The "January thaw" was delayed somewhat enroute and did not arrive until last week, when it made a thorough ob of the break up. This delay gave the ice men their opportunity, with ice of fair quality from twelve to eighteen inches thick, and good sledding, the greater part of the time, on which to haul it. They improved it with all promptitude and an ample supply promptitude, and an ample supply, sev-eral hundred tons, was safely housed. Miss Josephine McIntyre visited her cousin, Mrs. P. B. Meek, at State Colege, last week

Secretary of the Howard Brick Co., H. A. Moore, returned from a successful business trip to Scranton, last Thursday. John Foreman and Theophilus Pletcher were business visitors at Bellefonte on one of last week's fine days. Miss Mary Strunk, now employed in Bellefonte, spent a day or two of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strunk.

Miss Alice Pletcher spent the last week end with relatives in Beech Creek. R. F. Mahaffey, of Mahaffey, Clear-field county, with his friend E. A. Graham, were business visitors last week, and purchased of the Empire Iron Works a sawmill, planingmill, and all the accessories required to successfully work them, with a twenty-five horsepower engine to run them all, making a complete lumbering outfit. Mr. Mahaf-fey is by no means a stranger here, having been a pupil in our schools in his boy days, and a frequent visitor at the home of his uncle, the late 'Squire James McHaffey.

Hustling Editor Dunham is sporting big cane and a bigger limp, the result of a fall on the ice last Friday.

Miss Lulu Johnson spent a portion of last week with the family of her brother, J. K., in Bellefonte.

Harry Jenkins and Balser Weber ran down to Milton on a business errand last Thursday, and report a successful trip. Mrs. Joshua Pheasant was a visitor in Mrs. Joshua Pheasant was a visitor in our town a few days ago, and reports her veteran husband sick. Joshua has many friends in town who wish him speedy recovery. A later report says Mr. Pheasant is rapidly improving. A. Weber is summoned as a grand
