

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Miss Mary Crider entertained a bridge party on Thursday evening.
Montgomery & Co. are opening their new store at State College this week.
Norman Kirk, son of Dr. M. A. Kirk, has entered as a student of State College.
Oscar Gray, the insurance agent, left Tuesday afternoon on a business trip to New York.
Miss Esther McElhattan, who had been visiting friends at Howard, returned home, on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook and daughters, Margaret and Hazel, have returned from a sojourn at Ocean City.
Prof. Angel, the eye specialist, will be at the Brockerhoff House Sept. 23 and 24th. See his advertisement elsewhere.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moerschbacher are greatly delighted over that little baby, which is now making things lively at their home.
R. H. Houser, of Pleasant Gap, was a caller on Friday. Mr. Houser is engaged in building fences over the county, and is regarded as an expert in that line of work.
Commissioner John G. Baily and clerk James Corl left on Monday to attend the annual state convention of county commissioners, in session at Greensburg, Pa., this week.
Miss Charlotte Meek, of Washington, D. C. has been a visitor at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. Gray Meek. She has also been visiting friends in other portions of the county.
Mrs. Margaret Meek, who had been spending the past two months in Bellefonte as the guest of her brother, Squire John M. Keichline, left for her home in Altoona, on Monday.
Among our callers on Saturday was P. W. Bullock, one of our best patrons, from Snow Shoe, who though a republican, says he enjoys reading the Centre Democrat every week of the year.
Captain William Harpster, of Houtzdale, and Robert A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, were the two drummer boys of the 145 P. V. 1. And both attended the soldiers' reunion at this place on last Saturday.
Nelson Malotte, of Buffalo, N. Y., the new Y. M. C. A. gymnasium instructor, is now in Bellefonte getting things in shape for the fall and winter's work. The boys are looking forward to an eventful season.
Next Monday night the attraction at Garman's opera house is an adequately staged presentation of the most popular of all dramas, "East Lynne" by Joseph King's New York company. The engagement is for one night only.
L. T. Munson, who for a number of years has been superintendent of the Bellefonte Furnace, has resigned, his resignation having taken effect on Tuesday. Mr. Munson has several positions in view but it is probable he will accept one with the United States Steel Co. His place at the furnace has been filled by J. N. Sherer, a graduate of State College.
Michael Kelly and William Shaffer, of Altoona, were among the visitors in Bellefonte on Saturday. Mr. Kelly was born and raised in this vicinity and occasionally he gets back to see his old friends who are always glad to see him. Mr. Shaffer is one of the boys who wore the blue, and he came to Bellefonte to attend the veteran picnic held on the fair grounds by the Centre County Veterans Club.
Edward Haupt and wife left Bellefonte, on Monday for Troy, Pennsylvania, to attend the big fair there this week. He will have a stand there and will sell different kinds of novelties. Next week he will attend the fair at Mansfield, Pa. on the same mission. It is said from small drops of water great rivers flow, so from big sales and small profits Mr. Haupt is amassing quite a snug little fortune. He is an energetic fellow and is deserving of all he gets.
Sunday Hoj, James Schofield took a little jaunt out through the picture-grove hills and valleys of Marsh Creek. While there he was royally entertained by Cyrus Lucas, Al Dale and Milligan Walker, who killed the fatted lamb and our distinguished friend from Bellefonte ate so much that he busted his suspenders. If it hadn't been Sunday James would have given his hosts several lectures on Bryanism, the most popular subject now before the American people and he could do it, all right.
Henry Lowery and family have moved from Bellefonte to State College where they expect to make their future home. For a number of years they have been residents of this place and their departure is greatly lamented by their hosts and friends. Mr. Lowery, however, sees a better opening in the enterprising college town. So he made the change to keep in closer touch with his work. He moved into his own house which was recently completed. The edifice is so arranged that he can take a number of rooms.
