EDITORIAL.

JOHN A. DALEY, the old soldier from Curfin Twp., got it in the neck from the same gang who poked it to Sammy Williams.

ABOUT the heaviest, hardest and most persistent work put in to obtain a nomination, was that of Burt Taylor, and he got there—Penrose, nomination for assembly.

TEDDY and his congress are still at loggerheads over measures that his party professed to favor and which he has urged his party in congress to adopt, but they will not.

RETURNS from a goodly number of counties in the state, go to show that at the primaries, on Saturday, the republican vote has been against bossism and bosses. Well, it's a good beginning, and if the rest of the republican counties fall in, there may be some good come out of Nazareth yet.

THE issue in Centre county this fall, on Assembly, will be clearly drawn. J. C. Meyer, the democratic candidate, stands pledged against Penroseism and saloon politics; R. B. Taylor, the republican nominee, will support Penrose and is with the liquor people. In the contest we expect to see party lines badly shattered. The issue is plain and you will know what you are voting for; there is plenty of time to size up the situation if you are in doubt—then take your choice.

THE primary elections being over there will be a lull in the political atmosphere until the two parties make their presidential nominations in June, after which the ball will open and gather in size until the November election. The coming presidential election is full of import for the mass of the people who are gradually being crushed under the rule of the hundred millionaires as named by Senator Lay Follette in his recent speech. These millionaires are America's car of Juggernaut crushing the life out of the people.

A FEW days ago four Philadelphia policemen were marched off to the penitentiary each for seven years, for burglary and belonging to a gang of burglars. The police force in Philadelphia always was a part of the machine. All are members of the G. O. P. gangster's gang. There are many more policemen belonging to the same tribe and it will be a blessing if they can be convicted, and go to their reward. The capitol looters, having been convicted, they should be marched to the penitentiary same as the policemen, and to be followed by the dozen of untried capitol plunderers, for life.

THE Democracy of this county, on Saturday, dominated for themselves, purely by their own choice, a very good and strong ticket. The selection was made from among a list of good, capable and trustworthy lot of candidates. There was perfect good feeling among the aspirants for the different positions—an absence of gouging, vilification, and last, but not least, no resort to bribery or promises of favors in order to make votes for the primaries. Under such conditions it could not be otherwise than that equally as good men were unsuccessful as were those who did succeed. All could not be nominated. The democratic voters made the ticket, uninfluenced by politicians, or bosses, and of the latter, we are pleased to say, the Democracy of this county, are free and made their ticket clean-handed and with a view to the good of the tax-payers and to insure success at the polls in November.

Avoid Extreme Fatigue.

Exercise that brings into action every muscle of the body is absolutely necessary in the attainment of health and perfect physical development. Tired brainworkers especially need exercise to renew the supply of blood in the brain, for new blood will give clear thought and new ideas. To avoid that "all in" feeling after any violent or unusual exercise, Sloan's Liniment should be used as a rub-down. Mr. Harry K. Gilman, instructor of athletics, 417 Warren Street, Roxbury, Mass., writes: "During my connection with athletics and athletes, will say that I have used Sloan's Liniment in extreme cases of fatigue after physical exertion, where an ordinary rub would not prove beneficial, with splendid success. I have also used it in massaging elderly men afflicted with rheumatism. "We always keep a bottle around the house for any household emergency and I always carry one in my grip, and will in the future.

AN ELECTION PRIMER

Pertinent Points About Our Election Machinery For New Voters and Old

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

What is the electoral college? That is the popular but unofficial designation of the body of men who elect the president and vice president of the United States.

What! Don't the people elect the president? Well, only indirectly. The people elect the presidential electors, who compose what is known as the electoral college. The constitution of the United States provides that each state shall choose as many electors as there are senators and representatives in congress from the state. Each political party in each state nominates the state's proper quota of candidates for electors. These candidates are placed on the general state ticket, and the set that receives a majority or a plurality of the state vote is elected.

What then? The presidential electors in each state meet at a designated point in the state on the second Monday in January following the general election and cast their ballots for president and vice president. Three lists are made out, one of which is deposited with the federal judge of the district. The other two are sent to the president of the United States senate, one by mail, one by messenger.

And the next step? The next and final step takes place in the hall of the house of representatives at Washington on the second Wednesday in February. Both houses assemble, and the presiding officer of the senate opens and counts the state returns and announces the result.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Mrs. William Anderson, of Shick-shinney, has been in Millheim, called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Henry Miller.

Miss Grace Vallimont, who just completed a successful term of school in Benner township, returned to her home at Pine Glenn on Saturday.

Paul Musser, who has been teaching school at Woodward during the winter, left for Selinsgrove, where he entered Susquehanna University as a student.

