

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Editor Fred Dunham, of Howard, was in Bellefonte on Saturday.

—The Electric Theatre is drawing large crowds. It is getting more popular every day.

—John H. Woomer and family are now located at Greensburg, near Pittsburg, where they will make their future home.

—Zion's tallest man, M. A. Brungart, smiled in upon our scribe. Nittany valley has more tall men to the square than any other valley in the country, by over 100 per cent.

—Eber J. Walizer, who holds a responsible position with the Pennsylvania railroad at Houtzdale, was a visitor in Bellefonte, Saturday evening. He was on his way to Howard to visit his aged parents.

—Thursday, while cleaning house, Mrs. James Weagley, of Bellefonte, fell and ruptured a blood vessel. For a short time she was in a serious condition but she is now out of danger, and getting along all right.

—Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D. D., of New York city, preached a very able and eloquent sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning and in the evening Rev. S. L. Boston delivered a powerful discourse.

—Mrs. Sabra Garman left on Monday noon for Scranton, Pa., where she will visit at the home of her brother, Ollie Campbell, who holds a good position in the telephone business, in that city. She will be gone for several weeks.

—A. L. Shaffer, of Zion, gave us a call, and it may be interesting to the Democrat readers to learn that he informed us he paid seventy cents for a peck of seedcorn, and that was the prevailing price through Nittany valley for the article.

—Dr. Thos. C. VanTies has accepted an invitation from the Christian Endeavor Society, of the Westfield, or Mr. Jackson, Presbyterian church, situated six miles west of New Castle, Pa., to deliver his recital before them on Friday evening, May 29th.

—Newtown Dunlap left on Monday for Penna. Furnace where he will again be employed by the York Bridge Co., who are erecting a new bridge at that point. He will be with the firm during the summer, assisting in the same character of work. He is a competent man and has a good position.

—Lieut. Governor Robert C. Murphy has been chosen to present the name of Senator Philander C. Knox to the Republican National convention at Chicago on June 16. During Governor Stuart's campaign he was in Bellefonte, and thus is quite well known to a number of citizens here.

—The excellent pictures at the Theatrum, in the Petrik Hall, are still drawing large crowds, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather during the past week. Henry Brown, Mr. Latham and Miss Hendrickson are the trio who are delighting the people during the illustrated songs. As usual Christy Smith's orchestra will be present on Saturday night.

—Charles Barnes, who for a month or so had been collecting for the Pennsylvania telephone company in Bellefonte, has resigned his position and gone to Long Island where he has secured a good job with a large contracting firm. His brother, Joe Barnes, has resigned his position as driver for the Adams Express company and taken the position of collecting for the Pennsylvania Telephone Company.

—Pierce Musser, of Millheim, the next recorder of Centre county, was in Bellefonte, Monday, shaking hands with his many friends. He is a pretty big man physically, and possesses a heart almost as large. Being a good genial fellow he will make the right man to place in that office. The people are going to give him a trial, anyhow, and see whether this prediction doesn't come true.

—The Bellefonte Castle No. 357 Knights of the Golden Eagle attended divine services at the United Brethren church Sunday forenoon at 10.30 o'clock. The Knights assembled at their hall and marched to the church in a body and were in uniform. The sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. D. Barnshinger. It was an eloquent and inspiring discourse and full of interest to the members of that organization.

—Rev. William Gibb, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Irona, Clearfield county, was in Bellefonte Monday on a short business trip. He is a pleasant sociable gentleman and stands high in the Presbytery of Huntingdon. He is a cousin of Dr. D. K. Musser, the dentist, and was married to Miss Hoy, sister of the late Dr. H. K. Hoy, who formerly lived on what is now known as the Harrison Kline farm near Bellefonte.

—Richard Dutling, the mason, made an excellent job of rebuilding the stone wall, on south Water street which was torn out by the spring flood. The wall is good and solid. Universal Cement being used which was furnished by the Bellefonte Lumber Company. This is a superior article, and thus will add strength and durability to the wall. The repairing of the pavement is a great convenience to the people of that end of town.

