

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-W. Harrison Walker, Esq., spent Friday with friends in Philadelphia.

-Sallie Fitzgerald came home Friday from New York where she has been taking lessons in voice culture.

-Miss Susan Shope, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mame Shope, left Friday evening for Williamsburg on a short visit.

-Recorder John C. Rowe had been ill the past week and part of the time was confined to his bed with an attack of bowel complaint.

-Harry Fitzgerald, of Pittsburg, arrived in Bellefonte Friday evening and spent a short time with his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgerald.

-For Saturday at the Electric Theatre, "A Pursuit of a Sait," "The Girl Across the Way," Ed. Luthan will sing, Dietrichs orchestra will play.

-George Valentine, of Baltimore, Md., who at one time figured as one of Bellefonte's most progressive business men, is visiting in this community.

-The Academy primary department picnic, which was to have been held at Hecla Park on Thursday, was postponed on account of the threatening weather in the morning.

-Dr. M. J. Locke returned from Philadelphia, Friday, where he attended a medical meeting and banquet. The doctor was on the program and read a paper of interest to the medical fraternity.

-The little shower early Monday morning was a lift to the already bountiful truck and field crops. Really, Providence is doing wonderful work for the good of all in its weather regulations, this season.

-Samuel McClure, who is a student at Princeton, has returned to Bellefonte where he will remain until September. He will then go back to continue his studies for the Methodist ministry. He is much pleased with his progress.

-The Olive Branch Ladies Aid society of Coleville will hold a festival Saturday evening, June 20, on the green in front of the freight station. Proceeds are for the benefit of the Olive Branch Sunday school. Everybody is invited to come.

-Harry Fenlon and wife returned Friday from Philadelphia. Mrs. Fenlon who became suddenly ill in Atlantic City recently, is much improved. The indications are that she will permanently recover which is good news to her friends.

-Thursday J. A. B. Miller, Esq., left for Clearfield to assist in settling a legal controversy in an estate which involved $3,000. He returned to Bellefonte Friday with a contentment as bright as the noonday sun, indicating that things had gone his way.

-Stanley PlacHECKI, who a short time ago underwent an operation in the Altoona hospital for appendicitis, returned to Bellefonte Friday evening. He is again feeling quite well and will take up his duties at the Marion Supply company store.

-Geo. N. Ellenberger, a member of the Clearfield council, and a prominent lumberman, and his sister, Mrs. Anna Houck, of Ferguson township, were in Bellefonte, Friday, to probate the will of the late William Ellenberger, of Ferguson township.

-It has been decided to erect a Union chapel at Coleville. The American Lime & Stone Company has furnished a lot and will supply the stone and lime necessary to put up the buildings. It will be located near the Methodist chapel, and will be a neat and cozy structure.

-Mrs. Helen Bubb and daughter, Miss Helen Musser, of Williamsport, passed through Bellefonte, Thursday, on their way to State College to attend commencement. Miss Musser will spend the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. E. Musser, and uncle, Prof. D. O. Eters.

-Mr. and Mrs. Shuman Williams, of Pleasant Gap, passed through Bellefonte Saturday on their way to Blanchard where they will spend several months vacation, until the opening of the public schools in the fall. Mr. Williams has been the successful principal of the Gap schools.

-A dispatch from Harrisburg to the Sunday Philadelphia Inquirer says: The army of Company B, Fifth regiment, N. G. P., at Bellefonte, will be purchased by the State Armory Board. The armory was built by Col. W. Fred Reynolds at an expense of $30,000, and has been used by the company for a number of years. The State can buy it for $20,000. The building will undergo thorough repairs.

-John F. Harrison, formerly of Bellefonte, but now located at Jersey Shore, was a caller in Bellefonte on Friday in the interests of W. G. Johnson & Co., of Pittsburg, manufacturers of and dealers in school supplies. John has just recovered from a serious illness and this was the first he has been on the road for some time. He spent part of this week at State College, the guest of his brother, Charles Harrison.