J. H. B. Hartman, of Millheim, was in Bellefonte Saturday and made the claim that business was booming along his line. He builds a superior class of stove machinery which is in great demand all over the county.

The fifty-second annual session of the West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church will meet in St. Andrews Reformed church at Coburn, May 6-10, 1908. The full program will be published in the near future.

A year ago in February W. D. Strunk moved from Centre Hall to Yeagertown, but he has moved back into Pennsylvan. Mr. and Mrs. Strunk have located in the Mitterling property, owned by J. H. McCool, near Red Mill, and will work among the farmers in that locality.

Master Henry Francis Shoemaker was born 24th ult. at Twenty-six West Fifty-third street, New York. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shoemaker, well known in Pennsylvania. The mother is the daughter of Hon. Charles F. Barclay, present congressman from this district.

The Lutheran Sunday school, at Spring Mills, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Supt. David McCool; Asst. Supt. Prof. Charles Auman; Treas. W. F. McClellan; organist, C. E. Zigler; librarians, Miss Ruth McCool and Amy Kuhl; chorister, W. E. Ream. Earn Stover, manager of the Millheim and Coburn turnpike, has been giving the pike a top dressing of crushed stone wherever deep ruts had been worn by heavy hauling. This is the proper way to keep a pike in repair and shows that Mr. Stover understands his business.

W. H. Smith, of Madisonburg, has just recovered from a nine-weeks illness. Mr. Smith's son-in-law, Evans Yearick, took pneumonia at the time of his moving, but is also up and around again, leaving Anna Smith, a daughter, the only sick person in the family. The young lady has been in delicate health for three or more years.

Edward Lair is now domiciled in the new tenement house on the E. M. Huyett farm, west of Centre Hall. His services have been engaged for a year by Mr. Huyett, and he will assist Perry H. Luse in conducting it. Mr. Lair moved there from near Nigh Bank, he having formerly been employed in the ore mines.

Phillipsburg, Centre county, has a curfew ordinance and pays $40 a year to have a curfew whistle blown every evening, but the whistle is not heeded and the ordinance is not enforced, the police officers saying they cannot do so much hard work. The Fire and Police Committee of Councils, therefore, has asked for the repeal of the ordinance and the cutting out of the whistle expense.

Mrs. Jane Harper, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. George H. Emerick, east of Centre Hall, passed her eighty-fourth birthday with her children, Mrs. Emerick and J. C. Harper, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Harper is the daughter of James Magee, and was born at Forrest Hill, Union county, but came to Brush Valley with her parents early in her life. For many years she has lived near Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Maitland, of Williamsport, have returned from a two months' trip through Mexico, California and other western states. Mrs. Maitland is a sister of A. S. Garman, of Bellefonte. Mr. Maitland is general manager of the E. Keeler Company, and over two hundred workmen in the boiler department assembled to formally welcome him back and presented him with a handsome chair.

D. D. G. M., J. F. Eberhart, of Bellefonte, was at Spring Mills the other evening and at a regular session installed the newly elected officers of Spring Mills Lodge, No. 599, I. O. O. F. for the ensuing term. The new officers are as follows: N. G. T. M. Gramley, V. G. W. A. Neese, Trustee—J. D. Neese. This lodge has made rapid strides in members, the present membership reaching nearly the hundred mark.

PAPER MOSAIC WORK.

Design Transferred to Material in the Usual Way.

The description of the work is simple enough, although the execution of it requires practice to be perfect. The materials used are cardboard, silk, satin, linen or leather as a foundation and long narrow strips of strong paper about one-eighth of an inch wide for the decoration. These strips are obtainable in all colors and art shades

PAPER FRAME.

Imaginable, the paper being either plain or crinkled, some of the strips having a gold edge.

The design to be worked is first transferred on to the material in the usual way known to needle workers or simply traced with a pencil. The strips of paper are then rolled and twisted into shape to represent the different flowers which decorate the frame illustrated. Forget-me-nots or red berries are done by taking a strip of paper, folding one end lightly round a needle and rolling round and round very closely until the circles one after the other form a solid mass sufficiently large to make one berry or petal. The needle is then drawn out, and the little ball of rolled paper is pressed into shape and made longer or pointed by a judicious pressure with the thumb nail or with a hard paper knife. When this has been done the petal is surrounded with a strip of gold paper, which, only showing the narrow edge, gives the appearance of a gold band or setting.

Wanted to Tell All About It. "At a funeral in Nebraska," says William J. Bryan, "the preacher who had been asked to deliver the funeral oration was a stranger in town and didn't know the departed sister very well. After he had said all that he could he suggested that any one who could add a few words about the dear departed would be heard gladly. "Three or four arose in turn and paid tribute to the memory of the woman who had passed beyond. Then there was a pause. Finally one old brother arose and said: "Well, if we're all through speaking about the departed sister I will now make a few brief remarks on the tariff."

