BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Miss Agathia Wetzel, of Howard, spent Monday in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Wetzel, Bellefonte, spent Sunday at Howard. -Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Spicher, of Williamsport, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heckman.

-Manager Howard R. Ruger of the Sunday morning; it left a big bouncing baby boy.

-Miss Elsie Miller, daughter of H. V. Miller, returned Sunday from Atlantic city, where she had been spending

- James Shorter, on Monday, trimmed the trees u front of the Curtin mansion, on High street, which made a decided improvement.

-Misses Florence, Rachel and Margaret Gehret were visitors in Lock Haven on Sunday. Miss Margaret remanided there for a week.

-Mrs. Chester Irvin and little daughter Marion, of Georgetown, Texas, arrived in Bellefonte on Friday for a visit with her father, Rev. James P. Hugh--Dr. Kilpatrick made a trip to How ard on Saturday in his auto and witnessed the Centre and Clinton lengue championship game. He is a regular base -On Wednesday R. B. Taylor practically completed the piece of state road through Milesburg borough from the southern line to the bridge over Bald Eagle creek.

-Mrs. A. O. Furst of this place, ac-companied by Miss Sarah Watson, of aged respectively 72 and 59 years, passed Sagamore hotel, Sagamore, N. Y., on —If crowds count for anything, those going to and coming from the Theatorium every evening with broad smiles to torium every evening with broad smiles to the time in McConnelsburg where the on their faces, surely indicate where

ed. All are cordially invited.

ten days ago, is on a fatr way to a permanent recovery. She is getting along really faster than was anticipated.

—Col. Taylor's quarters

the quarters of the three soldiers that were killed in camp at Gettysburg, by a bolt of lightning, on the fatal Thursday night of last week; the Col. experienced a slight stunning.

-Mrs. Kate Hunter and daughter, Miss Helen, of Pittsburg, are guests at the residence of Mr. and Mrs, W. T. Speer, on West High street. Mrs. Hunter is the daughter of the late Mrs. Ellen Furey, formerly of this place, al days, as well as sleepless nights.

-Saturday morning Benj. Gentzle shipped a car load of exceedingly fine horses from our station to New York City. They was a station of them. Huckleberries come in large quantities, also blackberries, price eight cents per quart.

-Miss Mary Connolly, of Bellefonts.

church refused to respond to the touch of Prof Hall. The result was that the son, Herbert and little daughter. Eleathrough without a break.

-That campaign banner suspended stop to fix a punctured tire. on the Diamond for Taft, by our neighbor, Sammy Williams, has not been up more than a week or two, yet it continually gets twisted and tangled on the slightest provocation. We don't know whether this portends future troubles whether this portends future troubles and at times it wrench the spokes out of the front wheel.

Gap on his Buick runabout last Saturday will be attention to it until it became so little attention to it until it became so sore and painful that he was compelled to consult a physician who propounced landed in a ditch with sufficient force to it blood poison. He applied remedies to prevent the progress of the disease but a sufficient on getting worse. His arm makes Mr. Williams very uneasy.

-A A. Dale, of Glenn Harris, was in was injured. Bellefonte, Monday, and reports progress at the Dale and Bennett lumber camp. They are now engaged in building one mile of additional railroad track into the mountains where they will secure a larger and better growth of lumber. The mill was closed down a day or so recently on account of a broken pulley.

them the balance of the season. Twitmire is now in Wilmington, N. C., but a letter received from him by his par-ents stated that it was possible he would go to Huntingdon. He is an expert at playing ball and can make about as much money fanning a ball as pulling

-Robert McKnight, wife and daughter, of Philadelphia, are spending a short vacation at the McKnight home which is located on Buffalo Run. fonte, and thus has many acquaintances here who are always glad to see him.

