GREGG TWP.

GREENS GAP.

The Grenoble Bros. have started out with their Peerless thrashing outfit and are quite busy. The Patrons, rural telephone line is nearing completion at this end, and it won't be long till the Hello will be carried over the wires.

The festival last Saturday eve, was largely attended and the Sunday school realized quite a large sum of money.

A certain fellow from this place, who goes to Madisonburg to see his girl, has been to see her every evening since the 1st of July.

John Wert's young driving horse tore loose at the festival last Saturday eve, and upsetting the buggy he made a run for home. When directly in front of the school grounds he tore himself from the wrecked buggy and ran about a mile and a half up the road where he was caught by Arch Bungard and Maurice Long.

It is a shame and a disgrace the way some of the Millheim boys behaved themselves at the festival last Saturday evening. If they think that it looks gentlemanly to come over here drunk and throw whiskey bottles at the people, they are badly mistaken. Those sports can get all the bottled whiskey they care for in Millheim and some people are preparing to investigate. Brush valley has no use for such hogs.

Quite a number of young folks from this place spent Sunday at the cave. N. A. Duck and wife spent Sunday with the former's parents.

John Kleckner, wife and little daughter, of Millinburg, spent a few days at S. A. Yearicks.

AARONSBURG.

Thos. Frank and wife returned from a few days' visit with friends at Millmont.

Edith Houser, of Bellefonte, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Lenker.

Wm. Boob and wife, of Cincinnati, are paying a visit to his parents, Robt. Boob's.

Rev. W. D. Donat attended the funeral of his aged mother in Lehigh county on Saturday and returned to his home on Monday.

Mrs. Julia Deininger spent a few days with her many friends in town; this is her first visit from the hospital. John Rupp and children, of State College, spent the Sabbath with his mother who is very low at this writing.

Prof. W. J. Meyer and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Meyer's sister, of Philadelphia, have come to spend his vacation with their daughter Eva, in their home here.

Mrs. C. G. Bright and grandchildren spent a few days at the home of Chas. Orwig's, at Hartleton.

Mr. Roush and wife visited friends at Salona a few days last week.

Master Charles Swann, of Olean, N. Y., is the guest of his grandparents, Fred Limbert's.

Lloyd Stover spent the Sabbath with his grandmother at the home of Mr. Gepherts, at Wolf's Store.

Fred Limbert and family, of Altoona, returned to their home after a few days visit with his parents.

Paul Swabb and brother, James, spent the Sabbath with their mother here.

BOALSBURG.

They began the state road here last week, with quite a large number of workmen.

William Fishburn, of Michigan, is visiting old friends here.

Andrew Kreamer and family, of Altoona, are spending a few weeks here.

Jennie Hunter, of Pittsburg, is here greeting her many friends, this being her former home.

Harry Stuart, of Sandridge, is visiting his sister Miss Priscilla.

Mrs. Bell McEntire and children, of Altoona, are visiting her mother Sara Rankin.

James Irvin and wife, of Millinburg, are visiting Mrs. Irwin's parents.

Elmer Ishler's horses tore loose from the hitching post, Saturday night, and made bad work for a while; Elmer is out a buggy by the operation.

John Fortney took a load of jolly huckleberry pickers, over to the Nitany mountain last Thursday.

Forest and Henrietta McGilkrick, of Altoona, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Henry Dale.

The farmers are busy threshing.

Dr. L. E. Kidder's fine team of ponies gave him quite a chase last Friday. They became frightened and the Dr. had quite an exciting time for a while till he got them under control.

Frances Paterson had the misfortune to have the fingers of her right hand pretty badly cut.

Snow Shoe Took Two.

The Snow Shoe boys took both games from Beech Creek, Saturday, at the former place, the first by a score of 8 to 7, and the second 15 to 0.

HOWARD.

