The stork, after an absence of 15 years, returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Holt and left a charming boy baby at their home to gladden the hearts of his parents and his brother and sister, Jasper and Hannah. That baby, now, is the only peach in the basket in that family.

Billy Parsons joined a hunting party and has gone to camp somewhere in the Alleghenies. Charley G. Hall will haul the venison as fast as they can kill the deer from which it is manufactured. Billy intends to salt his down for winter use.

J. C. DeHaas, of Clearfield, has taken charge of the station during Mr. Parsons' absence.

Say, Charley, I got Willie Westinghouse to help me make an individual flying machine. You put it on like one puts on a coat, and there you are. It's too funny for anything; will tell all about it next week—may be.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a home missionary service in their church at Myers Cemetery, on Buffalo Run, on Thanksgiving evening, November 26th, for the benefit of the church. An excellent program has been prepared for the occasion. There will be a number of speakers present, besides their local talent, who, together with their pastor, the Rev. Harnish, will assist in making it one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Everybody is most cordially invited to be present.

JULIAN.

Memorial services were held in the U. B. church on last Sunday morning, by Rev. Newton S. Bailey, in honor of two old pastors, Rev. John Tallhelm and Rev. John Craig, who have both died during the conference year. Appropriate letters were read by Profs. F. W. Dillen and R. E. Williams. A very interesting talk was given by Darius Wate, of Bellefonte; after a short discourse by Mr. Bailey, the Lord's Supper was administered by the pastor assisted by the Rev. J. F. Anderson, pastor of the M. E. church, of Emporium.

Among the sick folks of our town we are sorry to note the serious illness of Mrs. Sarah Reid, who at this time is quite ill.
