

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Robert Cole, the Bellefonte architect, was attending to business in Lock Haven Friday.

—Mrs. A. A. Beck and children left Tuesday afternoon for Hanover where she will visit friends.

—Miss Bertha Hassinger, of Bellefonte, was a recent visitor at Roland at the home of Mrs. William Reeder.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Malcolm Laurie, of Winburne, Pa., attended the funeral of the late Dr. William Laurie on Thursday.

—James Summerville, of Winburne, was among the out-of-town people who attended the funeral of Dr. Laurie on Thursday.

—Mrs. Hugh Taylor and children, of Bellefonte, have been visiting in Phillipsburg at the home of the former's aunt, Mrs. Robert Lloyd.

—Mrs. Thomas Selfridge and little daughter, of Berks, Cal., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Merriman and family, on Curtis street.

—Mrs. Vince Bauer, of Bishop Street, is still in a very weak condition. The hope of her friends is that there will soon come a change for the better.

—On Thursday Boyd Noll, of Zion, began work of cleaning away the burned portion of his double house on Lamb street preliminary to repairing the same.

—Bush, the Post Card King, has a stock of 50,000 Xmas Cards consisting of over 300,000, to be sold each. Both wholesale and retail, reduced prices in quantities for schools.

—Sunday there was a large attendance at the memorial service of the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks. The address was delivered by Hon. John G. Love which was well received.

—Miss Blanche Baddinger, of Snow Shoe, has just returned from Pittsburgh where she underwent a very serious operation for appendicitis at the West Penn hospital.

—Miss Bernice McCloskey, of Lock Haven, and Miss Creasia Hannah, of Flemington, were guests over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gettig of North Thomas street.

—J. E. Bloom, constable from Phillipsburg, returned to his home on Monday when the constables made their report in court. He is a careful officer and is liked by the people in his bailwick.

—W. Miles Walker is acting as a clerk to the Jury Commissioners who are now engaged in refilling the Jury Wheel. His wide acquaintance over the county makes him a good man for the place.

—William J. Carlin, of Rebersburg, had business in court this week and was a pleasant caller at this office, on Monday. For years he has been Justice of the Peace of Miles township and has made an enviable record.

—Buffalo Bill will be one of the new features in the Centre Democrat during the coming year. See the full page announcement in another part of this issue. We consider this one of the most interesting features that could be secured. Watch for it.

—The other day Rev. William Potter VanTries, only son of Dr. Thomas C. VanTries, of Bellefonte, was installed pastor of the Presbyterian church at Berwyn. He is a close student and will be a power for good in the community in which he is located.

—From the amount of sheriff sale bills that are posted on the bulletin board at the court house we are not having the kind of prosperity that has been promised. The fact is that Sheriff Kline has been doing a land office business for sometime, and it is not all over as yet.

—Will Rowe, who has filled the position of Deputy Recorder for some years under his father John C. Rowe, has been engaged to assist Recorder Brown for a time until he has the office well in hand. We have not heard who his permanent Deputy will be as there are a number of applicants at the job.

—The sale of the W. R. Jenkins' dec'd, property on High street, on last Saturday, was postponed to January 20, 1909, as the bids were considered too low for such a desirable location. This is one of the best homes in town, and no doubt will bring a good price the next time it is offered by the Executor.

—The Salvation Army, of Bellefonte, are now busy collecting money with which to purchase Christmas dinners for the poor whom Christ said will be always with us. The cause is a good one and those who can should contribute to it. Last Christmas a large number of people in Bellefonte were made happy in this way.

—County Superintendent Ethers has been in town this week looking after some of the preliminaries connected with the forthcoming session of Teachers Institute which will assemble here during the holiday week. The lecture of the famous blind seer of Oklahoma, Thos. B. George, on Thursday evening, the 31st, will be one of the leading features of the week.

—Envoy Matilda Schofield, who for the past few weeks has been so ably assisting Captain Craig in the Salvation Army work at this place bid farewell to friends here on Sunday night. During the time that Envoy Schofield has been in Bellefonte, her kindly disposition has been the means of winning her many friends who are very sorry to see her leave. Her next appointment will be at Kane, and it is to be hoped that she will meet with as much success there as she did in Bellefonte.