Last week Mrs. Louisa Bush, of Bellefonte, was unfortunate in losing her hand bag which contained many articles of value. She was returning from a pleasant outing of ten days at Ocean Grove, and when several miles beyond Sunbury she had her hand bag lying on the window when the train gave a lurch and the window flew up of its own accord, while the hand bag rolled out of the window and was lost in the bag were her pocket book and money, her railroad ticket, bracelets and other jewelry handkerchief and several other articles.
Saturday Dr. H. M. Hiller, of Chester, arrived in Bellefonte and spent Sunday at the residence of Margaret Wilson, on High street, where his wife and little daughter, Margaret, had been spending several weeks. Monday afternoon he and his family left for their home. Since the Doctor has been in Chester he has been meeting with phenomenal success in the practice of medicine. He has been chosen resident physician for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and for a number of large manufacturing establishments. His short stay here this time was on account of pressure of business which is one of the best indications of his prosperity. He expects to return during the hunting season ready for bear or anything that comes his way.

Big horse sale at the Haag House on Saturday 26th.
The attendance at the Grange picnic this week is up to the average.
October 1st, the new management at the Theatorium goes into effect.
Miss Ida Rhoads, of Howard, spent Monday in town as the guest of her friend, Mrs. Pearl Condo.
The big Centre County Fair will be bigger and better than ever. Comes on the first week in October, from the 5th to the 9th.
Misses Ann Confer and Mary Hill returned home, last week, after a pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Philadelphia.
Mrs. Meserve, wife of C. N. Meserve, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left to visit friends in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and Batavia, N. Y.
We had pleasant callers in the following ladies from Wingate: Mrs. Geo. Summers, Mrs. Oscar Summers, Mrs. David Esterlight and Miss Dora Stere.
The popular Regal shoes can now be found at Mingle's shoe store. A full line was recently installed. The Regal has a reputation that is a guarantee for quality.
Mrs. Kate Hunter and daughter Miss Helen who had been guests at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Speer for the last seven weeks left on Monday for their home in Pittsburg.
The ladies of the Lutheran congregation had the church prettily and appropriately decorated with floral and fruit products, for the harvest home service last Sabbath. The pastor, Rev. Barry, had an interesting discourse for the occasion.
Wilfred Kurtz, of Berlin, on his way to State College, where he will enter as a student, spent part of Monday and Tuesday, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz. He is a graduate of the Berlin high school.
After Fred Smith, of Philadelphia, has been elected Sheriff of Centre county, Henry Kline, the present incumbent, will move into the Henry Lowery house, on Bishop street. If you don't think Fred Smith is going to make it, just put your ear to the ground and listen.
Hon. Ellis L. Orvis and J. L. Spangler, accompanied by their wives, arrived home on Sunday evening from their extended trip to the Yellowstone Park and other parts of the west, which they greatly enjoyed. They missed the famous hold up in the Park, being only ten miles from the scene.
Vera Willard, of Meadville, is now in Bellefonte, on a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Willard. Mrs. Willard is a graduate nurse of the Meadville City Hospital and this is her first visit to Bellefonte. She will probably spend some time here but expects to begin her services as a trained nurse after a short rest.
Thursday Frank Nagin's pet dog was tackled by two of Jim Woods' bulldogs which tore the life right out of it. Mr. and Mrs. Nagin had become attached to the canine and it was like parting with one of the children. Mr. Nagin will have to find solace in the fact that without much difficulty he can get another pet.
During the past week an interesting picture at Montgomery & Co's store has been attracting much attention. It is a group of over a hundred Major Generals who were in the late civil war, and among all of these only two or three are living at this day. The picture is owned by Capt. Henry Montgomery, who prizes it very highly.
It is stated some body in Bellefonte is going around collecting old clothing and other articles, stating that they were for the Salvation Army to distribute among our deserving poor. The fact that none of these articles ever reach the Salvation Army and to avoid impostors, of any kind, Captain Heather, of the Army, hereby warns our people not to give anything to anybody for the Army unless it is to an officer.
