

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

SPRING TWP. VALLEY VIEW.

The American Lime and Stone Co. have been cleaning and white-washing a dwelling house in the suburbs of Valley View...

AARONSBURG.

James Swabb left Monday morning for Latrobe, Pa., where he is employed in a bakery...

PORT MATILDA.

The lady members of the U. B. church will hold a festival the evening of May 8...

MILL HALL.

A few days ago, while Fred Stam was on his way to Lock Haven, his horse took fright at a dog which sprang out at him...

HARRIS TWP.

Alvin Gingerich's sister, of Boalsburg, found a purse containing $75 cash, a check of $6, a note of $50, a bank book and other valuable papers...

NITTANY.

Rev. Bartholomew was to Millheim one day the past week and bought a horse and buggy. John Minnick was to Bellefonte one day the past week on business...

Some of our gentlemen go to town on the train and then hire a two horse carriage to haul them home...

Lincoln Swartz and family, of Hublersburg, visited ex-Sheriff Shaffer and family on Sunday.

MILESBURG.

Joseph Shay, of Howard, visited his brother Solomon. Frank Kohlbeker, of Jeanette, Sunday with his brother Henry and sisters.

Prof. J. T. Leathers, of Howard, finished his second term with the Central City high school; the parents requested him to return for the third term next fall...

BELLEVEU OHIO.

ED. CENTRE DEMOCRAT.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

Ed. Centre Democrat.—we all like the place, and it is certainly a lovely country around Bellevue. As far as you can look it is level, can't see hills. The grain looks fine, better than it did last year...

HOWARD.

Mrs. E. T. Watt, with her little daughter, who has visited in the family of Mr. Watt at Williamsport, for several weeks, is at home again.

Electric lighting in Howard is an accomplished fact. The general stores of Kline & Wolf, Charles Lucas's restaurant and Evergreen's market were the first to be lighted...

Isaac Underwood was in town last week, presumably hunting for Prohibition tickets.

Never was promise of fruit of all kinds more full and gracious in this vicinity than now. Every tree and bush, whose season of blossoming is here, is covered with its beautiful crown of bloom...

The spring wave of house building, improvement and adornment in our borough runs rather higher than usual this year...

Some of our people were out hunting teaberries on Sunday and report them to be very plenty.

Lincoln Swartz and family, of Hublersburg, visited ex-Sheriff Shaffer and family on Sunday.

Clyde Swartz, who is employed near Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents and many friends here.

Our boys' men have been working at Heckla Park the past week, cleaning up the park and getting it ready for picnics.

Joseph Shay, of Howard, visited his brother Solomon. Frank Kohlbeker, of Jeanette, Sunday with his brother Henry and sisters.

Prof. J. T. Leathers, of Howard, finished his second term with the Central City high school; the parents requested him to return for the third term next fall...

Wm. Treaster, of McClure, was a recent guest of his aunt, Mrs. Levi Grubb, his first visit in 18 years, to the burg.

Enoch Hugg, of Philipsburg, spent a few days in the burg, with son and daughter.

The Civil war veterans, of Dr. George L. Potter Post, No. 251, are taking an interest in the boys' brigade, and want to see every patriotic boy in line for drill...

On Friday last Rev. J. F. Shultz, former pastor of the Evangelical congregation here, stopped off between trains to call on some of his friends.

Miss Bessie Ettinger, of Centre Hall, was a visitor in town on Sunday. J. L. Winegardner, Augustus Neidig and C. E. Kreamer made a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Michael D. Allen is spending a few days at Allen's home in Yeagertown. Miss Mary Snyder is spending a few weeks at the home of T. G. Ware.

Besides those mentioned two weeks ago who are attending school at Aaronburg are Ammon Mingle, and Earl and Bruce Mott.

Ed. Corman is attending to the business of the National Hotel since Herb left for Buffalo at which place he will make his home.

Jacob Harper lost a valuable mare last week of colic. The Hon. J. W. Kepler purchased a new horse recently.

YARNELL.

Plenty of rain and snow the past week. Reida, the little daughter of Chas. Heaton, has been seriously ill the past week.

Elmer Pownell, who is selling a well known brand of spices, spent Saturday evening in Milesburg, looking after his interests at that place.

Florence Leathers and Mildred Ogden closed very successful terms of school at this place. Both proved very efficient teachers and we are indeed sorry to lose them.

Amber Confer, one of our bright young ladies, was so fortunate as to catch two trout measuring 12 and 14 inches.

Gertrude and Fannie Confer entertained a number of young people at their home at Yarnell last Wednesday evening. Those present were: Misses Viola and Lucy Kline, Maude Poorman, Elmeda and Samantha Pownell, Florence Leathers and Mildred Ogden, Messrs. Harry Shawley, Walter Wensel, Edward Gates, James Wensel, Ellis Pownell, James Harshberger, Malcolm Poorman, Lawrence Croft and Toner Fetzer.

Wm Kessling, of Aaronburg, spent a few days recently with his parents. Mrs. Hannah Fetzer is, at this writing, lying at the point of death, the result of paralysis.

Edward Burtley, of Lock Haven, is at present employed on the Confer farm. The entertainment held here last Thursday evening, was simply fine, but owing to the inclemency of the weather many were unable to attend.

Mrs. John Eckley is still suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Our little town is at last in full bloom, the stove mill has started and the saw mill will start next week; the boarding houses are again crowded with workmen and the farming is at full spread.

Last Sunday was a very happy one at the stone residence, as the whole family once more gathered home and Albert O'Neil and wife, of Altoona, L. E. Sauer and wife, of State College, Mary, William and Habron, all spent the day with their father at home.