—A. A. Fletcher, of Howard, was in Bellefonte on Monday when he lifted his commission as justice of the peace, of that borough. Mr. Fletcher is a democrat but he was elected to this office in a strongly republican town which speaks very favorably of his popularity, and the high esteem in which he is held by the voters and the people in general. He is well fitted for the position, in every way, and the man who goes to him for justice will get it. He will be no respecter of persons.

—Monday morning we had a pleasant call from Hon. John A. Daley, of Curtin Twp., who recently was treated for cancer and had the growth removed from his left cheek. He is confident of a complete recovery, something his many friends over the county will be pleased to hear. During the war he received a gun-shot wound in the face, which never completely healed and finally a cancerous growth formed, causing him considerable annoyance of late. Mr. Daley also carries a minnie ball in his left thigh, and had a bad wound in his side, showing that he once was on the "firing line."

—Ladies having trouble with Bunions, read Yeager's ad.

—Miss Pearlie Sticker, of Beaver Falls, is visiting her brother, James Sticker, on Bishop street.

—Miss Rebecca Rhoads left on Sunday for Chambersburg, where she is visiting friends.

—John Tompkins and two children, of Pittsburg, are spending a few days with his parents in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Earle Tuten and little son spent Monday at the home of A. B. Sloteman in Lock Haven.

—Miss Sadie Lambert, of Waterbury, Conn., is visiting at the home of John Lambert, on South Spring street.

—Mrs. Samuel Osman arrived home Sunday evening from Punksutawney, after spending a few days with relatives.

—Dr. M. A. Kirk is attending a medical convention in Harrisburg this week. The doctor always tries to keep abreast with his profession.

—Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, was in Bellefonte, Tuesday. He was on his way to State College to attend the Sunday School convention.

—Curb market will open in Bellefonte on Saturday morning, May 23rd, and continue during the summer months; open on Tuesday and Saturday morning of each week.

—"Domino," our versatile Unionville correspondent, has another clever article in this issue giving a detailed description of a visit to Washington, to see "Teddy," and an important interview that followed.

—Rev. James B. Stein, pastor of the Methodist church, left on Monday for Baltimore where he is attending the session of the General Conference of the church now being held there. Rev. Stein will remain in that city about ten days.

—Harvey Stine, who for a number of years has been a drayman in Bellefonte, has bought a house at State College where he will make his future home. He expects to work for Henry Lowry who has contracted for a lot of work up there summer.

—Geo. Beezer received his new 4-cylinder runabout on Tuesday, and is considered one of the best kind on the market. It is painted light gray and makes a fine appearance. When a horseman like Beezer takes to an auto it is out of the ordinary.

—Paul Fortney, John Noll, James Cornely, W. D. Zerby and James Cori are among those from Bellefonte who attended the Dem. State convention in Harrisburg on Wednesday. While in Capital City Mr. Cori attended to business connected with the county.

—W. D. Crosby, Esq., prominent citizen and attorney, of Philadelphia, had a slight stroke of paralysis on Saturday. Since then he has shown signs of improvement. He is well and favorably known in Bellefonte, and his friends here wish for him a speedy recovery.

—Charles A. Lukenbach and bride returned Monday evening from their wedding-tour. From the train they were driven to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Garman, on Linn street, where they were greeted by a large number of friends. The calisthumpians and the band gave them a royal serenade.

—A brick smoke stack is now being built at the Pennsylvania Match Factory which, when completed, will be ninety feet high. This will be thirty feet higher than the one recently erected by the Bellefonte Lumber Company. When the smoke arises out of the two large chimneys strangers will begin to imagine that this is a great manufacturing centre.

—Neil Benn and Victor Laird, of Tyrone, spent Sunday and Monday in Bellefonte, and they had the time of their lives. So congenial was their company that they found it difficult to break away. This being leap year they were treated to ice cream and cake, and tramped all over the hills until their corps gave them considerable trouble and then they departed on the afternoon train for home.

—Edward Miller and daughter, Miss Effie, arrived in Bellefonte, Saturday morning, and became guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller, on East High street. Mr. Miller returned to Philadelphia Sunday evening, leaving his little daughter who will spend the summer here with her uncle, Morris Miller. Edward Miller is foreman in the shops of the Union Traction Company, Philadelphia, at a nice salary.

