

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

PENN HALL.

The robins and blue birds have come, a sure sign of spring. James Keller is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. F. M. Fisher, at present. E. R. Wolf spent Sunday at his home at Wolfs Store. Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder took dinner at the home of F. D. Hosterman's, on Sunday. C. T. Rice, who was a student at State College, has finished his course and returned to his home in Virginia, where he will engage in business; his many friends all wish him success. A number of folks from in and about town took in the horse sale at Millheim. Mrs. D. Neese and two little daughters were seen in town, on Sunday. Ella and Sara Condo spent Saturday and Sunday at Centre Hall. While out scrubbing Mrs. F. M. Fisher had the misfortune to fall and severely bruise her foot. Clara Condo Sundayed with her friend, Eva Moyer. Jerry Albright, wife and two daughters, Sundayed with the former's mother Mrs. John Albright. John Hosterman is all smiles over the arrival of a little son, Sunday morning. The smokehouse of R. B. Bartges was destroyed by fire; the origin of the fire is unknown. Estella Auman will make her home with W. H. Sinkabine this summer.

GREGG TWP.

The taffy party at J. B. Ripka's was well attended on Monday night; there were about 30 present, all having a good time. D. D. Decker while chopping wood on Tuesday cut his foot. David Henry, Paul Wagner and J. B. Ripka are working for D. D. Decker. C. W. and A. S. Lingle, of Lemont, paid a visit to their parents here. The shooting match at Joe Solts was well attended, on Saturday. H. B. Wagner spent Saturday night at J. B. Ripka's. E. D. Faust began housekeeping on Thursday in the property purchased from J. K. Confer, and recently vacated by C. W. Lingle. J. B. Ripka and wife and Edward Decker spent Sunday at Mr. Matter's. W. W. Jamison has quite a lot of chemical wood ready for market. Mrs. Scott Decker and family, who were spending some time visiting at Mrs. Decker's parents. Harvey Vonada and wife left for their home in South Dakota, on Monday. The surprise party at Oliver Zettle's was well attended. Dr. Gentzel is tending a sick horse at W. W. Jamison's; W. O. Ripka also had a sick horse.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Elizabeth Breth, who has been employed at State College, spent a few days last week at her home here. Jim Wensel and Esther Woomey attended Local Institute that was held at Mt. Eagle, last Saturday. Mrs. Wm. Cox and son, Milford, made a business trip to Orvis last Saturday. Jacob Yarnell spent last Saturday at the home of his son, Ed. Heaton. Oscar Wensel, who has been employed at Nittany, has returned home. Elizabeth Breth held a party last Friday night in honor of the J. C. E.; all reported having a good time. Geo. Wensel and wife, of Mackeyville, spent Sunday at his home here. Erma and Lula Eckley, of Yarnell, attended church here Sunday afternoon.

CENTRAL BRUSH VALLEY.

J. W. and Harry Grenoble spent Sunday with C. E. Duck. Mrs. George Long met with an accident last week by stepping on a stone and slipping and breaking a bone in her leg. What has become of the West Brush valley scribe and the Green's scribe? They must have the mumps. Those who spent Sunday at the home of H. M. Wert, were: C. and John Wert, George E. and C. I. Grenoble, E. Phillips. Clarence Musser wears a smile of 10 feet since the arrival of a helper. The telephone line works. Isaac Smith is tearing his barn down and will remodel it. Mr. Schreckengast is doing the carpentering work.

MILESBURG.

Nannie Delaney attended the local teachers' institute held at Blanchard on Friday and Saturday last. Mida Bower, of Bellefonte, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. Albert Lucas. The borough schools were closed on last Friday, many pupils of the schools being out with the measles. Mrs. Charles Thomas, of Lewistown, Sundayed with her parents last week. Marie Confer, of Snow Shoe, was a recent visitor in the burg. Prof. S. M. Robb and wife attended teachers' local institute at Blanchard, Friday and Saturday last. W. T. Heaton is seriously ill with pneumonia.

GREGG TWP.

