The local papers last week stated that Dr. Edward Harris, of Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, was out at Beaver Mills roustabouting for the benefit of his health. While this was done in good faith the truth is Dr. Harris was not away from Bellefonte, except when taken to Milesburg for a drive. He has been too weak to take a trip to the woods, although he has in the last few weeks he has gained five to eight pounds. It is believed that with a little care he will come out all right.

Frank Naginye, one of Bellefonte's progressive business men, has become attached to the machine method of moving vehicles that he has in contemplation the purchasing of an auto-ambulance which can be used for various purposes in his undertaking business. It could also be hired, at a reasonable price, to take patients to and from the hospital, which is a convenience that is badly needed, and would be appreciated by many of the patients. Quick and careful service in taking patients to the hospital has often saved a life. Mr. Naginye will also purchase a new Ford, of 1909 model, which is an up-to-date machine. Any time Naginye gets left, we'll make 'er good.

The White Rock Lime Co., whose offices are in Bellefonte and operations are at Pleasant Gap, has received an order for 700 tons of limestone to be gotten out daily and shipped to a firm in Emporium. This is an entirely new order and will stimulate business out there considerably. We wondered why some of the stockholders of the concern were walking around wearing one of Coal Oil Johnny's smiles when he puts up the price of oil. The White Rock people have invested a large amount of money at the foot of Nittany mountain, and, of course, they would smile, when a wave of prosperity strikes them. Their stone and lime has been giving perfect satisfaction wherever it is sent, thus their business is gradually on the increase.

Claude Cook, of Bellefonte, has been appointed receiver for the Yeager Swing Co., at the head of which is Clarence Yeager, together with a number of Bellefonte gentlemen. This industry, several years ago, was started by Mr. Yeager in the second floor of the building on High street, occupied by Vince Bauer as a grocery store. It had a small beginning but finally grew to be an industry that promised a great future. It occupies two of the largest and best buildings in the town, and is equipped with all the necessary machinery for getting out swings and novelties. Unfortunately the managers were confronted with financial questions that they were unable to handle, thus came the appointment of a receiver. It is to be hoped matters may be so adjusted that the plant may be started again, giving employment to quite a number of men.

It is to be hoped that the operation through which she has just passed will bring relief if not a cure.

On Monday Mrs. Rentschler, wife of Prof. M. J. Keenler, of State College, left for Philadelphia, where she will enter the Woman's Hospital for treatment. Before marriage she was Miss Bess Lytle, of College township.)

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle McFarlane, of Bellefonte, have purchased a truck farm near Mill Hill, and will move there April 1st. The departure of the McFarlane family from Bellefonte is certainly to be much regretted, and it is true that Mr. McFarlane has been an invalid for years, yet here has been his home where his family has grown up, surrounded by many pleasant environments, and to break away from them will mean much. However, it is to be hoped that the change is for the better, and that in their new field of labor the family will find much enjoyment.