—Fred Chambers has accepted a position with a large cigarette manufacturing company and will travel in their interest. Before going on the road, however, he will take a two week's vacation which he will spend with his parents, Col. and Mrs. Edward R. Chambers, in this place. He will then leave for the Pacific coast where he will spend four or five months introducing his line of cigarettes. The position not only carries with it a good salary but will enable him to see a large part of the United States as well.

—The 17th anniversary of the Bellefonte Epworth League was fifty celebrated in the Methodist church on Sunday. The services of the day commenced with an Early Watch at 9 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Stein preached a special sermon to the young people in the morning, and in the evening the regular anniversary services took place when the officers for the ensuing year were installed, the part taken by the young people was of an interesting character. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion.

—This week Dr. David S. Monroe, who for a number of years was pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, is dedicating a magnificent and costly temple of worship at New Cumberland. Among the dignitaries of the church present are Bishop Luther B. Wilson, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Bishop David H. Moore, of Portland, Oregon; Bishop Mallalieu, of Boston, and J. B. Hing, secretary of the General Conference.

—The Rev. D. S. Monroe, pastor of the congregation, was for twenty-four years secretary of the General Conference. He also filled the same office in the Central Pennsylvania Conference for twenty-five years. During fifty-five years in the ministry, the Rev. Mr. Monroe has built seventeen churches. He pronounces the New Cumberland edifice the finest of them all. This event will rank among the most important in the history of the Methodist church in Cumberland county.

—Ladies having trouble with Bunions, read Yeager's ad.

—John Campbell, formerly, of near Pine Grove Mills, but now of Tyrone, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

—The Apple Blossom Club, of Tyrone and Altoona, spent Sunday at the County Club where they had a pleasant time.

—Sunday, May 24, Rev. Barry will administer the Holy Communion in the Lutheran church of this place, morning and evening.

—Bellefonte has a base ball team composed of colored young men who put the cleaner to the Bellefonte Scrubs on Monday afternoon, the score being 7 to 4.

—The Central Synod of the Lutheran church is in session this week at New Berlin. Clement Dale, Esq., is a delegate representing the Bellefonte charge.

—Among those who are attending the Sunday School Convention at State College this week are Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, Dr. J. Allison Platts and Mrs. Ellen E. Bower.

—Rev. W. B. Cox, formerly pastor of the United Evangelical church at this place, but now located in Altoona, visited his former parishioners and friends in Bellefonte.

—The chart for the Declamatory Contest for the Reynolds' prize, which will take place in Petrik Hall, Monday night, will be opened at Shaffers grocery store, Saturday.

—The Presbyterians will hold a social this evening at the home of Mrs. Louisa Harris, on Allegheny street. Ice cream and cake will be served free, but a silver offering will be gratefully received.

—A. Luckenbach left Monday for York, Pa., where he will attend the General Synod of the Reformed church in the U. S., representing West Susquehanna classis as one of its Elder delegates.

—Henry Thompson, of Liberty township, was a visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday. Mr. Thompson is one of Liberty township's highly respected citizens and a man who has made friends wherever he goes.

—Charles Wetzel, of Bellefonte, is representing the local Subordinate Lodge, of I. O. O. F. and Miss Mollie Hoy the Rebekah, at the meeting of the Grand Lodge which is being held in Philadelphia this week.

—Mr. Bair, contracting foreman for the York Bridge Co., was in Bellefonte, Wednesday, consulting the county commissioners with reference to a bridge which is in course of erection near Fowling. The iron work is on the ground, and just as soon as the weather permits it will be put in position.

—Frank Kirkland, former clerk at the Bush House, is now visiting in Bellefonte. He is just as handsome and as genial as when he waited on the patrons of this popular hotel. He will always remember Bellefonte by a walk he took one hot day up through the Coleville Gap to the Burnside farm, and then down over the rocky side of the mountain to Pleasant View. It was a hummer.

—This week the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Centre County Sunday school Association was held in the Methodist church at State College. The attendance was large considering the inclemency of the weather, there were quite a number of interesting speakers present who did their best to educate the people as to the great importance of this branch of the church. The address of welcome was made by Rev. C. C. Snavely, pastor of the church.