—On Thursday evening Lew McQuiston, of Bellefonte, invited a number of his friends to his home to assist him in disposing of the twenty-three pound turkey which he shot down near Mt. Eagle. Some of those who sat around the festive board confessed they hadn't eaten anything since morning thus the reader can imagine how quickly the bird disappeared. It is due Miss Mary McQuiston, who prepared the turkey in such a toothsome way, to state that her part was done up in the most satisfactory style. The table was tastefully arranged, and the turkey roasted in a way that would appeal to the most delicate taste. If there are other turkeys around in waiting for someone to assist in putting it away, the owner should feel no delicacy in having it known.

—Watch for Buffalo Bill, the greatest scout that ever lived.

—Ladies' patent colt button sample shoes $1.98. At Yeagers.

—Mrs. Lizzie Kurzeknabe, of Harrisburg, nee Hartel, of Millheim, is visiting friends here and other parts of the county.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge, of Cape May, N. J., were in Bellefonte attending the funeral of Mrs. Eldredge's father, Rev. William Laurie.

—Thanks to Wilson I. Fleming for a copy of tabulated statement of the votes cast for the several candidates for presidential electors, and other state officers at the recent election in this state.

—If you are having sale this season, you will want the same advertised in this paper where it will be read by everybody. The advertisement costs nothing when the bills are printed at this office.

—Sunday interesting revival services were begun in the United Evangelical church. There were three requests for prayer and one conversion. Services are being held each evening at 7:45 o'clock.

—Monday Wm. Reese, father of Revenue Collector G. W. Reese, of Bellefonte, celebrated his 50th birthday, at the latter's residence on Reynolds Avenue. For the past five months he has been confined to his room suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

—James Corl, the Commissioners Clerk, has taken the agency for the "Royal" visible typewriter in this section. It is a standard machine and has all the good points of the old reliable makes with many additional advantages. It is the most visible machine possibly that is on the market.

—The many friends of W. D. Crosby, Esq., of Phillipsburg, are glad to know that he is able to be about again after being housed up so long. He will be in attendance at school this week, feeling as well as can be expected. We are sorry to state, however, that his little daughter is down with scarlet fever.

—Manager Garman, of the Electric Theatre, is doing much to afford good and cheap amusement for the people of Bellefonte. He has been trying his best to make the opera house attractive in a number of ways and is succeeding very nicely. The pictures are always the finest that can be secured.

—While Mrs. W. L. Daggett, of Bellefonte, was in Philadelphia recently, she lost her pocketbook containing a diamond ring. The unfortunate affair took place while in the Union depot. Fortunately it was picked up by G. Lattimer Potter, a colored young man who was born and raised in Bellefonte, who promptly returned it. Mrs. Daggett then sent him the reward.

—Henry "Cute" Quiggley has not become quite reconciled to the fact that Clement Dale was the first to shake the plum tree and has secured the delicious fruit. The great trouble with Henry, Tom and Harry was they were like those foolish virgins who went to the wedding feast without oil in their lamps and when the time came to enter they were left out in the cold. Never mind Henry, be a good little boy and one of these days you will shake the senatorial plum tree—Maybe.

—Saturday evening Dr. George P. Bible, the humorous lecturer and entertainer, was the attraction at Warriorsburg. His thorough command of voice, gesture and facial expression are elements of strength in his lectures. Mr. Bible's versatility and keen insight into human nature enable him to adapt himself to the ever changing conditions of his audiences. He has been in the Chautauquas and institutes of the west and south and the calls for return dates are the best evidence of his popularity. Dr. Bible was a Bellefonte boy of whom the town can feel proud.

—Thursday Fred Smith and Frank Grebe, of Phillipsburg, were in Bellefonte looking as happy as if there had been no election last month. Mr. Smith was the Democratic nominee for sheriff in this county, but being laid on the shelf for a short time doesn't give him any pain about the matter. And there is his friend Grebe, who labored hard to put him on jail hill, but because he did not see his ends accomplished he isn't crying over spilled milk. Both are good fellows and their friends on this side of the mountain are always glad to see them.

—Wednesday evening the Bellefonte Tent No. 100, Knights of Maccabees elected the following officers for the next term: Past commander—J. Thomas Mitchell; commander—Charles Moran; lieutenant—Samuel F. Cherry; record keeper—Geo. T. Bush; physician—Dr. M. J. Locke; asst. physician—Dr. Lewis R. Tyrone; chaplain—Jos. Gisewhite; sergeant—Merrill J. Knapp; master at arms—Charles Rapp, 1st m. of George Lloyd Steyer; and grand warden—William Allen; sentinel—Herbert Auman; picket—Andrew L. White; trustee for 3 years—J. Thomas Mitchell. The order is in the most flourishing condition.