His father, Robert McKnight, Sr., for years, was superintendent of the Belle-wife, returned to Bellefonte after a McKnight was born and raised in Belle-

-While attending the encampment at ed by a very dignified looking gentle-Gettysburg last week. Capt. Samuel man whom he took to be James Guffey. Williams was surprised to find that he of Pittsburg, the man who had the steam

-The prices never change, but the pictures are new every night at the Theatorium

-W. C. Lingle, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in Philipsburg with his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Todd. -Prof. Shuman Williams, of Pleasant Catholic church. Gap, passed through Bellefonte to-day on his way to Pittsburg for a visit.

a business trip to Philipsburg, —Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donachy, of Bellefonte, were visited by the stork on School and Evening to a visit.

—Rev. Barry will administer the Lutheran church next Sabbath, morning and evening.

-George Garman and Emanuel Joseph are now dispensing ice cream cones at the entrance of the Garman opera be a very clever machine.

house,

-Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, is in Bellefonte and will remain with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Dawson, until on Monday at the Bellefonte hospital. September.

—Mrs. John T. Laurie and three children, Mildred, William and Andrew, of Tyrone, are visiting friends in Bellefoute and State College.

-The people of Bellefonte were certainly pleased the last week with the for sale call on Robert Cole. If you quantity and quality of the fine pictures wish to buy a farm call on Robert Cole.

shown at the Theatorium -Mr. Isaac B. Worth, of Kennett garden spot of the world. Chambers, on Linn street.

is a pleasant visitor at the home of Miss protection in case of fire. Sadie Stover, on Bishop street.

season the catch was below the average. caught than heretofore. -Reuben and Isiaah Musser, of Ohio, sore.

Philadelphia, is spending a season at the Sagamore hotel, Sagamore, N. Y., on way to Hartleton, Union county, to visit who resides on East Beaver street, fell their father, who is 92 years old. -Since her son, Dr. Lee B. Woodcock, the time in McConnelsburg, where she ies.

Ice cream and cake will be serv- coast battery at Fort Wright, Washington, is now at home with his parents at > mportant business. -Friday evening the ladies of the Belle-fonte Evangelical church will hold a festival on the church lawn. If you want ice cream and cake you could do no better than to patronize this, ladies. The object is a good one. -William Musser, of East Lamb street, has not only had his own residence handsomely painted on the outside, but is having the brush applied to the various other houses he owns in dif-causing him considerable pain for sever- week. Twenty cents per dozen was asked for them. Huckleberries come in City. They were high grade animals, attended the picnic at Snow Shoe, carefully selected and as nice a bunch of horse flesh as one would want to see.

Thursday, She left there on Friday, accompanied by Miss Kelly, for Phila--Last Sunday morning the large pipe organ in the Bellefonte Presbyterian delphia and Atlantic City where they intend to spend their vacation.

last hymn was sung in the old fashioned nor, spent a week visiting friends in After the exercises in the council room The choir happened to be larger Huntingdon. The other day Mr. Beethey adjourned to Ceader's ice cream than usual and the music was carried zer went over in his Buick car and parlor where they held a banquet. brought them home ; which included a

-While coming in from Pleasant The occupants received a jolt but no one

-The CENTRE DEMOCRAT is desirous of getting all tof ithe news all the time and to this end its many readers can be of great assistance. Word sent or telened to this office concerning live happenings, personals or locals, will receive prompt attention on the part of the editor. It is impossible for the news -Huntingdon is after Wilbur Twit- gatherers to cover all points of Bellefonte mire to locate there and pitch ball for and neighborhood and the Centre Democrar readers can help us out.

-The other evening as one of Tom Beaver's drivers was coming down Howard street in a two-horse wagon, Ellis, a nine-year old son of James Mc-Cafferty, jumped on to get a free ride, and in some manner fell off striking a stone or some other sharp object which inflicted a serious cut in one of his legs, severing a ligament. A physician was called, who dressed the wound and fonte Gas Works, and a highly respect-ed citizen of the town. week's delightful touring through the lower tier of counties, in Harold Lingle's -Friday evening, about 9 o'clock.

