LINDEN HALL.

Mrs. J. H. Ross was a Bellefonte shopper on Monday. A large number of men from here attended the horse show which was held at State College on Saturday.

Miss Weaver, of Lemont, was the guest of Bertha Myer on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Frank E. Wieland and Mrs. Elmer E. Houtz and son George, transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

William Harter and family were out of town visitors on Sunday. Mrs. James Campbell and accomplished young daughter, Mary, were visitors at Centre Hall on Wednesday of last week.

Frank E. Wieland transacted business in Altoona on Thursday and Friday of last week. Henry Houser succeeded in killing four nice raccoons in front of Raymond's home on Thursday morning.

J. H. Ross transacted business in Altoona, on Wednesday. Mrs. James Wiley, who has been on the sick list, is able to be about again. Mrs. John Diehl spent Thursday at her home in Tusseyville.

Harry Kern, of Bellefonte was shaking hands with his many friends in this community on Thursday. John Wright and wife, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Wright's parents, Wm. Rocky's.

The first snow-flakes of the season were seen in the air on Saturday which makes you think that old winter has come. Most of the farmers are through with their corn and can now be found scouring the woods in the hunt of game, which seems to be rather scarce in this section of the country.

Charles Weaver has announced the wedding of his only daughter, Bertha, to Ernest Walker, the wedding will take place on Thursday, Nov. 5th. Mrs. D. E. Hess, who has spent the summer here at her summer home, departed on Tuesday for the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harris, at Osceola, where she will spend the long winter months.

Elmer E. Houtz attended the sale of Meeses on Saturday. W. H. Wensel and John H. Carper transacted business at Boalsburg on Tuesday evening. Don't forget the wheelbarrow race on Tuesday between Adam Zeigler and J. C. Lee.

WADDLE

Victor Evey, of Altoona, is visiting his uncle here. George Kelley is a rattling corn husker, he has over a thousand bushels for Charley Norris who has a splendid crop. The protracted meeting started at Gray's church, Monday evening. Mrs. Williams made a flying trip to State College, Saturday. H. H. Evey successfully moved a large building up a very steep hill. Mrs. J. A. Jones and family are visiting at her home at Stormstown. Harold and Lay Clark started with their guns to State College. Wonder whether they were after deer or not.

RUNVILLE

Lucy Smoyer, one of our attractive young ladies, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dora Rine, at Bellefonte, last week. Anna Underwood, teacher of Chestnut Grove school, and Mr. A. Fletcher, of the Runville school, Sunday with their parents at Dix Run and Howard. Harold Yeager, one of Jersey Shore's sportiest young men, spent several days with his relatives here. Adaline Shope, after a few weeks stay at this place, returned to Oak H where she will be employed. Adaline Smoyer, of Butts station, spent Sunday among her friends here. Eva Witherite visited the dentist's office, at Bellefonte, last week. Mrs. C. Friel was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday.

Mrs. Blanche McCligey was a caller at James Watson's Friday night. J. Shank and wife, of Mt. Eagle, and Mrs. Main Shank, of Philipsburg, visited at Charley Smoyer's one day last week. Mrs. Anna Witherite transacted business in Bellefonte and Milesburg recently.

Y. P. C. U. next Sunday eve. George Mayes, of Clarence, must have some attraction at this place.

COBURN.

Lettie Mark, of Millmont, is visiting at the home of her brother J. D. Mark. Among our sick Reuben Harter and Mrs. Oscar Auman are very low, and there is little hope for their recovery. A. M. Harter was called home from West Va. and arrived on Tuesday, on account of his father's serious illness.

Mrs. Hannah Black and Vivian Black, who spent the summer here, went to their Philadelphia home on Monday. Mrs. Black's sister Lizzie and son Owen accompanied them and will stay a few weeks in the city.

LEMONT.

Monday, November 2, was a day of social gathering, as it has been for some years past, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Roan, of Lemont, in honor of Mrs. Rosana Williams' 88th birthday. She was born in Northumberland county, Pa., November 2, 1820. At an early age she came to Centre county, and on January 21st 1841, she married, at Spring Mills, Levi Williams. To this union four children were born, viz: George C., Harriet A., Sadie J. and Margaret, who died in infancy. At this anniversary the 4th generation was present, being "Aunt Rosie," Mrs. Roan, a daughter, Mrs. Norris Martz, a grand daughter, and little Ruth Martz, a great grand daughter. The day was an ideal one, and relatives, friends and acquaintances gathered at an early hour to help make the day one long to be remembered.