—First Lieutenant Samuel D. Gettig, of Company B, Fifth Regiment, tendered his resignation to Col. Hugh S. Taylor several weeks ago to take effect immediately by this Company B not only loses an efficient officer, but he will be missed in the entire National Guard of Pennsylvania. Eighteen years ago he joined the guard and in all that time he only missed about a dozen drills, a record for promptness that is seldom equaled. He was present with the company during the strike campaigns, and served faithfully in the South, during the Spanish-American war. It will be a long time before his place will be filled by any one quite as proficient. For sometime he has been filling the position of Captain of the Company owing to the absence of Philip Gerbrich, who has been away from town for several months.

—At the meeting of the Bellefonte Borough Council it was decided to notify Thomas Johnson, who now occupies Green's mill, at Milesburg to vacate it by the first of January. A new shingle roof will be put on the building and it will be insured for $1000. During the evening Mr. Hamilton made a motion that William Beezer be re-instated as one of the policemen. The motion was cast, after which Mr. Harper presented the name of John D. Justice for police officer. Philip Beezer then presented the name of William Beezer. A vote was taken when Justice went out with one of a majority. This being the most important business transacted, Council adjourned until 7:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for treatment. He is but nineteen years of age, and the case is causing medical research in order to obtain the cause of the peculiar malady. He can talk and use the other part of his body with ease.

—Ladies' hand-sewed common sense sample shoes $1.98. At Yeagers.

—E. M. Speer, who had been in Bellefonte for the last month, called here by the illness of his father, left on Tuesday for Hoxie, Kansas.

—The "Gingerbread man" at the opera house on Tuesday evening was one of the best attractions seen here for a long time. It was greeted by a large and appreciative audience.

—Two Greeks have leased the room in the Bush Arcade facing Water street and will open a sort of a miscellaneous shop, where they will sell tobacco and cigars, confectionery, and a bootblacking establishment.

—There has been a diphtheria scare about town the past week that is a great exaggeration as most of the cases that have been reported thus far are simply a severe attack of tonsillitis. Should we have an epidemic of diphtheria the local authorities would soon take the matter in hand.

—James H. Potter, the hardware merchant, is the latest to become an automobilist. This week he received a Thomas Flyer that is pronounced a fine car and will enable him to dust some of the other lads around town who think they are a whole load of pumpkins when they get behind the steering wheel.

—Bower Holter, the local editor of the Bellefonte Daily News, is still very ill at his home on Pine Street. He had about recovered from his attack some ten days ago when he was seized with two hemorrhages which again prostrated him. His condition is such that his friends have been advised to take him to White Haven or some other health-giving resort. He is quite a progressive young man, and it is to be hoped that he may soon find some permanent relief.

—It will be well for persons who are about to make their holiday purchases to look over the pages of the Centre Democrat at this time of the year, as here they will find a large number of the leading and progressive merchants announcing what they have specially in stock for the holiday trade. You will find an endless variety of goods from which you can easily make a suitable selection for every gift you wish to make. It will enable you to determine what to buy and where you can get it before you start on your shopping expedition. All the leading stores in Bellefonte are represented in the columns of the Centre Democrat at this season of the year.

—Mrs. Lizzie Kurzeknabe, of Harrisburg, nee Hartel, of Millheim, is visiting friends here and other parts of the county.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge, of Cape May, N. J., were in Bellefonte attending the funeral of Mrs. Eldredge's father, Rev. William Laurie.

—Thanks to Wilson I. Fleming for a copy of tabulated statement of the votes cast for the several candidates for presidential electors, and other state officers at the recent election in this state.

Jesse Bridgens, son of Wm. A. Bridgens, of Mapes, four miles above Beech Creek, killed a fine four pronged buck on their farm a few days ago. Jesse escaped the buck near the barn and having nothing but the shot gun, his father having the rifle with a party on Hall's Run, loaded up with ounce balls and proceeded to action. After some excitement he killed the buck after firing five times. The first shot cut the hair on the back, the second broke a front leg, the third missed, the fourth broke both front shoulders, but still the buck managed to get over the ground by placing his nose on the ground and giving a spring with his hind legs, jumping from fifteen to twenty feet at a time. Jesse caught up to him and shot him in the head, destroying the head as a trophy, which he regretted when too late.

THAT after a Bellefonder reaches a certain age, and their friends die, you hear this expression repeated frequently: "He is better off," and you begin to realize you are getting up in years and that is what will be said about you.
