THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT BELLEFONTE, PA., APRIL 23, 1908.

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-John Stover spent Easter in Lock Haven.

-Sunday, Scott Graham left for Philadelphia.

-Mrs. Henrietta Kline spent several days in Boalsburg.

-On Friday Harry Hutchinson made a flying visit to Pittsburg.

-John Knisely is engaged in building an abutment up near Fowler station this week.

this week.

-Miss Susan Shope, who had been visiting friends in Williamsburg, has returned home.

-David Chambers, of Clarence, was circulating among his friends in Bellefonte, on Friday.

-Wm. R. Reese and wife, of Patton, have been spending their Easter vacation in Bellefonte.

-Miss Elizabeth Boecking, of Tyrone, is visiting the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Hayes in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. Lillidahl, of Altoona, spent Easter in Bellefonte as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Barlett.

-Miss Ida Behres, of Scotia, and Miss Lulu Saxion, of Bellefonte, were pleasant callers on Tuesday.

-Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman and daughter departed for their home in Tyrone after spending a couple days in the Brockerhoff house. Bellefonte mother, Mrs. Jerre Nolan. He was accompanied by his wife.

-Miss Jeanette Freeman, of Tyrone, and Miss Lou Rowland, of Philipsburg, were the guests over Sunday of Misses Marie and Margaret Walsh.

-David Holter, one of Howard's active young men and leader of the band at that place, was one of our pleasant callers during the past week.

-Colonel Taylor has his Winton car smoothly as the best of them.

-Charles and Harvy McClure arrived in Bellefonte Friday morning to spend their Easter vacation with their parents, Mf. and Mrs. James I. McClure.

-Harry Haines was a visitor in Lock Haven, Saturday evening. He returned Emma Schreck, formerly manager of employment at State College this season where there are a large number of new dwellings in the course of erection.

-This week the Garman House office

-Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte. -Bessie Launsberry and little daughter of Fleming, gave our sanctum a ber.

call Fort on Sunday where she will make they might give him lockjaw. However an extended visit.

-W. Harrison Walker returned from Williamsport, Friday, where he trans-acted legal business.

-William Smith and child, of Johns-Juniata to spend a few days with her town, spent several days in Bellefonte brother and other friends. -Miss Harriet Foster left Sunday for incandescent lights on that street.

Gentzel, of York, struck oil in Illinois. It should have been Beaver Falls.

-Miss Minnie Cole, one of the efficispent Easter with friends in Pittsburg.

-W. E | Burkholder, assistant ticket Cole and family.

-Mr. and Mrs. Moore, and daughter, of Tyrone, spent Easter in Bellefonte Catholic church. as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller -Charles Do

-Mrs. F. D. Ray arrived in Bellefonte and is spending several weeks as street, has been suffering with a bad the guest of her son, Horton S. Ray, at burn on her face, caused by a hot poker

-Charles Barnes has accepted the -Daniel Nolan, of Curwensville, spent Easter in Bellefonte with his the Bell telephone company in Bellefonte. He'll make a good one.

-Paul Potter, one of the instructors in chemistry, at State College, spent his Easter vacation in Bellefonte as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker.

-Mrs. Robert Lloyd and MissMary Warde, of Philipsburg, were to Belle-fonte where they spent Easter with the the former's niece, Mrs. Hugh Taylor.

-Miss Catharine Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, of out in fine shape, with new paint and new tires and it moves along now as smoothly as the best of them. of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, of Lancaster, has been a guest at the Col. W. Fred Reynolds home on Linn J. J. Donley, Clearfield. street.

> -Rev. C. P. Harrington, pastor of the Bellefonte, A. M/E. church, was much pleased with the district conference held in Pittsburg last week. He says it was the best he ever attended. Sunday and was accompanied by Miss Jno. J. Musser farm south of town for many friends are pleased to see him

-Mrs. F. P. Crider, who recently where she is now improving as rapidly

-Thomas Sexton was a visitor at the home of his parents in Tyrone on have Sunday. -Miss Jane Hafer. daughter of Dr.

W. Hafer left Saturday to visit friends in Tyrone. Mrs. R. A. Beck and children re-turned home Monday from a visit to her parents at Hanover. -Liveyman Frank Bartly is carrying his eye in a sling as the result of having caught cold which settled in the mem-

-Miss Bernice Ginter left for South ort on Sunday where she will make trying to raise, should shoot backwards they look yery pretty. -An arc light is to be installed on Logan street at the intersection of Penn street. It is too take the place of two miata to spend a few days with her rother and other friends. —Last week we stated that H. A. Bellefonte at the home of Mr. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming.

