A. B. Musser was taken to the White Haven Sanatorium on last Friday by his nephew, Harry Musser, to be treated for tuberculosis, but it is feared by his many friends that his case is a hopeless one. Daniel Hall returned from the Cottage hospital, Saturday, very much improved. After five or six weeks visit to friends in Philipsburg, Mary E. Griest returned ome on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Alexander returned from Philadelphia, where they had been for several months, visiting friends and enjoying the hustle and bustle of and enjoying the transfer city life. An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Holt died on Sunday night, aged 4 days. Mrs. Julia Stevens, of Clearfield, was among those of a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Hoover.

Samuel Holt is reaching out in his business. He has a barber shop, shooting gallary and store all in one room. Sammy's got the push to make a success of whatever he undertakes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith visited friends in Philipsburg over Sunday. Elwood Comley was 20 years of age on last Saturday and has had only 4 anniversaries of his birthday, having been born on the 29th day of February, 1888 1888

A flock of 70 wild geese, by actua count, passed over our town on Sunday about 4 o'clock p. m. and another flock passed over us about 6 o'clock. They flew very low, within reasonable gun shot

One of the most interesting features of that much valued weekly, the Democratic Watchman, is its column of Ink Matilda, both male and female. Slings. Because of its spicy items, it is generally about the first I read. Now Francis, you needn't get "huffy" it don't detract any of the luster from your famous "That Column And now Adam Ripka, the Potter township model farmer, has the flying machine craze. He wants me to take him to see the President. He wants to give him a few pointers on the financial question.

Clifford Calhoun, the famous poulterer of Union township, already has 500 little chickens, the product of his wooden hens, and expected another invoice from the same source on Saturday. Out of one hatch of 200 eggs, he got 175 chicks. Gee! its a wonder his incutbators don't grow feathers.
