THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

MILESBERG.

Mrs. Crook and Mrs. Swartz, of Howard, Sundayed with Uriah Houzel and family. George Stroup and wife, with his son-in-law, McClure and family, of Patton, are guests of Miss Ella Wagner.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Clarke Herman, of State College, was the guest of her brother A. S. Stover and family, on Sunday. Geo. Corman and wife, of Freeport, Ill., and Mr. Noah Corman and wife, of Rebersburg, spent a day with friends in town.

HOUSERVILLE.

Edith Houser is on the sick list. Ira Benner, of Rock, had the misfortune to fall off the wagon and injure himself on a corn stalk. Thrashing is nearly all done in this section.

SOBER.

Furl Auman and lady friend, Kathryn Stover, attended the show last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harry Gentzel and Johana Gentzel were callers at George Bower's on Thursday.

WADDLE.

The late bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Meek, of Avis, spent a few days at her home, Mrs. Eliza Hartsock's. Last Thursday, while moving Irvin Gray's saw mill from here to Julian, John Way had a very narrow escape.

STATE COLLEGE.

A very delightful surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Struble, on Friday eve., Oct. 16. Those present were: Mr. Rote and wife, H. Benner, wife and son, Mr. Gill and wife, Mr. Krape, Mr. Spearley and wife, Mr. Marshall and wife, Mr. Kline, Mr. Lutz, wife and two children, H. Fishburn and wife, J. Benner and wife, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Witmer and wife, Mr. Kelley and wife, Mrs. Garner, Mr. Crust and wife, Mr. Summers, wife and son, Mr. Smeltzer and wife, Mr. White and wife, Bruce Struble, wife and son, Eugene, Mill Fishburn, wife and three children, Mr. Hunsinger and wife, Mr. Rindley and wife, Oscar Struble, Maud Snyder, Lottie Garner, Dorcy Struble, Laura Benner, Clyde Struble and Luella Krape. The evening was spent very pleasantly and they received many useful presents.

BOGGS TWP.

Flem Poorman and wife are entertaining visitors from Williamsport. John Burd, of Fairview, spent Sunday with his son here. Joseph McCartney, of Snow shoe, spent Friday night at the home of John Watson, and also killed a fine wild turkey. Mrs. E. M. Burd spent a day last week with her brother Seymore, of Moose River.

SMULLTON.

Rev. Dise, with his family, of Milroy, enjoyed a drive across the Seven Mountains to our town and visited for several days at the home of Wallace Brungard, Mrs. Brungard being a niece of Rev. Dise. Mrs. Edwin Gram, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends here. Mrs. Parks has gone to Sunbury to visit her daughter. Dr. Groff and wife, of Millheim, were Sunday visitors at the home of Geo. H. Smull.

WINGATE.

Mrs. Clara Iddings, of Bellefonte, is spending some time with her father, Mr. Harnish, and expects to visit Coatsville, Harrisburg and Philadelphia. Earnest and George Stere, both of Altoona, spent a few days last week with the latter's parents, Eli Stere's. George Snyder and lady friend, of Mill Hill, spent Sunday evening with his brother James Snyder. John Sheckler and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday evening with her sister Rachel Hartsock.

LEMONT.

Mrs. Mary King Sundayed at the home of her mother Mrs. Rebecca Fogleman. William A. Dougherty was nursing a boil on his hand last week. Rev. Newton Bailey was making calls around town, on Wednesday. George C. Meyer loaded a car of winter apples this week. Mrs. Jacob Bottorf, and daughter, Ella, visited at Lock Haven over Sunday at the home of John Waite. Lumberman Bedient and men are busy hauling ties to the railroad. Mrs. P. C. Bradford and son, Carl, are visiting among friends in Milton, this week. Samuel B. Weaver returned from Dix this last week. James E. Lenker enjoyed a few days with his mother at Aaronsburg, last week. Mrs. James Osman and daughter, Helen, are taking a two weeks' visit in Altoona.

LIVONIA.

Henry Shultz, a former resident, is spending some time among us. E. M. DeLong and wife spent Saturday night with M. W. Adams. Jessie Adams took a trip to Millheim, on Saturday. Mr. Embig, of Sugar valley, trapped a large bear on Friday which makes three bears for him in the last three weeks, all caught in the Narrows near this place. George Stover, Reuben Stover, and Raymond Adams, each shot a wild turkey last week. The many friends of Arctura DeLong will be glad to hear that she is doing well after the operation performed on her in Philadelphia, last Wednesday.

