John Sheckler and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her sister, Rachel Hartsock.

Bert and Bill Keshing, of Yarnell, spent Sunday afternoon at George Lucas.

"Gossip, Gossip, Gossip" that seems to be going along with the wind and smoke—why don't some people here get busy and attend to their own affairs?

Rev. G. W. Frey is holding a protracted meeting; all invited.

WADDLE.

Victor Evey, of Altoona, spent a few days visiting his cousin Howard Evey.

Mrs. Harry Thomas gave her husband quite a surprise on Saturday evening by inviting all his friends from far and near to come; they met at a neighbor's house and all rushed pellmell right in on him; he was so surprised he had a notion to run. There were 31 persons; all enjoyed themselves playing games and singing and at 11 o'clock all were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous feast was served after which a few more games and then all went home wishing Harry good luck and many more surprise parties.

We are sorry to note that John Clark is no better.

Mrs. Way is some better this week.

Seven bears were killed in Clinton county last week, the largest of them weighing 400 pounds.

UNIONVILLE.

At the home of Rev. Keifer there was general rejoicing one day last week when that gentleman returned from the woods with a fine wild turkey, which he found napping.

Dr. C. A. VanValin killed two wild turkeys last week, but he declares they were not asleep, when he shot them.

Patterson Holt, one morning recently, caught a musk rat which he lay outside of their home while he took the cows to pasture. During his absence a little black dog found the perfumed rodent and had it all devoured except the tail before he returned. Now Patterson wants to sue the owner of the dog for petty larceny.

George Keatley and family, of West Virginia, are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Jake Mitchell and John Summers are baling hay at the rate of 18 tons per day.

Miss Viola Summers, of Snow Shoe intersection is seriously ill with tonsillitis.

I have discovered another regular reader of the Unionville items. This time it is Wm. T. Fetzer, of Yarnell, Billy is one of the best farmers in the county and knows a good thing when he "tastes" it.

Another good fellow, really extra good, is Lenore Lindemuth, of Upper Dix Run. He has the finest northern spy apples we ever saw, and he is not afraid to let you taste them either.

Michael Segner, of Boalsburg, one of the best Democrats in the county, was in my den recently, and asked me to let him go with me when I make the first trip up Salt River in my air ship.

The residence Wm. H. Tibbens, who lives on the T. R. Reynolds' farm, on Buffalo Run, while he and his family were attending the county fair on Thursday, the big day, was broken into and ransacked from cellar to garret by unknown burglars who carried off Mr. Tibbens new gold watch worth $40; his grandson's silver watch, his son Wilbur's gun and a gun belonging to their farm hand. Also a half bushel selected pears and a lot of smaller articles. No clue to the robbers has yet been discovered. It is presumed they were hunting money, as every drawer was drawn out and contents scattered over the floor, but they got no cash. As if this was not misfortune enough, next morning he found one of his finest young heifers lying dead from having eaten too many apples.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heckman are on the sick list. The K. G. E. have shown their kindness, as well as duty by hiring a nurse for the family. Mr. Heckman is a loyal member of the lodge.

Out of about twenty applicants, the Central girls for the telephone exchange here have been chosen and are as follows: night operator, Lodie Rishel; day operators: Mable Finkle and Jennie Decker. They began work last week.

Many of the pupils at the Cross Roads school are sick with the mumps. Some are under doctors care.

Rev. Gress will preach a sermon in the Reformed church Thursday evening. The M. E. church held communion last Sunday afternoon.

C. E. Zeigler has made still further improvement on his beautiful home by putting on a new roof.

A snow was given every evening last week at Penn Hall and was well attended. It was given as an advertisement for Dr. Richter's medicine and soaps. A prize was given to the prettiest young lady. Ruth McCool was chosen and was given a ring. Another prize of a silver set was given to the most popular lady, Grace Musser.

D. W. Sweetwood shot a wild turkey last week.

A hunting crew for deer is being organized and will start as soon as the season opens.

The stork brought a little girl to Mr. and Mrs. Beaton.

A district Sunday school convention will be held at Georgesvalley on Friday.