—The pictures at the Theatrum tonight will be of interest to all. They are: "The Animated Statue" and an "Episode in the French Revolution." Henry D. Brown will sing, "I'm Tying the leaves so they won't come down." Friday and Saturday nights French and Italian pictures will be shown. Saturday night Christy Smith's orchestra of five pieces will render selections from "The Yankee Prince" and a ball score every night. Watch date for "Othello" one of Shakespear's best plays.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. F. P. MORRISON—daughter of John McGovern, of Bellefonte, died in New York City on Saturday. Her remains were brought here for interment.

WILLIAMS HINKSON—died Thursday morning at the home of Andrew Moyer, in Woodward, of general debility. Age about 74. Interment Saturday morning at Woodward.

SAMUEL HADDOCK—resident of Snow Shoe, died at his home in that place on May 14th, from the effects of a paralytic stroke, aged 66 years, 4 months and 19 days. Twelve children were born to them, eight of which preceded him to the grave. He is survived by his wife, one sister, Mrs. John Carroll, Toronto, Ohio, and four daughters, as follows: Mrs. Hugh Collins, Oshanter; Mrs. Charles Casher, Braddock; Mrs. Robert Dixon, Snow Shoe, and Mrs. Thomas Hancock, formerly of Philadelphia but now of Altoona.

Mrs. EMMA ELBERT—died in Philadelphia Sunday morning at 1.30 o'clock. Her remains were brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning. The funeral took place in the afternoon from the Lutheran church, Rev. Barry officiating. Interment was made in the Union cemetery. Mrs. Elbert was born in Bellefonte and was aged 51 years. She had been ill about four months with cancer of the stomach. She is survived by the following children: Frederick, Hattie and Cromwell. She is also mourned by her mother, Mrs. Katherine Hass, two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Richard Delling, Mollie Hass and Robert Hass, of Roopsburg.

HARRY CASPER—son of Henry Casper, who resides on Halfmoon Hill, died at the Bellefonte hospital, Friday morning after a lingering illness. The young man had been in ill health for several years but recently he became worse and on Monday was admitted to the hospital for treatment, where everything possible was done for his relief. His death was due to rheumatism of the heart and kidney trouble. The deceased would have been twenty years of age had he lived until June 20. Surviving him are his father, Henry Casper, and one brother. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Episcopal church. Interment in Milesburg cemetery.

MISS NANCY NEWELL—one of the oldest residents of Centre county, died on Sunday morning about 9 o'clock at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robert Cole, on East High street. Her death was due to infirmities incident to her advanced age. The deceased was the daughter of Joseph and Margaret Newell, and about 80 years ago was born in Harris township. About forty years ago she came to Bellefonte and took up her residence with her sister Mrs. Joseph Miles, who for years lived on Bishop street. About five years ago these ladies thought it best to give up housekeeping and go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole. They were only there a short time when Mrs. Miles became ill and died. For the past year and ten months Miss Newell has been almost blind and helpless being confined to her bed. During this time she has been tenderly cared for by Mrs. Cole. Miss Newell is the last of this family who were well and favorably known in the county. For years she has been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and her life was filled with noble deeds, and her death was a most triumphant one, showing the value of living a devoted christian life. She was of a kind disposition, thus she was highly respected by all who knew her.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Cole home. The services in charge of Rev. J. Allison Platts. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

COBURN.

The heavy rains Tuesday evening and night have raised Penns Creek to overflowing.

Henry Kaler moved last week into J. W. Glasgow's property, on South ave.; and David Bowersox, of Aaronburg, moved to his mother's home, where Mr. Kaler vacated.

Miss Myra Stover and Miss Mary Meyer attended the district Sunday school convention at Rebersburg, last Thursday, so did Mrs. Annie Kerstetter, Mrs. J. D. Mark and Mrs. Cora Hosterman.

Quite a number of our people will attend a convention at Centre Hall this week.

J. R. Corman and family, of Woodward, spent a few days here.

Wm. Stover, of Fiedler, spent a short time with relatives here on Monday, while on his way to the Sabbath school convention at State College.

For the size of the town Coburn can hardly be beat for the number of pianos it has. The latest purchases of such musical instruments are Lewis Stover and T. A. Meyer. With ten pianos, more organs, and a good cornet band we are prepared to furnish music for all who desire to hear it.

Cloyd Dinges, at Pine Creek Mills, has a continuous smile upon his face all on account of the little girl that arrived at his home recently.