-James Hamill, son of the late Robert Hamill, of Oak Hall, is visiting friends in Bellefonte and State College. He was one of the alumni of the College and is deeply interested in the progress of that institution. After graduating he studied law, afterwards locating in Bellefonte. Things didn't move as rapidly as he had anticipated so he took "Ben" Franklin's advice and went west. He was not long there until a business proposition opened up to him along the line of lumbering and mining coal. He became successful from the first, and is now recognized as one of the richest and most influential citizens of the west.

-The other evening a foreigner was riding a bicycle down street when he ran into George Beezer's automobile as the latter was coming out of the alley leading to the Palace Livery. When the two machines collided there was a sharp report as that of a pistol shot. A second afterward the Hungarian was seen taking a flipper into the air, landing on the brick pavement on the other side of the automobile. The one side of his face was so skinned up that it had the appearance of a piece of raw beefsteak. The report heard was the bursting of the bicycle tire, the machine, itself, being badly bent and broken. The automobile, of course remained intact, but the amusing part of the occurrence was when the injured man got up and politely apologized to Beezer for running into him.

-Landlord Runkle, of the popular Centre Hall hotel, was a pleasant caller.

-Miss Mary Ann McGill went to Hollidaysburg to visit the family of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Hughes.

-Mr. and Mrs. Brit Wallace, Warren Rush and Miss Anna Nolan spent Sunday with the campers at Snow Shoe.

-Mr. James Pierpoint, of Philadelphia, was in town a few hours Thursday looking up some possible book sales.

-Mr. Annie Long, of Howard, spent a few hours in Bellefonte, Thursday, while enroute to Pleasant Gap where she visited friends.

-Mrs. David Foreman and children, of Bellefonte, was a recent visitor in Philadelphia as the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. H. Smith.

-Charles Stoehr, of Pittsburg, is visiting his many friends in Bellefonte. Charles at one time was a student at the Bellefonte Academy.

-Remember the Undine picnic, at Hecla Park, on July 4th. A sham battle by Company B, in the evening, will be one of the special features.

-Miss Daisy Graham, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived at the Academy Thursday evening to make a visit with Mrs. James R. Hughes and family.

-Misses Mary Grimm, Lizzie Smith, Olive Steele and Grace Blackford attended the Epworth League district convention which was held in Altoona, on Thursday.

-Miss Margaret Garman, daughter of C. M. Garman, is making for herself quite a reputation as a soloist at the Electric Theatre. Everybody is pleased with her singing.

-Joe Ceaders, the confectioner, has installed a new 4-horse power gasoline engine at his place and now will be able to turn out his famous cream by the car load on short notice.

-Mrs. M. L. Gettig, Mrs. Frank Crawford and daughter Grace, also Rev. Barry attended the missionary convention, of the Lutheran Central Synod, at Centre Hall last week.

-Miss Eleanor Harris arrived in Bellefonte from her brother's home in Chicago, expecting to be with her mother while Dr. Harris and his brother James, of Philadelphia, spend the summer abroad.

-A pleasant sociable was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. F. Garthoff, on Reynolds avenue, where refreshments were served to a large attendance, benefits going to the Lutheran church.

-Bellefonte Text No. 100 Knights of the Maccabees attended service in a body at the Evangelical church on Sunday morning when the pastor, Rev. J. F. Hower, delivered a timely sermon to the members of that order.

-On Tuesday Fred Smith, of Philadelphia, and John Miller, of Hubersburg, the next sheriff and treasurer of Centre county, were in Bellefonte calling on their friends. They are perfect gentlemen and will make model officers.

-It is probable that Mrs. Anna C. Woodcock will make her future home in Bellefonte. Her son, Dr. Lee Woodcock, of Scranton, will go to Germany where he will spend the next six months in taking a special medical course.

-Samuel Decker and daughter, Josie, of Bellefonte, left Saturday for Harrisburg. They inspected the "Capitol of Gratt" and then proceeded to Wilmington, Del., where they will visit friends, the daughter expecting to remain there for some time.

