

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Mrs. Alice Rishel, of Pittsburg, who had been visiting in Bellefonte for some time, has returned home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rhone returned to their home in Brookville after a pleasant visit with James Rine, on east High street.

—One evening recently Mr. and Mrs. James A. B. Miller entertained a company of young people at their home on Curtin street, in honor of Mrs. Miller's sister, Miss Elsie Viehdorfer.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sample, of Philadelphia, have been making their annual summer visit with Mrs. Sample's sister, Mrs. G. Fred Musser in Bellefonte, and Mrs. Phil. Foster at State College.

—Mrs. Louisa Bush, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Steele, W. R. Brachell, Miss Linn all of Bellefonte and Miss Gray, of Wadley, were among the number, who left Friday morning for Ocean Grove and Asbury Park.

—S. Cleveland Brungart, of Rebersburg, with his bride, former Lettie B. McCool, of Tusseyville, gave the Democrat a call while returning from their wedding trip. We wish the happy couple a prosperous journey through life.

—Dr. S. M. Nissley, of the Bellefonte veterinary, made a trip recently to Rebersburg to ascertain whether or not a herd of cattle shipped there had been properly inspected. Everything was found correct, and the doctor returned home in the evening.

—Mrs. George Meyers, of Germantown, visiting at Miss Alice Thompsons of this place, the past eight weeks, returned to her home in Germantown a few days ago, and had a delightful time during her stay; Mrs. Thompson accompanied her as far as Lock Haven.

—Earl Houser, of DuBois, has been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Houser. He made the trip on a motor cycle, starting from home one morning and arriving here the next evening. The journey was anything but delightful from the fact that the roads were exceedingly rough.

—Since the closing of the Bayard home on Spring street, James Bayard has accepted a position at Howard, in the Huster office where he will serve as foreman of that paper, a position that he formerly filled very acceptably for Mr. Dunham, Jim is well acquainted in that section and will soon be in the social swim.

—Hon. John Hamilton, who holds a lucrative position in the agricultural department of Washington, D. C., was a visitor in Bellefonte on Saturday. He looks younger than when he tried to keep the students of State College in the straight and narrow path. He is rusticating this week on the farm near the College.

—It is altogether probable that some day Bellefonte will have another very desirable tenant house. It will be three stories high, the first floor to be used as a dancing hall or a place to hold most any kind of an entertainment. The second and third floor will be used for flats. The projectors have not quite decided what they will do, thus we will withhold their names.

—Rev. James B. Stein, and family returned from their vacation, most of the time being spent among friends at Chambersburg and Carlisle. Rev. Stein was there where there was excellent bass fishing and succeeded in catching a number of beauties. He didn't say how large they were because the usual fish story is not always consistent with the life and character of the man of cloth.

—One of the nicest catches of bass that came to this town this year was brought there the other day by John Night-hart, the barber. He had been down to Beech Creek where he was fishing in the Bald Eagle creek and succeeded in landing over a dozen large ones, three of which averaged from 16 to 20 inches in length and were as broad as shad. He caught them on "catties".

—Don't fail to read the article on Page 6 of this issue. It is one of the best lectures delivered by Wm. J. Bryan and for the information of our republican readers we will say that there is not a word or even a hint of politics in it—just the thing for a Sunday's reading. It is a defence of the teachings of Christ, and as such has been delivered from the leading pulpits in this county.

—Mrs. J. W. Keller, of Linden Hall, favored our sanctum with a call, as is her practice when visiting Bellefonte. She has been in the mercantile business in that pretty village since the death of her husband, whom she succeeded in the business 18 years ago. (Her aged mother now is 86, and is having her home at Linden Hall with her daughter, and reads her Bible daily, notwithstanding her feebleness in her great age.)

—Last week Miss Bessie Meek, of Bellefonte, while in Philadelphia, thought she would call on her uncle, Olie Meek, who is employed at the mint. Not finding him at his regular place of business she went to his sleeping apartments and found him in bed and quite ill; she wired the unpleasant news home, and their relatives and friends here were much surprised, as they had not been notified of his illness. Friday morning this sister, Miss Sallie Meek, went to the city to look after his needs. The latest reports are that he is much improved.

—This week County Chairman W. D. Zerby rented a front room on the second floor of Crider's Exchange to be used as a headquarters of the Democratic Party in the coming campaign. The room formerly was used as a broker's office and is between the offices of Wm. Rankin, and that of Wm. C. Heinle, Esq. All the leading papers will be received there as well as other interesting political literature. When in town you are welcome to call there and be at home. There will be ample accommodations and the rooms will be open during the day and evenings.

