

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Arthur Brown, of New York City, has been visiting in Bellefonte.
—Dr. Rishel, of Philadelphia, is home visiting his sick mother. Her condition is critical.
—Miss Julia Bidwell, of Pittsburg, is spending a vacation at the home of her parents, on Allegheny street.
—A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Herr, on East Curtin street, on Wednesday night of last week.
—Miss Eva Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Meyer, of Philadelphia, has been visiting friends in Bellefonte and Rebersburg.
—T. B. Hamilton had a concrete pavement laid in front and around his property on Allegheny street. The work was done by Haupt brothers.
—The people of Lock Haven speak very highly of the address given by Dr. J. Allison Platts before the Presbyterian Brotherhood on Friday evening.
—W. Harrison Walker, Esq., spent Sunday with his parents at Selona. He returned Monday accompanied by his niece, Miss Lulu C. Walker, who spent several days in Bellefonte.
—For about three hours one day this week the Bellefonte Furnace was out of coke. It looked as though it would have to be banked, but fortunately enough coke arrived to stem them over the crucial point. Since then they have received abundance of coke and the furnace is running full time.
—For the last seven weeks Mrs. Geo. Furey and two children have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte. The other morning Gray Lane Furey, the little two-year-old son, fell off the porch and sustained a fracture of the left arm. A lamentable fact is that it is not growing together as nicely as it should.
—Someone asked if High Constable, Leander Green, could run. Well the other day he shot a dog belonging to a resident of Howard street. The owner started after the colored officer and you could have played checkers on his coat tail as he ran so fast. Then Leander is naturally black but on this occasion he seemed to have turned pale. It was worse than when the Hungarian woman got after him for taking her cow.
—Talk to Ruger and he will tell you that he has engaged Miss Hendrickson to sing permanently at the Theatorium. She is a delightful soloist and will give general satisfaction. If you hear her once you will want to hear again. The pictures Ruger is throwing on the canvas now can't be beat anywhere. They are beautiful beyond description. If you don't trust to our judgement go and see for yourself.
—Dr. W. L. English, of Pittsburg, brother of Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte, has been a great sufferer from rheumatism. Some time ago he went to Berkeley Springs, W. Va., to seek relief and was getting along nicely until recently when he accidentally cut his hand. Instead of it healing it gradually grew worse until he was compelled to return to Pittsburg where he is now being treated for blood poison. Dr. English has been a prominent physician in the smoky city, and has visited Bellefonte quite a number of times.
—The citizens of Bush's Addition are much pleased with the prospect of getting town water. Ditches have been dug from Valentine street to the extreme end of this promising little suburb which some day may become a borough of its own. Since the Haas brewery at Rebersburg, closed down some of the fellows out there have decided to branch off on pure sparkling water. They don't want to go it too strong at first as water is liable to rust their stomachs. However, it won't be many weeks until the people out there will have the same water conveniences as those residing in the borough.
—For sixteen years W. R. Brackbill, of Bellefonte, had in his family a pet pug dog. He had always been harmless but on Sunday morning he suddenly became mad and it only took him about one minute to clear the house of its occupants. Some of them stood trembling in the alley, between the store and the house, while others were perched on the back yard fence like so many bantam roosters. It was anything but a funny situation as the canine was looking around for some one to feast upon. The dog finally was gotten out of the kitchen when it ran over Mrs. Bush's lot where it was shot by George Runkle. It was a narrow escape and Billy and Charley ought to feel thankful that they are still on the earth.
—It is said a new broom sweeps clean, and that accounts for the big crowd that attended the opening of the New Electric Theatre at Garmans' opera house on Monday evening. The music was furnished by the Coleville band a d Deitrick's orchestra, both of which enlivened and added mirth to the occasion. Miss May Bower, a noted vocalist, of Lock Haven, rendered exquisite music during the illustrated song. The moving pictures were up to the average pictures, and of course, everybody was delighted. The managers were kind and courteous, thus everything passed off like clock work. Bellefonte now has two moving picture shows, each of which will do its share of business. These are certainly profitable places to spend part of an evening, as from some of the pictures you can obtain new ideas of men and things.