-It is now quite probable that Co. B, will go to the Undine picnic at Hecla Park on the Fourth and give a sham battle, which will be an added feature to the day's amusements. The Undine boys are doing all in their power to make the day one that will be long remembered.

-It is now Rev. James B. Stein, D. D., pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church. He received the honored title from Dickinson College where he graduated with honor. Dr. Stein is especially proud of the distinction because he received the degree on the 125th anniversary of the institution.

-In a letter received on last Friday, we note that Edward Hanscom, who formerly was located in Bellefonte and held a position in the Bellefonte post-office, now is living in Portland, Ore., where he holds a similar position. Since he and his family left here last spring they have been located in several western cities.

-Misses Katherine and Margaret Burnett are now enjoying the comfort and luxuries of home. Miss Katherine had been spending the winter with her grandmother, in Syracuse, N. Y., while Miss Margaret was a student at Miss Shipley's school in Philadelphia. The latter joined her sister at Syracuse, and they came home together.

-Thursday night the moving picture machine at the Electric Theatre stuck and all the swearing the managers could do wouldn't remedy the difficulty. The result was that they were compelled to close down and gave the patrons their money back. It was enough to make a fellow get as full as a goat but our friends withstood the temptation. The pictures helped to form the attraction there, on Saturday night, which, of course, meant a big double show.

-Mrs. Charles Dorworth and child, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crifer, on Linn street. Her husband assisted in reporting to the Philadelphia Press the proceedings of the Republican National Convention which met this week. He will also go on to Denver to report the proceedings of the Democratic National Convention which convenes on July 7th. The fact that he has been delegated to this responsible position is a recognition of his exceptional ability as a newspaper man.

-William Keichline, the Bellefonte machinist, went to Tyrone Friday where he purchased a worthless looking pile of scrap that was once an automobile. It was the remains of the Buick formerly owned by Landlord Horton S. Ray, who last July sold it to Undertaker Sam Graham, of Tyrone. Several weeks ago Graham was crossing the railroad tracks in Tyrone, the machine stopped in front of a fast moving train. Mr. Graham had to jump for his life, the auto being completely wrecked. It is Mr. Keichline's intention to use the pieces in the construction of a new machine.

-Frank Kern has added another large machine to his laundry.

-Everything is going in a satisfactory manner at the Theatrum. The pictures are of a high class which continue to attract large crowds.

-The Electric Theatre is still going full force. The crowds are so large that they have to throw open the gallery. Everybody is delighted.

-Those of our readers who understand the Penna Dutch dialect will find a clever article in this issue, on page three. If you can read it, don't miss it.

-The board of directors of the Farmers' Mut. F. Ins. Co., held their quarterly meeting in Petrikin Hall, on Monday, and accepted risks to amount of $150,774.

-John Dubbs, Sr., of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his son, John, at Huntingdon. He's home again, which means they didn't hold him at the Reformatory.

-Rev. William VanTries, located at Newellsville, N. J., is spending his vacation in Bellefonte at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Louise Harris. As a minister of the gospel he is doing a good work, and has a promising future.

-Services in the United Brethren church Sunday morning were in charge of Presiding Elder Rev. J. S. Foulton, of the Allegheny district. Mr. Foulton, is a very forceful speaker and his sermon was full of interest.

-Bellefonte has been thronged this week with the drift to State College to attend the Commencement exercises. Many are former students on their way back to renew old acquaintance, while others are going there as friends of the graduating class, and students.

-Joseph and Edward Goss, with Hon. Will Kepler, of Ferguson township, were in Bellefonte Tuesday. The two former young gentlemen are sons of the late Cyrus Goss, of Pine Grove Mills. Both of them hold good positions with the Carnegie Steel Co., at Pittsburg.

-Miss Louella and Grace Shook, of Bellefonte, went to Huntingdon this week where they attended the commencement exercises of Juniata college, their brother, James, being one of the graduates. He is a young man who has gained considerable notoriety since a student of that institution.

