

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

REBERSBURG.

The Veterinary Ophorectomist who took umbrage at the "legal authority" of fees against Clarence Long's Ohio steers, missed the point. There was no challenge against the legality of his action. The criticism was of the Republican gang system—which, under the form of gang law—exercises gang espionage upon every act a man does and all for the ultimate benefit of the gang now headed by Penrose.

Jake Spangler, the champion bear hunter, of Tylersville, spent several days in Centre county this week. He is suspected of having been on a still hunt for a "deer" this time.

George Corman and wife, of Freeport, Ill., are on a visit to the old home, after 35 years in the golden west. Mrs. Corman is a brother of Harvey, James and Noah, and a veteran of the war. When he has finished his visit here he will take his wife to Gettysburg and recall the memories of that fierce conflict in which he participated.

Miss Heim, of Millinburg, is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Cal. Weaver.

Miss Emma Bair has had a fine cement walk laid around her handsome residence.

Noah Corman has laid a walk in front of the residence which was formerly the home of his father-in-law, Daniel Dubs. Miss Olive Wolf, who went to Lakota, N. Dak., to teach, reports to her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Harter, that she is delighted with the breezy climate and the smart people who welcomed her.

David Schrock, of Schrocktown, in Leukerthal, that healthy and wealthy land, was over here the other day swapping reminiscences of the old days. "Dave" is the son of David Schrock, Sr., who was overseer of the poor of Greene township when the Herring couple died on the mountain. He adds that the sickness of that pair was caused by eating venison from a deer which had eaten laurel. He also told of the Indian who declared there were both gold and silver mines in Sugar Valley.

W. A. Tobias, of Millheim, paid Rebersburg a visit and from him it is learned that he still has in his possession the marriage and other records of his father, the Rev. Daniel S. Tobias, who served the German Reformed congregation here acceptably for many years and went hence to his crown of glory, whilst in this charge. The highest fee for a wedding received by this good old minister of God was $20, which Dr. Daniel J. Hillibish paid him when he was wedded to Miss Jane Stoshecker, daughter of Hon. Samuel Stoshecker, M. D. This item, it may be mentioned, is indited on the desk of the Rev. Tobias, fought by the writer at the sale of the old father in Israel.

It was a pleasing custom of W. A. Tobias, of Millheim, began many years ago, to present calendars to George Royer, now deceased, and after his death, to his widow, Polly Royer, who lives in Rebersburg. "Billy," as we are wont to call him, is "of the salt of the earth," nor has he lost his savor. We are still in want of rain, everything is withering and drying.

Celia Brungard left last Wednesday for Lock Haven Normal, to take up her studies for the year.

Amanda Royer, who teaches school at Spring Mills, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

The United Evangelical church observed Harvest Home services on Sunday at this place, for the first time. The church was nicely decorated with the different fruits that mother earth sent forth during the year, and there was a fair attendance.

Kate Moyer is on the sick list. A very quiet wedding took place on Wednesday of last week. The couple were Charles Gramley, of Rebersburg, and Sarah Confer, of Greenburg. The officiating clergyman was Rev. H. C. Bixler, pastor of the Lutheran church. We all wish them a happy life.

On Saturday a game of base ball was played on the old ground between Rebersburg and Millheim. The game was not very interesting as it was all one-sided, the score being 13 to 6 in favor of Rebersburg. It seems Millheim wasn't in it this season, although they had professional players. The Millheim pitcher was an easy mark to hit, while the home pitcher fanned one after the other.

W. R. Bierly having completed his work on "Juries and Jury Trials," hid himself away to Reading, on Monday.

Rev. Chas. Gramley is now located at Lamar, Ottawa Co., Kan. His sister, Mrs. Reuben Smull, received condolences from him.

On Sunday Rev. Haney preached a harvest sermon in the Evangelical church, the first one ever preached in it.

Absalom and Washington Harter, brothers of Mrs. George Royer, visited here on Friday. "Abs" recently returned to Millheim from West Virginia, where he was engaged in lumbering and "Wash" came in from Illinois, where he has lived many years. Both are going to West Virginia, soon.

On Saturday, Mrs. P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, accompanied by her daughters, Mary and Lulu, a grandson and a cousin, Miss Charlotte Meek, of Washington, D. C., arrived in an auto and paid a brief visit to Mrs. Henry Meyer, who formerly resided in the family of Senator Meek.

ROMOLA.

Quays school started on Monday with Miss Johnson, of Blanchard, as teacher.