—The students of the Bellefonte Academy put on the stage an excellent minstrel show on Friday and Saturday evenings, and the large number of patrons enjoyed it from first to finish. Indeed, the stage effect was entirely too elaborate for an entertainment from which to derive much financial benefit. The songs, local jokes and specialties were of such a pleasing character that they brought forth loud applause from the large and appreciative audience. Lewis Daggett, as a monologist, cut a niche in the ladder of fame, and seemed to electrify the audience with his drollery. His lady friends, being unable to cast themselves at his feet, threw bouquets at him. The acrobatic stunts by Strayer and Hayes, of Lock Haven, were among the most interesting features of the show. The excellent music was under the direction of Prof. Sherwood Hall, of the Academy; Christy Smith's orchestra had a soft seat and performed their part well. The minstrels were repeated Tuesday night.

—Mrs. John Rishel, of near Axman, is seriously ill, possibly beyond recovery.
—Robert Way, of near Stormstown, transacted business in town on Friday.
—Chester A. Moore and Miss Emma Weber, of Howard, were visitors in Bellefonte Saturday.
—Reynolds Shope, who has been confined to his home on Thomas street with a severe attack of quinsy, is much better.
—A little daughter came recently to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, at Beaver Falls. Mrs. Johnson was formerly Miss Lillie Aikens of Bellefonte.
—John G. Baudis, of Benore, the "Merry-go-round" man was in town on Monday trying to find a location for his machine. Later he will be located at Hecla Park.
—Mrs. James B. Lane, who spent the winter in Philadelphia as the guest of her mother and sister, has returned to Bellefonte and has opened her house on Allegheny street for the summer.
—Sunday morning, last, the mountain tops in the county were white with snow which had fallen during the night. Temperature, however, was above freezing—mercury standing at 35 to 40 above zero.
—Hugh Meserve, is the latest addition to the family of C. N. Meserve, General Secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. The little fellow saw the light of day on Friday and there was a general rejoicing in the Meserve household.
—Saturday F. Plachecki, one of the proprietors of the Marion Supply Co., of Bellefonte, was operated upon for appendicitis in Tyrone last week. The operation was a success and he will be around again in a few days.
—Wednesday morning Ray's shirt factory, which has been idle for three weeks, started up again with the prospects of getting through the panic without another stop, which is welcome news to the employees of that industry.
—A. J. Moore, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office in this place, was compelled to return to his home in Lancaster Wednesday of last week owing to illness. Operator M. J. Kelley took charge of the office until Mr. Moore returns.
—The Memorial Day orator at Aaronsburg will be Clement Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte. He is an old veteran at the business and, of course, will give the people of that vicinity an up-to-date address. He should be greeted by a large audience.
—The main offices of the White Rock Lime and Stone Co., have been moved from Temple Court, and are now located on the second floor of the Centre County Bank building. They have things fitted up in tip-top shape. They are cozy, neat and tidy.
—Miss Sara Collins of Bellefonte, while sojourning at Atlantic City, recently fell and broke her collar bone. While the fracture is painful, yet her condition is such as to warrant her returning home from the hospital in about a week or ten days.
—The following members of the Daniel Garmans family were here over Sunday: Ira D. of Philadelphia; Robert, of Tyrone; and Mrs. Isaac Maitland, of Williamsport; the latter was accompanied by her husband and children, having come up in their Franklin touring car.
—Guy H. Thompson, formerly of Bellefonte, but who kept store in Beech Creek for several years, has moved to Jersey Shore where he and his wife will take up their future residence and where Mr. Thompson will conduct a grocery store west of the N. Y. C. station. Their friends here wish them success.
—In making the repair to the pavement on South Water street, recently washed out by the late flood, the workmen found a big spring which, no doubt, helped to weaken the foundation on which the wall was built. A terracotta pipe was put in which now drains the spring. Upon this is built a wall of cement which will make it strong and durable.