-Frank Wooster, who is now located in Everett, arrived in Bellefonte on Friday and will visit here for a short time. Frank is engaged in the laundry business there and has secured a fair patronage. Unfortunately he recently figured in a runaway and received injuries that will prevent him from going back to work for a few days.

-Morris Runkle, manager of a large drug store at Coatsville, joined his wife here last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wagner, on Willowbank street. He is one of Bellefonte's young men who is sizing up to the situation, and someday will make a special mark for himself in his chosen line of business. He is here on a vacation and is naturally enjoying the outing.

-Edward K. Rhoads, one of Bellefonte's progressive coal and grain dealers, is now making improvements in and about his place of business. Isaac Miller, and his men are putting a new roof on the office, stable and coal shed. When this is done the exterior of the office and stable will be repainted. Mr. Rhoads is a progressive citizen, and likes to keep abreast with the times.

-Next Sunday Children's Day will be observed in the United Evangelical church. In the morning, at 10.30 the pastor, Rev. James F. Hower, will preach an illustrated sermon to the children; and in the evening, at 7 o'clock, the children will render a service entitled "Under His Banner." An offering for missions will be taken at this service. All are cordially invited.

-Mrs. David Gates, of Warriorsmark, spent part of this and last week in Bellefonte at the home of her son Editor Charles L. Gates, on East Lamb street. She is a good, kind old lady and her friends here are always glad to see her. Her son, Earle Gates, is also a guest in this pleasant home. Mrs. Hayer Dixon and son Herbert, of Johnstown, had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gates but on Tuesday they, with grandmother Gates, left for Warriorsmark, where they will spend some time.

-Col. John Bandis, of Benore, was an early caller on Tuesday to inform us that he has moved his merry-go-round to Hecla Park and would have it in place in a few days. He will be in good shape for business by the 4th of July when the Undines hold their annual picnic at that place. The Col. has a fine equipment, and if rumors are correct he made a whole barrel full of money with it last season. Next, we expect to see him buying a flying machine to travel from the park to his home at Benore.

-Mrs. E. S. Dorworth, who had been visiting friends in Philadelphia and Milton, returned home Tuesday afternoon. She was accompanied by her brother, John, of Milton. He was only here for a few minutes until Willard Hall took him in tow, and began showing him the salient points connected with that new automobile in which he is now interested. The machine has reached such a state of perfection that the owners are ready to form a company for manufacturing and placing them on the market. If it is not in Bellefonte it will be some place else.

-We were favored with a call from J. L. Shaeffer, a native of this county, and a son of Michael Shaeffer, Esq., once a farmer of near Zion, on 1882 Mr. Shaeffer left this county for Dakota, Ill., but is now a resident of Oregon, Ill., engaged as book keeper for the Mississippi Stock farm, the largest of its kind in the United States. This is his third visit to his native home, and he finds his father well and active at the venerable age of 84 years. It was a pleasure for him to attend the Shaeffer-Hazel reunion on Saturday last and meet and have the greeting of his numerous relatives. His stay here will only be for a little over a week, which is all his post of duty permits.

-Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, was circulating among his friends in Bellefonte this week. He and his family, with Miss Grace McBride, are spending this week at State College as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmott Musser. He says the York-Bertha Co. has decided to give Mrs. Bertha Johnston, of Bloomsburg, a pension. She is the wife of the late Jacob Johnson, who died from the effects of being struck across the back by a breaking steel cable, while at work on the Millville bridge several months ago. The pension will be paid Mrs. Johnson as long as she remains a widow. Three other widows of victims of the unfortunate bridge operation have also been settled with on the same terms.

-Miss Jeanne Dillon, of Baddock, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish.

-At the Electric Theatre for Friday, "The Underdog" 1,000 feet long. Miss Garman will sing.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Noll, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Noll.

-At the Electric Theatre for Thursday, The Cossacks in Russia & Wanted a Maid. Grant Puten, of Sunbury singing.