Company B, with their camping paraphernalia, arrived in Bellefonte on a special train. The boys were mighty so vexacious to the ordinary automobil glad that they reached home safe and ist. They had a race with several elec-

-Several correspondents mailed their letters too late to appear in this issue. -C. H. Kline, one of State College's good citizens, gave our sanctum a pleas-

-Misses Eva and Helen Crismen left on Wednesday afternoon for Sunbury where they will spend several weeks.

-On Monday Col. W. Fred Reynolds re ceived a carload of peach baskets which will be used in marketing his large crop of peaches.

—On Sunday a little son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hazel, of Spring Creek, will be christened in the Bellefonte —Jerry Stump, of Centre Hall, under-went an operation in the Bellefonte hos-pital on Monday for the removal of a growth on the lower jaw.

-W. Harrison Walker, Esq., returned from Philadelphia, where he purchased a new Mitchell runabout that appears to

-Mrs. Hiller, wife of Dr. H. M. Hil-

on High street. -If you have a farm or house and lot

He also handles the Texas lands, the Square, is spending a pleasant visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. R. destroyed by fire on Tuesday, due large--Lock Haven's splendid hospital was August 18th. ly to a lack of facilities for fighting such -Miss Lois Gorman, daughter of a conflagration. Bellefonte should florist C. D. Gorman, of Williamsport, profit by this experience by having ample

-Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week S. H. Williams was ill with acute The trout fishing season closes to week S. H. Williams was ill with acute morrow, Friday, July 31st, During the indigestion. For a short time it was a question whether he would pull through. About Bellefonte more large trout were He was at his place of business Tuesday but he was still very weak and

> -Wednesday morning a little daughfrom the second story window. She is about three years of age, and had the habit of leaning out of the window. The little girl escaped with few injur-on their faces, surely indicate where you should go to be amused.

—The ladies of the United Evangelical church will give a social on the Church fawn, Friday evening of this week. Ice cream and cake will be served a three-years term with United States week. Ice cream and cake will be served as battery at Fort Wright, Washing. Fairlamb has been with her sister in DuBois and is now visiting another sister in Lock Haven.

> -Several weeks ago the heirs of the late Edward T. Hoy, of Bellefonte, received a check of $3000 from the Royal Arcanun in payment of a policy which the deceased held in this popular insur-ance organization. The payment was exceeingly prompt, which indicates that a man is perfectly safe in carrying this kind of insurance.

-Next month Dr. Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, will take his annual vacation, part of which will be spent in Chicago. Next Sunday the pulpit will be filled by Rev, Mr. Whallen, of Altoona; on the following Sabbath Rev. S. M. Brooks, of Reeds -Last week groceryman Charles Shuey met with a painful accident. In closing the doors of his large safe his thumb was caught and badly crushed,

-- Monday evening Council No. 1050, Royal Arcanum, held a meeting in their hall when important business was transacted. Past Grand Regrent, W. H. D. Druckenmiller, of Sunbury, favored the council with an interesting talk on the work of the Arcanum. He was followed District Deputy George N. Krouse, of Milton, who made an excellent address. The Lock Haven Council was represented by Robert P. Miller C. E. Shoemaker, A. A. Hall and C. E. Gross.

-Last week Ross Parker, conductor bitten on a finger of the right hand by what he thinks was a spider. He paid it still kept on getting worse. His arm and hand swelled up to alarming proportions, and on Sunday he was compelled to go to bed. Monday his condition was quite serious and caused some uneasiness among his friends. Toward evening a avoirdupois which is badly needed. turn came for the better and it is thought all danger is over, and it will be only a short time until he will be punching tickets again. It was a close call, but it is evident that his time hasn't come yet, and he will live to smoke that old pipe once more.

Mark Your Tools.

Do you know that you can write your name on the metal of your farm tools? You can. Just take a little tallow or beeswax, melt it and spread it over the place on which you want your name; write your name down through the wax with a big needle or awl and pour a few drops of nitric acid over the letters you have made, Leave a few minutes. closed it up, a process which required Then wipe off the wax and your name will be on the iron.