—George W. Chambers, who has been employed in the tailor shop of James Harris for a couple of years, has decided to go into business for himself and has opened a cleaning, repairing and pressing shop in part of Soutbeck's candy factory. Mr. Chambers is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line on either men's or ladies' clothing. He is a good workman, all he wants is a chance.
—Ira C. Mitchell, only son of Nathan J. Mitchell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and a grandson of the late Ira C. Mitchell for a number of years a prominent attorney in Bellefonte, was the party to an elopement recently when he went to Wilmington, Del., and was married to Miss Helen C. Cloud, of that city. Mitchell is but nineteen years old and his bride one year his junior. The match was a perfectly eligible one, the only opposition being the youth of both.
—During the war Hon. John Daley, of Romola, received a gunshot wound in the cheek which did not trouble him very much until about two years ago when it began to grow larger and give considerable pain and anxiety. Recently he went to Dr. Tibbens and son, of Beech Creek, and had an operation performed which up until this time is proving a success. The injury had developed into a cancer and it is hoped that the present treatment will result in his permanent recovery.
—As Bellefonte has more speculators to the square yard than any town of the size in the state, Clement Dale, Esq., has something to give them to dream over. He has taken the agency for the Western Land Co., of Chicago. The land is located in South Dakota, in the corn and wheat belt, and where your money doubles itself while you sleep. Nowhere on earth do you find a richer soil than there. If you want to own your own home and grow rich in a few years see Clement Dale and he will put you next. He offers exceptional advantages, under the most desirable conditions.
—Mrs. Jennie M. Bassett, Deputy Grand Commander of the Ladies of the Macabees from Kane Pa. is here at the home of Mrs. Dr. Edith Schadd on Thomas St. She is starting to organize a Tent of the Ladies of the Macabees in Bellefonte and will undoubtedly meet with success as there is such a large organization of the Knights of the Macabees here now. Life insurance can also be taken in it by the ladies and being eligible between the ages of 18 and 55. There are no requirements for membership, any lady between those ages being eligible; any interested can apply to Mrs. Bassett.

—Willards Way has another special announcement in this issue.
—There were ten rains in April, with a total precipitation of 3.73 inches.
—John F. Heckman, of Gregg, has not been in the best of health for some time.
—Miss Olive Steele spent Friday and Saturday in the home of Benjamin Meek, at State College.
—Mrs. Calvin Bower, Mrs. Jared Harper and Miss Bessie Brouse left Tuesday afternoon for Rebersburg.
—Mrs. Calvin Spicher, of Wilkensburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heckman on East Lamb street.
—Saturday night a full orchestra will furnish music at the Theatorium. The pictures will be more than ordinarily fine.
—Miss Maude Johnston recently returned to her home in Bellefonte, after a very pleasant visit with Mrs. D. A. Bush of Lock Haven.
—Mrs. Ross A. Hickcock and three children, of Harrisburg, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hickcock's mother, Mrs. Jennie Hastings.
—Decorative Day programs are being prepared about the county. A number of Bellefonte attorneys have been booked to deliver orations on that occasion.
—The new sewer laid to the Crider exchange this week will abate a long standing nuisance, and make the surroundings more sanitary than heretofore.
—For the last ten days there has been a band of gypsies camped near the site of the old mill works. They drew a big crowd of sightseers down there on Sunday.
—T. S. Strawn, of Scottsdale, was in town this week and it is rumored that there is a probability of his returning to Bellefonte, to take charge of an entirely different business.
—Have you noticed the display of the exclusive spring styles in the windows of Sim the Clothier? This season's productions embrace some natty patterns and designs, and he has them.
—What's the matter with the street crossings in Bellefonte? Some of them are in a shameful condition, and wouldn't be tolerated in a town comprised of hustling and enterprising citizens.
—The new Electric Theater, the name for the moving picture show that opened in the Garmans Opera House, on Monday evening, started with a large attendance the first night. They appear to have the very finest equipment that is obtainable.
—Miss Flora Love, who underwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital several weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to be taken to the home of her uncle, James Carson, in Bellefonte. We are glad to state that her recovery will be permanent.
