellefonte and attended the show in the opera house. They were very well pleased with "Under the Southern Skies." William Wetzel, of Nelson, Neb., arrived in Bellefonte the other day for a six-weeks visit with friends. This is the first visit he has made to his old home since going west and quite naturally he is enjoying the trip very much. The Postal telegraph company, whose office is in the Pennsylvania railroad passenger depot, will receive messages for transmission by wireless telegraphy to out-going or incoming ships at sea. See Harry Hutchinson about it. The man in Centre county who is talking about being a candidate for an office and has not filed his petition, had better stir his stumps as Saturday, March 21st, is the last day for filing such petitions with the county commissioners. Misses Blanch Houser and Flora Love, of Bellefonte, who had been on the sick list are again at their cases in the Watchman office. During their physical inability their beaus must have been at a loss how to monopolize the time. In a letter of pups born a few days ago in the cellar of Charles Moerschbacher's pool room was one perfectly developed in every respect except that it had no mouth, eyes nor nose. Long ears were a striking feature of the freak but where the face should have been there was no sign of the natural organs. The other afternoon Paul Sheffer, Jr. with some of his little friends, was sliding in the yard of the D. H. Hastings home. In coming down the steep hill he lost control of his sled and was carried over the high stone wall on to the pavement in front. His face was badly cut and bruised and one ankle sprained but he sustained no very serious injuries. Just as soon as Charles Donachy can get a house they will move back to Bellefonte. Under the new system and management of the Pennsylvania telephone company Bellefonte has been made a separate wire district and Mr. Donachy has been promoted to the position of wire chief with headquarters in this place. Their friends will certainly give the family a hearty welcome. B. M. Wilson, of Beech Creek, was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday. He is a good, jolly fellow, and for some time has been living a retired life. He, however, has decided to move back to the old homestead, near Stormtown, where he will again commence tilling the soil. He thinks he is too young a man to lay down the shovel and the hoe. Mr. Wilson is a modern farmer and who has always been successful. Friday evening an exceptionally fast game of basket ball was played in the gymnasium between the local Y. M. C. A. team and the strong Dickinson seminary team, of Williamsport. The laurels were won by the Y. M. C. A. team by a score of 43 to 14. The referee was Rev. J. Allison Platts who gave both sides a square deal. The number of spectators present was not sufficient to let the boys out on the expense, which was one of the unfortunate features. Bellefonte ought to be sporty enough to, at least, see that nobody is stuck while trying to give the community amusements of this character. The Y. M. C. A. team will play in Renovo tomorrow night where the Y. M. C. A. will hang another scalp on the fence to dry. Thursday morning Norman Thompson, an employe of the Bellefonte Steam Laundry, went down under the building to throw a belt on one of the machines. While working around the shafting, his clothes caught on a key or set screw. Some of the clothing was torn entirely off him, and his left arm fractured to the extent that when it heals up it will be stiff, which means that he will not have the right use of it the balance of his life. The fact that he is only a boy makes the case all the more sadder. He was taken to the hospital where the wounds were dressed and afterwards taken to his home near the lime kilns. Norman, for a long time, was in the employ of John P. Lyon and was considered a skilled automobilist.

