BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Edward Rishel, of Pittsburg, is visiting in Bellefonte and vicinity. -Miss Ellen Woods, of Bellefonte, who has been ill for the past six weeks, is slowly recovering. -Mrs. Katherine Dinges has returned to Bellefonte from a six-week's visit to lantic City and other points of interest.

Asbury Park and New York City. -William Brouse and Helen Landis have returned home from a visit to At- left for his home.

the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Speer. -Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown at-Mrs. Thomas Frank, at Aaronsburg on Saturday.

-Rev. Wm. P. VanTries, son of Dr. Thos. C. VanTries, has accepted a call to the Trinity Presbyterian church, of Berwyn, Chester Co., Pa.

-Mrs. William Dix, of Dayton, Ohio, day. who had been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. T. Mun-left on Monday for a ten day's trip to galore. son, has left for her home.

-Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Katz, of Bellefonte, are now on a trip to the Thousand the New England States.

-W. R. Gainfort, of Bellefonte, expects agement of Claud Smith. to resume his evening shorthand class on Monday evening, August 31st. Those wishing to join should do so immediate-

-Mrs. Thomas Moore and daughter Lamb street. Helen left Friday for their home in

-James Harris, the merchant tailor, the improvement may continue. will move to Reading, where he will fill a position in a branch New York clothing house under the management of ing after the construction of a concrete Frank Derstine, of this place.

from Saturday evening over Sunday in with schnopps, is worth looking after.

and, came to Bellefonte. They expect is getting along very nicely. to be at the home of Mrs. Blackburn's mother, Mrs. J. L. Spangler, for some -David Thomas, of near Loveville, tained. Y., where he is transacting business. Before returning home he will visit friends in the wilds of Potter county.

The public is never disappointed by going there; every night there is something new.

—Miss Margaret Burnette voungest

years ago.

-Miss Carrie Bayard will leave this week for the Scotland Orphan School speeding by autos and horse oes in croswhere she will be employed as one of the sing the much traveled diamond and teachers. It is the same school in which it's unlawful; a serious accident may Miss Daisy Brisbin will be employed. result any hour, making it expensive which will make it very pleasant for both for the borough and the ones transgressthe young ladies.

fair way of permanent recovery. -We had a pleasant call on Monday evening from Elmer Hockman, of Freeport, Ill., but formerly of Mingoville. About fifteen years ago he left here for that section where he is engaged in the bakery business. He is a son of S. P. Hockman, of Walker township.

-The equipment at the Electric Theatre for exhibiting moving pictures is of the very finest. This, of course, insures the best results. The managers offer an entirely new program each evening thus in this section for some time. giving their patrons a show for five cents that is both amusing and instructive. .

-On Firday afternoon William Somsell, charged with committing a criminal assault upon little Miss Rine, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace, John M. Kechline. A. W. Moore, managainst him when he was forced to ad- pearance. mit his guilt He was sent back to jail to await a trial.

-On Monday we had a short call from ing room at a railroad junction in Conne maugh. He says business about Johnsfrom Woodward, Pa., and is a hustling with us, not up to the usual prospect for ment. young man who is getting along.

a crop. -Last week A. A. Huffman made -About two years ago Rev.

handled. -Andy Reesman, dealer in stoves work. and tinware, at Centre Hall, spent a few | - John Rishel, of Benner township, hours with us, on his return from a few last week attended the Grube family redays' visit to Salona and Mackeyville, union which took place at Punxsutawhis native heath, where he and General ney. While there he met a host of his mastings, as juveniles, built mudpies in old friends who gave him a royal good the road and did other boyish capers. time. On coming to Clearfield he stopp-Andy used to go to that section for ed off to see James Savage the aged peaches, years ago, but he tells us he father of editor Matt Savage whom finds no such fruit there now, trees have he had not seen for years. Of course, ing played out and the new orchards not he received a cordial greeting by Mr. seeming to be productive, are let go by Savage who is 80 years of age. Mr the board by owners,

-On Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 9, the Bellefonte Academy will enter upon its 104th schoolastic year. It is very encouraging to know that the outlook this

-William P. Humes has returned from an outing at Cap May. -Mr. Chas. Heisler is spending the week at Lock Haven visiting friends. -Mrs. Saterfield is entertaining Mrs. Agnes Moore and Miss Speering, of Philadelphia. -Roland Meyers, of Erie, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte, has