HOV'S SCHOOL DISTRICT. Olive and Annie Rachau, Charles Duck and Sidney Rish Sundayed at William Crater's. We are told by our exchange that there is a receiver down all night and most of the time in the daytime. If the parties are found out they will be sorry for it. Domino told us in last week's issue of a man who reminds us of mud—his name is Henry Clay. Oliver Rachau left this place on Monday for Wolf's Store, where he will work for W. E. Krebs.

FENN CAVE.

Isaac Smith moved into his new home, the Blueball property. Harvey Rote moved from the Wood farm to the Vonada farm. Those visiting at D. P. Ream's on Sunday were Perry Detwiler and wife, and sister, Mazie Detwiler. John Long intends to move to the Neighly farm. Samuel White was visiting friends at Axemans and Nittany valley. Daniel P. Ream is wearing a smile since Saturday. He says it's a boy.

WOODWARD.

C. D. Motz made a business trip to Bellefonte on last Saturday. Bessie VonNeida, after spending sometime with her parents and friends here, returned to Reading on last Monday. Mrs. Luther Hains spent Sunday with her parents near Sober. Quite a number from here attended the horse sale at Millheim. A. C. Schifer, of Lewisburg, was in town a few days last week. Mr. Tolbert, of Jersey Shore, formerly owner of the Motz and Stover farm, and Alfred Auman, of near Sober, were callers in town Saturday. The poles for the new Bell Telephone line are all up in town. Next will be the wires after which we can do our talking free. Nit. C. P. Sheesley spent a few days in Millheim last week. Mrs. Mary Vonada aged 87 years, died at her home on last Friday morning. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Garrett, were held in United Evangelical church last Monday morning. Joe Ard attended the horse sale at Millburg last Tuesday. A competitive examination under the rules of the U. S. Civil Service commission, will be held here on Saturday, March 27, 1909, for the position of fourth class postmaster, at Fiedler. Rules governing same can be seen at the Woodward postoffice.

LEMONT.

Mrs. Alice Williams returned from Altoona, Wednesday, where she had visited with her son. Christian Peterson and wife returned to Tottenville, N. Y., Thursday last week. There was one or more very cold days last week and about all the rest rain. Mrs. M. A. Dale's sale, Saturday, was well attended and everything brought what it was worth. George Edinger has been laid up with the grip this last week. David Houser is able to sit up in bed now and it is hoped will soon be able to be around again. D. A. Grove and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of No. 4, on Friday evening. Rev. and Mrs. Stonecypher visited Sunday afternoon and Monday with C. D. Houtz. Dr. W. H. Fry reports the horse at Roopsburg, that he had been caring for, that had lock-jaw, has pulled through all right and its jaws opened. The State Veterinary association will meet in Philadelphia this week and W. H. Fry will attend as secretary for the central part of the state. The Lutheran meeting at Shiloh closed Sunday but the Methodist in this place is still going on.

BOALSBURG.

I. M. Wieland spent a few days at Lebanon, as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Heilmann, who is in delicate health. Mrs. Elizabeth Kuhn, we are sorry to say, is on the sick list. The stork visited the home of Edward Lucas, one day last week, and left a nice little boy there. Mrs. Alice McGoffin returned home, after visiting a couple months with friends away. William Ramels, of Nebraska, is greeting old friends here, and at Shingle town, his former home, last week; his last visit here was about sixteen years ago. Ira Hess, of Altoona, spent a day in town calling on old friends. Oliver Gibboney, of Stonevalley, spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Dr. Kilder. Mervin Kuhn, of Rebersburg, spent several days with his parents here. Mary Reish is spending this week at Houserville. The moving picture show here, didn't prove a success. George Shugert is breaking ground for a new house, having bought a lot from the Sweeney farm adjoining the William Stover property.

NITTANY.

