WOODWARD.

Apple picking and corn husking, is about over, next will be butchering. Quite a number of our farmers have thrashed out already, and report that the wheat crop was very good. But on account of the dry weather this summer, the oats was not what it could have been.

W. E. Hosterman and family spent Sunday with Mr. Hosterman's brother William, near Fiedler. Mrs. Mary Vonada and her daughter, Catheryn, have gone to spend a short time with her son William, near Sober.

L. L. Weaver and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Weaver's parents, Emanuel Kerstetter's, at Coburn.

Everybody come to the election on Nov. 3, and cast your vote for the right party, which is the Democratic. The empty freight cars standing along the railroad track, and the empty dinner pails, the thousands of children going hungry to school, shows that we want and need a change; that we need other men to run the government and it also shows that the Republican party is going back, and after the third it is going up Salt River. Everybody vote, and yell, "Hurrah for Bryan"

G. C. Bower, and wife, of Fiedler, visited at D. G. Mingles on Sunday. The farm of Jacob M. Neidig, deceased, will be offered at public sale on October 30, 1908. The people who have their money stored away at home, in bank, or in stockings like some have, would better buy this farm and get their money in circulation. This is a very good farm; the soil is easily worked and always brings good crops.

YARNELL.

Roll Miller, wife and family, of Coleville, accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Eckley, were Sunday visitors at H. O. Miller's. Charles Williams and wife, of Williamsport, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Toner Fetzer and lady friend, Lucinda Kline, spent Sunday very pleasantly at the Daley home, near Romola. Ralph Malone is quite ill, threatened with appendicitis.

Issac Mitchell, daughter and niece, of Bellefonte, passed through our town on a pleasant trip, last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Dunkle and Mrs. Tom Poorman, of Milesburg, were callers here, on Sunday.

Orin Heaton, wife and daughter, Dorothy, visited at Jerome Confer's, on Sunday.

Laura Pownell and Amber Confer recently spent a day with their friend, Bessie Shank.

J. Edward Confer was a business visitor at the county seat, on Monday.

Walter Mann, of near Pleasant valley, was circulating among the fair sex here on Sunday evening.

Orianda Smith, of Howard, transacted business here, on Monday.

Ed Confer, of Fairview, and night watchman for Alonza Woomer, accompanied by Ethel Woomer, one of Curtin township's popular young school marmes, were callers at Ira Confer's, on Sunday evening.

CLARENCE.

Did you see the new automobile that came to town last week?

Last Thursday evening a baby girl came to brighten the home of Oliver Viedieffer; all are doing fine except Lan, and he is up in the air. He says that by the cut of it, it came to stay awhile.

Tippy Thompson, the automobile agent, of Snow Shoe, was in town last week with a fine line of machines.

Charles Holsapple, who has been housed up for the last three months with typhoid fever, is able to be around again, which is very pleasing to his many friends.

Four of our young people went over to Karthaus the other evening in their auto; they all report a good time, barring all accidents and losses and shortage of gasoline.

A trio from Cameron county came to town on Saturday evening to paint the town red, but were short in paint brushes and back bone.

L. C. Bullock, of Milesburg, has a crew of men at work on the new water line, which runs from Fountain to C. H. Watson's.

COBURN.

One of the busiest business places in our town at present is Mrs. Bird's millinery shop.

Mrs. Ella Lose, of Rebersburg, is making her home at Reuben Harter's this winter.

Melville Snyder, of Lemont, spent Saturday with his brother Harry, here. Many of our young folks are on the sick list. Some complain it is a sore throat epidemic.

Paul Kerstetter and wife, of North Bend, are spending some time here visiting their parents.

Simon Vonada, of Lewisburg, spent a short time at the home of T. W. Hosterman on Tuesday.

The one person, a man is always ready to forgive, is himself.

UNIONVILLE.

Annie Blair, of St. Augustine, Fla., is home on a brief visit to her aged mother, Mrs. Susan Blair.

A large number of his friends and neighbors constituted a surprise party at the home of Nathaniel Lindemuth, when they celebrated the 53rd anniversary of his birthday in a lively fashion.

Miles M. Hall has sold a large tract of valuable timber land to H. C. Robinson, of Centre Hall, and that means a three-years' lumber job, and employment for a large number of men and a boom for Unionville—whether Bill B. or Bill T. is elected.

Mrs. Daniel Buck has been having quite an extended visit at her daughter's home in Buffalo, the principal attraction being her first grandchild, a bright little daughter that recently came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bosworth.

Sara Harper, teacher of one of the Taylor township schools, and Annie Underwood, a Union township teacher, Sunday at home. Both are graduates of the Unionville grammar school and are equally successful as instructors.

Frank Lee, a former resident of Union township, but now of Irvona, spent a few days with friends in this section.

Mary E. Griest gave an afternoon tea on Monday. Ten plates were laid and a prize was offered to the lady who did the least talking during the interesting process of tea drinking, et cetera—but at the close it was impossible to decide who won the prize. It will be disposed of by lot.