-Mrs. Benjamin Gentzel and grand. daughter, Miss Clara Cole, of Bellefonte. ent compositors in the Daily News office, left Friday afternoon for Williamsport where they spent Easter with F. W.

The wedding will take place in the m.

-Charles Donachy and family have at the toll gate. -Col. and Mrs. J. P. Coburn have re-turned from Forty Fort, Luzerne coun-ward Harper, the latter now occupying two rooms upstairs in the same residence.

-Mrs. John Shreckler, of east Lamb burn on her face, caused by a hot poker falling against it while she was in the act of shaking down the ashes in the stove a few days ago.

-On Friday we had a brief call from our friend G. M. Marks, of Port Matilda, our friend G. M. Marks, of Port Matilda, who has been supplying our readers with items from that place for years. He has had considerable experience in this line of meride and the transformation of the second sec of work and is one of our most valued contributors.

-Our sanctum was favored with calls from the following: H. G. Hazel, B. F Shaffer, Wellington Yearick and H. Vonada, all of Madisonburg; Joseph Diehl, Howard; G. L. Emerick, Benore;

-Edward Rine, a former Bellefonte boy, who is now located in Punxsutawney, has been here on a vacation. Rine has been an employe of the Adams Express company for some time and by -John Emerick, who tenarted the d to the agency at that place. His the Theatorium. -Rudolph and Miss Iva Askey, of Lock Haven, spent Easter in Bellefonte at the home of their sister, Mrs. Wm. Steele, Jr. Miss Askey is a student of the Central State Normal school. The Central State Normal school of the Central State Normal school of the Cent And a working Clayt. Brown committee was appointed to arrange for Las. Myrtle Barnhart, Edna Meyer, Wininderwent an operation in the Belle- fred Gates, Jane Hafer, Elsie Bidwell, fonte hospital, was removed to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steele, where she is now improving as rapidly Seibert, Earl Taylor and Charles

-Sigmund Joseph and Jared Harper have notified council of their acceptance of their appointment as members of Board of Managers of the Pruner Orphanage.

-Miss Gretta Sechrist, of Lock Haven, was a visitor in Bellefonte. She had just returned from a visit to the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. Sechrist, at Centre Hall. R -W. L. Daggett, proprietor of the Bush House, is very low and the end may come at any time. He had a hemorrhage on Monday and since then he has been growing weaker.

-Dave Miller and John G. Dubbs, of Bush Addition, asked that water be extended out to Bush Addition promising that eight, probably sixteen property owners would take the water if council granted their request .__

-"The Parsifal" is drawing large crowds at the Theatorium. The pictures are of a high class, and are thoroughly interesting. It is worth the price three times over. If you haven't been there you had better go tonight.

-Misses Katharine McCoy and Helen Hamilton, of Bellefonte, left Saturday afternoon for Tyrone where in the evening they attended a delightful Easter railroad town, as the guests of Miss Ethel Igo, until Monday.

-Geo. Beezer expects to secure his new 4-cylinder Buick car this week through John P. Lyon. It is considered one of the cleverest machines of the season. The peculiar thing about the affair is to see such a thoroughly horsey man like Geo. Beezer come down to traveling in an auto. There are plenty of others who have done the same thing. -The draft horse known in his vicinity as "dewey" died Tuesday morning at the farm of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, located along the pike between Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap. His death was due to

-On Friday and Saturday Prof, D. O. Etters, superintendent of public instruction, held an examination for permanent cirtificates in Bellefonte.

Those who took it were as follows: E. Leathers, of Snow Shoe; W. C. Thompson, of Howard; Miss Lillie Streamer and Miss Violet Swift, of Philipsburg; and Miss Gertrude Keichline, Pine Grove Mills.

-Last week we neglected to say anything about the late edition of the La Bellefonte, edited by Edmund Joseph. It is an improvement over the former editions because he has employed Milen Walker as a cartoonist of ability. It is newsy and up-to-date, but it is a wonder that the paper didn't catch fire while penning some of those hot jokes. Then it shows progress when he can employ such a famous cartoonist as Prof. Milen

-Last Friday evening a meeting was held at the Centre County Bank by the board of managers fo the Bellefonte Hospital. Among the matters considered was the payment of building claims; and an increase of the board of Directors from ten to fifteen members. The board then elected the following additional members; Jos. L. Montgomery, John G. Love, Harry Fenlon, Thos. L.