-Arthur Bickle, who is employed in -Harris Mann. of Lewistown, spent Pittsburg, is spending a few days at his several days in Bellefonte this week at home in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Anna Dawson, of Philadelphia, is a visitor in Bellefonte at the home of tended the funeral of Mr. Brown's aunt, Mrs. William Dawson, on Spring street. -Arthur Bickel, of McKeesport, who Bellefonte making preparations for the Sowers. opening of the public schools, on Mon-

New York City and a journey up the Islands and down the St. Lawrence to clothiers, have been considering a branch that place, on Saturday. store at State College, under the man-

> -Miss Blanche Jacobs, a stenographer for the Ohio River Coal & Coke com-pany, of Moundsville, W. Va., is spending her vacation with her mother on

-Dr. William Laurie, who had been Philadelphia, after an extended visit seriously ill, has so much improved that with Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Wm. he is able to greet his many friends on the street again. It is to be hoped that -County Commissioner John L. Dunlap, was in Philipsburg last week lookbridge at the foot of Maple street, which -Six drunks were guests of the boro will be a good one when completed.

-Mrs. Thomas K. Morris, nee Miss the town cooler by the spring. How these jolly dukes manage to be supplied Tuesday morning in the Bellefonte hospital for appendicitis. It was perform--Mrs. Albert Engles Blackburn and ed by Dr. Ball, of Loca Haven, and up her little son, Albert Engles Blackburn to this time it has been a success, as she

-The Theatorium is still a pleasure resort for an immense crowd of people in Bellefonte who delight to be enter-Ruger has the right idea as to was a pleasant caller at this office, Mon-day. He was on his way to Elmira, N. the public is never disappointed by go-

-Miss Margaret Burnette, youngest -Mrs. Hagan, of Zion City, Ill., and daughter of Mrs. Mose Burnett, of Belleher sister, Mrs Moody, of Hayward. Iowa, fonte, and grand-daughter of the late are visiting friends in Centre county and Ex-Governor A. G. Curtin, will be mar-while in Bellefonte are the guests of Mrs. ried to B. S. Burlingame, of Syracuse, Michael Hess, Mrs. Hagan and Mrs. N. Y. Her cousin, Miss Jennie Breeze, Moody left Centre county as girls thirty of Downingtown, will also be married to Joseph Baker, of Philadelphia.

-There is entirely too much high young ladies.

-Friday afternoon Mrs. Geo, Hazel, to it that the high-speeders be halted.

e, was operated upon at the - Monday morning the little two-ye hospital for appendicitis. Her case was old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard quite a serious one and created consider- Taylor was badly scalded. Mrs. Jerry able anxiety among her friends. She is Shutt, the grandmother, was carrying now gradually improving and is on a a boiler of hot water from the kitchen to the yard when she slipped, the scalding water falling on the child who was badly burned about the head and hands. The child is now getting along nicely. -Mrs. Myra Frazier of Wakefield. Kan., arrived in Bellefonte Thursday morning for a visit with her brother, William Kreamer and friends in this county. Mrs. Frazier was formerly of Pleasant Gap who left for the west seven teen years ago, this being her first visit east during these years. She will remain susquehanna District association. They attract a large crowd take with them the Aaronsburg office, and Frank Shugert appeared give the band a showy and natty ap-

Jacob Royer, of Atcheson county, Kan- legion of friends all over the county. sas, who forty-two years ago left Madi W. S. Hosterman, who conducts an eat- sonburg, his native place, for the far west, Mr. Royer has thus made his fourth visit. to his native Centre county, and finds town is a little quiet just now. That but few of the old tolks, of the days when where he used to have over a hundred at he belonged here, living-they have regular meals he now has only about gone to their long home. He reports twenty. Mr. Hosterman formerly was the corn crop in Kansas about same as an effort to get possession of a certain Orbison and family returned from India business in Bellefonte and failed. He where he had been a missionary for a has now decided to return to his old number of years. It was his intention home in Pleasantville where he will join to remain in America but he has been his old associates and live out the bal- prevailed upon by the missionary society ance of his days. Mr. Huffman is an en- to return and take up the work again terprising gentleman and would have He and his family will sail for the far off remained here had he been successful land some time in September. He is a in securing a business he could have son of Mrs. Nannie Orbison, of Bellefonte, and is especially adapted for the