Geo. B. Thompson and wife spent Sunday at Altoona. Mrs. Price Johnsonbaugh, of near State College and Minnie Gummo, of Fairbrook, spent a pleasant day at the home of their uncle, Davis Gummo.

Mary Stone and Mrs. Davis Gummo spent a pleasant day at Paradise, last week, although it was rather wet going home. But what's the difference we had a good time.

Well, Thomas Lomeson is certainly all smiles since a bouncing baby girl arrived at his home. We all congratulate him.

Mary Stone spent a few pleasant days, last week, visiting at Oak Hall and State College, and report having a fine time.

W. J. Transue has opened his store and is giving phonograph concerts almost every evening.

Lonnie Bickle started his shingle mill the beginning of this week. John Hoy, a fireman on the New York Central R. R., spent a week with his parents.

On Sunday a week ago Robt. Homan took Grandmother Lesh out for a drive, which was highly enjoyed by the aged lady.

Our efficient supervisor, A. L. Shaffer, has been giving us good roads and we don't want to appear as a fault finder, but think he should not use the school yard on which to crush stones, as we hear he thinks of doing.

Claude Showers and family visited friends at Milesburg on Sunday. Mrs. Lesh and Mrs. Smith made a pleasure trip to Lock Haven, Saturday; we believe the P. R. R. Co. knew that two big jolly women would be passengers for they added another coach on that trip.

At communion service on Sunday morning a class of seven were added to membership in the Reformed church.

On May 16 the district Sunday school convention will meet in this place. All are cordially invited.

The four young girls who took a certain man's new horse and rig the other Sunday, while at church and went for a drive and met with an accident are still limping on one limb from getting out of the buggy. Girls, you were lucky, but Mr. White is satisfied that you won't take it again.

Lilly Shaff. Easter rabbit hasn't returned yet. Improving her fence by giving it a coat of whitewash; put lots of so the rain don't affect it again.

Lloyd Homan returned from Williamsport, to spend a few weeks with his wife and family.

Wm. Kessling, of Aaronburg, spent a few days recently with his parents. Mrs. Hannah Fetzer is, at this writing, lying at the point of death, the result of paralysis.

Edward Burtley, of Lock Haven, is at present employed on the Confer farm. The entertainment held here last Thursday evening, was simply fine, but owing to the inclemency of the weather many were unable to attend.

Mrs. John Eckley is still suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Our little town is at last in full bloom, the stove mill has started and the saw mill will start next week; the boarding houses are again crowded with workmen and the farming is at full spread.

Last Sunday was a very happy one at the stone residence, as the whole family once more gathered home and Albert O'Neil and wife, of Altoona, L. E. Sauer and wife, of State College, Mary, William and Habron, all spent the day with their father at home.

Geo. B. Thompson and wife spent Sunday at Altoona. Mrs. Price Johnsonbaugh, of near State College and Minnie Gummo, of Fairbrook, spent a pleasant day at the home of their uncle, Davis Gummo.

Mary Stone and Mrs. Davis Gummo spent a pleasant day at Paradise, last week, although it was rather wet going home. But what's the difference we had a good time.

Well, Thomas Lomeson is certainly all smiles since a bouncing baby girl arrived at his home. We all congratulate him.

Mary Stone spent a few pleasant days, last week, visiting at Oak Hall and State College, and report having a fine time.

W. J. Transue has opened his store and is giving phonograph concerts almost every evening.

Lonnie Bickle started his shingle mill the beginning of this week. John Hoy, a fireman on the New York Central R. R., spent a week with his parents.

On Sunday a week ago Robt. Homan took Grandmother Lesh out for a drive, which was highly enjoyed by the aged lady.

Our efficient supervisor, A. L. Shaffer, has been giving us good roads and we

Non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla

If you think you need a tonic, ask your doctor. If you think you need something for your blood, ask your doctor. If you think you would like to try Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla, ask your doctor. Consult him often. Keep in close touch with him.

Ask your doctor to name some of the results of constipation. His long list will begin with sick-headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Then ask him if he would recommend your using Ayer's Pills.

—Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.—

Scott's Emulsion advertisement featuring a fisherman carrying a large cod fish. Text: The effect of malaria lasts a long time. You catch cold easily or become run-down because of the after effects of malaria. Strengthen yourself with Scott's Emulsion. It builds new blood and tones up your nervous system.

Sample Shoes advertisement. Text: Having purchased a large amount of sample shoes at a very low prices. I will, as long as they last, give the greatest bargains ever offered in foot wear. SPECIAL Ladies' Golden Brown vici oxford hand turned $1.95. A NEW lot of mens' High Fishing Boots guaranteed first quality rubber $3.75. YEAER'S SHOE STORE, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Tobacco advertisement for The American Tobacco Co. Text: TOBACCO with valuable tags. Save your tags from JOLLY TAR, STANDARD NAVY, TOWN TALK, SPEAR HEAD. Coupons from REDICUT and PICNIC TWIST. Tags from the above brands are good for the following and many other useful presents as shown by catalog: Gold Cuff Buttons—50 Tags, French Briar Pipe—50 Tags, Lady's Pocketbook—50 Tags, Fountain Pen—100 Tags, Leather Pocketbook—80 Tags, Pocket Knife—40 Tags, English Steel Razor—50 Tags, Steel Carving Set—300 Tags, Playing Cards—50 Tags, Old Peach, Old Statesman, W. N. Tinsley's Natural Leaf, Granger Twist, Old Honesty, 60-yd. Fishing Reel—60 Tags.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating, restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit.