MARTHA.

The long looked for and refreshing shower has come at last, making every one feel glad, and a great benefit to us all.

B. E. Erhart and wife, of Anita, Pa., are visiting at Wilson Williams' here.

Clark Steele is suffering with a very sore arm. We all hope for a speedy recovery.

Blaine Williams has moved from Gingers' farm to Ellis Williams' upper farm.

O. D. Eberts is having a large store erected by S. F. Richards & Bros., which, when completed, will give him ample room for an large supply of dry goods, etc.

Jas. Williams had a large crop of buckwheat this season, threshing 400 bushels last week. Joe doesn't intend to starve as long as it holds out.

Ray Stiver slipped off one day last week, and got married to Blanch Williams, without ever telling any of us. Both are well known and their many friends wish them much happiness.

Now, it's a shame that some of our younger men are getting ahead of the older ones. Why, there's a certain fellow around here who is getting so well up in years that he is almost bald headed, and no sign of a better half. Perhaps the buckwheat will bring the answer.

Bertha Dixon, Sundayed with her parents near Mt. Pleasant.

On account of Mrs. Downings being ill with typhoid fever, Rev. Downings was unable to preach on last Sunday.

From what we can learn, the game had better keep shy of C. M. Hazelet, operator at Martha tower. On Thursday he supplied himself with everything necessary for a big day's hunt. Charlie can shoot, all right, but seldom ever hits anything but the air.

PORT MATILDA.

The main discussion in our vicinity at this writing is, "I do wish it would rain," with other beseeching words for a good shower at least.

John Kelley lost three milk cows in the past week from eating an over-ful of apples, causing their death. He val used them highly.

Oscar Adams, of Philipsburg, visited his brother Ralph, residing in Shady Dell, a few days ago.

John Walker and wife, of Philipsburg, visited friends in Reese Hollow, this week.

Our town continues to improve despite the hard times; the I. O. F. are having their large hall moved back from the present location, making room to erect a large front to be used as a store room and ware house.

Our people were greatly surprised at the early hour of 5 o'clock, Friday morning last, by the cry of fire, when it was discovered that Thomas Patton's stable and out buildings were on fire, burning them to the ground, with S. S. Miles' and C. W. Crain's stables, located near by.

Wilmer Marks and friends visited at the home of Mrs. M. A. Shater, this week.

Uncle Tom's Cabin gave an exhibition under a tent in our town last week. It was pronounced a bunny affair by some of those who patronized it.

Our enterprising merchants, Eller & McKinney, will please accept our thanks for a recent kindness conferred on your correspondent.

SPRING MILLS.

DEAR EDITOR AND READERS: Every honest and upright voter in Centre county owes Geo. F. Weaver, Democratic candidate for Register, his vote. Mr. Weaver was deprived of his left arm when but a little boy, and with a struggle it is, that he maintains a home for himself and aged parents. The writer has known Mr. Weaver ever since a little boy and has never heard anything about him but what was good. He is fully capable of executing the duties of the office which he seeks.

In conclusion, I would say that Mr. Weaver is just convalescing from a severe attack of muscular rheumatism and consequently is not able to do much campaigning just at present. Remember, a vote for Mr. Weaver will be an act of kindness. A VOTER.

COBURN.

On Monday several copious showers of rain fell here which gave the dusty earth a thorough soaking, and raised Penns creek about one foot which aroused the eels; hundreds were caught.

J. D. Mark and family spent Sunday at Swengle, visiting some sick folks there.

On Sunday afternoon there will be communion services in the United Evangelical church. Rev. M. I. Jamison, of York, will assist the pastor and deliver the sermon.

Myra Stover, Mary Meyer and Thurman Braucht are attending the high school at Spring Mills.

—Boy's school shoes 98c. Fair week only. At Yeagers.

UNIONVILLE.

Chief justice Riley Pratt, after two weeks' sojourn in the east, returned home on Saturday.

But for the opportune arrival of Wm. Bruss and John P. Brugger, there might have been an "involuntary suicide" to report. Irvin Logue, ten years old, grandson of Irvin Morrison, while descending a tree which he had climbed to gather fruit, his waist caught on a knot and was drawn up under his chin and would have certainly hanged himself but for the appearance of the above named gentlemen, who quickly relieved him from his dangerous predicament. The boy was already gasping for breath when discovered. This occurred over along the mountain road some place.

The remains of J. H. Shipley, who died on last Thursday morning from the effects of his terrible fall from the roof of David Spotts' house on Saturday prior, which was fully given in my last week's items, was laid in his final resting place on Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m. The funeral was one of the largest and saddest that has occurred in this place for many years. Mr. Shipley was a man of kindly disposition, held in highest esteem by all who knew him, a representative citizen and a man who will be greatly missed in this community. He leaves to survive him an only son Alexander, whose whereabouts is unknown, his wife having preceded him to the grave many years ago. He also leaves one brother, H. W. Shipley, Esq., and one sister, Mrs. Susan Blair, both of Unionville.

The Grangers up in this section are so proud they hardly recognize common people. Cause why? I'll tell you. They have their hall freshly painted and papered in the very latest style, by the artist, Howard Miles. It certainly is a "beaut." Gee! the way Mrs. Hogan, Sallie Peters, Rube Comly, Dave Hall, Billy Peters and in fact all of them do smile when you mention the hall to them, is a caution to hardener sinners. They are a prosperous and enterprising lodge.