> Rishel then struck the Firemen's convention at Philipsburg on Friday which proved to be too much of a crowd for

-Richard Sheehe, with his wife, ar

-Miss Minnie Cherry is visiting friends n Philadelphia

-Don't fail to read Bryan's tariff speech found on page 6 of this issue. -John Royer and wife left last Friday for a visit to friends in Altoona. -Mr. Hugh Wance, of Aaronsburg, vas a pleasant visitor in Bellefonte, on Wednesday. -Robert Miller, brother of A. V Miller, is circulating around among his Bellefonte friends. -"The Prince of Peace," Bryan's famous lecture, will be published in this paper next week. -Mrs. Alice Cowdrick and son Malin, of Niagara Falls, arrived in Bellefonte on Sunday for a visit with friends.

-- Is. Baum got two fine driving horses from Lancaster this week that make the average horseman anxious to own

-Will Smith, now conducting a photograph studio in Jersey Shore, is home for a brief visit to his mother on Bishop street.

had been visiting in Bellefonte for about one week, left today for his home. left Wednesday for Philipsburg where -Prof. John D. Meyer is now in she will visit her sister, Mrs. George

> -The Williams reunion on Saturday, at Port Matilda, will attract many from this section. Politicians will be there

-John G. Baudis has shipped his merry go-round from Hecla to Port -Montgomery & Co., the Bellefonte Matilda for the Williams' Reunion, at

-Mrs. Frank Barnes, of Washington, D. C., formerly Miss Nellie Boal, arrived in Bellefoute on Monday afternoon and is the guest of Miss Mira Humes. -Prof W. T. Meyers, of Philadelphia, is spending part of his summer vacation in Bellefonte this week, as the guest of his brother, J. C. Meyer, Esq. -Chas. S. Smith, of Karthaus, is on a short visit to his mother on Bishop St. He reports the mine operations in that section of Clearfield county exceedingly quiet since the panic of last winter. -Dr. John Sebring has taken the agency in this community for the autoobiles and supplies handled by Keeler & Co., of Williamsport. This includes the Franklin, Buick. Cadilac and other famous cars.

-Wm. Reese, father of G. Washington Reese, suffered a stroke of paralysis the other day which has rendered him helpless. He is about 89 years of age and his condition is such as to leave no hope of recovery.

-Prof. Clarence Garbrick and wife, who spent the past month at Terryhill. Ohio, are here on a short visit to his home after which they will leave for Philadelphia where he has been engaged for some time as an instructor in lan-

-Next week we will devote a full page to Wm. J. Bryan's famous lecture, "The Prince of Peace." It is purely a religious lecture which he has deliv ered in all the leading cities of the moon trip. While in Bellefonte she gainworld. Look for it,-tell your neighbors about it. -In the absence of Rev. James B.

Stein, C. C. Shuey, who was recently liulpit in the Methodist church on Sun. acter. discourse was listened to with, rapt attention by the congregation.

the pure atmosphere on the top of the Alleghenies.

-Prof. James R. Hughes, principal of the Bellefonte Academy, gives notice to all firms in Bellefonte with whom the Academy boarders are apt to deal that if credit is given them without the written authority of their parents or guardians, he will not be responsible for the bills so contracted.

-The Snow Shoe base ball team spent a short time in Bellefonte on Saturday. having played at Lock Haven during the Snow Shoe and Howard are try--On Labor Day. September 7th, the Bellefonte castle, K. G. E. will go to be played here soon. Such ball as these Jersey Shore to attend the meeting of teams have been playing of late should -Fridays' Philipsburg Journal says band, the members of which have just that J. Calvin Meyer, Esq , of Bellefonte, donned new uniforms consisting of blue the well known Democratic candidate ager of the Western Union Telegraph coat and white pantaloons This will for Assembly, and one of Centre county's most popular lawyers, is here looking up his friends, and made us a pleasant call. -We were pleased to have a call from His genial qualities have made him a

> -Owing to an affliction that befel Neal Martin some months ago, he has suffered the loss of his eyesight. Believing that some relief could be obtained by treatment at the Wills Eye Hospital, in Philadelphia, an effort is being made to raise sufficient funds to enable him to enter that institution for treat-

-Charles Hetsler and George Knisely spent several days camping near Eagleville. They were having some fun with the bass down there and succeeded in devote himself to such purpose and work. getting some beauts. Like George In the fall 1849 he entered the prepara-Washington we cannot tell a lie, thus tory department at Mercersburg, and a we will not attempt to describe the size year later the Freshman class at Maror name the weight only to say that the shall College, and graduated from figures given by "Shorty" and Charles Franklin and Marshall College Aug. 7. are about right.

