

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Evans, of Pottstown, Pa., was in town this week and paid us a brief visit. John I. Rankin, of Philadelphia, spent the past few days in Bellefonte among friends. Mrs. L. T. Munson, of Bellefonte, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Mary Dix, of Dayton, Ohio. Wallace Caum, of Altoona, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Steele on Sunday. Rev. Father McArdle returned home Saturday from a pleasant visit to Atlantic seashore ports. Mrs. Alice Robb, of Bellefonte, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Swartz, at Tusseyville. Henry Weaver, of Pittsburg, is a guest in Bellefonte at the Montgomery home, on Bishop street. Wm. I. Swoope, of Clearfield, spent part of Tuesday afternoon in Bellefonte attending to legal business. Mrs. Blanch Glenn, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting friends and relatives in Bellefonte and Centre county. Mrs. Clark Carson, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Harrison Kline, returned to her home in Berwick, Friday. Ira D. Garman, of Philadelphia, and Robert Garman, of Tyrone, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as guests at the Garman House. Miss Ruth Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Young, returned Tuesday evening from a pleasant visit at Newark, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Morris, who make their home with David Barlett at Sunny Side, are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son. Ex-Sheriff Shaeffer and Michael Shaeffer, two venerable and highly esteemed citizens of our county, favored our sanctum with their presence. In the absence of Rev. James B. Stine, Rev. W. L. Armstrong, of Warrior's Mark, filled the pulpit in the Bellefonte Methodist church on Sunday. After visiting friends in Tyrone last week Miss Harriet Kephart, of Bellefonte, left for Epworth, Iowa, where she will spend the balance of the summer. Mrs. Morris Monish and daughter, Mary, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her father, Abram Baum, on Bishop street. Their home is in New York City. The thundergusts Thursday and Friday last were welcome by all, close on to an inch of rain was the result, and served to help corn and potatoes as well as for filling cisterns. Miss Alice Pletcher, of Philadelphia, who is spending her vacation with her parents at Howard, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Meese for a few days. She returned to Howard Monday. Dr. and Mrs. J. Coburn Rodgers, of Forty Fort, Pa., are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter which came to their home on Thursday. The proud father is the son of Evelyn Rodgers, of Bellefonte. Prof. John D. Meyer, who is spending the greater portion of the summer vacation at his home in Centre Hall, occasionally drops into town to look after details connected with the coming opening of the schools for the fall term. Miss Francis J. Overton, Miss Mame E. Robins, Mrs. Edward Dreher and Miss Catherine Dreher, all of Wilkesbarre, who have been guests of Miss Helen Overton at the Fraternity house for several weeks, returned to their homes Monday afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Ardell, daughter of the late John Ardell, and granddaughter of Rev. Richard Crittenden, is enjoying her vacation among friends in Bellefonte. Two years ago she entered the training department of the Brooklyn hospital, N. Y., and has proven so well adapted for the work that she, from the start, has been at the head of a large class. Prof. James R. Hughes, principal of the Bellefonte Academy, has been skimming around during the last two months looking after the interests of the venerable institution that has grown like the strong oak of the forest. The present indications are for a most prosperous term. Most of the old students will return, and in addition there will be many new faces on the hill. Clair B. Williams, of Jersey City, was recently given a promotion with the Central Railroad of New Jersey, from assistant superintendent of motive power to general purchasing agent and storekeeper of that entire system. The promotion of course carries with it a consequent increase in salary. Clear some years ago was a stenographer in the offices of the Central R. R. of Pa. at this place. Mrs. Williams at present is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyon, on east High street. During the past week the hill on Spring street, leading up to the Academy, was repaired, and the character of the work done, as well as the material used, was one of the worst samples of road-making we have seen for many a day, and is a positive disgrace to the street committee who have this in charge. Think of a main thoroughfare made so traveled, and a steep hill at that, repaired with a lot of old rubbish. It seems that an old house was torn down near by and they took the refuse from the cellar consisting of old plaster, lime, wall paper, and splintered wood all of which was sticking full of dangerous nails and dumped this in the middle of the street to make a drive way. We believe that these parties could be prosecuted for dumping such rubbish on the street, and especially when it is liable to cripple a horse or destroy tires of automobiles. Boys in their bare feet could be most seriously injured and a case of lockjaw developed with fatal consequences. We hope someone will prosecute the parties for such work, it is without excuse whatever. The first rain will wash this rubbish and litter down Spring street where it will be another nuisance. Who is responsible for this job?