Nathan Markle and family, of this place, have moved to a farm near Mechanicsburg, Pa. Miss Edna Turnbach has returned to her home in Phillipsburg after a visit of two weeks in Bellefonte. W. Harrison Walker, Esq., transacted business in Lock Haven Tuesday in the interest of the Barbara A. Long's estate. L. T. Munson and wife are now enjoying the comforts and conveniences of their new and handsome residence on Allegheny street. John Blanchard Esq., has rented the house on Linn street about vacated by Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Munson, though he does not expect to occupy the same until June. Arthur Brown, who has been confined to his home on East Lamb street with a severe cold on his breast and was threatened with pneumonia, we are glad to state is recovering rapidly. The report that Miss Ella Alters died Tuesday evening is untrue. The young lady underwent an operation for appendicitis and thus far is getting along as well as can be expected. The town of Avis has made application to become a borough. The application contains the names of 102 freeholders, which includes women as well as men. Within the territory of proposed new borough there are 105 voters and a population of 800. Phillipsburg Ledger says: "The Bellefonte council showed rarely good judgment when they elected Dominic Judge, president of last August body. Mr. Judge is a Philadelphia lawyer and we flatter ourselves, can tell the Bellefonters just about how it should be done." James Wian, the harness dealer, has purchased the Henry Hoffman property, on Logan street, and will move there by the 1st of April. The price paid was $800. The house is not any too good so it is the intention of Mr. Wian to erect a case brick house in about one year. Many a young lady in Bellefonte envies that great big dog which Hugh Crider hauls around in his automobile. It does look sort of selfish for a society chap like Hugh to give so much space to a canine, while the town is filled with pretty girls who would jump at the chance. Mil, Curt and Harry Johnston, Monday afternoon, moved the safe of Clement Dale, Esq., from his former law office, over the Centre County Bank, to his present offices opposite the Court House. The safe is large and it took considerable ingenuity to get it moved without any accident. Frank McCoy and wife, of Monongahela City, and their son, Ross, of Pittsburg, spent a couple days in Bellefonte last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCoy, on Thomas street. They accompanied the remains of Mrs. Austin Howler from Monongahela City to Unionville where they were interred on Wednesday. Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock there was a rumbling noise which resembled that of an earthquake. It was distinctly heard in Bellefonte and when an investigation was made it was found that there had been a big fall of earth and stone at the quarries of the Bellefonte Furnace Co. Nobody was injured and no special damage done. Tomorrow evening the St. Columbia College basketball team, of Johnstown, will be here and play the Bellefonte Academy team. This is a hard proposition for the local team but they are going to tackle it in order to give the Bellefonters something out of the ordinary. However the Academy expect to come out "cat bird." The game will take place in the armory. The other morning while sliding near his home on Bishop, St., little John McSuley son of Mr. and Mrs. John McSuley, met with a serious and very painful accident. In some manner he slid off his sled and struck his head upon the ground, cutting a large and painful gash in his forehead and eye, which required the attendance of a doctor. The wounds are healing nicely. The White Rock Lime & Stone Company, has leased the offices over the Centre County Bank, recently vacated by Clement Dale, Esq. A number of extensive alterations are now being made which will change the appearance of the entire floor. Among these will be the erection of a brick vault, and the large and spacious rooms will be partitioned off to suit the conveniences of the company. They will be occupied by April 1st. Among the visitors in Bellefonte is Wm. Wetzel, youngest son of John Wetzel, of High street. Ten years ago he left Centre county for Nelson, Nebraska, and this is his first visit back to his old home. He is the picture of health, which indicates that the western climate agrees with him. His condition socially is healthy and spiritually has been much improved, but unfortunately he has, as yet, not found a helpmate to comfort him through life. The next thing in order is the Academy minstrel, which will appear in Garman's opera house on Friday evening, May 1st. Every moment of spare time is now being concentrated on this effort which promises to be a great surprise to the people of Bellefonte and vicinity. The music, jokes, specialties and scenic effects will be up to-date, and the young ladies can bring roses and violets to toss on the stage instead of cabbage and cucumbers. Prof. Sherwood Hall, who, himself, is a musical artist, is doing much of the work which will entitle the entertainment to the best recognition that the people of this vicinity can give it. Between this and the 1st of April there will be a large number of fittings in Bellefonte. Among the changes will be the following: David Barlett will move from Thomas street to the house now occupied by Dave Kelley, at the American Stone & Lime Co.'s operations; Samuel Morrison will move to the house on Howard street, occupied by Herbert Auman, who will move to the house on East High street, now occupied by Wm. Brown; Brown will move into the house on Howard street now occupied by George Knisely; Mr. Knisely will move into a house on South Water street; Dave Wireman will move from Thomas street to the house on High street now occupied by James Wian; Mr. Wian will move to his own house on Logan street now occupied by Wm. Miller. We guess Billy Miller will roost on a tree as he hasn't gotten a house yet; Dr. John Sebring has leased the Garman property on the corner of High and Spring streets.