Mrs. Harry Condo and two children, Harry and Frederick, of York, have been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Condo's aunt, Mrs. Benjamin Brown, on Lamb street. Thursday while Harry was playing with a dog he had the misfortune of falling on the boardwalk and breaking his collar bone. It was reset by a physician and the little boy is getting along as well as can be expected.
Rev. Richard Crittenden, of Bellefonte, who has charge of the building of the Olive Branch Chapel, at Coleville, suggests that the little boys and girls can aid a little in the good work, by handing him ten cents which will buy five sticks. The price of a ten cent package of cigarettes would pay for fifteen sticks. Rev. Crittenden has a record of every penny given him for this cause.
Among the old soldiers who attended the Veteran picnic in Bellefonte on Saturday was Robert A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio. He made the trip on purpose to be present and mingle with the old Centre county boys who wore the blue. He has a peculiar interest in our soldiers here and makes a special effort to be with them on these annual outings. He left for home Monday, and while here was the guest of his son, W. C. Cassidy.
Willard Hall, dealer in phonographs and records, has digressed a little from his regular business by installing two automatic bowling alleys. The pins are set up by pulling a lever which at the same time releases the balls that have been thrown when they run to the front again. The alleys are novel and unique, and are exciting more than usual interest among lovers of this kind of sport. You get thirty throws for five cents, which means good exercise.
Thad Hamilton, of Bellefonte, is delighted with the future prospects of his planing mill, which he recently equipped in the rear of his residence on Howard street. He now has all the work one man can do, and if it increases he will have to employ some one to help him out. This is certainly very encouraging to Mr. Hamilton, who started this as a venture, not knowing how it would turn out. As it is approaching fall he is having patent tar roofing placed on the exterior of the building instead of weather boarding, to keep the cold out. It is a new departure, but its all right.

Special on ladies dress shoes, $1.48. At Yeagers.
Owen Rush, of Pittsburg, is visiting his brother, Warren Rush, of Bellefonte.
Game of base ball between Howard and Williamsport this Thursday afternoon.
The game laws will be found in another part of this issue in condensed form, and they are correct.
James O. Connor and wife, of Jersey Shore, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vince Bauer, on Bishop street.
Mrs. Mary Blair, of Huntingdon, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. Mrs. Blair was formerly Miss Green of this place.
Misses Mary and Mattie Finkbinder, of Williamsport, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finkbinder on Pine street.
Dr. W. W. Feidt, of Bellefonte, is attending the annual meeting of the State Medical Society which is being held this week at Cambridge Springs.
Mrs. William Humes who has been seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Gilmore, on Linn street, is so low that her death is expected almost at any moment.
Frank Shugerts, of Bellefonte, is devoting his time to the putting in and repairing electrical bells. Those who need anything along this line can secure Mr. Shugerts at the Brandt House.
A. S. Rhoads, of Milton, was in Bellefonte, Tuesday, being escorted around by John McSully, Mr. Rhoads' mission here was to buy peaches, as the crop is very short in that section of the state.
The venerable Geo. Spangler, who is an invalid, and is father of N. B. Spangler, Esq., has been in a critical condition during the past week, at Centre Hall. His recovery is considered impossible.
Dr. George Klump, at one time a practicing physician in this place, spent over Sunday in Bellefonte as the guest of Dr. George F. Harris. He was called here to consult with the latter gentleman professionally.
Col. W. H. Musser and wife left Bellefonte, on Tuesday afternoon, on a ten-day's trip to Philadelphia, New York City and Gettysburg. In the Quaker City they will be guests of their son, Dale Musser.
William J. Black, of Chambersburg, was a guest over Sunday at the Methodist parsonage at the house of Rev. Stein and family. Mr. Black on Thursday entered the Pennsylvania State College for the coming term.
The Pennsylvania Fish Car passed through Bellefonte the other day with a load of sun fish from the Spruce Creek hatchery. A number of cans of small fish were placed in the dam at Curtin, and other points in Bald Eagle creek.