-Tuesday morning Miss Effic Snyder recently elected as an instructor of the Grammar grade in the Bellefonte public schools, tendered her resignation, having accepted a better position, to teach chemistry and physics in the Chicago city schools. The hours are shorter with a decided advance of salary, and in other respects is a more desirable position. Her successor has not been select-

-Monday the two small children of barber R. A. Beck were in his shop when Mary, the oldest child, ran against a boiler of hot water, upsetting the contents on herself and smaller brother. Both children were badly scalded about the hands and legs. The little boy,

RECENT DEATHS.

ISAAC STOVER:-died at Zion-see Zion correspondence for obituary.

MRS. SOPHIA STOVER:-died at Unionville-see correspondence for obituary.

FREDERICK MUSSRR SOLT :- Son of Mr. and Mrs. James Solt died Saturday morning at 7:30 at his home on Logan street, Bellefonte. Last spring he took the measles which settled on his lungs, causing tuberculosis. For the past fifteen weeks he had been confined to bed. His age was 7 years, 4 months and 7 days. The funeral took place Monday afternoon. Interment in the Union cem-

HOWARD TREMBLE .—the colored man unloaded a new steam threshing outfit who for several years had been employ- at the Centre Hall station. It is a moded at the residence of Col. J. L. Spangler, died Friday morning at 8 30 o'clock, at his home on Beaver street. For five or his home on Beaver street. For five or six months he had been suffering from tuberculosis. He was about 42 years of hart, of near Centre Hall. You can bet is survived by his second wife who, on Saturday afternoon, took the remains to Louden county, Virginia, for interment.

MRS. PHILIP DURST:-died at her home two miles east of Centre Hall, on last camping on Spring Creek. Friday evening, after a prolonged ill-Her maiden name was Schnure, and hailed from a well known family of that name in Union county. She resid- Williamsport. His condition is consided with her husband many years on the ered much more serious than a month farm where she died. Her age was 66 years. Interment on Monday in the Centre Hall cemetery. Surviving are her husband, three sons, John, Charles and Christ, and three married daughters and one single daughter at home. Her funeral was largely attended as she was a highly esteemed lady.

MRS. ANNIE C. WAGNER: -wife of Dr. Allegheny. E. F. Wagner, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Pottsgrove, ot Philipsburg, who came there some time ago for treatment, died Thursday after an illness of about nine months. The deceased ber 31, 1858, making her age 49 years, 9 months and 20 days. She moved to Philipsburg with her parents 28 years E. F. Wagner on May 7th, 1889, Four-teen years ago they located in Fort Wayne, where they have since been making their home. Besides her husband and aged parents she is survived by one sister, Mrs. Samuel Rishel, of ohnstown.

MRS. GEO. L. MURPHY :- of Philadelbhia, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Ralph Mallory, of this place, died in that city Friday afternoon about 5 o'clock." On Monday of last week she gave birth to a healthy baby boy, following which complications lead to her death. Mrs. Mur-phy was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler, of Philadelphia, and was aged 23 years. She was married to Geo. L. Murphy on May 22, 1907, and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mallory, in Bellefonte while on their honeyed many friends who were grieved to hear of her untimely death. She was a member of one of the Baptist churches of Philadelphia and a woman of censed as a local preacher, occupied the many pleasing ways and traits of char-She is survived by her father, the sisters.