-This week the Garman House once is undergoing extensive repairs, and when finished will be one of the finest. The entire interior is receiving an over-hauling by which it will be refurnished and repaired. Barnes. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. Barnes. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. Barnes. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished and repaired. -J. Wells Smith of Shirleysburg,Hun-hauding by which it will be refurnished for the appearance of the Bellefonte former Centre county teacher but the tickets will be reserved up until that tickets will Academy Minstrels in Garman's opera house. This is the first venture of the kind made by this institution and the boys are going to put their best foot for-ward. The singing, dialogues and ward. The singing, dialogues and specialties will be of clean up to date character. Prof. James R. Hughes as-sures the public that there will be no chestnuts thrown from the stage during the evening's performance, thus there will be no necessity in storing a barrel of cabbage and turnips on the gallery: While there will be many local hits. unusual care has been taken to eliminate combination car on the road. During everything that might in any way be retery.

GREGG TWP

HECKMAN CROSS-ROADS, Jno. Hosterman purchased a valuable orse last week

Oscar Heckman and wife spent Sunday at Spring Mills. Bruce McCormic visited his parents on Sunday. Lames Alter's has been on the sick list ber of big hats increases at the services.

for several days. Mary Heckman returned from State College last week, where she had been visiting relatives for some time.

more than four wearers of the modish Mrs. Ephriam Shook and son Gross, hats. It is the men, however, about visited at John Detwiler's near Centre whom the pastors are most concerned. Hill on Sunday. W. A. Neese transacted business in "No man will care to sit in church and Aaronsburg Monday. speaker is cut off by a bouncing barri-cade of feathers and flowers." said one The annual settlement of Heckman's church was held on Monday. preacher. Another declares that "un-Easter passed off very quietly in this Easter passed on very quictly is they section, with the exception of Corney, who ate so many eggs for breakfast that he couldn't count them; but after that he couldn't count them; but after on the woman in the front pew than through any other agency. were only fish eggs.

The new telephone company, recently organized at Penn Hall, looks as if they meant business. Tales were being dis-tributed the begining of this week. Hope it will be a success.

FARMERS MILLS

Samuel Homan lost a valuable cow one day last week.

It is stated that Arthur Homan has guarantee. Address or call on C. M. Parish druggist, Bellefonte, where they Mrs. Hiram Grove, of Pittsburg, is sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

visiting her parents here. Gress and Rev. Snook, both Rev. preached fine Easter sermons on Sun-

Lettie Breon, of Sober, is visiting her sister Mrs. John Ilgen. It looks as if we were, going to have vinter again.

Verna Shunk, who was working for A. F. Rote, left for home on Satur-Preaching was well attended at the Inion church on Sunday.

Don't forget the preaching services at the Union church on April 26th, by Rev. Bieber.

Some of our farmers are pretty near done plowing, Rev. S. A. Snook took dinner at the home of Amos Dunkle. John Hagan, our carpenter, has gone to Spring Mills, to work this week; he H.

Monday morning.

noon at 3 o'clock.

life,

has a fine set of men working under him.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. WOLF :- an aged lady, of Clinton-lale, where she spent nearly all of her

DR. RICHARD ARMSTRONG :- the oldest and most prominent physician in Lock Haven, died Friday, from a complication of maladies, consisting of anthroma or hardening of the arteries and cardiac asthma. Dr. Armstrong was born in suddenly Sunday noon at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. C. Williams at Le-died of a complication of diseases were fleeced and buncoed, through the dirty Garber deal, will naturally feel a little timid about making very heavy deals,

-Leroy. the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mignot, of east high street, met with a painful accident on Sunday. He was playing near the stable when the large door to the carriage house blew off its bearings, it struck the little fellow on the forehead, making a gash that took eight stitches to sew it up. He is getting along as well as can be expected

-John Jenkins, of Milton, brother of the late W. R. Jenkins, of Bellefonte. has taken an interest in the Jenkins-Hall automobile enterprise, and thus there will be no delay in pushing the project to a final completion. A new machine is now being built at McQuistion's carriage shop, which gives promise of great success. It will have many new improvements over the first machine, and thus better results are expected. J. Willard Hall, is giving special attention to the work.

