

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

MILESBURG.

Ben Aikey on Saturday purchased some sugar from W. B. Miles & Son, and put it in the buggy. Upon arriving home his wife not seeing the sugar turned to her husband and said, "Ben, where is the sugar?" "It's in the buggy; I will bring it in." Lo! and behold! it was missing; someone needed sugar and confiscated it. On Sunday morning Ben came to the store for a new supply to avoid war.

Frank Smith, of Youngstown, Ohio, is visiting his mother, brothers and sisters. C. L. Boggs, of Pittsburg, returned home after a brief visit to the burg.

Miss Bessie Miles gave an outing to her Sunday school class, Thursday; reports having a pleasant picnic.

Roland Meyer, of Erie, visited relatives and friends of this place, last week.

Wm. B. Miles and wife will leave on the 27th for Atlantic City for a vacation trip.

Miss Mame White, of Edgewood, returned home after a pleasant visit here. The high school of the burg will hold a festival on August 29th; proceeds for the benefit of the physical laboratory.

Minnie Heverly, of Howard, is visiting friends here.

Herman Haupt and wife, of Philadelphia, were pleasant guests of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Baird and brother, P. H. Haupt.

Infant daughter of Charles Zimmerman and wife died with cholera infantum on Saturday.

L. T. Eddy and wife are spending his vacation in Harrisburg, at this writing.

Margaret Zimmerman, Bessie Bryan and Margaret Baird returned home from Unionville, after a pleasant visit with friends of that place.

Mrs. Grace Douss and son, of Allegheny City; Mrs. Bella McCaleb and children, of Altoona; and Mrs. Erna Lingle, of Pitscain, were guests of Mrs. W. T. Hall on Saturday; pleasant greetings.

Mrs. Max Lantz and family were guests of Mrs. Joseph Baird, on Monday.

Rev. M. C. Piper Sundayed in Uniontown.

Samuel Zimmerman and Mrs. George Zimmerman after visiting his daughter, of Philadelphia, returned home.

Mrs. Beniah Watson, of Snow Shoe, accompanied by her three sons, Gilbert, Harold and Ambrose, spent the past two weeks pleasantly visiting her father, Wm. F. Peters, who lives on the Kohlbecker farm.

Andrew T. Boggs, son of A. T. Boggs, has built a boat out of barrel hoops and table cloth, 3 feet wide and 10 feet long. He is a boy of 10 years of age, takes with him in the boat one of his chums, rows up and down the Bald Eagle creek the same as a boat that cost money and the best made. He carries his boat to and from the creek to his home on his head. The next will be a flying machine or air ship that will equal any ever built by a boy. Autos will not be in it when completed. For a boy so young he certainly is endeavoring to make good use of his mechanical talent and everything must be just so.

Mrs. Kunes, of McKeesport, is a guest of her brother, W. R. Campbell.

Wm. Baird, of Juniata, Sundayed with his parents.

BOALSBURG.

Harvest home services will be held in the Reformed church, Sunday morning, also services in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Oburn, of Altoona, spent a few days with Dr. Kidder and family.

Nettie Stemm, of Altoona, paid her aunt, Mrs. Walker, a short visit last week.

Lizzie Harpster and nephew, George Widder, returned to their home in Harrisburg, Saturday.

Mrs. John Musser, of Wilkesbarre, is visiting friends around here.

Harry Felty, of Altoona, is a visitor in town.

Sallie McClenahan, of Centre Hall, is flying her needle at Sarah Eiler's.

Nora Gohsen and Mrs. Dr. Goheen, of Rock Springs, spent Sunday with friends here.

John Weber and daughter Bessie, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at Samuel Weber's.

J. W. Miller and family visited their daughter, Mrs. Woomer, at State College.

WINGATE.

Jim Hains, wife and family, of Derry, are visiting her father, Mr. Harnish.

Mrs. Maggie Timmis, of Braddock, is spending a few weeks with her friend Maud Merry.

Miss Belinda Bumbarger and sister Frances, of Johnstown, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Jane Estright.

Homer Lewis, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with friends here.

Leonard Watson and wife, of Unionville, spent Sunday with his uncle.

IRVING.

Irvin Lucas, of Marsh Creek, Sundayed with his lady friend, Viola Summers.

CHARLES.

Charles Walker was seen on our streets one day last week.

QUITE.

Quite a number of people here attended the Poorman reunion held at Kohlbecker's grove, all report having a nice time.

ELLA.

Ella Hipple, of Unionville, is spending a few days with her brother, Lemuel Hipple, of this place.