MISS JANE BOGGS PEARCE:-one of the looks ten years younger since breathing death was due to the general wearing is quite serious. of the pioneer Methodist preachers of in case of an emergency fifteen was spent in Centre county, and for quite speedy. fifty years she with her sister, Miss Nancy Pearce, lived at Potters Mills. After the death of the latter. Miss Jane went to live with Mrs McCormick. The deceased lived a christian life and belonged to the Methodist church. She s survived by a brother, Rev. John J. Pearce, a retired Methodist minister who resides at Coneaut, Ohio, who was too aged to attend the funeral. The other surviving relatives are her nieces, Mrs. McCormick, of State College; Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson, of Bellefonte; and a nephew. Charles P. Hughes, of Erie. The funeral took place Tuesday morning when interment was made at REV. W. H. GROH:-died at his home in Carlisle, Pa., Tuesday morning. The deceased was born near Myerstown, Pa.,

ly expressed her desire that he should quest to the father, that he would use his influence in furtherance of said purpose and request, and this together with pose and request, and this together with his father's encouragement, led him to of John S. Seibert. Gdu Franklin and Marshall College Aug. 7, 1850. delivering the German Oration. The same year he entered the theological seminary at Mercersburg, and left it in the spring of 1856 having been recommended for license by Drs. Schaff and Wolfe. In 1856 he was licensed by the Lebanon Classis to preach the Gospel and ordained him to the Holy Ministry, he served as assistant to his pastor Rev. Thomas H. Leinbach for one year. He then was called to the Berrysburg charge in Dauphin county, and while there, by permission of Classis he organized a congregation at Lykens, Pa. He then accepted a call from the Boalsburg charge, Centre county, beginning his work there Dec. 20. 1857 and continuing until April I, 1889, Here he ginning his work there Dec. 20. 1857 and continuing until April 1, 1889. Here he spent the best years of his life, his CHARTE ministry being most efficient and its CHARTER NOTICE.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The Spring township public schools will open Monday, Sept. 7th. W. B. Shutt, of Centre Hall, is now on one of Uncle Sam's school ships. Mrs. Lucinda Weaver, of Centne Hall who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is not improving. Her condition for a week or more has been regarded as critical.

The farm of J. C. Armbruster, at Hecla, advertised in another column, contains eighty nine acres, instead of sixty-nine, as the figures formerly had it in the ad. The Harshbergers, at Potters Mills.

ern machine, and no doubt will do its work to perfection.

age, and quite a faithful and energetic on it that he will vote the democratic young man. He was married twice. He ticket at the proper time. C. B. Sheasly, of State College, has

Jonathan Hess, formerly of Pine Grove Mills, this county, is still suffering from dropsy and heart trouble at his home in

Mrs. John F. Mullen and son James, known about Centre Hall as "Sunny lim," arrived in that place recently Before going there they spent two weeks in Altoona. They will remain among friends there until the latter part of this month before returning to their home in

One day recently, Mrs. H. E. Stover, of Smullton, emptied a pan of ashes just taken from the stove into the back yard. Her three-year old son was playing in the yard at the time and accidentally stepped into the ashes with his bare feet, was born at Pine Grove Mills, on Octo- and he was so badly burned that he required the services of a physician. The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Litcomb, of Kennebunk Port, Maine, and She was united in marriage to Dr. Robert Morris, of West Winfield, Pa., will take place at Miss Litcomb's home on the eighth of September. The bridegroomelect is a son of Hon. and Mrs. A. G. Morris, formerly of Tyrone, and is very well known in Bellefonte as he resided here for a number of years.

The public schools of Millheim will open Monday, September 7, and will continue for eight months instead of seven as heretofore. Prof. S. Ward Gramley is principal of the schools and will have charge of the high school. M. C. Haines will teach the grammar; Miss Stella Brungart, the intermediate, and Miss Clara Condo, the primary.

Rev. J. H. Hemmingway, D. D., of Bloomsburg, Pa., delivered a lecture in the United Evangelical church at Rebersburg, on Tuesday evening, and in the United Evangelical church at Madisonburg, on Wednesday evening. He was assisted by Rev. E. B. Bailey, of Bloomsburg, who is known as the 'sweet singer" of the Central Pennsylvania U E. conference.