-Our fishermen, who have been up head of the stream. Most of the fish caught escaped from the hatchery ponds during the recent flood. They are a slow, sluggish fish, and are mostly caught in the dead water. Having been fed on liver and offals from butcher shops, the fish lack the firmness and pe-culiar flavor of the native brook trout. Persons who have eaten hatchery trout. caught in this way, pronounce them no good for the table.

-One of the oldest salesmen on the road today is Shem Spigelmyer. Sr., of Mifflinburg. Although he is in his 84 h year he sells as many goods as a man or 50 years. He is a jolly, good fellow, and gets off some pretty good things. His 1 stories are always of a kind that the most refined lady could listen to without Bellefonte, even if he does think our hundred students. town is a century behind the times as to pavements.

-When it comes down to a machine for travel Dr. J. D. Kilpatrick has them all skinned. He is now in possession of an automobile that can be used for aerial agency for dry cleaning, dying and pressing at State College and his sign cards up there are causing about as much comment as his own did here, because they say "Talk to Allen at the Toggery.

-Miss Myra Freeman, of Tyrone, en-tertained a party at the club house over Sunday. Among those present were: Misses Lou Rowland, of Pilipsburg: Kate Brisbin, Marie Walsh, Helen Ceader, Hugh Crider, Marrie Jackson, Bert Robb and Willis Gephart.

-Dr. L. M. Nissley, of Middletown, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania veterinary department, is consid-ering locating in Bellefonte for the prac-has issued a call for a convention of the school directors of Centre county to convene in the Court house on Tuesday. May 5th, at eleven o'clock, to elect a successor to the office of superintendent. So far as is known Mr. Etters is the only requisite necessary is to know how to aspirant

-Our fishermen, who have been up Logan Branch since the trout season opened, report some fine catches at the brad of the school board has had fire the Belletoute school buildings chang-the doors of the school buildings changdone in order that the egress of the child-ren would not be blocked in case of a fire and a rush to get out.

-Miss L. Calderwood, Supt. of the

-Prof W. P. Hosterman, of Spring Mills, was a pleasant caller. The Prof. is one of the most studious of the educamost refined lady could listen to without a blush. He was in Bellefonte recently and on seeing him on the street with his son, Ralph Spigelmyer, it was difficult for some of the pedestrians to tell just which was the father and which was the ron. He is always a welcome visitor in the street with his secret with his son, Ralph Spigelmyer, it was difficult school, at Spring Mills, is in advance of many academies. The Spring term opened a short time ago, with nigh a hundred students. tional instrutinors in this cousty-hav-sending out to his trade and friends a fieat little booklet which will be much appreciated by the women as it is a "Shopping List." It is substantially bound in leather, with a 1908 calendar and enough pages to afford space for the ordinary woman to jot down most of the articles at half dozen bargain day

-C. L. Roesh, representing Altemus, the broker, of Pittsburg, opened up a broker's office on the second floor of Crider's Exchange. The fellows who phoning to the drug store before that time. This is done so as to give every-body a square deal. The show is going to be something highly complimentary to this famous institution, so if you are desirous of seeing something bang up you had better be at Parrish's at the time specified above.

-It won't be long now until F. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Bellefonte Central railroad, will have his the last two months it has undergone ex-tensive repairs. The car is seventy-one feet long, the interior of which has been lend enthusiasm to the occasion. re-arranged as to its seating capacity, so as to carry more passengers. The boiler connected with the engine, has been entice of his profession. Dr. Rice, of Osceola, has already located here with headquarters at Baum's livery. —County Superintendent D. O. Etters —County Superintendent D. O. Etters imb a pole with artistic skill, and so 'Billy" secured a pair of climbers and began practicing on a tall tree near his home. The venture proved a success until half way up then the climbers stopped and down he came with such force that since then he has been eating his meals in an erect position. Curt Taylor, Sr., is furnishing the salve.

-Among those who went out to catch Bellefonte hospital, hereby thanks the trout on the first day of the season was parents and children of the public schools Harry Keller, Esq., of Bellefonte. Harry Keller, Esq., of Bellefonte for their generosity in making the fol-lowing Easter donations: 61 dozen eggs. 6 bushels potatoes, 4 qts. canned fruit, 1 peck apples, 3 boxes corn starch, 3 doz. 6 pounds dried peaches. 6 pounds dried peaches. 7 Harry seldom goes out on such excur-sions, but on hearing that forty thou-sand speckied beauties had escaped from the hatchery, during the spring flood, he imagined that it would be dead easy to hook them; so with rod and line, he started out to try his luck. He had not gotten very far along Logans' branch until he met with a misfortune that led him to wish that all the fish were in-Guinea. He stepped on a big rusty nail, that ran through his gum boot and pene-trated his foot to a depth of an inch or more. He came home as soon as pos-—Ira. D. Garman, jeweler, of No. 101 south Eleventh street, Philadelphia, is neat little booklet which will be much accident necessitated his staying in the house for a few days but he is again be-hind his desk in his office feeling much better, and thankful that he is still among the living.
—On Saturday sible and had the wound cauterized. The