—Thursday evening Miss Helen Hamilton, of Bellefonte, gave a pie party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Nolan to a number of her friends. The evening proved a very enjoyable one, and the hours passed entirely to swift. Those present were: Misses Lizzie McGowan, Florence Evey, Margaret Rosenhoover, Evelyn Shutt, Helen Hamilton, Lula Morrison, Katharyn McCoy, Ann Sloey, and Margery Richards, Messrs. Charles Kellerman, Roy Keihler, Ned Heverly, Harry Nighthart, Merrill Knapp, Roll Bryan, Kay Baird, Homer McKinley, Rube Grassmyer, Charles Dugan, Oscar Zong, and Charles Resides.

—The little German band enlivened things up a little in Bellefonte, on Friday.

—Mrs. Charles Moerschbacher left Bellefonte Saturday for her old home in Frederick, where she will visit friends for a week.

—Mrs. George Karstetter, who has been visiting at the Veager home, on Spring street, returned to her home in Harrisburg, Thursday.

—Mrs. Lena Brown and son Anthony, of New York City, are visiting friends in Bellefonte. It is altogether probable they will remain here.

—Roger T. Bayard, localizer on the Tyrone Herald, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte. He came down to see his sisters before they left the town.

—Misses Elizabeth and Ann Badger, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Badger returned on Saturday from Millburg where they had been visiting their grand parents.

—George T. Murphy, of Philadelphia, who was sorely bereaved of his wife recently, has been a visitor in Bellefonte at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ralph Mallory.

—Mrs. Flora Fox Dale, wife of the late J. M. Dale, and her two children, have returned to Bellefonte and opened up their house for the remainder of the summer.

—Miss Helen Hamilton, daughter of Wm. Hamilton, of this place, left on Wednesday, for Tyrone and Huntingdon, where she will spend a few weeks, visiting relatives and friends.

—The Barber of Seville, is unique in the field of comic opera inasmuch as its presentation calls for a cast almost entirely of principals. At the opera house, Friday evening, September 11th.

—W. E. VanGorder, of Mingoville, brought us a rare sample of plums. The bunch is so completely covered with a fruit that the stem and leaves are almost hidden. He has a fine lot of fruit this year.

—While St. John's Episcopal church is undergoing repairs, services will be held in the parish house, beginning next Sunday at 11 o'clock. The sessions of Sunday schools will be resumed on the same day at 10 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Philips, of Parkville, Mercer county, spent a few days recently with Mrs. Satterfield while enroute to Ocean Grove and Asbury Park. Mrs. Satterfield accompanied them to the seashore.

—Benjamin Shaffer, an employe of the Huntingdon Reformatory, has been visiting in Bellefonte several days this week. He says they have a base ball team over there which would like to play a team from this place, if they have the sand to go over.

—Samuel Rumbarger, son of John C. Rumbarger, has succeeded William Miller as agent for the American Express Co. in Bellefonte. "Sam" is a good, industrious fellow, and will do his part toward taking care of the company's interests in this vicinity.

—Dr. David Dale now drives a new Franklin runabout, the handsome 4-cylinder car that Col. Reynolds purchased recently, but sold to get a 6-cylinder machine. Dr. Sebring made the dicker, as he is the representative of the Franklin car in this section. Col. Reynolds' new machine will be here shortly.

—Amid the general complaint of streams being low, lower than some years past, Buffalo run is one that, singular to tell, keeps up its flow to near normal. In 1882 this run was entirely dry as "oldest inhabitants" inform us, in the upper half of the stream. Now, in this "dry spell" it just about holds its own. The same may be said of Spring creek which flows through this town, and rises some eighteen miles from here.

—E. K. Rhoads, the Bellefonte coal dealer, has greatly improved his place of business by putting down a new floor in his office and repainting it. When completed it will be one of the coziest places of business to be found in the town. Mr. Rhoads and his able assistant, Wagoner Geiss, have come to the conclusion that the more neat and attractive they make their environments the more they will enhance their business, which, they believe, is one of the secrets of success. People like to go to a place of business that has an air of tidiness about it. They will give their three times to once to a place that is not inviting. George Quinn has repaired the large coal scales and put them in good weighing shape for the winter.

—Monday morning L. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, drove down to Kichline's machine shop, on south Water street, and hitched his horse to a fire plug. After he was through in Keichline's shop Mr. Musser started over to the fire plug, and while loosing the horse the animal made a quick plunge forward and tore the bridle off. He then struck a fast pace out the street, striking the fence on the north side of the office of the Bellefonte Lumber Co., here one of the wheels on the conveyance was completely mashed. From there the infuriated animal continued its flight to the lumber yard, on the south side of the office. Turning in there it plunged into a deep hole, and in its effort to get out the horse freed itself from the conveyance and jumped on a small board pile; the horse was so stunned that it was unable to recover itself until caught.