J. T. Zeigler, of Pleasant Gap, favored our sanctum with a call. Will Flory one of Centre Hall's representative citizens, gave us a call. Rev. J. F. Hower, wife and daughter, returned home Friday evening from Williamsport. Mrs. Joseph Klesius and family and Miss Wall, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Michael Hazel up Spring Creek. Mrs. Harry Cupper, of Lock Haven, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday afternoon for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Jane Foster. Lewis Lonsberry departed Friday forenoon for Corning, New York, being called there by the serious illness of his mother. Miss Rhoda Askey returned to her home in Rhine Glen, Saturday after a very pleasant two-months' visit with relatives in town. George Shilling and daughter, Alice, Miss Lizzie Loder and cousin, Miss Ada Sloey, left Saturday afternoon for a visit with friends in Altoona. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clevestine returned Friday evening from a pleasant trip to Hanover and York. Mrs. Clevestine was formerly of Hanover. Miss Winifred Evans, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Miller, on High street, returned to her home at Kane, on Monday. Matrice A. Jackson left Bellefonte on Sunday on his summer vacation which he will spend with his sister, Mrs. George T. Brew and family, at Roncovevte, W. Va. David V. Steele has moved his family from Quaker Hill to the dwelling recently erected by his father, W. L. Steele, on what is known as "Stony Battery" leading from Pine street to Willowbank street. Edward P. Gamble, of Altoona, deputy State factory inspector, was in Bellefonte Thursday examining our public buildings. He found everything in good shape with the exception of a few minor defects that can easily be remedied. Miss Della Cross, of Philipsburg, who had been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor, left this week for along the Juniata river where she will spend a few days camping with friends from Pittsburg. Next Saturday Hugh N. Crider and wife expect to be at home in their property recently purchased from W. Harrison Walker, on east Linn street. A number of changes have been made to the interior of the house which makes it a cozy and inviting place to live. Prof. James Gregg, who holds a principalship in the public schools at Tyrone, and is instructor in mathematics, is spending part of his vacation visiting friends about Miesburg and other points of Centre county. We hear that Prof. Gregg is making a good record down there. Rev. and Mrs. D. R. P. Barry, of Hartleton, spent a week here visiting their son, Rev. Barry and sisters. Last Sabbath the father filled the pulpit of the Lutheran church, morning and evening, preaching forcible sermons that were intently listened to by the audience. Will J. Dorworth, an employee of the General Electrical Co., at Schenectady, N. Y., is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Dorworth, on east High street. "Billy" is one of the bright men of the company, and just got through with superintending the construction of an electric plant in a large cotton mill at Greensboro. Fred Brackbill, son of the late J. C. Brackbill, formerly of Bellefonte, is now at Padwah, Kentucky, where he is captain of the Salvation Army. His friends here have received word that he is meeting with unbounded success. He is a young man peculiarly fitted for the work, and while in Bellefonte took a deep interest in it. A. W. Moore, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office, in Bush Arcade, is surely the right man in the right place. He is not only an expert and careful manipulator of the key but he believes in cozy housekeeping to the extent that he has his office looking more like a parlor than an ordinary place of business. He has it so fixed up that patrons hardly recognize the place. An unusual flash of lightning struck the flag pole on the Logan engine house, Friday afternoon and knocked the wooden staff into splinters. A number of members were in the building at the time but suffered no injury from the bolt further than the entire building was jarred, and they were badly frightened in consequence. Further than the splintering of the pole no other serious damage was done. The flash was unexpected as the sky was only partially clouded and there was no evidence of a storm overhead. Last Friday Thad Hamilton started his new planing mill in operation, in a building on the rear of his lot on Howard street. The motive power is supplied by a large gasoline engine which drives the machinery on two floors. He has installed quite a bit of machinery that will enable him to turn out all kinds of finished work for the interior of buildings, and will give employment to a number of mechanics. Mr. Hamilton was employed for years in the Crider planing mill at this place and thoroughly understands that line of work. For years Col. W. Fred Reynolds, of Bellefonte, has been a great admirer of fine thoroughbred horses, and it was a question among his friends whether he would take favorably to the horseless carriage. A couple of months ago he purchased a big Franklin touring car and since then has developed such a fondness for the modern way of traveling that he has decided to dispose of all his horses and conveyances with the exception of one horse which will be used for emergencies that often come to automobilists, the character of which the Colonel will discover later. In doing away with his sprightly steeds, he has ordered a Franklin runabout which will be used chiefly in making his trips to and from his farms. He has sold one of his horses and conveyances to W. L. Daggett, proprietor of the Bush House, who will use it until he gets the automobile fever and then the horse will also become a back number to him.

