The Bellefonte butchers have opened up their hearts a little by reducing the price of meat from one to two cents a pound. To the man who is working on a small salary, and has a big family to support, this is good news. How about the coal dealers? They should sit up and take notice.

S. P. Owens, of New York, has succeeded Edward T. Gregory as salesman for the National Biscuit company in this district and is now in Bellefonte with headquarters at the Brockerhoff house for the present. The friends of Mr. Gregory were very sorry to see him go as he is a good fellow.

David Hugler will sell another carload of range horses at the Haag House, Bellefonte, on next Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. These horses arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday and can now be seen at the hotel. They came from Dakota and are fine animals. There is no bronco blood in any of them, so that they can be worked any place.

While shifting in the P. R. R. yards at Bellefonte the other morning, George Smith, of Sunbury, a member of the Lewisburg freight crew, was accidentally jolted from the caboose and struck his head against the pilot of the engine, sustaining a severe gash. The Tyrone Times says that Robert T. Garman, the jeweler, corner of Pennsylvanian avenue and Tenth street, has improved the doorway of his attractive store by removing the wooden panels from the door and replacing them with heavy plate glass. This change and the very materially to the appearance of the store. Robert was formerly a Bellefonte boy and his friends will be glad to hear of this little improvement which means that he is getting along nicely.

State College is bound to improve because its citizens are progressive, and if Bellefonte doesn't show a little more ginger and get-up-it will become a back number. In the near future the streets at the College will all be marked with metal street signs, which make it much easier for strangers to get around through the borough. This may be considered a small item in the business activity of a town, but it is a convenience that will be appreciated by the people. Time and again strangers have been bewildered in their efforts to find certain places in Bellefonte, when a street sign, on the corner, would have set them right. The cost is small considering the amount of good it does.

The fellow who said, "I told you so" was around yesterday.

Among the many high class attractions Manager Garman has booked at the opera house for the coming season none gives better promise of being a distinct novelty than "A Pair of Country Kids" that will appear for one night only, Monday evening.

The people are becoming very enthusiastic over the excellent pictures now being thrown on the canvas by manager Garman at the Electric Theatre. Every thing is being done to give the public an up-to-date show for 5 cents. The music is fine.

At Reedsville they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shaffer, of Milroy, and while in that town they were entertained by Postmaster and Mrs. D. W. Reynolds and Mrs. G. C. Rice and in Milroy by Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer.

Col. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds, with chauffeur, H. E. Best, returned to Bellefonte Friday from the Vanderbilt cup races in New York. They were driving a six-cylinder Franklin, and had much to say concerning the good roads in the immediate vicinity of Williamsport. Colonel Reynolds said the roads from Lancaster to Philadelphia, from there to Reading and from Reading to Harrisburg, are generally fine for automobiles. From Harrisburg to Williamsport they are bad. They were very much pleased with the races, and the trip.

The time has come for everybody to drop politics and get down to business. W. L. Steele, of Bellefonte, who has been seriously ill for the last few weeks, is still very weak, but his friends think he has a chance to recover.

The ladies of the Reformed church will hold one of their famous country stores in Petrikin Hall, on Thursday Friday and Saturday of next week.

The other day Samuel Rice, of Bellefonte, had another stroke of paralysis which is causing his friends considerable anxiety. It is hardly likely that he will recover.

Jam' Riden, of Punxsutawney, greeted his friends in Bellefonte on Wednesday. He was more generally known in Benner township where he farmed, for many years on the late Judge Larimer's farm, now owned by E. K. Keller.

Plenty of fellows about town were flush on Tuesday who had not seen an easy dollar for many a day. It came from all sources and neither party is better or dirtier than the other. The only difference was as to the amount and opportunity to use.

Halloween on Saturday evening passed off very orderly. The boys and girls of Bellefonte had a good time without committing any serious depredations. A number of young men appeared in fantastic costume and, in this way, had a good time.

Harry Auman, clerk at the Brockerhoff House, on Tuesday moved from one of the Haupt's flats, on Thomas street, to the house on High street, at the rear of Casebeer's jewelry store. The reason for the change was he wanted to get closer to his business.

Landlord Sheeche, of the Garman House, has put down new linoleum in his hallways and waiting rooms which make his place complete and neater than ever. Mr. Sheeche is an experienced landlord and knows how a good hotel should be conducted.

Mrs. M. Donachy and daughter, Mrs. George Sasserman, formerly of Williamsport, spent a couple of days this week in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Donachy. They left Tuesday for Connellsville where they will make their future home.

On Monday Ex-County Treasurer W. T. Speer was taken suddenly ill at the dinner table. Medical aid was quickly summoned who thought the difficulty was the result of indigestion. His entire right arm and leg was rendered helpless for a short time but he is able to be about again.

At a meeting of Council, on Monday night, the special power and light committee reported progress in their investigation with reference to a borough light and power plant. Notwithstanding that no report was made it seems that it might prove too large a project for the borough to handle.