Samuel Rowe, of Centre Hall, is in a day morning. His timely and excellent infant boy and a number of brothers and hospital at Hamilton, Ontario, suffering with a badly crushed leg and several broken ribs. He was up in that coun--James McClure, who for the last five weeks has been employed by the Cresson Harness Co, of Cresson, Cambria county, is now circulating among his many friends in Bellefonte. He last belief to the many friends in Bellefonte. He last county is now circulating among her home for the past three years. Her last the last three years. Her last three years is quite serious.

out of the system, thus her last moments | Bowes & Thompson, of State Colwere peaceful and calm. She was the lege, have received a new Rapid transfer daughter of Rev. Marmaduke Pearce one car. It will carry twelve passengers and Central Pennsylvania, and was born at new car made its first trip to Bellefonte Linden Hall where her grandfather, Saturday evening when it conveyed a Fergus Potter, located in 1770. The number of passengers from here to the deceased is thus closely identified with College. The car returned to Bellefonte the history of the vicinity, before Centre on Sunday with a crowd of pleasure county was incorporated. All her life seekers. The car has solid tire and is

D. M. Wingate, M. D. and daughter Jeannette, of Washington, D. C., have been visiting Dr. D. M. Wolf, at the J. Wells Evans home, near Spring Mil the former being a nephew of Dr. Wolf. Dr. Wingate is a practicing physician in the National Capital City, and uses the Chiro practice method of treatment. This treatment originated in Bohemia centuries ago, and more recently was adopted by some physicians in America. By this treatment drugs and the knife are largely eliminated, yet it has noth ing in common with osteopathy, mass age, Sweedish movement, etc.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

LEGAL NOTICE.

March 10, 1833, and his mother frequently expressed her desire that he should devote his life and energies to the work of the ministry and it was her dying request to the father, that he would use

The Final Account of T. B. Johnson, Gdu. of D. B. Mulholland. The First and Final Account of Harry I. Hutchison, Gdu. of the person and estate of Jane B. Pearce. A. B. KIMPORT. Aug. 25, 1808.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHAR-

-Richard Sheehe, with his wife, arrived in Bellefonte Thursday when he ceeding year, and it is due to the tact and perseverance of Prof. James R. Hughes, the principal, who has been deverting a greater part of his time in building and the part of the considerable uneasiness. He hands a greater part of his time in building and the part of the considerable uneasiness. He heart a considerable uneasiness. He heart a greater part of his time in building and the part of the feature of the part of the feature and the ware and the ware and the part of the feature an

Mrs. S. C. Bathgate has returned from a three weeks' trip to Phila, and Harrisburg, to her home at Lemont. The Bigler campmeeting at Bigler, Clearfield county, opened Monday. The meeting will continue until August 31. Dont forget the big Centre County Fair which will open October 6th; and continue through the 9th, extensive preparations are being make to excell all other former efforts.

On Sunday, August 19, a little girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M E. Leitzell, of Sunbury The mother, before her marriage was Miss Sarah E Wieland, of Linden Hall. Mr. Leitzell some years ago was superintendent of Linded Hall lumber company. They recently moved into their new home in Sunbury, which is the finest in fifth ward.

During a thunder gust week, lightning struck a large oak tree at Mingoville, (Hecla), shattering one half of the one side into shreds; the bolt entered the ground at the stump, ripped up the earth and some six feet from the butt came out and ran over the built a rustic cottage at Rock. It contains five furnished appartments which will be rented to anybody who enjoys therefrom three large stones where it entered the ground again.

-Mrs. William H. Miller, of east Lamb street, who recently was poisoned by taking an overdose of headache tablets, was taken to the Belletonte hospital this week in rather a serious condi-

-Chauncy DeLong, for some years connected with the Estey sales rooms in Philadelphia, is spending his vacation at his old home, at Blanchard. While in town the other day he paid us a brief call. He appears to be prospering.

-Miss Edith Lytle and Mrs. D. C. Harpster, of Stormstown, gave us a call. The former was in the hospital a week to undergo an operation for a growth in her neck, but which the physicians postponed for the reason they thought Miss Lytle at present too weak to undergo the operation.

-Tuesday morning Horton S. Ray. proprietor of the Brockerhoff House, and Edmund Blanchard left for Lake Ontario in the former's automobile, re-cently purchased from Dr. John Se-bring. The car, before starting, was thoroughly overhauled so they do not anticipate much trouble with the machine. They left here with colors flying expecting to wind up a week or ten days of great sport.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; 2 issues 40 cents; 3 issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

FOR SALE—Two good dairy cows. G. W. Spangler, Tusseyville, Pa. x36 FOR SALE-First class timothy seed; $2 per bushel. G. P. Gentzel, Zion.