Leo Cherry, of Pittsburg, is spending his vacation at his former home in Bellefonte. Miss Etta Dee returned to her home at Buffalo, after a month's visit with Violet Irvin. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cassidy are entertaining Mrs. James Welker, of Canton, Ohio. Miss Bessie Stull, of Williamsport is spending a very pleasant visit with Miss Minnie Cherry. We want to do your job printing. We have the stock, material and workmen to please you. The list of jurors drawn for the next term of court, in September, will be given in this issue. Mrs. Harry Auman, formerly Miss Nettie Kerns, of Millheim, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. The Bellefonte public schools will reopen for the fall and winter terms on Monday, August 31st. Philip Beezer left Bellefonte on Monday for Chicago for the purpose of buying a car load of cattle. Bond Valentine, of Philadelphia, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Pugh. Some of the members of Company B were out at rifle practice at the range, at Miesburg, Friday afternoon. Philipsburg can boast of a dozen autos. Bellefonte has about three times that number and more are coming. Miss Louise Baesor, of Harrisburg, is a guest at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Feidt, on High street. Misses Myrtle and Violet Longacre returned on Monday from a pleasant visit with friends in Williamsport. The Bellefonte shirt factory closed down again on Saturday for a week. Dullness in the trade was the cause. William Brouse and Miss Helen Landis, of Bellefonte, are being fanned by the gentle ocean breezes at Atlantic City. Misses Mame McGovern and Mary Saylor left Bellefonte, on Tuesday, for Atlantic City where they will spend ten days. Howard Tremmel, colored, formerly employed at the residence of Col. J. L. Spangler, is seriously ill at his home on Beaver street. Charles Miller, son of editor John D. Miller, of Barnesboro, is visiting in Bellefonte at the residence of his uncle, James H. Potter. On Friday another nine-pound baby boy came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mallory who reside at Crider's Exchange. Mrs. John George and daughter, Mrs. Charles Vernon and baby of Pittsburg, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker. Mrs. Wm. A. Kirby returned to her home in Trappe, Md., on Monday, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hammon Sechler. On Tuesday Col. W. Fred Reynolds received another car load of peach baskets for the marketing of his large peach crop. The baskets were made in Philipsburg. A little baby girl made its arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Yarnell of Snow Shoe, recently. The mother was Miss Margaret McClellan, of this place. There will be no services next Sabbath in either the Reformed church in Bellefonte, or at Zion. The pastor, Amorse M. Smith, will be out of town. George Beezer has his auto repaired and is sailing around with as much speed as usual. The machine is now as good as before the accident, when one of the wheels were mashed. Rev. W. E. Brooks, of Reedsville, very acceptably filled the pulpit in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church on Sunday. Rev. J. H. Orbsion will preach in the same church, on Sunday. Miss Ruth Bartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bartley, of Lock Haven, has returned home after visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartley, in Bellefonte, and friends in Altoona. Wilbur Twitmore returned to Bellefonte on Monday from Fayetteville, N. C., where he had been playing ball. He left again Tuesday morning for Huntingdon where he will play with the team of that place. A colt hitched to Moerschbacher's delivery wagon took fright at something in the rear of the Republican office on Saturday morning. The frisky young animal went out the alley on the jump and kept straight ahead, going through Crider's lumber yard, upsetting a large pile of boxes in his course. He was finally stopped after damaging the wagon to some extent. Fred C. Miller, who for the past two years has been a teacher in the Warren, Ohio, high school has been elected as an instructor at State College for the coming year in the department of physics. Mr. Miller, who is a son-in-law of J. B. Smith, of Bellefonte, was formerly an instructor at the Bellefonte Academy and is well known to many of our people. His many friends are glad to learn of his worthy promotion. Tuesday afternoon Joseph Alters, formerly one of the policemen of Bellefonte, was engaged in erecting a building near Boalsburg for R. B. Taylor, who is building a piece of state road in Harris township. In some way the scaffolding gave way and fell on Mr. Alters, inflicting several painful but not fatal injuries. His nose was broken and he received a deep gash over the eye. He also complained of his breast hurting him, but an examination showed no special internal injuries. He was brought home Wednesday afternoon, where he is now resting as comfortably as possible. It is the expectation of Hon. Ellis Orvis and Col. J. L. Spangler, accompanied by their wives, to leave here this Thursday for an extended trip to the West. They will take the boat trip to Buffalo over the lakes and then go to Yellowstone Park where they will linger for a week or more. The return will be by way of Idaho, stopping at Salt Lake City and other points of interest. Some years ago when a young man Judge Ellis Orvis made a trip to the Yellowstone Park in company with the late Col. E. J. Pruner, and at that time this great government preservation was not so well known to tourists as accommodations were limited and the roadways were not completed, nor was the park patrolled by troops. On that trip the party preceding them were held up in true western style and relieved of all their coin and valuables and they luckily escaped.