--On Saturday out office received a sending out to his trade and friends a matcomobile that can be used for aeria navigation just as easy as it can be used for skipping over part of this terre-tral globe. When riding along the road and his "dinges fiddle" stops all he has to do is to pull up the top and, like a wind mill, it goes with the breese. It is the cheapest air ship on the market. On Monday morning, about 11 o'Clock, hi heft his machine standing in front of Knisely's pool room. He had forgotten to leave the top down and a gust of the "blooming thing" was stopped it ran into Col. James P. Coburn's horse and bugy, one of the wheels of the cor-lose from the hitching post and ran away. He is now thinking of carrying weights with him to keep 'er down.

-Easter, the great religious holiday was celebrated in Bellefonte with alter nate sunshine and shadow. When the populous awoke and found the weather anything but propicious for wearing Easter hats and gownds there was a mingling of tears and smiles. Those who had purchased their Easter outfil with the contemplation to making a splurge could not restrain their tears while those who were not so fortunate began to laugh. While this was true there were others who could not withstand the temptation, and thus were out in their gay attire, shielded from the elements by an umbrella. The services in the different churches, which were beautifuly decorated with flowers, were well attended. The sermons were in keeping with the day, and the music was more than ordinarily beautiful. Special programs of Easter composi-tion were rendered.

NEXT CAPITOL TRIALS

Will Deal with One Fraud of $5090 in a $17789 Bill for Furniture

Deputy Attorney General Cunning-ham and James Scarlet, who will represent the State in the Capitol graft trials on May 11, held a consultation on Saturday to finish the details. The defendants will be Congressman H. Burd Cas-sel, former Auditor General Snyder, former State Treasurer Mathues, former Superintendent Shumaker, Frank Ifvine, an auditor under Snyder, and Architect Joseph M. Huston. The indictment to be taken up alleges $5090.20 in a bill for metallic furniture amounting to $17,789.70. Mr. Scarlet said that all that had been done was to prepare some details of the case.

Editor Musser's Nomination.

The Philipsburg Ledger says-"We ongratulate our editorial brother. F. P. Musses, of the Millheim Journal, in having received the Democratic nomination for Recorder. It would have been difficult to have selected a man more thoroughly qualified for the position and who enjoys a greater degree of popularity. He is going to be a strong candidate.

Announcement.

Announcement. District quarterly meeting of the Fre Methodist church, DuBois District, Oil City Conference, will be held in the court house, Bellefonte, April 20, to May 3rd. The ministers of the district are expected to be present, also Rev. J. P. Brodhead, returned missionary, from Africa, and district Elder Rev. J. J. Zahniser. Seats free, all welcome. Come! X17.

until the eighth of May she would have been 68 years of age. She was a consistent christian and took a great interest in the Presbyterian church at Lemont. She is survived by two sisters and two nieces: Mrs. Williams, with whom she made her home, and Louise Thomas, who lives with the same family. The nieces are Margaret Thomas, of Peoria, Ill., and Mrs. Dr. Van Straven, of Kansas City. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 1,30 o'clock. Inter-ment was made in the Branch ceme-

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

	Dale L. Shuey	525.		Lem
	Maud E Grove
	Wm. E. Rogers	10.00	P	nilipsb
	Mary J. Phillips	The Carlos		• ••
1	Cornelius P. O.	Brien -	Wil	liams
10	Mary M. Flack			Bellefo
	Jos. McMeen Cu	rtin	-	Pittsb
	Adeline Harris	1.00 M	1	Bellefo
	Samuel Blazer		-	Oak I
	Effie I. Hazel	Sec.	1	Unionv
	Andrew C. Barg	er	-	Cu
	Minnie R. Haye	s -		How
1	John Blanchard	Esq.	- 1	Bellefo
	Adelaide Merrin	an		**