Sabra Faxon, the jolly young lady who spent some time visiting at the Wood Hotel, here, has gone to the Isthmus of Panama where she will visit her sister Mrs. Hipple. Mr. Hipple is one of the draughtsmen on the canal.

PINE GLENN.

Curt Askey returned home, on Saturday, to cast a vote for—? and will remain some time.

Revival services, which had been in progress in the Methodist church for a few weeks, were closed on Friday evening.

Burton Beightol spent Sunday with his family, here.

Co. Commissioner Dunlap, of Bellefonte, transacted business here on Friday.

Charlie says he is going to notify the road-master to have some parts of the pike made wider, as he has entirely too much trouble in driving around other rigs, especially when there is a lady in his buggy. No, we won't tell who it was, will we Susie?

The E. L. social meeting will be held at the Loy home on the first Friday evening of November. It being postponed on account of the revival meeting.

Miss Grace Vallimont, of Phillipsburg, spent Sunday with her parents in the Glenn.

A. V. Daugherty's are entertaining their cousin, Mr. Germen, of Baltimore.

MT. EAGLE.

Anna Deitz spent Sunday at her home here.

Many a woman puts everything on her back to make a good front.

HOWARD.

During the Civil war Co. D, 45th Regiment, Penn. volunteers, commanded by Capt. Austin Curtin, of Bellefonte, counted among its best men three brothers Thompson from Howard, John D., Joseph and Nathan. Sometime in 1862 Nathan came home on a thirty-day sick leave. At the expiration of this time he was still unable to resume his duties and drove to Bellefonte to ask Capt. Curtin, who happened to be at home on leave, for an extension of thirty days which was granted. The exposure of the drive brought on a relapse and he died in a short time. He was buried in the Methodist cemetery here, and Capt. Curtin attended his funeral. Last Thursday, when the older brother, John David, was buried in the same cemetery, 46 years later, General then Capt. Curtin, drove down to pay the last tribute of a soldier's respect for his faithful comrade, to another of his company, who, like himself, had grown gray with time, and bowed with the burden of years.

Mittie Miles Lucas, who has for many years made her home with the family of the late H. F. Lucas, who were her relatives, found herself obliged to seek new quarters by the breaking up of the old home, and is now most comfortably situated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Keiser.

The S. S. S. club held its stated meeting last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Weber, and from reports which reached the scribes' ears, on Sunday, the feast was one to be remembered in pleasant dreams. Those who know the training Mrs. Weber had under her splendid mother, Mrs. Dr. Hensly, whose fame as a housekeeper and cook reached as far as her name was known, can only dream regrets that they were not there.

John Turner is again on the streets as usual, but looking a good deal the worse for wear, because of his late experience with the doctor.

Nellie Hopkins has entirely recovered her health and returned to her school work.

Mrs. George Long returned last week from an extended visit with her brother, Henry Rothrock, of Spring township.

W. R. Harp, assisted by Paul Blaisley, and Estelle Belles, of Williamsport, has been canvassing our town for several days, selling a New Analytical Reference Bible, which is the most complete and comprehensive edition of the Bible ever made. In the absence of a large reference library it should be invaluable to every Bible reader. These young people are also evangelists in their way, and have added greatly to the interest of the series of meetings held by the Rev. W. H. Patterson in the Christian chapel during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hurd, both of whose sons have but recently recovered from scarlet fever, were themselves quite ill last week, but are now convalescent.

Some weeks ago Orpha O. Fletcher, daughter of A. A. Fletcher, Esq., went to Pittsburg to visit some friends, and on Monday last week, October 26, she and her friend, Carl T. Noll, a worthy son of the Pleasant Gap Nolls, and who is a telegraph operator at Pitcairn, took themselves around to a Methodist parsonage and were married by Rev. Magee. Best wishes.

John Strunk stepped on a nail last week and is limping in consequence.