TYLERSVILLE.

A number of our people attended the sale of Dr. Goodman, of Loganton, last Saturday. A. H. Garis, wife and two children, visited at Nippano valley a few days. Kline Confer and family, of Mackeyville, visited at this place last Sunday. Wm. Gingery, of Mill Hill, visited at the home of his father, David Gingery, last Sunday. Jay Walizer and sister Mary, of Loganton, were seen here over Sunday. George Grieb is serving as a jurymen this week. Emanuel Treasler and his best friend visited here over Sunday.

NITTANY.

Those from a distance visiting relatives around here the past week are: Art Young and family, of Crossforks; Charley Young and family, of Clearfield, were guests of their parents; G. W. Young's, Frank Bartley and family, Mrs. Wesley Herr and Miss Nan Reish, of Salona.

Marilla Williams and Lottie Robb, of Bellefonte, were guests, of Mittie Winkelman; B. F. Guiser and family, of Windber; W. B. Rossman and wife, of Howard; Mrs. William Webber and daughter, Pearl, of Lamar; the Misses Helen and Florence Rossman, of Clintondale, were guests of G. W. and J. W. Tolbert's.

Next Sunday will decide whether Sunday school at this place will be continued or not; it is a shame to close it in a community so thickly settled as this. Mitch Gardner and wife, accompanied by several other ladies, all of Bellefonte, came to this place on Sunday in their automobile and were the guests of ex-sheriff Shaffer and family. Mr. Shaffer enjoyed the ride in the auto very much.

There is a good deal of sickness around here, such as sore throat and bad cold. Mr. Condo and wife, of Lock Haven, were the guests of Horace Winkelman and wife, on Sunday. Elmer Rossman, of Penn Cave, and Mary Barner, of Salona, were the guests of Mayme Zerby, on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Bartholomew, of Clintondale, was the guest of Rev. Bartholomew one day last week. H. P. Zerby and wife visited friends up the valley, on Sunday. William H. Beck and family, have returned after spending some time visiting in Williamsport.

Mrs. S. R. Tweed arrived home Friday evening, after quite an extensive visit with her daughter, Mrs. G. E. Meyer and family, of Reedsville. Mrs. William Tobias, of Mackeyville, was the guest of her parents, Israel Yearick's and family, one day last week. Mrs. Cal. Wilson and son, Harry, were Lock Haven visitors, last Saturday.

Mrs. A. R. Rossman and Mrs. Annie Rossdale, of Clintondale, were guests of J. W. Tolbert, on Sunday. Henry Shultz and wife, of Curtin, visited William Garbrick and family, Saturday and Sunday. Boyd Emerick was a Bellefonte visitor one day last week.

SOBER.

Furl Auman and lady friend, Kathryn Stover, attended the show last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harry Gentzel and Johana Gentzel were callers at George Bower's on Thursday.

Mrs. Andrew Zerby, who was staying at Pleasant Gap for sometime, came home last week. Mrs. Tona Hassinger, of Milroy, is visiting her mother for a couple weeks. Sadie Breen was paying a visit to her brother at Millmont, last week. C. K. Sober was seen in our vicinity Wednesday.

Aaron Zerby, of Bellefonte, was a pleasant caller with his sister, Mrs. Jamison, on Tuesday. Some of our farmers are done husking corn. Frank Delong and wife were callers at Howard Eisenhuth's last week.

Mrs. Susan Green, of Bellwood, was paying a visit to her parents, Henry Snaveley. Benj. Breen, who was working out at Hyner, returned home last week. Benj. Shaffer is working at State College this week. The church at Paradise was well attended on Sunday eve. H. V. Gentzel and wife spent a couple days at Milroy, last week. Clayton Wolfe bought a fine driving horse at Millheim last Saturday.

Edward Noll and wife, of Pleasant Gap, were callers with her parents U. G. Aumans. The stork was quite busy this week—he brought a little wook chopper to the home of Ezra Confers. Furl Auman and friend were at Cobern Saturday evening.

STATE COLLEGE.