The program followed was the hymn, "What a Friend we have in Jesus," then prayer by Rev. A. A. Bly, then by request a discourse from the text, "I am the vine, ye are the branches," this scriptural lesson being used by the father of Aunt Rosie in family worship. At the noon hour the guests were invited to partake of a dinner consisting of the choicest and daintiest viands of the land prepared by hands skilled in the art, and at which all did justice. After dinner a good social time was indulged in and letters of regrets were read, especially will we mention one written by Mrs. Lizzie Wiland, who is an invalid from rheumatism and who in the near future will go to the home of her brother in Kansas. This letter was an especially touching and tender one. One from Rev. Summey, of Westmoreland county, and others. We would mention the fact that Mrs. John A. Dale, of Shiloh, is the only "blood" relation in Centre county, and the only one present promised a history of the family tree for another year. Every child in the vicinity knows "Aunt Rosie," and honors her for the many kindnesses she has shown them, and many of them called during the day, and in appreciation for her, presented her with gifts. The gifts were beautiful, numerous and useful. Her health is remarkable for one of her years, sews handsomely, and reads a great deal, all without the aid of glasses. After singing the hymn, "God be with You 'Till We meet Again," and wishing "Aunt Rosie" many happy returns of the day, all returned to their homes, feeling the day had been one spent to profit as well as joy.

The rains this week brought the late wheat along finely. Friday was windy and cold. The wild geese are going to their Southern homes. The farmers are finishing up their fall work, hauling in corn fodder, gathering winter apples, and making apple butter. The dealers disposed of the fifth car of potatoes this week at 85c. per bushel. C. D. Houtz transacted business at the county seat Thursday.

Mrs. James E. Lenker, Mrs. Nathan Grove, and Mrs. Joseph Marshall, did some shopping in Centre Hall this week. Linn F. Bortoff visited in town last week, before going South for the winter for his health. John Klinger visited with his brother Jacob, the latter being quite ill the last few weeks.

Jacob Houser came down from State College to C. D. Houtz's orchard, Tuesday, to get a few samples of winter apples to exhibit on Farmers' week this coming winter. Ephraim Engleman returned to Nebraska from Centre county, where he enjoyed a few weeks among old friends whom he has not seen for 34 years.

Mrs. Frank Whitehill and Mrs. M. A. Williams were on the sick list last week. Lemont High School played a game of football with Boalsburg High school, Tuesday. The horse show was well attended by the people of this neighborhood and were all well pleased with the exhibit. The supervisors of College township have a gang of men concreting the floor of the iron bridge on the branch road, and not before it was needed. Saturday it snowed some, the first of the month.

LEMONT, NO. 2.

Mrs. Lavina Lenker and daughter Sue, are spending a few weeks at the home of J. E. Lenker. William Williams and wife, of Philipsburg, spent a couple of days among friends here. Miss Lizzie spent Friday and Saturday in Altoona. Bessie Thompson is visiting her sister in Altoona. Mrs. James Schreck and Mrs. Wm. Schreck, spent Wednesday at Buffalo Run. James Williams and family spent Sunday at the home of John Glenn. D. G. Myers and family spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Sartman. Mrs. Cal. Houtz of Selinsgrove spent a couple of days at home Jacob Ray. A birthday party was held at the home of George Roan to remind Mrs. Rosy Williams of her 88th birthday; may she live to celebrate many more birthdays.

CLARENCE.

There seems to be a lot of attraction at the new mill for the young ladies. What is it Walter? Edna Crispin was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mrs. Gladders. A crowd of our nimrods took themselves to the tall timber of the Rocky mountains last week. Their bunch of game consisted of no coons, one chip munk, one owl, one skunk. Frank Crispin and lady friend, of Altoona, who have been visiting at the former's home, have returned to the city, where Frank holds a luxurious position. The Clarence grist mill has been running full. It is one of the finest equipped mills in this part of the country. Bring your grists this way and give it a trial, as they guarantee all their work. C. H. Watson has remodeled his house and put water all through it. It is an ideal house and Charley knows how to enjoy the comforts of home.

SALONA.

Mrs. W. E. Bower visited her sister, Mrs. M. M. Royer at Millinburg. Samuel Barner is the proud father of a young son. Wm. Shoemaker was out rabbit hunting and shot their valuable dog. Geo. Waite and family spent Sunday at Maurice Brungards. The social was well attended; they cleared $18.40 for the benefit of the Lutheran church. A surprise birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Karstetter for their oldest son Glen, who was seventeen on the 27 of last month. Games of all sort were played and choice refreshments were served. All returned to their homes at an early hour wishing him many more happy birthdays.

YARNELL.

Henry Heaton was called to Lock Haven on Sunday evening, to the death of his niece. Lenore Thompson, who has been at this place the last eight months, returned to Pitcairn, to her home, on Saturday, accompanied by her brother James. Harry Walker, wife and daughter, of Barre, were visitors here over Sunday. Rev. C. C. Bingham, formerly pastor of the U. B. church here, but now of East Freedom, was greeting his many friends in town last week; he was on a hunting expedition. Earl G. Taylor, of Bellefonte, was a welcome visitor in our vicinity on Monday.