S. S. Fletcher, of Washington, D. C., is making a brief visit home.

On that portion of the old farm which has been in possession of the Butler family for nearly a century, and now owned by A. M. Butler, as an old burying ground in which are resting some eight or ten members of the Fletcher family who preceded the Butlers as owners. The oldest gravestone is that of Daniel Fletcher, who died October 2, 1800. Henry Fletcher, who died November 14, 1803, was a shoemaker in the revolution, and was the great grandfather of Capt. Henry C. Harter, of this place, who is now several times a grandfather. The active members of the present generations of this family are planning to remove all the bodies to the Schenck cemetery.

Ben. Lucas is at home with a badly damaged foot, the result of falling from a car in the Osceola yard, where he is a member of the switching crew.

The brick walls of the Reformed church are sufficiently high on the front and two sides to have the door and window frames in place. William Wolf, of Bellefonte, is the sub contractor for the setting of the brick.

Miss Bennison and her sister Mary, spent one of last week's bright days in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Muffy tendered a Halloween masquerade to a large number of our young people last Saturday night. Not less than seventy-five or eighty persons were present, forty-five of whom were costumed, and the affair passed off in a thoroughly delightful way. A web of wide burlap stretched on the top of the big porch which surround two sides of the house, curtained them from the street, and this fine space lighted with Japanese lanterns, added appreciably to the size and comfort of the house. The refreshments and decorations were all typical of the occasion and excellent in character. Pumpkin pie, doughnuts and cider, flanked by a variety of fine sandwiches, pickles, cakes and candies were evident in great abundance and greatly appreciated. Masks were removed about ten o'clock, when refreshments were served, and after an hour of chat and music "good nights" were in order. Such of the characters as could be recognized, and the names of the parties who represented them, so far as they could be ascertained, are appended:

Jack O'Lantern—Josephine Henderson; Miss Pop Corn—Emma Fletcher; Witch—Susie Fletcher; Fairy Twins—Maud Thomas, Loretta Weber; Colonial Dame—Grace Schenck; Red Riding Hood—Lulu Holt; Queen of Hearts—Edith Weber; Japanese Girls—Carrie Butler, Zelma and Mollie Yearick; Blue Bells—Felina Fletcher; Gypsy Girl—Emma Weber; Quaker Lady—Helen Schenck; Sailor's Lassie—Annie Holt; Princess Louise—Jennie Kane; Irish girl—Nellie Weber; Dutch girl—Lulu Stover; Cowboy's girl—Anna Muffy; Queen of Spades—Josephine Muffy; Policeman—Bud Harper; 3d Sergeant—P. Edwin Thomas; Tartan—Jessie Leathers; Indian—Archie Condo; Washington—Asbury Fletcher; Turk—Ronald Welsh; Base Ball—Samuel Schenck; Black Knights—Chester A. Moore, C. Norris, Walter Muffy, Balser Weber; One of the Brownsville "discharged without honor"—T. B. Schenck; Spirit of Evil; Edwards Taylor; Spirit of Light—Stewart Taylor.

John Weber carries his head so high just now that he can scarcely recognize his best friends, and all because a bran new giribaby came to his home last Thursday morning.

George Hensly, now in his senior year at the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, and who means to follow in the steps of his father, and his older brother Will, as highly successful physicians, was chosen president of his class at the opening of the present term. He came home to vote and promptly returned to his work.

Mrs. L. Wetzler, of Milesburg, spent last Sabbath with her friend, Miss Grace Schenck.

Rev. W. H. Patterson, pastor of the Christian chapel congregation, has been holding a continuous series of special meetings in that meeting house for the past two weeks, which have been well attended. Mr. Patterson's sermons were strong, well brought-out arguments for Christian living.

The Howard Lumber company have spent the summer cutting timber and peeling and selling bark, and have now on hand about ten thousand logs for the winter's sawing. This will soon be in operation.

Helen Bennison entertained her friend, Susan Warick, of Mackeyville, over Sunday.

The boys of the town celebrated Halloween in the usual way, and with a good deal of good natured energy, though without any really unforgivable breaks of the proprieties. It is quite possible, however, that the inconvenience to which some of our citizens were put on Sunday morning, in clearing the public square of the score or more of vehicles of divers sorts and manifold degrees of decrepitude, tended toward a condition of mind that was not proper preparation for Sunday school. The smashing of the street lamp in front of the Methodist church might be classed as malicious mischief which should be omitted. Keep your fun clear of trouble making and expensive mischief, boys, and the good citizens will stand by you.