D. I. Willard, the down town merchant, had a nice neat sign painted above the entrance to his store on High street. It is so plain that he who runs can read it. Mr. Willard is gradually building up a good substantial trade. He sells good goods at a small profit which is always in favor of the purchaser.

Dr. William Laurie, who has been ill for a couple of months, went to Atlantic City on Wednesday for the benefit of his health. He was accompanied by W. P. Humes. After remaining there for a short time Dr. Laurie will go to Cape May where he will visit a while with his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Eldridge.

Tuesday afternoon Daley Justice was sworn in by squire W. H. Musser as one of the policemen of Bellefonte. He takes the place of William Beezer, who for several years has been on the force. The new officer is endowed with a physique especially adapted for that purpose and will make a commanding appearance in the uniform.

Monday Samuel Homan, an aged and respected citizen of Heck Park, was walking on Bishop street. When in front of Frank Galbraith's jewelry store he suddenly fell on the pavement. At first it was thought he had a paralytic stroke. He was carried into Mr. Galbraith's house when a physician was quickly summoned who attributed his illness to acute indigestion. He soon was able to be taken home.

Whatever you do don't forget the concert in the court house on Wednesday evening of next week for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. piano fund. It will be given by the Grand Concert Co. of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music. Each member of this special company is an artist, making it the strongest concert attraction on the road. The company is composed of two ladies and two gentlemen. The price of admission is with the reach of all.

On Tuesday Dr. J. E. Ward and James K. Barnhart left on a hunting expedition up along Buffalo Run and secured four rabbits. When they reached home Mr. Barnhart cleaned his two and distributed portions of them around among his sick neighbors which was appreciated. You wouldn't think either of the gentlemen could hit a barn door fifty feet away, but there's where you are fooled. They can do more than pull teeth and write checks.

The main attraction at the Scenic this week is the instrumental music by Mr. Kohr. He can make the piano fairly talk; manager Brown is certainly wide awake to the best interests of his patrons. He has installed two beautiful mirrors in the foyer of the Scenic which are used by the ladies who oblige the men by taking their hats off in the theatre. The screen has also been moved back on the platform which will be appreciated by those who have to sit in the front row.

If it were not an antiquated custom, we would go to our chicken coop and produce a hearty young rooster and have him crow long and loud for J. C. Meyer, who ran about one thousand ahead of his ticket. That mining stock slander was resented by the public.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The Methodists at Pleasant Gap are repairing their church in a way that will make it one of the most attractive houses of worship to be found in the county.

Since Sunday afternoon John Samsel, of Pleasant Gap, has been trading on the air. The birth of a big baby girl at his place is what is causing him to feel his oats.

On Friday the public sale of David McCloskey, at Wingate, was largely attended, and everything brought good prices. Mr. McCloskey is very much pleased, and attributes his success to the ad in the CENTRE DEMOCRAT, as it reaches more than twice the people than does any other paper. We guess Mr. McCloskey is telling the truth, because we have never known him to lie except in bed.

The ladies of the St. Mary's Catholic church, at Snow Shoe, will serve an oyster supper on Friday evening, Nov. 13th in the basement of their church. Price 25 cents; on Saturday evening, Nov. 14, they will serve a chicken and waffle supper in the same place, price 35 cents. The public is cordially invited to attend both these feasts of good things. Married men should take their wives and single men their sweethearts.

Monday Miss Maude Hovey returned to her home in Buffalo; after a three weeks engagement at the Scenic.

WEDDINGS

TRIMPTON—REESE.

Wednesday, of last week, a quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. William Reasner on Thomas street. The bride was Miss Irene Reese and the groom Norman Thompson, both of Bellefonte. The officiating minister was Rev. D. Barshinger, of the United Brethren church. After a wedding dinner they left for Ohio where they will make their future home. The bride is a very pretty little girl, and had many warm admirers. The groom, for a long time was an employe at John P. Lyons garage and is quite an industrious young man.

FLEMING—DONALDSON.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Ward Fleming reached Bellefonte after their wedding tour. They were driven to the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fleming, on Penn street, where a number of their friends were in waiting. Monday evening the calthumpians went up on the hill and began to make enough noise to raise the dead. The groom, to pacify the boisterous group, gave the leader enough of the long green to take about one hundred of them to the Scenic. Mr. Fleming was married on Saturday, October 24, to Miss Winifred May Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Donaldson, of Butler. The bride was one of the popular young ladies in that city, thus the wedding was quite a society event. The marriage took place in the parlors of the hotel Clinton at six o'clock in the evening and was attended by quite a large number of friends of the contracting parties. The groom is a promising young man and is one of our instructors in the Bellefonte High school.

Now, since Taft is elected President of the United States, the people of this vicinity will look for the moving of the machinery at the Nittany furnace, which has been silent for six or eight months. That is one of the pledges Mr. Taft made to the working men of this community. If he fails to make good his promises we will have to call him what "Teddy" called Parker four years ago.

A box social will be held in the Hubbard school house, near Beech Creek, Saturday evening, November 7. Proceeds for the benefit of the school. Ladies are requested to bring a box. The gentlemen will be there to eat the contents of the boxes.