Miss Deltz, of Mt. Eagle, teaches Mann's school.

Harvey Young had the misfortune to break his hand last week.

R. H. Poorman has moved to Lock Haven.

Sylvester Confer's daughter has broken her arm; also Clyde Bowes broke his arm last week from a fall.

The weather is as warm now as any time this summer and it is just as dry. The boys at Orvis had Sunday off on account of having no water in the reservoir to run the plant. If it doesn't soon rain the yard will be shut down until they find a new way to get water.

Charles Weaver has prepared to build a new porch around his house.

Fruit is plenty around here but potatoes are pretty scarce.

Boys give a big bag of marbles with each pair of shoes. At Yeagers.

NITTANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pechtol, of Jacksonville, were seen in our town on Sunday. William Knecht and wife, of Parvin; were guests of Ex-Sheriff Shaffer and family on Sunday.

George Young took in the veteran picnic at Bellefonte, on Saturday.

H. W. Winkelman and wife drove to Eagleville last Sunday to visit Mrs. Winkelman's sister, Mrs. Brown and family. They were accompanied back to this place by Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney, of Orvis.

Mayne Zerby, of this place, and Mary Barner of Bellefonte, drove to Centre Hall, Saturday, and took in the picnic, returning home Sunday evening.

James Gunsallus and wife took Mrs. Wessel to Howard one day the past week. While there they were the guests of their niece, Mrs. John Baney, and husband.

William Garlick, Jr., went to Bellefonte Saturday, as his hat got too small since the arrival of that big boy.

Quite a number of our people accompanied our band to Agar's Park on Monday, September 7.

Rev. Bartholomew with Elder J. C. Reeser, went to Howard one day the past week and while there was the guest of Rev. Rhoads and daughter.

Verna Allison was the guest of her uncle and aunt, William Knecht and family, at Parvin, several days the past week.

Harry Mauck has gone to Centre Hall, where he has secured employment for some time.

Some of our farmers are ready to sow, but are waiting for rain, while others have a good deal of plowing to do yet, but cannot do so until it rains. The creek is very low and most of the cisterns and wells are dry. Garden truck and other crops are drying up on account of the drought.

H. P. Zerby is having a concrete top put on his cistern, also a concrete porch and some concrete walks built. G. E. Snavely and G. W. Folbert are doing the work.

The Nittany 'cornet band has just closed a very successful season. Their services were in great demand as they played for many of the picnics and festivals held through Nittany valley during the summer. They were also in Renovo during the Old Home Week.

MOSHANNON.

Manes Bowes and family, of Cherrytree, visited at the home of Rush Quick, recently.

Mrs. Charles Lucas, Mrs. Philip Zindle and Mrs. Wm. Zindle, of Munchon, visited their mother, Mrs. Sara Vindhoffer, at this place, on Saturday.

Miles Crownover entertained his brother Howard and family, of Curwensville, at his home here during the week.

The schools here opened on Tuesday with Harry Hoover, of Pine Glen, and Miss Rhoda Weaver, of this place as teachers.

Quite a number of the "young folks" from here took in the picnic at Drifting on Labor Day, and say it was the best picnic they have had at that place.

T. D. Weaver, who accidentally fell from the roof of the Presbyterian church while repairing it, is again able to be about his work and apparently none the worse for his injuries.

Martha Kerin arrived home this week from a visit with friends, in Howard and vicinity.

BOGGS TWP.

FAIRVIEW.

Quite a number of our people attended the Red Men's picnic which was held at Yarnell; all report having a fine time. Jerome Confer, of Snow Shoe, is spending a few days with his father, Ezekiel Confer.

Charles Lucas, of Altoona, is spending a few days with his parents, R. B. Lucas.

Miles Lucas and wife, also Oscar Nyman and Carrie Bennett, spent Saturday at the birthday party which was held by Clara Lucas, of Marsh Creek.

Jessie Confer and family spent Saturday at the soldier's reunion, at Bellefonte.

Lewis Miller and wife, of Pleasant valley, spent Sunday at A. Shawley's.

Rev. Stewart preached his farewell sermon, on Sunday; sorry to have him leave.

J. B. Lucas and wife spent Sunday at Summit Hill.

Jennie Croft and little son returned to their home at Orvis.

BOALSBURG.

Schools opened last Monday, with a large attendance.

Quite a number of our people are attending the picnic this week.

Emma Alexander, of Centre Hall, visited her sister, Mrs. Abner Murry, a few days last week.

Linnie Miller, of Pinegrove Mills, is a guest at the Ira Rishel home.