The Stinglest Yet.

The Lock Haven Democrat says:-Bellefonte claims to have the stingiest man in the United States, if not in the world, and a premium is offered tor his superiority in closefistedness. He got married to a home girl to save expenses.

They walked around the square on a house the bought her a nickles the around the square on a house the bought her a nickles the around the square of a new High school builds. man in the United States, if not in the tainly been forced upon general public attention in the past ten years. What better can be done than to replant these

OVER THE COUNTY.

The date of the Grange picnic at Centre Hall this year will be September 12th

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Longwell, of Philipsburg, have been visiting friends in the vicinity of Lemont.

the benefit of the tribe. All are invited to attend and have a good time.

John Kimport, of Linden Hall, sold his butchering business to Elmer Houtz, who will take charge of it the first of April. Mr. Kimport bought the Kimport farm from W. A. W.

April. Mr. Kimport bought the Kimport farm from W. A. Wagner and will occupy it next year. The Mackeyville Sunday school pic-nic will be held at Hecla Park on Aug-William Kellon the lake, a ball game and many other amusements. The St. Paul Union Sunday school will two miles west of Madisonburg, on Aug. 1, the usual refreshments will be served and the Penn Hall band will be present to furnish the music. Everybody invited to come. This Thursday evening the reports of committees in connection with the Cen-tre-Clinton County Business Men's Pic-nic Association will be made at a meeting to be held at Lock Haven. The date for holding the picnic is Tuesday,

It is a laudable sign that the good roads sentiment is making progress among the people. Twenty years back, had there been such a feeling, the mon-ey saved thereby and the increased pleasure of road users, would have been inestimable

Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Deitzell, of Maytown, are at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durst, in Centre Hall. Rev. Deitzel is serving a Reformed charge in Lancaster county, but always spends the vacation months in Old Centre.

T. F. Farner, of Philadelphia, came up to Tusseyville to visit his old home and his wife and little daughter who are now staying there. Mr. Farner is a railroad mail agent between New York and Pittsburg, and is counted one of the efficient young men in the service.

Mrs. Ward K. Shultz, of Mexico, Juniata county, accompanied by her two daughters, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keller, at Centre Hall. Rev. Shultz is recovering from the operation which he underwent for appendicitis, and is now with relatives in New Berry.

John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, a short time ago returned from the Wills eye-hospital, where he spent several weeks taking treatment for his cyes. When It is believed that in time, he will be able to see as well as ever.

The Philipsburg Ledger says that Allen Lutz and Clyde Hancock have been getting near to nature's heart on a farm over at Runville. Allen gave up the farmer's too strenuous life and came home, but his fellow worker seemed to While William Rockey and John Wright were starting to cut wheat on the Rockey farm, near Boalsburg, the team started to run away but were stopped by running into a fence post. Mr. Wright was pinned fast by a guard penetrating his leg. Mr. Rockey was thrown to the ground with both horses of their daughter, Katherine Eliza, to on top of him. How he escaped with his Benjamin Greeley Fogg. The ceremolife is a miracle.

Mrs. Joseph T. Irvin, of Denison, Texas, recently was entertained by Ex-Sheriff Brungart, at Centre Hall. From there she went to Rebersburg, the former home of her parents. She is the daughter of Lieut. Simon Spangler, now a on the Bellefonte Central railroad, was resident of Newton, Kansas, and came east with her husband, a real estate agent, who is spending the time at Altoona, his native town.

-Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spigelmyer, ac-companied by Miss Elizabeth Platts, left on Monday for Sylvan Dell, a summer resort near Williamsport, where they be the means of slightly increasing his Hall. The festivities will continue during the entire day, and it promises to be one of the most successful ever held. The program will be varied and interesting throughout, The public is cordially invited to attend the exercises from which can be gleaned many important historical facts connected with that immediate vicinity.