FOR SALE: Stanley steam touring car; fully equipped. Inquire at this office. Hon. John G. Love returned Saturday from Atlantic City, where his family is spending several weeks. Congressman B. K. Focht, of Lewisburg, was in town Wednesday, attending to some business matters. Miss Blanche Boney, one of the hospital nurses, is taking a two-week's vacation visiting friends in Blair county. Miss Ruth Bayliffs is in the Bellefonte hospital suffering with blood poison as the result of picking her finger with a safety pin. On account of illness Dr. William Laurie was unable to fill his appointment at Miesburg on Sunday and Rev. Crittenden very ably acted as substitute. Mrs. Roy McCalmont, who had been spending sometime at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meyer, returned to her home in Rochester, N. Y., on Sunday. The Bazaar, in Crider's Exchange, announces some special bargains this week. In fact they will be announcing bargains right along in this paper. Watch their advertisement on another page. Ruger wants to see you at the Theatorium. He is putting up great shows, and the people must enjoy them, judging from the immense crowds that throng the place every night. Every picture is up-to-date and is bound to give general satisfaction. Mrs. E. S. Strawn and little child also Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz, left here on Monday morning for Berlin, Somerset county, where they will be guests of relatives. "Old Home" week is in progress there and a large gathering is anticipated from far and near. It is only just to say that the "General Accident Fire and Life Insurance Corporation," represented by W. Miles Walker, as agent in Bellefonte, is exceedingly prompt and fair in the adjustment of its claims. The writer voluntarily offers his brief testimonial. They fulfill all contracts. The Electric Theatre is still holding up its reputation by continuing to give the big double shows. Every picture is a dandy, and of the very best quality. For 5 cents you cannot afford to remain away one night. The attendance Monday was perhaps the largest that ever attended a picture show in Bellefonte. The picture was entitled "The Blue and the Gray." On Saturday Mrs. Harris Mann, of Lewisport, arrived in Bellefonte a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Speer. This afternoon W. T. Speer, Jr., wife and two children, arrived in Bellefonte and will spend the vacation here. Most of the time, however, will be spent out at Speer's bungalow, near McBride's Gap. It is making a very pleasant house party, which is being thoroughly enjoyed. To-day Thomas Waddle, of Jersey Shore, who was born and raised in Centre county, reached his 50th birthday. He is still very active, and to celebrate the event a family reunion is being held at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Williams, an aged lady, who resides at Axemman. Besides the relatives a large number of neighbors and friends will take part in exercises of the day. A big dinner will be one of the chief features on the program. Burglars Saturday night forced the dining room window of Congressman Focht's home at Lewisburg and carried off a lot of crystal and cut glass. Among the articles stolen was the congressman's punch bowl and a lot of sherbert glasses. Mr. Focht spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Bellefonte. Probably he was in search of his missing treasures but as most Bellefonters take their "snaps" direct from the bottle it is a little doubtful whether his fondest expectation of recovering the cut glass here would be realized. On Thursday W. L. Daggett and family left in Harold Lingle's automobile for Tioga county, the home of Mr. Daggett. All went well until they reached Williamsport, when they had a breakdown. The result was that the family were compelled to take quarters at the Updegraff until the machine was repaired. Sometime the next day they proceeded on their journey without further trouble. Tuesday evening the car returned to Bellefonte with Lewie Daggett, Miss Margaret Canfield, and Misses Margaret and Dorothy Baldwin, the latter ladies being of Tioga, and pieces of Mr. Daggett. Wednesday morning the young ladies to Penn Cave and is doing nothing but showing them a nice time. The Bayard sisters have decided to break up their home in Bellefonte. They are all away during the winter and they have taken this method of cutting down expenses which is evidence of considerable business ability on their part. For years the name of Bayard has been connected with the business interests and social interest of Bellefonte, but like a large number of other families in the town "Father Time" has made a marvelous change. Miss Sarah Bayard holds a nice position in Williamsport and it is probable Miss Susie will spend part of her time in that city. Miss Carrie will also occupy a position away from the home. It is with regret that their friends here think of their leaving