A few of the successful game hunters are as follows: Andy Rowen, 1 rabbit; John Nighthart, of Bellefonte, a fine turkey; Frank Hoover, 1 turkey; Dr. C. A. VanValin, about 10 squirrels; J. T. Hall, 1 turkey; Maggie Taylor's husband, of Altoona, 1 turkey, and a number of others whose names I have not learned, got more or less game. Game of all kinds is reported unusually scarce.

Harry Seanson, of Connellsville, recently visited his father, James Seanson, at Boalsburg. Both are staunch Bryan men and constant readers of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT, and both are anxious to take a ride with me on my air ship, some time; Harry, may be.

Joseph Brugger certainly had a miraculous escape with his life on last Wednesday. He was driving out of his orchard on the upper farm with a load of apples, when the neck yoke came off the wagon tongue, letting the tongue drop on the ground, which frightened the horses, one of which fell to the ground, and in the melee Mr. Brugger was thrown between the horses and the wagon, breaking his right arm above the elbow and sustaining many cuts and bruises all over his body. The fracture was reduced by Dr. E. A. Russell, and he is doing as well as can be hoped for. While it was bad enough, Joe says he is thankful that it is no worse. He is booked for a pretty long rest.

A reunion of the Jacobs family occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Resides, on last Wednesday, at which the following guests were present: G. A. Jacobs, of Howard; Mrs. Eliza Jacobs Leech and Nana, Edna and Robert Leech, of Shingletown; J. H. Jacobs and wife, of Boalsburg; J. W. Sauer and wife, of Altoona; William Reed and wife, of Milton; Mr. Johnson and wife, Esther Johnson; Charles Eckenroth and wife, Mrs. Harry Macker and son Rufus, Capt. Samuel H. Williams, Dr. A. W. Hafer, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Henry Resides, of Hunters Park; Wm. P. Harpster, Esq., of Houtzdale; John Daley, of Romola; Mrs. Michael Hess and the writer. The most interesting feature of the occasion was the magnificent "lay out" and the way the good things disappeared from that table before that hungry mob, was truly alarming (to those who had to wait). But, gee! as fast as one plate was emptied a full one was brought in its place, so that the supply seemed inexhaustible. Billy and his wife never do things by halves.

RUNVILLE.

Harris Hugg and friend, of Phillipsburg, spent several days hunting here.

Mrs. J. A. Rodgers after a few days' visit with her mother, returned to her home at Osceola.

Orvis Lucas and Norris Shope spent several days here.

E. Lucas and wife, of Altoona, spent Sunday at Charles Lucas'.

Charles Williams and wife, of Williamsport, are visiting among many friends here.

Walter Smith, wife and children, also Mrs. Hugg, were callers here, on Sunday.

Virgin Lucas visited her grandma, Mrs. Eckley, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Rocky and two sons, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at the Smoyer home.

Ed Spicer, wife and children, spent several days out of town.

Wm. Walker and wife, also Mrs. James Snyder, of Milesburg, and Wingo, were callers at E. Poorman's, Sunday.

On Sunday morning and evening, Rev. Hamilton preached two very interesting sermons, appreciated by the congregation.

"Gossip, Gossip, Gossip," that seems to be going along with the wind and smoke. Why don't people get busy and attend to their own affairs instead of meddling in some one else's.

Samuel Lucas, of Warriors Mark, visited his brother Will here recently.

LINDEN HALL.

Mrs. Frank Wieland spent part of last week at the home of her parents, at Pine Grove.

Mrs. Kate Coble spent Sunday with her son, Wm. Coble, at Mill Hall.

Mrs. John Diehl visited at her home at Tusseyville last week.

Sarah Horner, of Centre Hall, visited her cousin, Bertha Tressler, part of last week.

Quite a lot of our sportsmen have been out for game, but report it scarce.

George Seanson is kept busy baling hay for the farmers.

R. B. Harrison, of Boalsburg, passed through town on Sunday.

Farmers are busy husking corn.

Don't forget the festival at Boalsburg, on Saturday night, Oct. 24, by the Boalsburg high school.

Edward Carper departed for Clareton, last week, where he is employed.

George Myers, of Milton, is spending his vacation at his home here.

William S. Brooks and family spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap.

Quite a large number of Linden Hall people attended the moving picture show at Boalsburg on Friday evening.

EMPTY DINNER PAILS.

Fifteen thousand school children starving in Chicago—among the causes, lack of employment of parents, and the constant increase in the cost of living with a corresponding increase in wages.

This is the startling announcement made in the daily newspapers of Chicago and which has brought gloom and consternation to the managers of the republican national committee in that city.

They have been preaching prosperity and the "full dinner pail" through the continuance of the republican party in power and the maintenance of a high tariff. The republican newspapers of Chicago without exception have given this republican claim the lie direct.

In publishing with big headlines the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the conditions in public schools, they show that thousands of children are suffering from hunger and actually dying from starvation in the great industrial and commercial city of Chicago.