-Albert Schad has bought a lot and is building a home for himself on Linn street, next to the residence of Col. E. R. Chambers.

-Jack Kurtz, of Berlin, was an arrival yesterday, having attended Commencement at Gettysburg. He is making his stay with his grandparents, Fred Kurtz.

-Miss Elizabeth Blanchard, Miss Mary Hunter Linn, Miss Nan Hoy and Miss Mary Hoy drove to Winburne, Friday, where they spent the Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Somerville.

-Rev. Crittenden and wife left on Wednesday for Oberlin College, in Ohio to attend the 75th anniversary of the college. The Rev. is one of the four surviving members of the class of 1836.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery Ward expect to leave their home on Long Island, to-morrow for a trip to Bellefonte in their machine, after a short visit they will return taking with them their aunt, Mrs. S. A. Bell.

-The Salvation Army will hold their annual picnic at Hecla Park, June 24. They are especially seeking out the poor mothers and children. Capt. and Mrs. Heather will thankfully accept donations however small, toward the outing. All are welcome to go along and enjoy the day.

-Tuesday afternoon Nellie, the 12 year old daughter of Charles McClellan, was picking cherries and the limb on which she was standing broke and she fell girl fell violently to the ground. Her right shoulder was dislocated and the bone of the same arm broken close to the shoulder joint.

-Dr. Edward Harris, wife and a former child, of Butler, have been guests at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, Dr. Harris is now one of the most progressive physicians in Butler county, and has built up a large and remunerative practice while here the Doctor and his wife attended State College commencement.

-Clayt Brown has been making all the old fishermen about town green with envy over his luck in catching several more large trout this week. He does it without making much preparation. Whenever he has a spare moment he slips out of the store and needs walk but a few steps until he finds good fishing right by the bridge and he seems to be finding them right along. The big ones seem to have a special fondness for the kind of little white minnows that Clayt feeds them.

-Saturday afternoon, after the 1.20 train came in from Tyrone a young lady, on her way to State College, dropped some money. It is claimed that a young man in Bellefonte ran and picked it up and instead of restoring it to the owner he put it down in his socks. If this is correct he might use as well have laylaid the young lady and taken it out of her pocketbook. A man of this character is not to be treated in any place where his honor is at stake.

The Philipsburg Bridge.
County Commissioner J. L. Dunlap and C. A. Weaver accompanied by their attorney W. D. Zerby, were in Philipsburg the other day to hold a meeting with the Clearfield commissioners in regard to the inter-county bridge in that place. In regard to the building of the bridge the Journal says:

After repeated attempts on the part of the Centre county commissioners to get the commissioners of Clearfield county together for business, it would seem that the meeting might bring forth something substantial. The cost of a concrete bridge would entail an expense of about $100,000 while a steel structure would only cost about $60,000 or $70,000. The difference in price is largely due to the fact that the abutments of the bridge are found to be sound and intact, and to some of the commissioners it would seem extravagant to have these abandoned for concrete. The commissioners of our county feel that they are not to blame for the delay in building this bridge. It was agreed that the letting of the new Maple street bridge shall take place on July 9th, and that the meeting shall be held in Philipsburg. It will be determined at the time of the letting whether the bridge shall be concrete or protected steel.

Odd Fellows New Rituals.
Local Odd Fellows will be interested in the announcement that during the month of June new rituals for all sub-ordinate lodges under the jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge will be distributed by the various Grand secretaries in their respective jurisdiction. The extent of this work will be appreciated when it is known that there will be some 50,000 rituals to distribute.

$100,000 Gift.
Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg recently received a gift of $100,000 from Colonel John P. Fersch.

Dr. Sol. M. Nissley,
Veterinary Surgeon,
A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania at Palace Livery stable, Bellefonte.

WEDDINGS.
WASBON-LEE
Arthur Shuey Wasson and Miss Sarah Lee, both of State College, were married on Wednesday of last week, at the home of the bridegroom in College township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Wasbom, pastor of the Duke street Methodist church, York.