Our esteemed Rebersburg correspondent, alluding to our disbelief in spooks and failure to find one on the premises of the murdered Culby's at the mouth of Cherry run, avers that the spook for that tragedy makes its apperance at the Cherry run bridge. Well, perhaps that's so, and may be the reason no trout are seen at or near the bridge, above or below,—likely all speckled beauties are scared off to other waters by the spook that patrols the bridge.

basket picnic. Everybody invited,

The horse that Noah Brumgart, of Milheim, lost while pickinghuckleberries in the Brush valley narrows, was found by several buckleberry pickers. The animal had strayed to the top of the mountain near where it had been tied from the appearance of the place Cherry run, avers that the spook for that Est, is the Electric Reads and destruction.

Williams week. Capt. Samuel destreads who had the steam and whom he took to be James Guffey.

Williams was surprised to find that he was without a purse. He carried it in his hip pocket, and it contained some actor of protection. He remembers of being in a crush at a street car station, but thinks no one other than our progressive legal field Climent Dale who was taking if from his pocket in that way, Nevertheless he is minus it and in ording pictures for the first time. When the root to the raising of wood corps on this produced to brigg him home. That a appearance of a multi-millionaire what happened that he can't understand how it happened that he can't understand how it happened that he can't understand how it happened to be more in the past ten years. What the first men was understand how it happened that he can't understand how it happened to be beginning to give serious attention in the mour progressive action of cereals or for pasturage, when the conting the more production of cereals or for pasturage with her too, which she most cheerfully produced to brigg him home. That he spend, and how pin moon and the past was placed in plant the set of the can't understand how it happened that he can't understand how it happened the can't understand how it happened that he can't understand how it happened that he can't unders

Willis P. Breon, of Mill Hall, is not improving from an inward injury received some time ago.

Miss Alice Thompson, of Bellefonte, s taking care of the sick at B. Gardner of Grove's east of Centre Hall.

Philipsburg, have been visiting friends in the vicinity of Lemont.

The Red men of Hicktoka tribe will hold a festival in their hunting grounds

The farm of the late Henry Keen situated in Penn township was sold at Sheriff's sale, and was purchased by Dr. G. S. Frank, of Millheim.

Miss Elizabeth Fryberger, of Philipsburg, who is quite well known in Bellefonte, left Tuesday for the home Randall Mu of Miss Adeline Mull, who resides near the picknicers and thus enjoy a day in the picknicers and thus enjoy a day in the woods. There will be boat riding it is thought, until he will be able to ago. It will only require a short time, Musser. continue his work.

Luella Ross returned to Linden Hall, The St. Paul Union Sunday school will hold a festival at the school house yard, home in Milford, Virginia; on her way here she spent some time with her uncle's family in Lebanon.

The Catholic picnic to be held at Snow Shoe, Aug. 20th, will be one of the largest gatherings in that section this season. There will be an abundance to amuse and entertain all who attend Mrs. James H. Holmes, Sr., of State College, was 73 years old on Wednesday, July 23, and in order to celebrate the event her children tendered her a surprise party, which was thoroughly en-joyed by all.

Pat Garrity, the nobleman of the Seven Mountains, is a large egg raiser from his big flock of chickens. When eggs go up to as much as thirty cents a dozen, Pat will not take that-he says one cent per egg is enough. Match that,

J. C. Corl and D. C. Krebs bought, by mutual agreement of all the heirs, the Levi Krebs farm at $60 per acre. This is one of the finest locations in the county and a beautiful home and the young men can feel proud of their purchase.

One day recently Harry Lewis was hitching his team to a harvesting ma-chine at his farm, near Dix station, when one of the horses kicked him on the left hand, completely severing the ends of the first and second fingers and cutting the palm of the hand.

The Lewisburg Journal made this reference: E. M. Huyett, Centre Hall, was a business visitor in Lewisburg on Tuesday. He is interested in the new Sunbury bridge and is also a director in the Sunbury and Selinsgrove trolley line, recently put in operation.