We defy competition in prices and quality of wall paper. E. J. Eckenroth. Wm. P. Huns visited Thursday the home of Hamilton Humes at Jersey Shore. Hon. John Noll, laid up with grip the last three weeks, we are pleased to note, is able to be around again. W. S. Mallahan, division manager of the Bell Telephone company, was transacting business in Harrisburg Saturday. "Under Southern Skies" drew a large crowd to Garman's opera house on Friday evening. Everybody was well pleased. If you want to talk to "Pat" Gherity, the newly elected overseer of the poor, you can do so by calling him up on the phone at his house. The Woman's Guild of the St. John's Episcopal church will continue their exchange every Saturday in March in P. D. Sheffer's store. Orders left with W. H. Wilkinson will be filled. Arthur Brown, who has been confined to his home on East Lamb street with a severe cold on his breast and was threatened with pneumonia, we are glad to state is recovering rapidly. The report that Miss Ella Alters died Tuesday evening is untrue. The young lady underwent an operation for appendicitis and thus far is getting along as well as can be expected. If you want real bargain in wall paper see E. J. Eckenroth. Wm. H. Brown, of Bellefonte, has announced himself this week as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Recorder of Centre county. Isaac Underwood, also of Bellefonte, this week, filed his papers as a candidate for the Republican nomination for assembly. The Margaret Henderson farm, along the Buffalo Run road, about two miles from Bellefonte, was sold this week to Clayton Heckman son of Daniel Heckman, of Bellefonte. The consideration was $7,000. Mr. Clayton Heckman who lives on the farm will continue to farm it. Anniversary. Monday, March 9, marking the seventy fifth milestone in the life journey of Mrs. Ellen E. Kelly, who resides about half a mile from Bellefonte along Muncy mountain, her friends and neighbors concluded to show their appreciation of her many virtues by giving her a surprise. On the morning of the 9th, the anniversary day, her friends and neighbors began to gather, having mysterious burdens and offering one excuse or another for their coming till the house was filled, when it suddenly dawned on her that it was her seventieth birthday and the real reason for the coming of so many friends. Of course she was both surprised and delighted to have so many friends with her on this occasion and, after some time spent in a social way, all were invited to the dining room, where a dinner fit for a king was served to which all did ample justice and I fear the rules for the observance of the Lenten season were totally disregarded. The writer heard someone say that H. E. Walker, the lumberman from Barree, was minus several buttons. Space will hardly permit giving the names of all present, however, we think, the names of Miss Sarah Eckley, Miss Dolly Eckley and Miss Sarah McKinney deserve special mention as these three maiden ladies were largely responsible for the fine dinner. Surely the young men around Bellefonte are slow to appreciate a good thing. We were among the guests from a distance. H. E. Walker and wife, also C. L. Walker and wife, of Barree; Mrs. C. O. Miller and Mrs. Jonathan Packer, of Yarnell; and many others whose names space will not permit us to mention. After spending a very pleasant afternoon together all departed for their homes with the earnest wish that Heaven may grant to this dear old lady many more anniversary days. "R. K. W."

Any Ash Piles Around Here. The suit of Jacob Hower vs. the borough of Lewisburg $3,000 damages for injuries as the result of an accident caused by ash piles in alleys, was settled by council paying $200 damages. The council has voted to promptly arrest all persons violating the ordinance by placing ashes in alleys. Callers recently were, Mrs. Catherine E. Lucas, of Howard; W. F. Dietz, Nittany; A. C. Ripka and son, of Potter; B. F. Neff, State College. Cow Exploded. Clarence G. Lorenz, a Gas Springs farmer who drove into Hornell, Thursday afternoon, told the following tale in the market place on Canisteo street: "One of my most valuable cows was blown up last evening and partially consumed by fire. I had left two gallons of kerosene in the barnyard, and the pail containing it was empty. While I was trying to find what had become of it, my son, Jefferson, informed me there was a sick cow in the cattle yard. I found the cow bloated and nearly dead. I lighted a lantern near the head of the animal, and as I did so the match ignited the kerosene about the cow's muzzle and it began to burn. A moment later there was a violent explosion, and the cow was almost dismembered." The farmers who had gathered around to listen to the tale were loath to believe that this could be so, but Mr. Lorenz stated that the cow, or what was left of her, lay on the barn floor and that they were welcome to come up and see for themselves. John Bender, a farmer of Reedsville, was killed by the barn on his farm collapsing by the weight of the snow which had collected on the roof of the building.

BRIEN Hot Air Heaters

Solves the Fuel Problem! It burns hard coal, soft coal, coke and wood. The farmer's wood pile is equivalent to the city resident's coal bin. The Brien is the furnace for low cellars, as the tallest Brien is only 45 inches high, which means quick circulation of Hot Air, cool casings and cool smoke pipes. If your Heater has failed to do the work, or you want a new one, write me, as I positively guarantee my Heaters to do the work or money refunded. JOHN M. REYNOLDS, GRAYSVILLE, PA.