George Pinn and Billy Brown, Republican candidates for treasurer and recorder respectively, were in this section last week, driving a few stakes here and there to stay the collapse of their tences till honest John D. Miller and Pearce Musser come along, then away she goes. Not one Democratic candidate has been here yet and our people wonder why is this thus. If they do not get their share of the votes due them, they will be to blame themselves. Remember, "the battle is not to the strong alone but to the vigilant, the active, the brave."

WADDLE.

Gray Hartsöck, of Altoona, spent Sunday at his parental home.

The new pastor, Rev. Bailey, of the United Brethren church, will preach his first sermon in two weeks.

Mary Cross and Dr. Reuben Meek went away very quietly last Wednesday, and had the words said that made them man and wife. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Demster Meek, of this place, and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cross, but made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Liza Hartsöck. The groom, for some few years, has been the doctor of Avis, where he will take his bride on their return. Everybody joins in wishing them the joys of a happy and prosperous life.

Lizzie Jones and John Clark spent a few days last week at Conestoga, attending the United Brethren conference and also visiting her brother, Harry Jones.

Mrs. Snyder and little son returned to their home in Pittsburg, after an extended visit with her parents, J. E. Clark.

Our town has welcomed a new family, Harry Thomas moved on Mrs. Reed's place, and has made great improvements already.

HOWARD--NO 2.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: I have often heard it asked why so many Republicans are regular readers of your Democratic weekly. Many reasons can be given—one that you give the most news; and the other that in politics you are fair, and reliable. I was pleased with your carefully prepared statement last week setting forth how our county affairs had been conducted, and now are being conducted. It is a satisfaction to know that when the CENTRE DEMOCRAT makes a definite statement in our local campaigns, that it always can back it up, and that former predictions came true. I like to read a paper that gives facts—something that is reliable—and that is why I take your paper, and many more like me read it. While I don't agree with all your ideas, I want to say I can depend on your statements as reliable, for they have proven so to an unusual degree. That is why the CENTRE DEMOCRAT is read by so many Republicans. A READER.

SPRING MILLS.

Today is October the first. Beautiful summer is passing away, with its sun-shine and flowers.

Calvin King has his cider press in operation every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. He is kept busy as the apple crop is a large one through our valley.

A special train was run from the Lewisburg Fair last Thursday evening. It left the fair grounds about 5 o'clock, about thirty had gone from here.

C. P. Long has his men busy loading apples. He intends to ship a number of car loads this season. He pays fifty cents per hundred pounds for them.

"Old Folks Day" was celebrated last Sunday forenoon in the Methodist church.

How beautiful was the rain after the dust and heat in the broad and fiery street, and how welcome to the dry grass and drier grain, and how cleansing and refreshing to the air for every living creature! All nature seemed to smile.

Some of our folks are making preparations to attend the Bellefonte fair next week.

Paul Leitell, who teaches school in Potter township, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, here.

On October 17th, Mrs. Annie Emerick, on Route One, will have sale of her household goods, also her property consisting of 155 1/2 perches of land and good buildings.

C. S. Detwiler, signalman on the Pennsy at Olney station, spent several days at his old home—Penssylvania.

R. P. Campbell, who spent the summer at Penn Cave, has returned to Toledo, Ohio, where he has a position.

The Locust Grove church has been remodeled and renewed and a new bell put up. The old bell is for sale.

Today the hunting season for some game opens.

Allie Henston and Homer Walker made a business trip to Snow Shoe on Tuesday.

Mary Shope visited at Sam Casher's last week.

Quite a crowd attended preaching at Snow Shoe, Sunday evening.

George Gasher, Mike Watson and Alfred Davis, visited at Sam Casher's on Sunday.

Burd Syler is living at Sam Casher's.

We had quite an abundance of rain here on Monday.

Some of the Windy Hill people attended the dance in Snow Shoe on Wednesday night.

Wesley Bickets went to Bellefonte on Monday morning.

Hilda Smith is visiting her sister Ada, in Munson.

Joe Casher, George Kelley and Bill Tchin were out here for chestnuts on Saturday, and went home with empty pockets.

Mrs. McLaughlin is the great of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Watson.

MOSHANNON.

The rain which we had on Monday was very gladly accepted by everybody.

Chestnuts appear very plentiful in this section. How about it Edith?

T. F. Lucas made a flying trip to Bellefonte on Monday.

On the sick list are, Mrs. Brady Bechdol, Norman Watson and Mrs. Daughenbaugh.

A party was given at the home of Levi Quick's, Monday.

T. D. Weaver is improving slowly from the injuries received by falling from the Presbyterian church, while repairing the roof.

A solo contest took place at the home of Alonza Hart's, on Sunday evening.

George Lucas returned to his home in North Bend on Wednesday after visiting his mother here.

Homer Walker made a flying trip to Karthaus, on Sunday.

Bruce Lomison is seen on our streets again. Glad to see you.

Clinton Kreamer is suffering with a sprained ankle which he received while playing ball on the diamond, one day last week.

RUNVILLE.

Edward Hancock, of Philipsburg, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Virgin M. Lucas spent several days at Bellefonte, helping Mrs. Shutt move.

Samuel Lucas, of Warriorsmark, spent Sunday at the Smoyer home.

Wonder why Roy was all smiles, on Sunday?

W. H. Lucas Sundayed with his sister at Jersey Shore.

C. Friel spent Sunday at his home here.