On Thursday last one of our aged ladies, Miss May Butler, was visiting at the home of her nephew, Burdine Butler, and had the misfortune to severely injure herself by falling down the stairway. In addition to severe bruises she broke her right thigh bone in two places. Dr. W. J. Kurtz was called and with the skillful aid of medical student, Geo. Hensyl, who happened to be at home on vacation, succeeded in reducing the fracture and safely bandaging it. Notwithstanding her many years and the hot weather, it is strongly hoped that the aged lady may speedily recover.

Father C. Logan McKinney, assistant rector at Altoona, spent the greater part of the week at home with his mother.

Mrs. Dr. Hensyl, who for many, many months has been a sufferer from a complication of physical ills, grows slowly stronger, and greatly gratified her hosts of friends by permitting them to see her down stairs and comfortably engaged in sewing, last Monday.

Miss Bertha Knoll, one of the skillful and much sought for trained nurses of the German Hospital, Philadelphia, is at home with her mother, Mrs. S. O. Knoll, for a brief visit.

Eight-year old Russell, son of John Holter, was taken to the hospital at Altoona last week to be treated for a well defined case of appendicitis. Upon attempting to operate the surgeon found the case already too far advanced to operate safely but drained the cavity of a large amount of accumulated pus, and hopes for the bright little fellow's recovery. Yesterday morning he was still improved.

Last Monday Ed. Vonada, of Nitany valley, had the first finger of his left hand so badly crushed in the driving chain of his binder while cutting oats, that Dr. Kurtz was compelled to amputate it.

Last Tuesday evening during a severe windstorm several of our citizens noted a bright light eastward, and greatly regretted to learn this morning that it was caused by the burning of a barn on one of the farms near Mill Hall owned by Joseph Furst. It was tenanted by Ed. Fryer, who conducted a dairy upon it, and had been struck by lightning. It is pleasing to learn that no live stock was lost.

Mrs. W. W. McGhee, of McGhee's Mills, Clearfield county, formerly Miss Bertha Long, of this place, and sister of the late Alice Kiefer, who was buried here last week, is reported seriously ill at her home, and another sister, Mrs. Wm. Ale, of Jacksonville, has been called to her bedside.

John Brickley, formerly of Curtin township, but now of Chicago, who left these parts forty-nine years ago, and has never been back since until now, arrived yesterday, and with his daughter Belle, the guest of his nephew, David L. Welch.

Reuben Lucas, who has been very seriously ill for several days, is much better, and now moves about the house a little each day.

Asbury Holter, Chester Daughenbaugh and Wm. Rossman, all of whom have been recent hospital patients, are now counted among the convalescents, and are welcome home, even though they still walk rather slowly, and with canes and crutches.

On Friday last our base ball team went out to Orvis and warmed the lugs of the brickmakers in good shape, just to show those lads that they are not the whole push, even if they have been beating all creation heretofore. Hard practice, good team work, hearty home support and good will are developing our team to a degree that makes a victory to the tune of 4 to 0 over the husky boys of Orvis, quite the thing to expect. Really our fellows are getting a little cheery over it, and possibly there is trouble in store for them, as it is understood they have volunteered to play a game with the Auto club of Lock Haven some time in the near future, for the benefit of the hospital.

Mrs. Alexander Henderson, who had reached the ripe age of eighty-two, and had long been an invalid, passed to the other side in the sunset of last Thursday, and on Saturday was laid to rest by her husband in the Presbyterian churchyard at Jacksonville. Mrs. Henderson was one of our oldest and best known citizens, and in her death our community has lost one of its most helpful and useful members. She possessed unusual energy and ability, and a willingness to render aid in times of sickness and trouble that never flagged nor wearied, and made her a welcome visitor in every distressed home. Two sons, Edward, of Philipsburg, Wm. B. J. of Howard, and one daughter, Mrs. J. L. Lauth, of Howard, remain.