John C. Moore and wife, of San Francisco, spent a portion of Saturday in Bellefonte, as the guests of the former's brother, W. W. Moore, superintendent of the Nittany Furnace Co. They are making a tour of the East among their many friends.
Mrs. Harriet Kurtz, wife of the late John L. Kurtz, has left Bellefonte for the middle west where she expects to spend three months. Mrs. Kurtz was accompanied as far as Pittsburg by Mrs. Clark Matron at the Brockerhoff House, who will visit there for some time.
Mr. and Mrs. Funk, of Vinland, Kans., who had been visiting friends about Milesburg for some time, which was Mrs. Funk's, former home, were in to pay us a brief visit. Every week they depend on the Centre Democrat supplying them with news from Centre county.
On October 1st Mrs. Lane, wife of the late James Lane, will leave for Philadelphia where she will spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Thomas. The Graham house, now occupied by Mrs. Lane will become the home of Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside who expects to make her home here.
Charles Fisher and his bride, of Danville, spent Tuesday with the groom's mother, Mrs. Amanda Fisher, at Boalsburg, on Wednesday morning they spent several hours in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Orwin. At noon they left for Philadelphia and New York on their wedding tour which was delayed on account of the recent death of the bride's mother.
A rumor has been going the rounds that Col. J. L. Spangler and William P. Humes of Bellefonte, were negotiating for the Ward House, in Tyrone, for the purpose of giving the railroad town a modern and up-to-date hotel. A report, of the Centre Democrat interviewed both these gentlemen and they positively deny that any such negotiations have been going on—Presbyterians are not built that way.
It went long until Albert Schad, the plumber, will be placed among Bellefonte's bloated bondholders. It has not been long since he broke ground for a new residence on Linn street. He is now getting things in shape to erect a double house on the lot recently purchased from the Humes estate on the corner of Spring and Lamb streets. It is also laying a concrete pavement along the entire property on both streets.
Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, the Bellefonte dentist, returned last week from Philadelphia where he spent a few days going through some of the leading dental institutions searching for anything new and practical that will better equip him for more proficient work. The result was that he brought back with him several appliances which will enable him to practice dentistry according to the most modern methods. Dr. Kilpatrick has always shown a progressiveness that places him among the best in his profession.
On Friday, Sept. 25, the Academy will open the foot ball season at Meadow Brook Park, Bellefonte. The opposing team will be the High School from Punxsutawney. If you want to help the athletic spirit along in Bellefonte attend these games and aid in paying the guarantee of teams from a distance. If Prof. James R. Hughes is given a fair show he will give you interesting entertainment along the line of field athletics. On Thursday, Sept. 24, the Academy and Howard baseball teams will play an exhibition game on the park. Both teams have been doing good work the past summer, which insures a good game on this occasion. The proceeds will go toward liquidating the debt of $400 that still remains on the fence that now encloses the grounds. The athletic grounds is a public affair and interest enough should be taken in it by our people to give twenty-five cents toward paying off the debt on that fence.

"East Lynne" on Monday night.
Frank Steele, an employee of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, left Saturday for Syracuse, N. Y., where he is spending his vacation.
On Monday night the attraction in Garman's opera house will be "East Lynne," the great emotional drama which will be presented by a splendid company.
The last lawn festival, 1908, for the Olive Branch Union chapel, Coleville, will be held next Saturday evening, near the B. & O. freight house. The band hall will be open if the weather is unfavorable.
"East Lynne" without exception the greatest emotional drama ever written, will receive one of the most meritorious presentations ever accorded it, in Garman's opera house by Joseph King's company, on Monday night.
On next Monday morning Dr. A. W. Hafer will leave for Washington, D. C., to attend the Bliss Native Herb convention, which will be composed entirely of agents for this medicine. The convention will continue four days.
Mrs. W. E. Seibert, nee Miss Kate Bennett, and her little daughter, Virginia, of Pittsburg, who had been making a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. B. Miller, on Curtin street, left Monday for their home in Pittsburg. Mrs. Seibert spent a goodly portion of her life in this vicinity, although she had been absent for a number of years. While here the time was spent very pleasantly.