—Candidate Geo. F. Weaver, of Gregg Twp. was here on Tuesday attending the Directors' meeting and attending to business. Of course he saw a few people while in town who assured him that he would be the next Register of Centre county.
—The next thing is to put the Centre County Fair ground in order for business in the fall. It is a little disheartening to have the flood clean everything off as it did this spring but the managers have the sand to stick to the enterprise, although it seems they are always in deep water down there.
—On Tuesday, June 2nd, Miss Miriam Wallach, of New York City, will be united in marriage to N. Anthony Eisler, a prominent business man, of that city. It will be remembered that the coming bride took a prominent part in the carnival held here several years ago in the interest of the Bellefonte hospital. She is a niece of Mrs. Emil Joseph, and a most excellent young lady.
—In another column will be found the advertisement of L. T. Eddy, of Milesburg, who has taken the agency for the Allen Fountain System. The idea is new and novel in this vicinity, and he has been doing a big business. According to his list he must be putting a brush in most of the bath rooms in the town. We advise our readers to look up the advertisement and give Mr. Eddy an order.
—The Bellefonte Lumber company are rapidly proceeding with their improvements they contemplate making during the summer. The bricklayers have almost completed the large smoke stack located on the west side of the mill, near the L. & T. railroad. The new concrete boiler room is also ready for the roof, just as soon as the weather settles, the work of putting the second story on the mill will be begun.

—Special term of court will be in session next week.
—Look at your label this week, if you paid us anything during the past month on subscription.
—Horton S. Ray, proprietor of the Brockerhoff House, spent part of this week with his parents and brother in New York City.
—The engagement of Miss Mae Brown, of Bellefonte, and Dr. J. Norman Winner, of Wilmington, Del., has been announced. Mr. Winner is a son of a prominent dentist of Wilmington.
—The verdict of Hon. John G. Love and other well thinking people of Bellefonte and Tyrone has been that the E. J. Pruner will, with reference to the Pruner orphanage, should be carried out to the letter. If it fails to accomplish the purpose intended by the testator then the property should revert back to Mrs. Hayes. This is the only fair and reasonable way to deal with this proposition and to this end both the Bellefonte and Tyrone councils have now appointed their trustees, or members of the board of managers. The Bellefonte Council selected Jared Harper and Sigmund Joseph. Monday evening the Tyrone council named J. H. Musser and F. M. Waring. Now let them get together and establish an institution that could be made to do a marvelous work, which would be as lasting as eternity.
—Last Saturday was the time set for renewing athletic relations between Bucknell and State College. The initial game of ball was to be played at the College which excited considerable anxiety among base ball enthusiasts all along the line. As a result a special train, of five cars, arrived at Lemont in the morning containing rooters from Bucknell and Sunbury. Unfortunately it rained and those who couldn't ride from there to the College walked, but what was the difference as the boys were out for a good time. Early in the afternoon the indications were that the weather would not interfere with the carrying out of the program, but about the time the boys were assembling on the ball ground it again began raining and kept it up during the balance of the afternoon. The game was thus declared off which gave disappointment. Another game will be arranged for in the near future.

Vol. He was 65 years of age, and during his long residence, of forty-five years, in Snow Shoe, he has been looked upon as one of the foremost men in that community and held the esteem of all. During his manhood he held a number of township offices. He was appointed by Judge Orvis to the office of tax collector for the borough of Snow Shoe for the present year. She had been in poor health for about four years, was able, however, to go about until about one month previous to her death. She was a model young lady as well as a devout christian, a member of the M. E. church, and was highly regarded by her many friends, and will be missed by those whom she associated with. Those she leaves to mourn her early demise are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cowher, three brothers and five sisters: Eli, of Osceola; James, of Bald Eagle; T. C. of Pittsburg; Mrs. George Givler, of Tyrone; Mrs. Walter Williams, of Port Matilda; Misses Ellen, Ruth and Ger-

Found Lizards in Log.
In the heart of a solid oak log, Joseph McCloskey, of Bellwood, found two full-grown lizards, one black and white spotted, the other yellow spotted. How they came there is a mystery. The above story will pass at this time, as it is early in the season for snake stories.