George Mothersbaugh and family moved into the Keller home on Main street.

Quite a number of members of Rebekah Lodge, No. 66, attended the Rebekah meeting at State College last Thursday evening; all report having a fine time.

Mrs. Sara Gingerich is suffering with rheumatism.

Bulah Fortney, we are sorry to say, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Nellie Herman, of Lemont, a trained nurse, is taking care of Miss Fortney.

AARONSBURG.

Dr. Finly Bell and wife, of Anglewood, visited at the home of Thos. Hulls a few days last week.

Marian Stover and Ardena Harman have gone to spend some time with friends at State College.

Warren Winkbeek Sundayed with his parents at Rebersburg.

Dora Guisewite spent a few days with her best friend, who is employed at Altoona.

Mrs. Rebecca Charles, who spends the greater part of her time at Hublersburg, has come to spend a few weeks in her home here.

Among those who are tenting at grangers picnic, from here, are Ralph Stover and Foster Bowes.

Mrs. Mary Burd has gone to spend the week with Mrs. Murry at Centre Hall.

Boys leather boots, new goods. At Yeagers.

WOODWARD.

Seeding is about over and the people are beginning to cut and husk their corn which is no very good crop this year.

D. A. Snyder, who is working for C. J. Stover, spent Sunday with his parents at Highway.

The farmers are busy mowing and thrashing their clover seed which is a pretty good crop, as W. E. Hosterman got 25 bushels from an eighteen acre field.

The Harvest Home service held in the U. Ev. church was well attended.

Bessie Sheatz, who spent a few weeks at Clayton Vonada's, returned home at Lock Haven, A. M. seems to be very lonely since she left.

Horny was a very welcome visitor at Yearn Yearn's place on Saturday night.

C. W. Vonada and wife spent Sunday at T. H. Motze's, near Woodward.

There are some pretty smart fellows around here, but as the farmers are all so tight with their girls, a person must be a little cute; there is E. M. S. he goes up to the mountain still to look at their peach orchard and sometimes he gets the wrong way and comes out at W. E. Hosterman's place. He understands how to manage it allright.

J. A. Hosterman and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Hosterman's parents, J. J. Orndorff's, at Woodward.

Last Friday, while working on his lumber job, L. L. Weaver had the misfortune of cutting a bad gash in his knee.

The iron bridge at Woodward is completed and ready for service.

Last Sunday Rev. Aurand, a retired Evangelical minister, preached in the United Evangelical church at Woodward. Father Aurand served this charge in the year 1869.

I. M. Smith, wife and two children, Sherman and Nora, visited at James Vonada's, on Sunday.

WOODWARD NO. 2.

Dusty roads and dry weather is all the go now days.

The bridge contracted to the York Bridge Co. is all set up and by this time is in order for useage. It certainly makes an improvement to town.

B. F. Cohen and Chas. Musser made a trip to Vicksburg on Tuesday.

Ammon M. thought he was the whole push in the buggy on Saturday morning. I wonder why?

L. L. Weaver seems to have all kinds of bad luck in the lumber business as he cut himself for the fourth time last Friday while cutting timber along Round Top mountain.

Jerry Corman had an accident last Friday that might have proven more serious than what it did. The lever of the hoisting jack, while raising the engine, came loose and hit on the nose and aside of the eye giving him quite an ugly wound, but he is getting along nicely.

Joe says, "There is nothing like having lots of company to go to Coburn."

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Eby, of Pottsville, spent Tuesday night with Mr. Eby's parents at this place.

C. W. Kreamer has again returned to Edinboro to resume his studies for the last term.

Clayton Boob and family, of Millinburg, spent a few days at the home of J. L. Kreamer last week.

Mrs. H. A. Kessinger was seen in town one day last week.

Wm. Fultz and Milton Vonada made a business trip to Millheim, on last Wednesday.

The remodeling of the Evangelical Association church which is nearing completion, and the repainting of the public school house certainly make a different appearance to our town.

Cider days at N. W. Eby press—Tuesday's and Thursday's.

W. E. Hosterman spent Sunday at J. J. Orndorff's; and Frank Confer's. Among the other visitors in town were Frank Loe's at L. D. Orndorff's and Harris Stover's at Mrs. Wolfe's.

Harry Keller, of Linden Hall, spent a few days of last week visiting friends in town.

In the near future the squirrels and pheasants will have to hunt a place of concealment as the woods will be full of hunters for the sport of hunting some.