—The other day A. C. Mingle and family went over to Centre Hall and while their automobile was standing on the street Philip, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, was having good time climbing in and out of the machine. In some way he made a mistake and fell, breaking his arm. While the fracture was a painful one it is not unusually serious.

—Miss Lillian Walker departed Thursday for Philadelphia, where she will spend several weeks familiarizing herself with the very latest fashionable designs in millinery, preparatory to commencing her regular engagement for the season. On Wednesday evening before leaving she was very pleasantly entertained at an informal dinner given by a few of her girl friends at Summer's cafe.

—Sunday next September 6th, at 3:30 o'clock, the first men's mass meeting of the season will be held at the Court House under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The speaker will be Rev. J. B. Stein, D. D., and special sacred music will be rendered by the Coleville band and Samuel Bryant, cornet soloist. Good vocal music is also guaranteed so the occasion will be a profitable one for all. Every man is invited.

—Quite a number of Bellefonte people took advantage of the Pennsylvania railroad company's low rate excursion to Atlantic City on Thursday morning. Among the number who took the excursion were Mrs. Dominic Judge, Mrs. Joseph Fox, James Parsons, Miss Florence Lowrie, Mr. and Mrs. Witmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howley, George Knisely and son, J. W. Fort and son, Frank Crissman and Miss Harriet Foster.

—Rev. J. F. Hoover and family left Monday afternoon for Williamsport to attend the annual Bible conference and K. L. of C. W. convention of the Central Pennsylvania conference, which is held this week in the First United Evangelical church of that city. On account of the absence of the pastor next Sunday, there will be no preaching service in the Evangelical church of Bellefonte.

—Miss Lillian Muffly, who is now night superintendent in the Presbyterian hospital at Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Montgomery and family.

—F. E. Naginey is happy once more, since his automobile is again in commission.

—"The Barber of Seville," at the opera house, on Friday evening of next week.

—Harry Stevenson, after spending six weeks with relatives in the west, returned home on Monday noon.

—Miss Sadie Caldwell left, on Monday, for Baltimore, Md., where she will visit per sister, Mrs. McGinley.

—Mrs. C. H. Dunkle, of Altoona, accompanied by Mrs. W. F. Sprawl, of Mingoville, were pleasant callers.

—Miss Mary Eberhart has been taking quite an extended trip; she returned home Sunday and reports having a fine time.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hoffman left yesterday for Lockport, N. Y., where they expect to make their future home.

—Mr. Leslie Williams, wife and baby, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Mr. Samuel Leitzell, on east Beaver street.

—New concrete walks are now being laid by M. J. Johnson, the marbleman around the front of the court house and monument. It was lately needed long ago.

—Miss Helen Hamilton, daughter of Wm. Hamilton, of this place, left on Wednesday, for Tyrone and Huntingdon, where she will spend a few weeks, visiting relatives and friends.

—"The Barber of Seville" is unique in the field of comic opera inasmuch as its presentation calls for a cast almost entirely of principals. At the opera house, Friday evening, September 11th.

Our schools open Monday Sept. 14.

Hello! "Domino" you must have had quite an exciting trip to the mountain city; glad to hear that you came back safely, and hope that the next time you fly through our town on "jerk water," at the rate of 100 miles per minute, that you will give the Runville scribe a call.

O Jibway Tribe, No. 496, I. O. R. M., of Milesburg, will hold a picnic on the old Hunting ground, at Yarnell, in the Conifer Grove, Sept. 12, 1908. All the palefaces are invited to attend. Bring your basket and lady friends along, and have a day outing; Come one! Come all! and see the Pocahontas Dance.

Important Postoffice Change.

Mr. V. Shoneberger, United States Postoffice Inspector, has spent the past week in Bellefonte and vicinity, inspecting the rural route service between Bellefonte, Zion and State College, and has sent to the Department a recommendation for a new rural route from Bellefonte west over the road leading from the Valentine furnace to Centre Furnace. This route practically embraces Route No. 3, of State College, which will be abandoned, except the upper portion which will be served by routes 1 and 2 from the College.

Another change will go into effect on Monday, September 7th, which will be the closing of the Bellefonte postoffice at 7 p. m. instead of at 8 o'clock as heretofore. This will not interfere with either the city delivery or the train service as all mail for the 8:16 p. m. train will be forwarded if its dropped into the box in the front part of the office before 8 o'clock.

Please take notice of this change and govern yourself accordingly.