For the last week or more Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rees and Mrs. Rees, sister, Miss Rae Thomas, of Pittsburg have been in Bellefonte, making their headquarters at the Bush House. They are enjoying themselves in many ways, especially in recalling the past which is closely identified with Mr. Rees' family history. Seventy-nine years ago his grandfather came to Bellefonte and took charge of the Valentine charcoal furnace, which stood about where the present iron furnace stands. That's pretty far back, and the indications are that the furnace then stood in a wilderness. It is probable that Mr. Rees lived in one of the old houses still standing out there. On Friday Mr. Rees and his wife and sister-in-law accompanied by G. W. Rees, went over the switchbacks to Snow Shoe and enjoyed the scenery and ride immensely.
RECENT DEATHS.
READFORD STEAVENS—Son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Steavens, of State College, died Tuesday morning about 7:30 o'clock, after an illness since Wednesday of last week. His age was about 12 years and 7 months. The funeral will take place this afternoon.
MRS. GEORGE R. STANTON—After an illness of several months from pulmonary tuberculosis, Mrs. George R. Stanton died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Sunday, east of Centre Hall, Thursday night. Interment was on Monday at Centre Hall. Mrs. Stanton was the daughter of Theodore Shilling, and was born near Centre Hall.
MRS. W. E. SPANGLER—Irene, wife of William E. Spangler, died at her home in Chicago, Wednesday, 2nd inst., after a serious illness of only a few days, of peritonitis following an operation. Mrs. Spangler was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Palmer, of Potters Mills, and was aged 32 years. A husband and two children, also a sister, Mrs. Thomas Farmer, of Philadelphia, and a brother, Blaine Potter, of Potters Mills, survive. She was laid to rest at Rose Hill cemetery.
MISS MARIA ALEXANDER—One of the oldest residents of Boalsburg, died at three o'clock Sunday afternoon. Two years ago she fell and broke her hip and has been an invalid ever since. She was born in Penn township 78 years ago and was a daughter of Henry and Amanda Kimpfort. She never married and for years has made her home in Boalsburg with her only sister, Susan Alexander. She also leaves one brother, Daniel, of Freeport, Ill. The funeral took place at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.
MRS. SARAH DELINDA MCCORMICK—Wife of John B. McCormick, died at her home in Tyrone, Wednesday night of last week about 11:30 o'clock of a complication of diseases from which she had suffered for the past six months. Mrs. McCormick, whose maiden name was Ross, was born in Centre county December 13, 1850, and was aged 57 years, 8 months and 21 days. She was married to John B. McCormick in July 1871. Two children, Mrs. Lee B. Carter and George Ross McCormick survive. She also leaves her aged mother, Mrs. E. J. Ross and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Frank M. Fox, Mrs. George C. Wilson, Mrs. Hain Corson, George M. Ross, all of Tyrone, and Albert A. and Robert S. Ross of Warrenton. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at her home and were conducted by Rev. George T. Gunter, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which she was a faithful member.
ADAM DECKER—An aged and highly respected citizen of Walker township, died Friday morning at his home in Snyderdunt, from a complication of diseases, at the age of 73 years, 3 months and 21 days. He lived his entire life in the township and was considered one of its most substantial citizens. He had been an active member of the Reformed church for 57 years, and the last surviving member of the building committee of that church. He was a kind father and a good neighbor. Surviving him is one son, Charles, who resides at home; Mrs. John Devinsky, of Lewisport; Mrs. Kram Long, of Nittany. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: John and William, of Hubersburg; Samuel, of Bellefonte; George, of Versailles, Missouri; Mrs. Catherine Gephart, of Millheim; Mrs. Mary Shantz, of Holton, Kansas; and Mrs. Sarah Stam, of Loganville, Clinton county. The funeral took place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment was made at Hubersburg.