A Good Joke. A Baltimore physician boarded a crowded car. A woman was standing, and a big German was sprawling over twice the seat area that was necessary to him. Indignantly the physician said to him: "See here! Why don't you move a little so that this tired woman may have a seat?" "Say, dot's a joke on you, all right! Dot's my wife!"—Harper's.

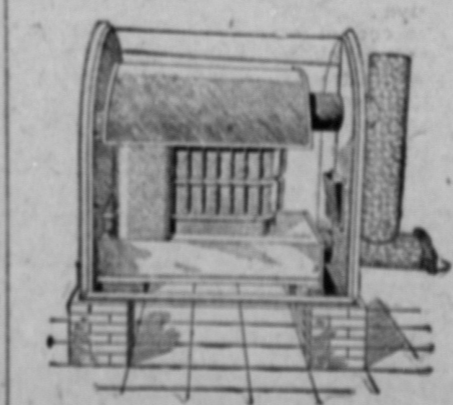

The Mississippi Way. John Allen was defending in the house with unusual warmth and vigor the manner of conducting elections in his own state, Mississippi. He waxed eloquent on the subject and was in the midst of a most forceful argument when, noticing looks of incredulity and amusement on the faces of some of his colleagues, John stammered, halted and closed with: "Well—well, it is true that we have fair elections in Mississippi, but every election morning just before the polls open we fire off a few guns and cannon, just to let the negroes know that it is to be a fair election."

The officers elect of State College lodge No. 1032, I. O. O. F., were installed recently by D. D. G. M., J. Harry Everhart, of Bellefonte. Noble grand, Charles B. Sheasly; vice grand, Clyde E. Snusy; financial secretary, Christ H. Evey; recording secretary, William F. Thompson; right supporter, J. Noble grand, Charles Meginney-Hood; left supporter, P. B. Meek; right supporter to vice grand, George B. Jackson; left, J. A. Rice; Warden, Harry Behres; chaplain, Percival Rudy; outside guardian, William Smith; inside, A. J. Weibly; conductor, James Holmes right scene supporter, William Kennedy; left, Clark Herman. A luncheon and smoker followed the session of the lodge.

Ladies' gun-metal calf oxfords $1.75. Yeager's shoe store. Mr. and Mrs. Col. Spangler are in Philadelphia this week. Albert Kunes and his son, Vance, of Eagleville, were pleasant callers at this office on Wednesday. Manager Garman assures the public that "The Holy City" will be a meritorious attraction—at the opera house next Tuesday evening. Wednesday afternoon Jacob Barlett, the Bellefonte drayman, sold his large team of horses to William Ishler, who resides on the Hayes farm, in Benner township. "Jake" then turns around and buys the large gray team of Ed. Longwell's, of Buffalo Run. Gamble Gheen & Co. also disposed of their large team to Roland Miller. Since last January Benjamin Gentzel, of Bellefonte, has been shipping, on an average, one car load of horses a week to West Chester. Yesterday he shipped another car load and is going to keep it up; anybody wanting to dispose of their horses should see Gentzel and he can strike a bargain. Saturday evening C. C. Shuey, Bellefonte's progressive grocer, was licensed as a local preacher by Presiding Elder C. C. Conor, who was here attending the first quarterly conference of the Bellefonte Methodist church. It was done at the request of the official board. Mr. Shuey has devoted a great part of his time to church work and therefore is thoroughly qualified, in every particular, for the noble work of the ministry. Sunday morning Rev. Stein made the announcement to the congregation and called Mr. Shuey into the pulpit when he made a few appropriate remarks.

BRIEN Hot Air Heaters

Solves the Fuel Problem!

It burns hard coal, soft coal, coke and wood. The farmer's wood pile is equivalent to the city resident's coal bin. The Brien is the furnace for low cellars, as the tallest Brien is only 46 inches high, which means quick circulation of Hot Air, cool casings and cool smoke pipes. If your Heater has failed to do the work or you want a new one, write me, as I positively guarantee my Heaters to do the work or money refunded.

JOHN M. REYNOLDS, GRAYSVILLE, PA.

Needles and Scissors in Sofa Cushion. Of the odd sofa cushions in a certain girl's boudoir her fancy work cushion is the oddest. It looks like an ordinary brocaded cushion, but when it is examined on the wrong side a flap is seen. This when opened discloses a pocket. In the pocket are scissors, needles, skeins of silk and a thimble. There is no danger that a visitor who flops herself heavily upon this cushion will arise suddenly and shriek "Ouch!" You see, the needles and scissors are on the underside of the cushion, and the filling is thick.