Dr. Chas. T. Aikens, president of the Susquehanna University, who is a busy man for that institution, had a fine farm added to the growing fund recently. Dr. Aikens set out last year to raise a certain amount of funds for this college in two years and is accomplishing his Great interest is being manifested by the former students of the Penn Hall-Spring Mills Academy reunion to be held August 6th. A history of the institution is being prepared and will be printed and ready for sale at the time of in the garb that nature gave them, contrary to the borough ordinances. Some time a number of these bathers will have a serious interview with Chief Burgess Maize. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Knight, of West

Benjamin Greeley Fogg. The ceremony took place on Wednesday, July 15. The groom is an instructor in the civil engineering department of the Pennsylvania State College. It is announced that the famous Repaz Band of Williamsport has been engaged to furnish music at the Business Mens Picnic, at Hecla Park on the 18th. The six teams of the Centre-Clinton base ball league will be in attendance and three games will be played-one in the forenoon and two in the afternoon. S. M. Campbell, Millheims's progressive funeral director, has purchased a fine casket wagon from the O. Armleder Wagon company, of Cincinnatti, O., which he contemplates using at funerals, while he has taken his hearse to Mifflinburg for repairs, and have it changed to more modern style, The new Bickford fire brick company On Saturday the annual reunion of the Dale family will take place at Oak to keep, it running steadily from now to keep it running steadily from now on, though at present part of the plant only is being run on three-fourths time.

This is the plant in which J. C. Meyer, John C. Rowe and other Bellefonters are financially interested.

Don't forget the famous Bailyville picnic is billed for August 8th, Company E, 45th P. V., will celebrate their 47th reunion at that time. Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, president of State College ; Gen. James A. Beaver, J. C. Meyer and other notable orators, will make addresses. It will be on the order of a and from the appearance of the place where it was found, had been there some time. The animal was taken home and aside from being very thin appeared all right.

phernalia, arrived in Bellefonte on a special train. The boys were mighty glad that they reached home safe and sound, with not one man missing from their ranks. It is said that several of them did some earnest praying two nights last week when the camp, at Gettysburg, was enwrapped in those electrical storms which brought with them so much death and destruction.

—Monday evening a young man of Bellefonte on a special train. The boys were mighty glad that they reached home safe and so vexacious to the ordinary automobil ist. They had a race with several electric storms, but won out every time. Among the principal cities visited were ent and suggested that they save the candy for the children.

A partial solution of the problem of what to do with worn-out farms and unprofitable hillsidea from which the virgin forests have been cut away has certainly been forced upon general public attention in the past ten years. What better can be done than to replant these done of Pittsburg, the man who had the steam of Pittsburg at the foliance on a bridal tour. He bought the a nickles worth of stick candy for a wedding prestication and suggested that they save the candy for the children.

They waked around the square on a bridal tour. He bought her a nickles worth of stick candy for a wedding prestication. He bought the a nickles worth of stick candy for a wedding prestication and suggested that they save the candy for the children.

A partial solution of the problem of what to do with worn-out farms and unprofitable hillsidea from which the virgin forests have been cut away has certainly been forced upon general public worth of the superintent of the erection of a new High school building, is a candidate for the superintent of the erection of a new High school building, is a candidate for the superintent of the erection of a new

At a meeting of the Snow Shoe school board, B. J. Bower, of Mill Hall, was elected principal of the borough schools. The second Zettle reunion will be held in Harter's grove, Georges Valley, August 22, and all relatives of the family are requested to be present. The Rev. Samuel Martin, of Windber, has accepted a call from the State College Presbyterian church and will probably take up his pastoral duties in September.

Dr. John Riter is at the home of his son, Edward Riter, in Centre Hall. The doctor had been laid up in the hospital for some time, but he is now able to get Randall Musser, a civil and mining engineer in the employ of the Vesta Coal company, at California, Washingnic will be held at Hecla Park on August II. Everybody is welcome to join one of his toes amputated a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P.

PENN HALL.

Farmers are busy storing their barley; next will be their oats. Bertha Corman, of Penn Cave, was a pleasant visitor at the home of her uncle, W. H. Sinkabine.