the timber and cleared the land which now comprises the old homestead occupied by his son, J. H. Neidigh. He was a man of simple tastes and unostentatious manner, but was possessed of a retentive memory. He could recall the early history of Ferguson and College townships. It was an acknowledged fact that he could tell the boundary line of almost every farm in Ferguson township to the foot, without a surveyor. He was a member of the Reformed church and was one of the organizers of the congregation and church at Pine Hall. Since the death of his wife, seven years ago, he made his home with his son, J. H., in addition to whom he is survived by another son Zachariah, and four daughters, in the West. The funeral was held Friday afternoon. Interment was made in the Pine Hall cemetery.
MRS. SARAH WILLIAMS—Died at her home at Axemann on Saturday morning, her death being due to a general wearing out of the system. Mrs. Williams was one of the oldest and widely known women in this community, having been born in the house in which she died and would have been 84 years of age next January. She was the widow of Mark Williams who preceded her to the grave about seventeen years ago, and who was one of spring township's most prominent citizens. Mrs. Williams is survived by three children: Mordecai, Mary and James, all of whom made their home with their mother at Axemann. She is also survived by one brother Thomas Waddle, of Jersey Shore, who, about one month ago celebrated his 80th birthday at the home of his sister, surrounded by a large number of acquaintances. He, however, is so feeble that he is unable to come to Bellefonte to attend the obsequies. The deceased was a niece of Philip Benner, the pioneer iron manufacturer, who in the early days of the country's history located at Rock, building a furnace, grist mill and saw mill. The death of this grand old woman is mourned by a large circle of friends. Religiously she was a Baptist but, as there was no church of her choice near enough for her to attend she worshipped with the Methodists. The funeral took place Tuesday morning which was unusually large. Interment in the Union cemetery.

That when a fellow in Bellefonte begins to talk about the faults of others he should not forget his own. Such a man should take an hour of some day and make an inventory of his own good qualities and afterwards take a week or two off and catalogue his faults and imperfections. After he has finished he should not commit suicide but resolve to be more charitable. The best place for a man who has no faults is in Heaven. He has no business here. "Bobby" Burns says that man's inhumanity to man makes thousands mourn, and he never made a truer statement.
BRYAN'S extempore talks as well as his set speeches show that he has acquired the difficult art of saying things in epigram. For instance:
"Mr. Taft has begun to threaten. He says if the Democrats win, prosperity will not return. He does not hope to convince you; he is trying to scare you. A year ago he might have threatened you. You cannot fall off the bed when you are already lying on the floor."
COURT PROCLAMATION
Whereas, the Honorable, Ellis L. Orvis, President of the Court of Common Pleas of the 19th Judicial District, consisting of the county of Centre, having issued his precept, bearing date the 4th day of August, 1908, directed for holding a Court of Common Pleas, Orphan's Court, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, for the county of Centre, and to commence on the FOURTH MONDAY OF SEPTEMBER,
and to continue two weeks. Notice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the 23rd with their records, inquiries, examinations to prosecute against the prisoners that are or have been in the jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.
Given under my hand at Bellefonte, the 1st day of September, in the year of our Lord, 1908, and the one hundredth and thirty-third year of the Independence of the United States:
HENRY KLINE, Sheriff.

One of the largest families in Clearfield county is that of August Rougnier, of Frenchville. It consists of nine girls and eight boys, and all are living.

Prof. Angel
Eyeglass Specialist
at the Brockerhoff House
Wednes. & Thursday
Sept. 23 & 24
To my Patrons and Public:
Having become established in Bellefonte and all over the county, as a successful Eye Specialist, and through the large increase of my business, I have concluded it will be to the best interest of myself and the public to make a reduction of 25 per cent. in all my charges. This will enable those who have felt they could not afford to pay former prices to secure proper treatment for their eyes at the lowest possible expense. All parents are advised who have children that go to school who are not bright in learning or their studies, should have their eyes examined and see if they need glasses. You will thereby save lots of trouble and make good scholars of them. Eyes examined free. All work guaranteed.
Brockerhoff House, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 23 and 24.