A very delightful surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Struble, on Friday eve., Oct. 16. Those present were: Mr. Rote and wife, H. Benner, wife and son, Mr. Gill and wife, Mr. Krape, Mr. Spearley and wife, Mr. Marshall and wife, Mr. Kline, Mr. Lutz, wife and two children, H. Fishburn and wife, J. Benner and wife, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Witmer and wife, Mr. Kelley and wife, Mrs. Garner, Mr. Crust and wife, Mr. Summers, wife and son, Mr. Smeltzer and wife, Mr. White and wife, Bruce Struble, wife and son, Eugene, Mill Fishburn, wife and three children, Mr. Hunsinger and wife, Mr. Rindley and wife, Oscar Struble, Maud Snyder, Lottie Garner, Dorcy Struble, Laura Benner, Clyde Struble and Luella Krape. The evening was spent very pleasantly and they received many useful presents. All departed at the mid night hour, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Struble many more such happy days.

PENN HALL.

These are real Indian summer days, but rain would be a welcome visitor. George Stover and sister Myra, passed through town last Monday. E. R. Wolf, instructor of the town school, spent Sunday with his mother at Wolf's Store. J. R. Kline made a flying trip to Millheim one day last week. Clara Condo spent Sunday with her parents. Dr. D. M. Wolf was a pleasant caller at the home of C. W. Fisher. Maud Corman spent Sunday with her school chum, Sarah Condo. Mrs. S. M. Fisher is staying at the home of her brother, David Keller, who is ill with pneumonia. Jerry Albright and family spent Sunday with the former's parents, John Albright.

COLLEGE TWP.

Hunting season is here and lots of hunters but little game. Charles Port and wife, of Tyrone, were visiting at the home of D. Gummo. Al Overland and wife, of Altoona, visited at the homes of Mr. Queal and Joe Stone. Ida and Lizzie Jones, of Waddle, were callers on friends, on Saturday. Carrie Kline and Mary Stone have gone to the College to live. Mrs. John Fiorey visited her grand-ma part of last week. John Royer shot a wild turkey. Dorris Guismo and Joe Stone say the one they are going to get will beat any one that has been shot yet.

HOWARD.

The wonderful drouth continues notwithstanding the relieving showers of a few days ago, and the atmosphere, at this writing, is almost suffocatingly filled and packed with the smoke and smell of not far distant woods fires.

Our supply of splendid, clear, cool, soft mountain water holds out undiminished, notwithstanding this; and we are all profoundly grateful for that and praise the foresight of the borough councils who put in our water works years ago, in face of some opposition.

Our bank is not only a real, full-grown, self evident, well-governed fact, going at full speed ahead, bound for a long and prosperous business career. Nothing seems wanting to give assurance of immediate and permanent success. Having good location, comfortable, well lighted, airy quarters; neat and convenient, though inexpensive, furniture and fixtures; a safe which is as near fire and burglar proof as money could buy; an experienced cashier of good repute; a board of directors and executive officers from among our most substantial, prominent business men who command the confidence of the community; stock all subscribed and fully paid to date, there seems no reason to doubt its prompt and permanent prosperity. The institution is officered by Capt. Samuel H. Bennisson, president; Abram Weber, vice president; Charles E. Yearick, Joseph D. Diehl, Dr. W. J. Kurtz, J. Will Mayes, W. Neff, G. H. Bennisson and Abram Weber, Directors, and Matthew Royer, Jr., cashier. The bank opened for business promptly at nine o'clock on Thursday last, October 15, and the first day's deposit nearly approached ten thousand dollars; and, by the way, three per cent. interest is allowed on all time deposit certificates. The establishment of this bank offers one of the greatest and most needed business conveniences to all classes of citizens; marks a new era, in prime stimulant to local business; adds business tone and character to our already well and favorably known community, and should receive the liberal support of the whole public. Visitors, whether patrons or not, will receive cordial welcome and gentlemanly attention.

Our farmers are too busy getting in their fall crops to do the hauling of the mine props now being cut from the mountains on the Lauth estate as fast as required and Tom Beaver, of Bellefonte, who is wise enough to sell only horse power, as the product of his big, rich farm, and keeps many big teams, has been called upon to send three of them here to assist.

The many friends of Helen Bennisson are glad to see that she has so far recovered from a severe attack of tonsillitis as to be about again. Mrs. W. G. Comerford has returned to her Pittsburg home for the winter, and Mrs. A. J. Comerford has gone to Bellefonte to spend an indefinite period with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Burns, before settling in her city home for the winter, leaving the old Lauth home on the furnace bank vacant for the season.