The Kessling brothers were Runville visitors on Sunday. Mrs. Martha Ramsey, Mrs. Ira Ramsey, Gertrude, Walter and Charles Ramsey, of Altoona, were guests at A. G. Walker's last week, and attended the birthday party given for him on Saturday. Mr. Walker although seventy-six, is still hale and hearty. Martin Fetzer, of Altoona, came home on Friday, to help to elect our next president. Nellie Rathmel Sundayed at her home in Hubersburg. Roy and Milford Oyler, of Curtin Twp., with their cousin Mr. Gutshank, of Cumberland, spent Monday p. m. with their aunt, Mrs. Breth. A party was given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Eckley, in honor of their daughter Erma, it being her eighteenth birthday. Thirtieth five young people were present and had a most enjoyable time. Charles Brown is now the proud father of another baby girl; the stork making his appearance at their home on Thursday last. A party of young people spent Sunday afternoon, at the famous "O Neils Rocks," near Pleasant valley. They were: Ellis Pownell, Lawrence Croft, May Poorman, James Wensel, Toner Fetzer, Martin Fetzer, Lucy Kline, Delphia Wensel, Samantha Pownell, Arrie Simler, Anna Shank, Maud Daley and Frances Confer. D. W. Boyer lost a valuable horse last week. Curt Walker was a caller at A. G. Walker's on Sunday. Eddie Walker and wife, with their two interesting daughters, Minnie and Bessie, of Filmore, are visiting at Thom's Walker's. Protracted meeting began in the U. B. church Tuesday evening. Ellis Pownell transacted business in Milesburg on Monday. Cal McKissick was a pleasant visitor at the Shank home recently.

BOALSBURG.

Quite a number of our town people attended the horse show at State College, Saturday. George Fortney bought at public sale on Saturday, the old Fortney homestead east of town, and will move there in the spring. Mrs. Noll and family, of Pittsburg, spent a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Stover. The former expects to move to New Jersey where her husband has employment. Anna Dale and Nellie Segner spent Saturday in Centre Hall. Mr. Fry, of State College, was a guest at the Kaup home over Sunday. William Fortney, of Pittsburg, journeyed to his brother John a visit last week. Nellie Harrison and daughter, of Jersey Shore, visited her brother Bruce, a few days last week. The reservoir has been repaired and we all hope the water supply will be better than before. Priscilla Stewart returned home, after a few months visit to her brother Harry. Anna Sweeney entertained Charles Fisher and bride and a few other friends one evening last week. News was received that Howard Bricker is improving very nicely in the Hanesman hospital, Philadelphia, and will be able to come home very soon. William Meyers has been on the sick list for a week or more.

SNOW SHOE.

Harvey Witherite, who has been employed at Avis for some time, returned to his home here. Adaline Smoyer visited friends and relatives at Runville over Sunday. Mrs. Andy Oswalt and three children, of Altoona, after visiting friends and relatives here for a few days, returned to their home again. Blanche Smoyer visited her lady friend Edna Oswalt, of Clarence, Sunday. Mrs. Roll Shank spent a couple of days at her parents home at Yarnell. Mrs. James Smoyer and three children, spent Saturday at Bellefonte. The residence that is now occupied by Wm. and Thos. McClosky is being improved very much by building new porches.

Almost a Blaze.

The Nittany Inn caught fire the other day on the fourth floor. The fire companies, however, quickly responded to the alarm and in less than 10 minutes had four lines of hose in operation and soon had the fire under control. As a result of their prompt and efficient service the damage is comparatively small. The fire started in a closet in the east corridor on the fourth floor and had been burning for some time before it was discovered. By that time the flames had eaten their way through the partitions and had attacked the wood work overhead. The firemen fought the flames back and soon succeeded in extinguishing them.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Mona Crouse and children have gone to spend a few days with her mother at Lock Haven. David Summers, of Altoona, is visiting his parents and other friends here. W. C. Mingle and Flossie Stover spent the Sabbath with his sister Nellie, who is teaching at Potter's Mills. Mrs. Hoy, of State College, spent one day with Mrs. Sue Rote. Jennie Kupp returned home from a very pleasant trip with her brother Frank in New York City. Mrs. Lane and family, of Tyrone, visited her mother, Mrs. Sarah Leitzell, a few days last week. Mrs. Rosetta Deo, of Odell, Ill., and her daughter, Mrs. Annie Edmunds Engle, of South Bend, Ind., were here to attend Israel Weaver's funeral. Both ladies were raised in the Weaver family. Edna Edmunds, of Salona, spent a few days with her brother, Weaver Edmunds. Mrs. Lizzie Swabb and daughter Ruth, spent the Sabbath with friends at Coburn. Mrs. Dora Weaver, of Coburn, was the guest of Mrs. Effie Weaver, on Sunday.

Nearly Cut off His Nose.

Dr. J. M. Dumm, the well known physician and surgeon, of Mackeyville, met with a peculiar accident at his home the other day while chopping wood. He decided that he needed some exercise and accordingly started toward the woodpile, above which was stretched an old clothes-line. He commenced cutting a block of wood when his uplifted axe struck the rope, which sent the axe quickly downward. The sharp blade almost severed the nose from his face and a deep gash was also cut into his lip. Although the injury is very painful it was indeed fortunate that the axe did not strike him on the head or it would probably have killed him.