The first National Bank, of Howard, probably looks like the headline of a dream to some of our old citizens, but it is a decidedly substantial fact; within a day or two the details of the enterprise and the names of the officers will be public property. For the present it is enough to say that the stock has all been subscribed, and that eighty per cent of it is owned by substantial citizens of our town and its immediate vicinity and that the success of the institution is assured from the beginning. A new convenience for our citizens and a new evidence of the growth of our town as one of the business centres of the county.

Bob Vortis and Charles Husabaum, two of the strong men who have helped with success for the P. S. C. base ball team, are now inhabitants of our town, and will play for a few weeks with our club. They will play with the team in an exhibition game with the Lock Haven team, in the Lock Haven field tomorrow.

Fishing Law Explained.

Owing to the uncertainty as to the number of hooks and lines that one fisherman may use, the Perkiomen Fish Protective association asked William E. Meehan, State Fish Commissioner, to explain the law. In reply he says: "In answer to the questions, how many hooks, lines and rods can be used in daytime, it is impossible to give a legal answer. It was plainly the intent of the legislature of 1907 to permit an unlimited number, but the question has been raised as to the constitutionality of this act, and one item in it has been declared unconstitutional."

Replying to other questions Mr. Meehan says tadpoles can be used for bait, that a landing net may lawfully be used to land a fish caught by a hook, that game fish may be used for bait during the open season if of legal size, and that a three pronged hook is regarded as one hook.

Engineers on the state roads to be built through Millhall and Lamar township commenced work Tuesday morning.

UNIONVILLE.

Maggie Rowan, of Tyrone, is home for a week's visit to her parents.

Misses Mary Mitchell, Nan and Julia Miller, of Clearfield, and Ruth Pascoe, of Tyrone, a bevy of as jolly young ladies as one could wish to meet, were recent visitors at the home of D. Buck.

The 6th anniversary of John P. Harris, the third's birthday, was celebrated a few evenings ago at the home of his parents by a party of the brightest little tots, whose joys were unbounded. Of course, Johnnie's mother set up the good things for the crowd.

A few evenings ago a couple of black-whiskered, long-haired, repulsive looking individuals, accompanied by a couple of women who claimed to be sisters of the men, held a public meeting in the diamond. Almost the entire population turned out to hear them. They neither sang nor prayed. They called themselves Israelites and preached the doctrine of universal salvation, and no hades for evil doers. Joe Gill, et al, wanted them to organize a congregation here.

Mrs. Eddie Russell, Jr., Mrs. Dr. Irwin, Bess Brown, Mary E. Green, Mary Buck and Laura Rumberger have organized a progressive luncheon party. Six luncheons in one evening—Gee!

Miss Lizzie Brugger, who has been helping to hold up the lid at Harrisburg for several years, is home on a couple month's vacation.

Miss Margaret Cooney, of Bellefonte, is the guest of Miss Margaret McDonnell. They are pair of very bright young "Peggy's".

William H. Rumberger and family, of DuBois, are visiting at the Domino home.

Recently, on a trip westward on the Buffalo Run road, I stopped at the model farm occupied by William H. Tibbens, and which is under the supervision of Geo. R. Meek and family, generally, with the appearance of "things general" with hay and grain—just think of it, 125 tons of hay—and all other crops in proportion. Will says after Bryan's election he will beat that by two laps.

Say Charley! do you know I will never hear the last of the flying machine. I will have to use it almost constantly to satisfy the demands of the dear people for excursions in the air, and have blocked out the following program subject to changes if necessary: Tuesday Aug. 7, will take John R. Lemon, Isaac Ellenberger, Matthias Rider, Martin Grazer, Theodore Grazer, Port Burket, Hile Griffen and Bob Gray to see the Panama Canal. On Wednesday 3—Lou Morrison, Ann Sloey, Mary Martin, Kate McCoy, Harry Fulton, George Derr, Alfred Lester, and Francis Spear, to the moon. This latter company will provide plenty of "pie." Geo. Derr will see that his "form" is properly made up Alfred might take a "stick" with him. The ladies must be ornamented with "pearl and agate." Francis will take lots of copies of Centre Democrats to plant in the moon. Other announcements later.