Here are the headlines, running across three columns of the paper, from Chicago Inter Ocean (rep.):

Hunger Menaces 20,000 Pupils in City Schools; Many Beg Refuse to Eat

Startling Conditions in Chicago Shown by Report of Investigating Committee Find Starvation has Many Victims.

5,000 Have no Meal in Morning. Body Asks Food for Children, Some of Whom Have Forgotten Taste of Butter, living on Dry Crusts Earned by Heroism of Mothers who go to Bed Fasting

The Tribune heads its article: Hunger Stalking in Schools

Five Thousand Pupils Don't Know what a Full Meal Means and Ten Thousand Others are Underfed

The Record-Herald (Ind. Rep.) heads its story with:

Thousands of Pupils Suffer From Hunger

The Inter Ocean begins the horrible story telling of the starving of the little ones in the midst of "republican prosperity" with the following:

"Five thousand children often go to school breakfastless. Fully fifteen thousand school children of Chicago are underfed and habitually hungry. Mothers go to bed hungry in order that their children may have food in the morning. Half-clad and crying children have been found on the streets begging dead fowls and rotten fruit to eat.

"These are some of the statements in the report on indigent children filed with the school management committee of the board of education."

These are only a few of the many which the Tribune cites out of the thousands reported.

During the present republican panic hungry children have not even been provided with free soup houses.

Juvenile Court

Monday morning a session of Juvenile Court was held before Judge Ellis L. Orvis and Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, one of the probation officers. The boys brought before them were Ralph Rairdan and Thompson Spangler, of near Eagleville. The charge against them was larceny and riding on freight trains.

Both are bright boys but rather than go to school they preferred to annoy and disturb the good citizens of that community, when riding on the cars they would pick up lumps of coal and throw them through the windows of the houses along the railroad. For some time they had been eluding the railroad officers, but on Friday Deputy Sheriff Fred Reese went down to Eagleville and arrested young Rairdan, who is said to be the worse of the two; on Monday young Spangler was brought to Bellefonte. After all the evidence was in they were sentenced to the industrial school at Glenn Mills, Delaware county, where they will be taught a trade that may lead them to become useful men.

Killed at Beech Creek.

Robert Barnum, colored, of Logan-ton, was killed at Beech Creek Tuesday afternoon at 1.50 o'clock by being struck by the passenger train arriving there at 2.10. Barnum attempted to drive across the tracks in front of the approaching train. Deceased was aged 35 years.

BOALSBURG.

There will be communion services in the St. John's Reformed church, Sunday morning; also services in the evening.

The high school scholars will hold a festival in the town hall, on Saturday night.

The moving picture show Friday night last, was well attended. Samuel Weber and sister Annie, spent last week at Huntington at the home of Peter Weber.

Mrs. Ira Rishel visited friends in Centre Hall, last Thursday.

Mrs. Maud Williams is visiting her sisters Clara and Annie, in Altoona.

Mrs. Amanda Fisher spent a few days Danville, at her son Charles'.

Mrs. Margaret Miller is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andy Lytle this week.

Owen Mothersbaugh and Rev. A. A. Black attended the meeting of synod at Lock Haven, last week. The former also visited his brother, Dr. Mothersbaugh, at Beech Creek, who has been quite ill.

Mrs. Alice McGiffin left for a visit of a few weeks with friends in Philadelphia, and New York.

Mervin Kuhn and wife spent a few days at his parental home here, last week.

William Bricker, of Indiana, was visiting with Mrs. Laura Bricker a few days last week.

John Bricker and his uncle William visited a day or two in Lewistown, at Michael Bricker's.

The Branch scribe wondered why two certain young men called up along the Branch, on Sunday. Why there are such popular young ladies there—that's the reason.

Special Church Service

In connection with the quarterly conference to be held in the Bethany United Evangelical church, at Snow Shoe Intersection, the following program will take place:—on Thursday evening, Oct. 20, Rev. J. F. Hower, of Bellefonte, will preach. On Friday evening, Oct. 21, on Sunday evening, Nov. 1st, Rev. W. W. Rhoads, of Howard, will preach. On Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Reaser, P. E., of Centre District Cent. Penn'a. Conf., will preach. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

REV. G. W. FREY, PASTOR.

Geo. R. Meese, of Colyer, will start in the butcher business again for the winter. Anyone having porkers to sell can call him on the Bell phone, and after Nov. 1 will have the Commercial phone. He pays good prices.

Crider's Exchange BELLEFONTE.

If you were asked which way the wind was blowing from—exactly which way—you would start to look at a weather vane, wouldn't you?

When you are buying lumber you have a certain always-changing market price-list to contend with. From the dealer who buys "as he needs it," there is little hope of getting Good prices even.

It is only those of far sight and capital who snap up big bunches of bargains at the low times, that you can "read the direction of the wind" from.

A little foresight and care will save you dollars.

We use them both, and both are here at your service.