James Weaver spent last week at Ziegerville, Millin Co. doing some work for Harvey Brungard.

PENN TWP.

SOBER.

Mrs. Sarah Jamison was a caller at C. A. Jamison's on Thursday.

Edward Shively and lady friend, Furl Auman, also Chas. Hinds and lady friend, Kathryn Stover, were at Penn Cave on Thursday eve.

Benj. Breen went to Hyner one day last week.

Mrs. Uriah Auman and daughter Furl were to Potters Mills, on Saturday.

Mrs. Wesley Royer and daughter Maude, of Johnston, were callers at Uriah Auman's, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Nora Zerby and daughter Tilly, went to Centre Hall for a few weeks.

Dr. Warren, of Lewisburg, and Uriah Auman were out hunting on Saturday, but failed to get a bird.

Mrs. Benj. Breen was a caller with her daughter Ellen on Sunday, also Mr. H. V. Gentzel.

Mrs. Hattie Weber, who was staying with her aunt, Mrs. Gentzel, returned home on Tuesday.

Tona Wolfe spent a couple days at Penn Cave, last week.

Mrs. Uriah Auman spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Noll, at Pleasant Gap.

James Miller and family were at Penn Cave on Sunday.

Wm. Wolfe, who's working at Glenn Iron was home over Sunday.

MADISONBURG.

The farmers through here are busily engaged in cutting corn and making clover hay, which is well filled with seed. The corn seems to be only a fraction more than one half crop.

T. B. Everett, one of our obliging merchants, had made auction of much of his merchandise last week.

Quite a number of our people attended Grangers picnic also Lewisburg fair which will be in full blast this week and next.

Rev. H. C. Bixler held his harvest home service in the Lutheran church last Sunday. The church was finely decorated.

Elmer Phillips was spending Sunday with friends in this place.

Caroline Shaffer, of Salona, is spending a week or ten days with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Siegel.

Geo. Shook, of Penn Hall, and lady friend, Miss Carrie Hagg, spent Sunday with friends in our town.

The grammar school opened on Monday, with Wm. Limbert as teacher.

Men's heavy and light leather boots. At Yeagers.

RUNNVILLE.

Mrs. Anna Witherite and daughter Eva, transacted business in Bellefonte during the past week.

The festival held at this place Saturday night, was very largely attended. $41.50 was the amount taken in.

Nellie Rathmell, a very pleasant and accomplished young lady, of Hublersburg, is visiting her many friends here.

Josephine Kesting, of Yarnell, and Florence Lucas, of Wingate, have found employment in our town.

School opened Monday morning with Asbury Fletcher at its head as instructor. We wish him success.

Saturday morning between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, when "old Sol" was casting his beams of warmth over the land, the Indians and the palefaces began to wend their way towards Yarnell for a day's outing, the occasion being a gathering of the Red Men and Palefaces to hold a picnic in honor of the tribe of Milesburg.

At 11 a. m. a vast crowd had assembled and an exciting game of base ball was played between the married and single Red Men, the score being 11 to 11, but here brotherly love was carried on, and the boys adjourned for the parade; this being a very novel affair, about 40 Red Men took part with Castanea, John Lynth and Pocahontas, at the head, to act as guide. After this parade they marched to the tables where the squares had laid a sumptuous feast fit for the King and Queen, in which every body took an equal part and tried to do ample justice to all the good things of the royal feast.

After dinner an eloquent address was made by Rev. O. T. Stewart to the Red Men. This was followed by a very exciting and interesting ball game between Romola and the Red Men, the score being 13 to 5 in favor of the Red Men. Three cheers for the Indian boys, who are up to date in a career like this.

Mrs. James Lucas spent several days at Bellefonte during the past week.

BOGGS TWP.

HOLTS HOLLOW.

Most farmers are busy cutting corn, many have already begun husking.

Miss Daisy Watson, of Milesburg, spent Saturday night and Sunday at Divide, as the guest of Misses Albina and Alta Watson.

Clyde Fetzer and Lee Johnson attended the festival at Runville, on Saturday evening; both report having a good time.

Miss Esther Fetzer was a Divide visitor on Sunday.

Mrs. Charley Lucas, of Altoona, is visiting her parents, John Burds'.

The Red Men's picnic at Yarnell on Saturday was well attended, there being over three hundred people on the ground, the most attractive features of the day were the two ball games. The first game was played by nine of the married and nine of the single Indians. Out of five innings the score stood eleven to eleven. The second game was between nine of the "Reds" and a team of nine made up from Fleming and Romola boys. The score was 13 to 5 in favor of the Reds.