permanently, but it is to be hoped that they will never lose their interest in the old town of their birth which has so many hallowed memories clinging around it. On Friday morning Ben Gentzel, Isaac Miller, Harry Shivery and Lew Gettig left Bellefonte in a wagon for Twelve Mile Run, located in the Alleghenies, beyond Karthaus. They being old hunters they just took the trip for pleasure and to get some idea as to whether it would be profitable to go out there when the hunting season opened. They returned Monday evening well pleased with their trip, and confident there would be something doing out there at the proper time. On their return Monday morning they were met on the mountain by two men from Clearfield who claimed they were game wardens. The Bellefonte crowd offered no objection to their searching the conveyance, but in the meantime they were laughing clean down in their boots at what they considered a practical joke, as there was nothing in the wagon that even looked suspicious. The strangers had evidently heard that Centre county hunters were up in the mountains and they hired two rigs to haul the venison to Clearfield as a proof of their big catch. The result was the game wardens were out their time and the price of their conveyances.

THOMAS RHODES:—An aged resident of Bellefonte, died in the hospital about noon on Friday. The deceased was a soldier in the late rebellion, being a member of Company E, 45th Regular Pennsylvania Volunteers, serving about three years. He was in the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. for over seventeen years. MRS. MATILDA JONES HARRISON:—died at her home in State College on August 3. She had been in feeble health for several years, caused by a general breaking down of the system, and her death was no surprise to her friends. She was almost seventy years old and a life-long member of the Methodist church. Surviving her are the following children: William, of Jersey Shore; H. B., of Miesburg; Charles, of State College; Mrs. J. C. Rimsy, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. William Hoy, of State College, and Miss Nellie, at home. MISS KATE KRAPE:—Died suddenly at her home in Centre Hall, she was about 18 years of age and one of the operators in the Bell Telephone exchange. She had not been feeling well for three or four days, although she worked in the exchange on Saturday morning. In the afternoon she took her bed, gradually growing worse until the end came. On Sunday she told her physician and parents she would not recover, but the doctor was under the impression that a change would finally come for the better. However, without a moment's warning, the prophesy of her own death came true. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Krape, and a young lady held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She is survived by her parents and an older sister, Miss Clara. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. JOHN HALL ARMSTRONG:—died at his home on east Howard street on Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock. He had been ill for about a year, and was confined to his bed for the past nine weeks, tuberculosis of the stomach being the disease which caused his untimely death. The deceased was born in Bellefonte February 9, 1850, and was aged 28 years and 6 months. He was a son of Robert and Sarah Armstrong, and has always been a resident of this place. A little over two years ago he was married to Miss Mary A. Reedy, of Eagleville, who with the father and mother, and one brother, Walter, survive. Fraternal he was affiliated with the Knights of the Decade, the funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being under the direction of the Macabees, and conducted by Rev. John Hewitt. Interment was made in the Union cemetery. This is a double bereavement to this family as only ten weeks ago we were compelled to chronicle the death of his sister, Miss Jennie, a bright young lady. JOHN ROSSMAN:—Who resided in Bush's Addition, died suddenly at his home on Monday afternoon. He had been working in the harvest field hauling oats, about 3 o'clock he stopped and went home, when he complained of having a pain in his breast and stomach. A physician was called, but before anything could be done for the afflicted man he passed away about 4 o'clock. The deceased, who was a son of Harry and Sarah Rossman, deceased, was born at Nittany Hall and was aged about 61 years. For about 25 years he had been residing at Miesburg and Curtin, and only a few months ago moved to Bellefonte. He was a member of the United Evangelical church. Surviving him are his wife, who was Amanda Dukeman, of Curtin, one daughter, Emily May, at home, and the following brothers and sisters: William, of Lamar; Mrs. Hannah Bryan, of Burnham; Ira, of Coleville; Susanna R., of Curtin, and half brothers and sister, Samuel, of Bend Creek; Sherwood, of Nittany, and Mrs. Amelia Donohue, of Flat Rock.