MR.

Mr. Page, wife and daughter Mary, of Eagleville, spent a few days last week with Mr. Boop.

GREGG TWP.

The United Evangelical church, at Locust Grove, will hold their re-opening on Sept. 6th. There will be fine speaking and special music. Everybody cordially invited.

ZETTIE.

The Zettie reunion, held in E. W. Hart's grove was largely attended.

ABLE.

Abbie Barger left last Monday for State College, where she expects to be employed for some time.

H. A.

H. A. Haugh lost a horse last Sunday morning; when he went to the barn to feed he found the animal dead.

ADA.

Ada Foust has returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. G. C. Reeder.

W. W.

W. W. Jamison and wife spent Sunday with friends in the Loop.

A man may sleep on his back and still go to bed on an empty stomach.

NITTANY.

Mrs. Musser, of Wilkesbarre, sister of W. J. Mauck, is visiting at the Mauck home.

Mr. and Mrs. Flanigan, of Mill Hall, were guests of D. O. Dorman and family, on Sunday.

Mrs. B. Umgart and daughter, of Rote, visited their many friends through here, over Sunday.

Rev. Bartholomew's father, of Williamsport, visited his son and wife of this place, several days the past week.

Miss Mildred Shope, of Milesburg, is visiting her grandma and many friends here.

Lincoln Swartz, wife and son, of Hubersburg, visited ex-Sheriff Shaffer and family, on Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended campmeeting at Boonville on Sunday, and report having had a good time.

The festival on Saturday night was largely attended and the church took a nice sum of money for which they thank the people in general for their patronage. They also wish to thank the band boys for kindly furnishing such fine music and so much of it.

George Rogers, of near Jacksonville, visited friends here, on Sunday.

Miss Ethel Krape, of Lamar, and Miss Pearl Hoy, of Hubersburg, were guests of Miss Olive Wilson, on Sunday.

William Long and wife, of Snyder-town, were guests of Cal. Wilson and family, on Sunday.

W. J. Garbrick had the misfortune of being tramped on by a horse one day the past week. Mr. Garbrick was riding the horse which stumbled and threw Mr. Garbrick out over its head, then the horse tramped on his stomach. He is some better at this writing.

Just ask Billy Baker how he likes elderberry pie, and how he likes to take a back seat when that fellow from across the mountains comes over to see his best girl.

Elmer Snavely, Boyd Emerick, and Charley Gungallus were out on a fishing trip Saturday night between Beech Creek and Monument. They report having enjoyed the nights outing and had fairly good luck.

Mr. Dana Gardner, of Lock Haven, spent one evening here the past week with his lady friend, Miss Mary Allison.

PENN TWP.

An insufficient amount of rain has caused many of the brooks and wells to run dry.

Mrs. Youtz, accompanied by Sarah Shirly and Margaret Smith, all of Lewis-town, were welcome callers at the home of F. M. Fisher.

Among those who are on the sick list are: Mrs. Lawrence Runkle, and Mrs. Daniel Corman; all wish for their speedy recovery.

Luther Snyder and wife, of Sunbury, are spending their vacation at the home of the latter's brother, Charles Fisher.

A. M. Kreamer has beautified his home by raising the roof and adding a front gable, also a slate roof.

C. F. Rise has returned from his trip South, and says, "there is no place like Penn Hall." Wonder why?

Among those who attended business men's picnic are, W. H. Sinkabine, and wife, W. C. Meyer and wife, W. F. Musser and wife, James Stover and lady friend, Rae Houtz, Lloyd Houser and lady friend, Annie Hains, Ella and Sara Condo, Messrs. Ralph Shook, C. T. Rice, all report having a fine time.

Adam Heckman and family were seen in town one day last week.

J. C. Condo made a flying trip to Bellefonte last week.

Jerry Albright is all smiles over the arrival of a small dishwasher.

While in the act of returning home from paying his lady friend a mid-week visit, he was thrown from the buggy and sustained a few slight bruises; next time be more careful, Mr. R.

Dr. Wolf Sundayed at the home of J. C. Condo.

J. B. Hartman and wife, of Millheim, were seen in town, on Sunday.

Andrew Zettle and family passed through town, on Sunday.

F. D. Hosterman and wife spent several days visiting their many friends at Woodbury.

Mrs. R. Bartges and son, Earl, Sundayed in Millheim.

Runkel Fraiser was a pleasant caller in town. What is the attraction Runkle?

R. B. Bartges, accompanied by his two daughters, transacted business in Centre Hall Friday of last week.

The rural telephone will be ready for use by Sept., if nothing happens to delay further plans.