MCGINNIS-BAHMES
A recent wedding in Punxsutawney was that of Walter McGinnis, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGinnis, and Miss Florence Bahme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Bahme. The bridegroom will be remembered by many people in Bellefonte from the time when the McGinnis family lived here. The young couple will make their home in Punxsutawney.

TONER-FORDEDERER
Mrs. Robert H. Fordeeder has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Florence Augusta, to William T. Toner. The wedding will take place at Glen Foerd, Torresdale, near Philadelphia, the Fordeeder country home, on Saturday afternoon, June 27th, at 4.30 o'clock, to be followed by a reception at 5 o'clock. The bridegroom elect is a native of Centre county and is quite well known here. Heard I. F. Harris, of this place, will be best man at the wedding. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Toner, formerly of Bellefonte, but who moved to Philadelphia several years ago.

KLING-CAIN
This afternoon at 2 o'clock a pretty wedding will take place at the home of Mrs. Alice Cain, on north Potter street, Bellefonte. The bride will be her daughter, Miss Goldie Doleska Cain, who is well and favorably known among a large circle of friends here. The prospective groom is Guyer Samuel Kling, who is employed as a machinist in the P. R. R. shops at Altoona. Miss Olivia Cain, sister of the bride, will be bridesmaid and Roy Stover will act as officiant. The two hearts will be bound to beat as one by Rev. A. Davidson, a former pastor of the United Brethren church. The house is prettily decorated for the occasion with a variety of blooming flowers, evergreens and plants.

The tying of the nuptial knot will be witnessed by a large number of friends from Bellefonte and Altoona. As usual a wedding dinner will be served after which they will take the train for Altoona where, as stated, the groom holds an excellent position. He is an industrious young man who will make a good, faithful husband. The bride is a young lady eminently qualified to become the mistress of her own domicile. She is a graduate of the Bellefonte High school, after which she taught school very successfully.

KELLERMAN-BAIRD
"Hick" Kellerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kellerman, of near Bellefonte, took unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Margaret Teffy Baird. The happy event took place on Wednesday of last week at Lewistown, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. McClintock, the latter being a sister of the groom, and better known here as Miss Louise Kellerman. The wedding was a quiet one but a very pretty affair. Saturday they came as far as Miesburg in the train where they were met by the groom's father, who drove them to his home near Bellefonte. Hick thought that his hosts of friends were probably onto the racket, and to avoid any unnecessary excitement they took no risks by coming to Bellefonte in the train. They spent the Sunday very pleasantly here and on Monday afternoon left for Glenn Campbell, where they were given a royal reception on Monday evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baird, of Glenn Campbell, and is a most attractive and sensible young lady. Naturally she created a good impression among the friends here. The groom is a model young man, who stands high among a large circle of friends here. He is still in the telephone business, and after Saturday will be at home in Barnsboro.

HIPSON-HEWITT
A very pretty but quiet home wedding took place at 7.40 o'clock Thursday morning, when Eva Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Houtz Hewitt, of Philipsburg, became the bride of Joseph Graham Hipson, Rev. S. D. Wilson, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Viola Davies, of Lewistown, and Edgar H. Hewitt, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride was gowned in a superb creation of white chiffon, gorgeously trimmed with princess lace and filet, and carried a shower bouquet of orange blossoms. Miss Davies wore a handsome gown of Paris muslin, and mechin lace, and carried a bouquet of pink, carnations. Lohengrin's wedding March was beautifully rendered by Miss Laura McCausland, a cousin of the bride.

To get a storm effect on the stage it is necessary to work like thunder.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

CLEMENT DALE, Solicitor.

A Studious Student.
Miss Carrie Arnold, of this year's graduating class of the Milton High school, did not miss a day nor was she tardy once since she entered the public schools as a pupil in the primary department twelve years ago. The distinction attained by her has very few, if any, parallels in the state. The school board recognized this remarkable record by presenting her with a handsome gold watch.

The man who is thrown on his own resources often finds that he hasn't any.