ESTHER GRAZIER—more familiarly known as Aunt Hettie, died at her home in Gatesburg, at 5 o'clock, on last Saturday evening, and was interred in the grave yard at that place on Monday at 1 o'clock. For about five years she had been a patient sufferer, having been unable to walk and could only move about the house with the aid of an invalid chair. Though she suffered much pain by times, she bore it all with such patience and christian fortitude that was truly remarkable. She was the daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Rumberger, early pioneer settlers of that section of Centre county. Her husband preceded her to the grave many years ago. After the death of her husband, her son-in-law, John R. Lemon, with his wife and only son came to live with her and with the assistance of her son, Oscar, did all that loving hands could do to make her pathway through life, in her declining years, as enjoyable as it was possible. She leaves to survive her the following sons and daughters: Harlan, of Lykens; George Cronister, Mrs. D. M. Lykens, of Warriors Mark; Mrs. J. R. Lemon, of Gatesburg; Mrs. D. L. Ray and Elmer, of Cambria Mines, Pa.; Theodore, of Tyrone; and Oscar, of Altoona. Two sisters also survive her: Mrs. Margaret Cronister, of Centre Line, and Mrs. Barbara Rider, of Tyrone, all were present at the funeral except Mrs. Cronister. She had 46 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren, and a great-great grandchild; 24 of the former attended the funeral. Aunt Hettie was born May 27, 1824 and died July 25, 1908; aged 84 years, 2m, and 22 days. At the age of 17 she joined the Lutheran church and lived a consistent life, never missing church services when it was possible for her to attend. The following grand children bore her remains from the house to the cemetery: Dorsey Cronister, Ernest Grazer, George Lykens, Askley Grazer, Frank Lykens and Ralph Cronister. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Bergstresser, her pastor, and the beautiful tribute he paid this aged mother in Israel, was truly inspiring. Her faith in the all redeeming power of Christ never wavered and she died with the full assurance of a home beyond the grave.

THOMPSON BING—on Tuesday morning, Bing received a telegram announcing the sudden death of her son, Thompson Bing, which occurred at his home in Reynoldsville. No particulars could be obtained at this writing. He was born and raised here and was about 58 years of age. Almost since he became of age he has lived in Reynoldsville. He was one of its most popular and progressive citizens, a merchant by occupation. He leaves to survive him his wife and several children, his aged mother of this place, and the following brothers and sisters: Lorenza, of DuBois; Joseph, of Jeanette; Ellsworth, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Curt Senser, of Reynoldsville; Mrs. Ella Holland, of DuBois, and Mrs. Mary McLearn, of near Philadelphia. His wife was the daughter of the late Adam Barlow, formerly of Stormstown.

Ed Foutz, an Altoona butcher, has discovered a new way to catch rats and in a few days captured 60. He fills a can partly full of lard and meat refuse, and next morning finds the rodents by the dozen, as they are unable to escape up the straight greasy walls of the can.

Donghnuts don't agree with some people in spite of the fact that they are hole-some.

A Large Picnic.

One of the largest picnics held this year in Centre county was the one held under the auspices of the State College camp of the Modern Woodmen of America, at Hunter's park, on Saturday. It was practically a holiday for the people of the College, and they turned out in large numbers from that place and the surrounding community. In the afternoon quite a number of persons went to the park from Bellefonte, where they put in an enjoyable half day. There was sufficient amusement to entertain the people, among which was music by the band and a game of ball in the afternoon between Unionville and State College, Earle Kline, son of Sheriff Kline, did the pitching act for Unionville, while Glenn did the twirling for State. The boys did some fast playing and the score ended 9-6 in favor of the State College team.