Mr. Reeder Shellow, an old resident of this and Huntingdon counties, but now of Newport, Ky., and who has not visited this section before for nearly half a century, was, with his daughter, a recent visitor at the hospitable home of his old friend and fellow workman in the long ago, "Forgeman" William R. Hopkins.

Henry O. Barnhart, a son of "Squire" Philip Barnhart, of the west end of the township, spent last Sabbath with his sister, Mrs. H. G. Hurd. In settlement of the James Butler estate, his old home in the east end of the borough, was sold at public sale a few days ago. It was knocked off to Sumner Wolf, of the firm of Kline & Wolf, for the sum of $1725.

A local paper prints a column and a quarter in a recent issue trying to convince the farmers who may happen to read it, that "the Republicans have put thousands of millions of dollars into the pockets of the American farmers within the past ten years." The fool killer is welcome to his choice between the farmers who swallow such stuff and the fellow who prints it.

Rev. W. W. Rhoades continues his series of Evangelistic meetings in the Fairview church this week, and Rev. Rollin S. Taylor is doing a similar good work at his Kennedy appointment. The local gunners are bringing in rather discouragingly small strings of cotton tails.

The Leathers Brothers constitute a Howard business firm whose business ability, financial standing, personal integrity and successful real estate ventures are making friends for them all over this and adjoining states. Just now their most important enterprise is the handling of the John Hamilton farm at State College, which has been plotted into small series of the most desirable building lots in that town of rushing building propositions. Fifty houses number this year, and a much larger number needed for next year.

"Al" Roberts, of drummer fame, is having a visit from his son William, of Pitcairn, with his family. Candidates are thicker on our streets than the falling leaves. It would not surprise us much to see both the Bryan and Taft specials stop here before the campaign is over.

Mail route agent William Quay is having his vacation, and substitute Hayes Schenck is caring for the public in his stead. The affable manners, pleasing address, and modest speech of Candidate J. C. Meyers made him many friends during a recent visit here.

The bright light from up the valley which started some of our people late last Wednesday evening, came from the burning barn of Fred Barnes, about two miles west of here. Though no stock was burned but one bull, it made a disastrous fire to the tenant, Ambrose Gramley, who lost all his seasons crops, harness and machinery, of which he had a far too small insurance. Cause of fire unknown. Bower had $600 insurance. Foundations for an extension of his already fine, large porch, which will lead to and connect with a new out-kitchen and wood house, have been just completed by citizen John Holmes.

Removing an old and worn board walk, and replacing it with substantial brick, is the latest improvement to the Weber & Co. meat market.

Mrs. Elizabeth Deter, who has been having an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Robert P. Confer, in this township, returned to her home at Curwensville, last week. Charles Walizer has secured the services, in his meat market, of an affable and well-mannered clerk, in the person of Harvey Neff, formerly of Mahaffey. Anna Muffley, teacher of the grammar school, is on the sick list and her school is temporarily closed.

JULIAN.

Mrs. D. H. Meiss, of Barnesboro, is visiting relatives here. W. B. Myers is off for a few days on account of affected eyesight.

The opening of turkey season brought the usual number of hunters to our town, Pittsburg, Winber, Johnstown, and as a result, sixteen turkeys were brought in on the first day of season; some of the successful ones were: Geo. Sones, Robert Weller, Aaron Turner, Dan'l Murphy and party, four; John Gill, Alex. Hoover and party, two; Randall Mattern and party, five; while a party from Altoona succeeded in getting one. On Friday "Tug" Turner got another and on Saturday still another making three for the first three days of the season for him. "Friday" Gill also brought down another on Friday (a crippled one with a leg and wing broken).

The supper given by the ball team was well attended on Saturday night. J. H. Turner and wife, after spending a few days with relatives in Clearfield and DuBois, returned home on Wednesday. Ira Davis, Jr., who is employed at Pitcairn, is spending a few days at his home in Julian. Orlando Boyer, of Ashtola, Pa., is spending his vacation at his old home in Julian. David Richards spent Sunday at home. Sylvester Williams is seen going to Port Matilda quite often of late. Why? W. G. Tallheim has just received a fine lot of winter goods, such as underwear, shoes, hats, caps, also a full line of dishes; call and see the stock. Fred Smith, of Phillipsburg, the democratic candidate for sheriff, spent a night in Julian last week. Fred is leaving friends in every town he goes to and is certainly the man for the office. Mrs. R. C. Swisher is on the sick list.