SUMMER NORMAL-at Pleasant Gap, opens April 20th, for a term of 8 weeks. Special at-tention given to scholars preparing to teach, or for academic courses. Tuition 35 and $3.50. Address S. S. Williams. principal, Pleasant Gap. X16

NOTICE :-- I hereby notify the public that my wife Susan Sarvey Woomer has left my bed and board without just cause or provocation. I hereby caution the public not to trust or har-bors her on my ace't. as $\ensuremath{\mathbb{P}}$ will pay no debts contracted by her. Henry Woomer. 16-18 ont

FOR SALE-Farm of 16 acres with house and barn, choice fruit, running water; land is un-der cultivation, except 2 acres of timberland. This is known as the "John Fye homestead." in Potter Twp., 1 mile west of Tusseyville. Will be sold at private sale. For information inquire of or address Thos. Fleisher, Spring Mills, R. F. D. 3. X17

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Service Service Services
	BELLE	FONTE-	PRODU	CE.

The following Co. for produce :	prie	C 5	1	IN	e	pi	15	đ	1	3		Se	e	h	lei
Eggs. per dozen									1
Lard, per pound.
Tallow. per pour
Butter, per poun
Side, per pound
Shoulder, per por	md.							••		i.		• •			24
BELI	TEN	-	-	Ξ.		-			-
The following													8	8
ner. for grain :	price		84	ч.	×	480	ч	0	10		Se.	•		68	10.0

To my Patrons.

I wish to announce to my patrons and the public, that after undergoing treat ment during the past season, that I now am filling professional engagements at my dental office as usual. DR. A. W. HAFER

High street, Bellefonte, Pa. Corn stelled.

FOR SALE -- House and a acre lot with all necessary building, one mile south of town, adjoining Mrs. Reuben Valentine's. Charles E. Wetzel, Bellefonte. 1144.

FOR SALE :- a little sorrel mare, safe and in good condition; price $75, weight 1000 pounds. Mrs. Doth Sleiffer. Spring Mills Route 3.

Page

Keeps Men From Church.

their hats in church are proposed by the churches, in order to preserve the male attendance at worship, until fashions change and decree smaller head-

Ushers in edifices where the seating capacity is limited are also at their wits' ends. Pews that have heretofore seated six in comfort, will accommodate no listen to a sermon when his view of the

Not Cute Enough.

they are not cute enough in business. But no person who is run down can expect to be at his best. Sexine Pill make men and women brighter and stronger; they make you fell better in every way.

Price $1 a box; six boxes $5, with full

THAT a young lady on Curtin street has christened her lover the "Auctioneer" because the last time he called he told her three times he was going before

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertis

Any subscriber call insert a wait wait attention ment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; 2 issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

FOR SALE:-No. 1. fox hound $5.00. W. K. Albright, State College, R. 3.

FOR SALE-Thoroughbred Hereford calves. Owen Underwood, Fleming, Pa. 1 x18

WANTED-1200 pigs at once, 6 weeks old. W. H. Macker, Bellefonte, Both phones. x16

WANTED 1000 cases fresh Eggs; 100 ton of poultry. J. C. Rumberger, Bellefonte. 16tf.

EGGS-White Plymouth Rock chickens' eggs for hatching; 75c for 15. J. C. Derr, Belle-fonte. Pa. x16

FOR SALE - fine family horse, does not scare at autos or steam engins. M. C. Gephart. Bellefonte.

FOR SALE-Two Red Poland bulls, 12 and 1 months old-registered stock. G. W. Culver, Portland Mills. Pa. X16

FOR SALE :- Dwelling house, and lot at Roopsburg, near Bellefonte. Inquire of Ed. Swiller, Bellefonte. 8-tf.

Haven for 52 years, going there before any railroad entered the town. He is survived by three daughters and the survived by the survived by three daughters and the survived by the surviv survived by three daughters and one son, W. N. Armstrong, of Lock Haven. The funeral took place Monday afterurg

nte

urg

onte

Wheat,

Oats... Barley.

OOD AT 3 O'CLOCK. MISS ANNA MAY THOMAS: --died very MISS ANNA MAY THOMAS: --died very C. S. Garbrick. Zion, R. F. D. 1601.

he went. It wasn't Charles,

Naturally, people dislike feeling that Rules requiring women to remove

EGGS-Full-blooded Barred Plymouth Rock eggs for sale. Well barred, fine layers: some Thompson strain: farm raised, only one breed kept. 60 cents for a setting of 15 eggs. Reuben Alexander, Julian, Pa.