TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A number of important towns in this county have not been represented in the correspondence department of this paper for some time In some cases this is due to our former correspondents failing to send us the items as regularly as we would like to have them. There are other points where we have been unable to secure writers. We want the news from every section in the county, and will cheerfully print all that is of any interest, if sent to us. Therefore if you don't see the news of your section in the Centre Democrat, won't you kindly interest some competent person to send it to us. J. E. Alters was a Bellefonte visitor last week to see his father who was injured by falling from a scaffold while carpentering at Oak Hall.

All the soldiers from here attended the soldiers reunion at Agar's park, on Thursday.

The farmers have their oats stored away and are patiently waiting for rain to start plowing for their fall crops; rain is needed also for the corn. The Lamar base ball team had two games of ball on Saturday; first with Cedar Springs with the score of 38 in favor of Lamar; second was with Hecla No. 2 (supposed to be.) but there were four players of No. 2 team and the other five were selected from Hecla and Bellefonte and as this was our boys first game, of course they were beaten; the score was 9 10 in Hecla's favor, but we wish to congratulate our boys for their good playing. as the umpire was from Hecla. and the decisions were from H-too, as they were all one sided The boys say they will lose no time picking the loose stones off the field; come again?

JULIAN.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnic at Martha on Saturday. The game between Julian and Martha ball team, Saturday, was the best played game of the season at Martha. The day, score being 2 to 3 in favor of Martha; anon, the score was tie until the ninth inning I when a ball was hit over first base in the for a trip to Snow Shoe. foul line, which was called fair ball and winning run for Martha came in; had this not occurred, it would have been necessary for an extra inning. Our team was badly crippled Saturday, as three players being absent, weakened the team considerably but they held the Martha bunch down proper considering their position. The feature of the game was a catch made by Allen Boyer, also double play. The team has signed Allen after his test on Saturday and he will be seen in the contest Saturday. There is certainly a big hole in the Martha bats, as they were only allowed four little hits.