Sara Fisher spent several days at the home of Percival Tharp. Dr. Wolf was a pleasant caller at the home of F. M. Fisher on Sunday. J. C. Condo has made quite an improvment on his residence by adding a new iron fence and a concrete walk.

Mary Fisher, who had been on the sick list, we are glad to say is improv-

W. H. Sinkabine and family, spent Sunday at the home of Mathias Weiglie. Ralph Shook and lady friend, Elenor Long, passed through town Saturday. Lloyd Houser and lady friend Annie Hains, attended the S.S. picnic at Centre Hall Thursday. Hugh Runkle Sundayed with his sister, Mrs. F. S. Musser.

D. J. Musser who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.
Mable and Mary Bair, accompanied by Esther Hennick, attended the Lutheran Sunday school picnic at Centre Hall; all report having a fine time.

Tibben Zubler was a welcome visitor in town. Come again Tib.
Chas. Smith and bride spent a few days with the former's parents, H. M.

Malanthan Musser and wife, of Zion, visited at the home of D. J. Musser. R. B. Bartges and family Sundayed at the home of A. M. Kreamer. Spear Wert and friend Bruce Stump, both of Tusseyville, were seen in town on Sunday. What is the attraction Cornelius Musser and wife visited with his parents, D. J. Musser's.

Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder will observe Harvest Home services in the Lutheran church Sunday Aug 16, in the forenoon at 10 o'clock; all are cordially invited to James McCool, wife and infant son, vere seen in town Sunday.

Cathryn Shook Sundayed at the home of her son, E. H. Shook.
W. H. Sinkabine had the misfortune to lose a fine beifer last week; about two weeks ago he lost a horse. Sorry for our good neighbor's misfortune. attend.

Persons living near McMullen's mill dam, near Milheim, are complaining that boys go in bathing during the

Our band has reorganized and expects to attend the festival at Hoy's school house Saturday Aug. 1. July, up to yesterday, had 5 1-3 inches of rain, from eleven rains.

It takes a smart man to get paid for doing nothing.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; 2 issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

FOR SALE—Good cance in fine condition. Apply to John Stover, at Finklestine's store, Bellefonte. 26-4f

FOR SALE-Colt, four months old July 15th; generally fine, of good tough stock. Apply to J. E. Houtz, Benore. x30 FOR SALE—Little Giant gas and gasoline en-gines from 1½ to 20 horse power. Edward H. Dale, agent, Lemont, Pa. 27-4f

PUBLIC SALE—On Saturday, Aug. 1st, Geo. Koon, of Pleasant Gap, will sell household goods, harness and other articles.

WANTED—Men to cut jack pine for paper wood by the cord; good timber, level ground; pay weekly. G. W. Holt, Unionville. x31 FOR SALE—Pure bred collie pups—the farmers friend stock dog: a postal will bring you my prices. Steward Orndorf, Woodward, Pa.

FOR SALE OR RENT-Known as the M. B. Duck property, located along pike between Spring Mills and Penn Hall, Apply at residence. M. B. Duck. VIN-TE-NA—At wholesale and retail. Being obliged to buy at sheriff's sale. Vin-te-na and other goods for debt. I offer them to the public at reduced rates. M. C. Ammerman. 21 West Bishop St.. Bellefonte.

FOR SALE—Horse and carriage; horse well broken in all harness, fearless of automobiles and steam engines; a good family horse. T. W. Walker, Rebersburg, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE—At Gum Stump, in Boggs township, Saturday, Aug. 1st, at 1 p. m., Mil-ligan Walker will sell live stock and farm im-plements. S. K. Emerick, Auct.

WANTED-I will buy second hand furniture and pay good prices. Furniture repairing, picture and enlarging done promptly. Drop me a card. Emory C. Johnson, L. B. No. 8, Pine Grove Mills, Pa. x34

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

RELLEFONTE-PRODUCE. following prices are paid by Sechler &

The following prices are paid by C. Y. Wag-