Harry Johnson and wife spent Sunday evening in Milesburg.

Frank Young and family, of upper Moose Run, were callers at John Spicers, on Sunday p. m.

John Watson, of Divide, transacted business in Snow Shoe a couple of days last week.

Elmer Pownell says the only thing he saw wrong with the picnic on Saturday, there was no merry-go-round.

WINGATE.

Maud Murry and sister, Edna left on Wednesday for Philadelphia.

Rachel Hartsock has been very ill for some time.

Mary Test, of Philipsburg, is visiting her sister, Carrie Fisher.

Mary Simlar, of Philipsburg, is stopping with J. H. Snyder on account of her contagious disease reported at Yarnell where she expects to take charge of the grammar school.

Cyrus Stere was called to Bellefonte on last Saturday on important business.

Ressie Smith transacted business in Milesburg on Saturday.

Laura Snyder was visiting relatives at Runville last week.

George Richard, of Altoona, is spending a few days with his father-in-law Joe Davidson.

Lemuel Watson was a pleasant caller at Eli Stere's on Saturday.

Elsie Boob was a pleasant caller at Eli Stere's, Saturday.

Mrs. Johnson and daughter, of Milesburg, were pleasant callers at Thomas Murry's.

Lawrence Way made a business trip to Tyrone on Friday.

D. P. Woodring, of Port Matilda, spent Saturday with his lady friend, Adaline Davidson.

Two young gents from Runville are seen on our streets quite often. Wonder what the attraction is?

Erma Sylvius, of Stormstown, Sundayed with her sister Tuella Way.

MILESBURG.

John Ferguson and family, of Altoona; and Wm. Housel and family, of Altoona, are guests of Uriah Housel and family.

Corr. and Amelia Jodou, with three small boys, are visiting relatives and friends in Patton, Barnsboro, Altoona and Holdaysburg.

James Noll, with his invalid daughter, Madeline, are visiting in the burg with relatives and friends.

Hurly Yorks left on Saturday for Scranton, where he has accepted a position as instructor in the mechanical department of the Scranton Correspondence School.

Conrad Kreager, with his two daughters, his first visit in ten years, were guests of Solomon Shay, his brother-in-law and family.

Mrs. Ed. Baird is visiting in Blanchard with relatives.

A two horse wagon load of beer was seen coming to the burg and unloaded. Be careful; many eyes are looking at you.

Geo. Williams and Miss Louisa Thomas, of Lemont, are guests of William B. Thomas and family.

BUFFALO RUN.

Stony Point academy opened on last Monday, with 35 pupils, and Miss Esther Gray as teacher.

H. Thomas is going to leave our town and move to a larger town.

Emma Stoffel, of Philadelphia, visited her cousin Lillian Stine, a few days last week. On last Sunday morning she and Emma P. Lillian took a stroll around the mountains, when they came in contact with two large copperhead snakes. The girls succeeded in killing the reptiles, even if they did have to throw a

"agon load of stones, (brave girls.) Irvin Thomas has been going to Scotia quite frequently. What are the attractions, Dick?

John S. Meyers and wife, the newly wedded couple of Philipsburg, spent Friday at the home of the bride's aunt Mrs. Jonas Stine's family.

Ethel Shivery is visiting friends in Curwensville.

"The Philadelphia Record" Actively Supports Bryan

A Presidential contest that will undoubtedly be waged with unusual vigor on both sides of the line dividing the great national parties is now in full swing. Politics will be the principal topic of discussion wherever men congregate until the claims of the rival candidates shall be settled at the ballot-box in November. It goes without saying that accurate information of all the important moves on the campaign chess-board will be indispensable to every wide-awake voter.

Democrats turn naturally to "The Philadelphia Record" for such information. It is the only Democratic newspaper in Philadelphia recognized the country over as one of the leading exponents of Democratic opinion on this edge of the Continent. It is fair, though partisan; it chronicles the telling blow, no matter who is hit. Suppression and misrepresentation are weapons that have no place in its armory. "Square deal" Democrats and Republicans will find the daily budget of "The Record" essential to an intelligent understanding of the progress of a lively Presidential canvass.

No newspaper ever achieved popularity on the strength of its political attitude alone. "The Philadelphia Record" is no exception to the rule. It is listed above the common level by many distinctive features that appeal to the varied interests of every member of the household. It prints the news—all the news—in a concise, brisk form that has come to be known, even among its contemporaries, as