YARNELL.

Claude Yarnell and family, of Altoona, spent a few days recently with friends here.

N. A. Confer, of Butler, who is just recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, spent the past week at the home of his father, J. A. Confer and family.

Claire Peace, of Milesburg, is at this writing the guest of Lucetta Heaton.

Alonza Brickley, wife and two young sons, of Altoona, spent Friday night at Jerome Confer's.

Edward Mayes spent Sunday at his home, in Mill Hall.

Charles Walker, formerly of this place but now located at Schenectady, N. Y., and a graduate of State College, spent part of last week at his old home here.

Ivan Dunlap and family, of Clearfield, are visiting at Harris Poorman's.

Wilson Heaton, wife and son, of Milesburg, Sundayed at this place.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the Poorman reunion, held at Locust Grove, last Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Reed and son, of Williamsport, are visiting at Alfred Shank's.

Triste Confer returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Milesburg and vicinity.

M. A. Petzer, who is employed at Altoona, was a recent visitor with his father Wm. Petzer.

Floyd Breth entertained Miss Cynthia Boyer very pleasantly last Saturday evening at the Breth home.

D. W. McCloskey and wife, of Wingate, were guests of Geo. Walker, and wife, a few days last week.

Finis Young was so unfortunate as to loose a valuable horse one day last week.

When a man is willing to admit that he is in the wrong he is all right.

HOWARD.

Mrs. Harry P. Robb and son and Miss Alice Rickard were last week visitors at the home of former Jury Commissioner Fred Robb.

John Pletcher, of Johnsonburg, is a guest at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Green.

Rev. E. S. Latahaw, a former teacher and merchant of our town for some three years, died at Curryville, Blair Co., last Thursday, and was buried on Saturday at Roaring Springs.

Mrs. N. J. Pletcher, of Clearfield, spent last week among her many relatives in town and the vicinity.

Miss Adaline Bowes departed for Philadelphia on Friday last and will take up her season's work there.

The exodus of Howard citizens for the Business Men's Picnic left the town more quiet, by far, than it usually is on the Sabbath.

D. W. Pletcher is making good progress with the porch to his new home on South Walnut street.

The meat market concert club, at one of its semi-occasional matinee performances last week, elicited from one of our musical young ladies who was passing, the comment "Hark, the mournful sounds!"

The many kind things which came to our ears concerning the excellent work and gentlemanly carriage of our base ball club in their game with the Mill Hall club at the Business Men's Picnic are a pleasant surprise.

Our cannery is now running on nearly full time, and string beans and tomatoes are crowding upon each other. Occasional shipments of fine tomatoes came from the Pennsylvania State College horticultural experiment grounds.

Miss Josephine Henderson is entertaining her friend, Miss Isabelle Jenkins, of Milton.

Lloyd J. Rimert, a native and recent resident of our town, and whose mental failure about a year ago compelled his detention at the Danville asylum, died there last Thursday and was buried in Schenck's cemetery, Saturday afternoon.

S. L. Allen, of Pittsburg, with his wife and family are guests of J. Will Mayes. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Mayes are sisters, daughters of the late Wm. Irvin, of Marietta, W. Va.

Miss Cora C. Ginger, daughter of a former resident of our town, died last week at Berwick, where her father is now a master roller.

Miss Jennie Holter, of Williamsport, is vacationing among her relatives here.

Mrs. George Wister is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Moore, of Flemington.

John W. Wetzel is the contractor, and Wm. Lucas the actual builder, of a substantial new brick walk on the Speering street side of the Solomon Tice house.

Wm. B. Wilson has just completed one of the excellent brick sidewalks in front of John Mokie's new brick house, and Mr. and Mrs. Mokie and the new baby had the pleasure of moving into their own home on Wednesday.

Among the many pretty weddings which have taken place in our community none has quite equalled that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the best man was Fred G. Gay, of the class of '06, State College, and a fellow engineer of Mr. Evans. The rather trying role of ushers was most acceptably filled by Chester A. Moore, Jesse T. Leathers, Irvin D. Jordan and Samuel Robb, all of Howard, and called that of Miss Carolyn B. Bowes, of this place, to C. G. Evans, of Wilkesbarre, solemnized last Thursday evening. The bride was one of the younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowes, and one of our handsomest and most popular girls. The groom is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, of the class of '07, and is now in the service of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., as a mining engineer.

The ceremony was a reception in the beautifully decorated Christian chapel. Miss Adaline Bowes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the