FOR SALE—Good country lard. Inquire of Mrs. William J. Garbrick, Nittany, Pa.

TRESPASS NOTICES-in legal form, 5 cents single; Zie half doz.; 50c doz.; at Democrat of

FOR SALE—Lot of blooded for nound pups, also trained for hounds. Call on or address G. E. Haupt, Bellefonte. x34 LOST-On Allegheny or Lamb street, a gold brooch; with square sardonyx ingraved set-ting. Reward. Leave at this office FOR SALE—One pen of pure single-com White Leghorns; one male and nine fema will take $8.00 for the lot. Apply to J. D. H. er. Pleasant Gap. Pa.

FOR SALE-Good house and other outbuild-ings, good fruit and never failing well, two acres; a desirable location. Address R. A. Col-dren. Spring Mills, Pa.

FOR SALE-Four scaps bees, Danzenbaker hives, well stocked with honey for the winter. Will be sold at a sacrifice. Chas. H. Smith, Beilefonte, 223 East Bishop St. WANTED-I will buy second hand furniture and pay good prices. Furniture repairing, picture and enlarging done promptly. Drop me a card. Emory C. Johnson, L. B. No. 3, Pine Grove Mills. Pa. x34

Albany) N. Y. Must be thoroughly competent, sober and reliable. State fully experience and references. Steady jobs for two good men. Manhattan Lime Co., 2579 Newkirk Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. LIME BURNERS WANTED-at Revena (Dear

STRAYED CATTLE—Four young eattle about six months old strayed from the home of B. F. Lutz. near Zion; three of them were red and white spotted and the other a dark red; if re-turned or their whereabouts located a reward

FOR SALE—Property, 1 mile northwest of Zion, along public road; 10 acres, buildings in good condition; plums, pears, apple orchard; large strawberry patch, Terms reasonable, H. L. Truckenmiller, Zion, Pa. x33 WANTED—Man of ability, large acquaintance and thorough knowledge of his county as lo-cal representative to solicit subscriptions for large morning newspaper. Salary; reference. Address with full particulars. H. C. DeVine, Box 1235, Philadelphia, Pa.

FOR SALE-A general store in a prosperous town in Pennsvalley, this county. Carries a full line of general merchandise and enjoys a good trade from town and farming community. Good reason for selling. For full information address Box K. Bellefonte, CAUTION—To whom it may concern—All persons are hereby warned against buying any articles from Samuel Homan, such as farm implements, wagon, carriage, harness, etc., or household goods of any description, as all such articles now in my possession belong to me. Mrs. Howard Homan, Mingoville.

eral bundred bushels of reliable variety re-cleaned seed wheat for sale when threshed at my Eagleville farms, at $1.25 per bushel. In-quire of Samuel Kline, on the premises, or ad-dress F. W. Crider, Bellefonte, Pa, x32

SEED WHEAT FOR SALE-I will have sev-

AUTOMOBILE FOR SALE-"Model F" Stan ley Touring Car. seating five; equipped with top, speedometer, prest-c-lite, chains, clock, extra tires and tubes. Great hill climber; speedy car; easily handied. Practically new-$2,000 outfit, will be sold at a bargain. Address or call on Chas. R. Kurtz, Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE OR RENT-Farm of 89 acres nea Heela Park, in good state of cultivation; is acres are well timbered; part of soil is lime-stope and part sand soil. Thereon are two dwellstope and part sand soil. Thereon are two dwelling houses in good condition, comfortable in winter and summer; has all necessary outbuildings including a good bank bare; three excellent wells of water on the premises; has a large orchard, second to none in the county for choice fruit. The farm is 4 mile from road leading from Hecla to Hublersburg, and known as the old Yocum farm. Parties are invited to call upon the owner, on the premises, to see the farm and for further particulars. J. C. Armbruster.

The following						ā
Eggs, per degen			*			18
Lard, per pound.		lane.				iċ
Tallow. per poun	d			*		4
nutter, per pound	A					18
Side, per pound.,		*	*			8
Shoulder, per por	md.,.,	*		*		8
The following 1	EFON'	TE-	GRA	IN.
ner, for grain:	prices a	se p	ment D	2 0	x. Wa	8