W. H. Holt, one of Howard's good farmers, will hold a sale of all sorts of farm stock and implements at his home, three miles north of Howard, next Thursday, November 12.

The Lick Run Lodge of the I. O. O. F., is one of the strong and active beneficial organizations of our community, and its roll contains the names of many of our best citizens, as witness the following roster of officials for the ensuing term: N. G.—William N. Neff; V. G.—John F. Kline; Sec'y.—John P. Weber; R. Sec'y.—Alpheus A. Fletcher; Treas.—John Diehl; R. S.—Irvin D. Jordan; L. S.—Albert G. Hill; W.—John Haney; C.—John Diehl; L. S. S.—William Knarr; R. S. S.—Lionel Walker; Chap.—Lott C. Thompson; I. G.—William B. Henderson; R. S.—Winfield C. Thompson; L. S.—Harry Masden; Trustees—John Shank, Howard A. Moore, Abraham Weber.

Since the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. took over the Bald Eagle line in toto, the traffic has considerably increased, and now an average of thirty-five to forty trains pass over it daily. The location of Howard makes it a convenient passing point, and the managers have discovered a pressing need of increased siding facilities. To meet this work is being pushed on an extension of considerable distance at the East end, including an enlarged culvert over Lick Run.

Preparing for the winter, street commissioner Reuben Lucas, under direction of the street committee of councils, is grading up South Walnut street, greatly to its improvement.

REBERSBURG.

Floyd Gramley, who is a student at State College, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Wm. Mitterling, the cow drover from Centre Hall, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of S. B. Shaffer.

Lynn Emerick, a student at Mt. Alto, was home during election to cast his vote for W. J. Bryan.

Mrs. R. D. Bierly and Mrs. T. A. Auman, spent a few days at Dents Run, with the formers' son, C. M. Bierly.

Last week C. O. Mallory's occupied their newly bought home, which was formerly known as the Samuel Gramley property.

Clement Gramley's house at West Rebersburg was occupied this week by Harry Hosterman.

A very able talk was delivered on Sunday forenoon in the Lutheran church by Rev. Ezekiel, in behalf of the orphans and sufferers of christian people in Turkey.

A number of our hunters expect to take advantage of the deer season this year; we wish them all possible success.

Mrs. L. B. Frank and Mrs. J. W. Harter spent some time at Bellefonte last week.

Cal. Weaver was in our burg on Saturday shaking hands with his many friends. He is a candidate for commissioner, and there is no doubt about his election as he is a firmly headed democrat.

The Reformed congregation held their communion on Sunday evening. The church was crowded to the limit.

If every mother could realize the danger that lurks behind every case of sore throat, she wouldn't rest until she has effected a cure every time a child has it.

Your family physician will verify the statement that it is a positive fact that every child with sore throat is in immediate danger of contracting Croop, Quinsy, Tonsillitis or Diphtheria, and is not removed from that danger until the throat is cured. Think of it!

Liniments or outward application of medicines do not and cannot cure the ailment, though they may offer temporary relief. Neither can you cure sore throat with a cough syrup or a cold cure.

To cure, you must get at the seat of the disease, removing the cause. Nothing does that so quickly, safely and surely as TONSILINE. A single dose of TONSILINE taken upon the first appearance of sore throat may save long weeks of sickness, great expense, worry, even death. TONSILINE is the stitch in time.

Use a little sore throat wisdom and buy a bottle of TONSILINE today. You may need it tomorrow.

TONSILINE is the standard sore throat remedy—best known and most effective and best used. Look for the long necked fellow on the 25 or 50 cent sized bottle when you go to the drug store to get it. The Tonsiline Co., Canton, Ohio.

FREE FROM SMOKE AND ODOR. Burns clean and dry without charring wick or frosting chimneys. "FAMILY FAVORITE" LAMP OIL. Refined three times. Every foreign particle and sediment removed. Clear, white and absolutely uniform. Gives the brightest white light—the most and best light. Finest in the world for reading and "night work."