Hester Zerby spent several days at Mill Hall with her friend, Edith Kramer, recently. Mrs. S. C. Goble, of Endicot, N. Y., was visiting her many friends through here last week. Amanda Dorman visited friends in Lock Haven several days last week. Perry Webner visited his sister at Mill Hall, Mrs. Frank Emerick, who is very ill. Ex-sheriff Shaffer visited friends across the mountains several days last week. Verne Allison, who is attending the Lock Haven Normal, visited her many friends here, over Sunday. The Messers Guy Nolan and Charles Mauck were Mill Hall visitors one evening last week. There is a good deal of sickness through here. There was a birthday party held at the home of William Sheatz's one night last week, but owing to the inclement weather, there were not very many in attendance. Those who were there enjoyed themselves very much, especially when the ice cream and cake were served.

ROMOLA.

Mrs. Belle and daughter, Edith Robb, spent a few days of last week at Lock Haven. Some of our young folks attended the dance at Harry McKloskey's on Saturday night. W. K. Thompson's sale, on the W. D. Meyers place, was well attended on Saturday. The roads have commenced to get dried up pretty nicely. They have been in a very bad condition the last few weeks. David McKloskey is slowly improving. Thomas and Charles Fletcher, of Howard, were here on Sunday. James Shirk, of Gum Stump, spent Saturday and Sunday at D. R. Confer's. The Disciples put new carpet in the church last week. Mrs. Andrew Boone is on the sick list. Bert Faringer, Oscar Irvin, Lloyd and Sadie Weaver spent Friday evening at Chas. Baker's; all report having enjoyed the music on the graphophone.

WINGATE.

Mud and lanterns were two of the most plentiful things here, last week. Martin Harnish, P. R. R. round-house foreman, at Tyrone, spent Monday visiting among relatives and friends here. Clark Warner spent Monday at his parents, here. P. G. Murray was a business caller at Tyrone, Tuesday. James Fisher and wife, of Loveville, also Mrs. Harry Hesser, of Tyrone, spent Tuesday here at the home of Ezra Fisher. Watch for signs, is a slogan, here. David Wyland, of Tyrone, was a Wingate visitor Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Murray left Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Hipple, at Ellensburg. Jack Barnhart, of Curtin, was a caller at Eli Stere's, Friday. Ryland Summers and wife have returned to their home at Tyrone, after a pleasant visit among friends here. Call again, as your welcome is only exceeded by your presence. The many friends of A. G. Hill, formerly the comical P. R. R. operator here, will regret his resignation and departure for Syracuse, N. Y., where he will be employed as sub-station ticket agent. Arie Simler and friend, Nellie Rathmell, were Wingate visitors Friday, enroute to Philipsburg. Rose Warner left Saturday singing, "I Don't Know Where I'm Going But I'm On My Way."

The Wingate barber shop was crowded Saturday, Henry having a very busy day. Jane Warner, of Bellefonte, spent Thursday here, with her parents. Mickey Flynn is filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of A. G. Hill. Welcome in our midst, Mickey. Mrs. Claud Summers spent last week at Zion. The sick list which comprises Dora and Russell Lucas, also John Haines and wife are much improved. Viola Summers left Sunday to visit among friends at Tyrone and vicinity. Toner and Mary Fetzer have returned home from a very pleasant trip to Bellwood and Altoona. "I'm Afraid To Go Home In The Dark" was an excuse offered by a young lady on Sunday. Rev. Edward Wyland, who met with the mishap at Milesburg, where he received one broken and one fractured rib, was a Wingate visitor Friday, enroute to Snowshoe. The Rev. said we all have our misfortunes, but I got mine boys. Farewell Teddy—Hello Bill.

RUNVILLE.

L. J. Heaton returned home after a two-weeks' visit in Altoona. Mrs. A. A. Bedient and three children, of Oak Hall, accompanied by Mrs. Bedient, of Corning, N. Y., Sundayed at E. Poorman's. Margery Eckley, of Bush Hollow, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jacob Lucas. Mr. Clayton, wife and two children, Darwin and Ida, Sundayed with Carl Poorman at Summer's Improvement. Clayton Watson, of Clarence, spent a few days at John Walker's. Anyone wishing a first class house-keeper, please call on Wm. H. Lucas, the corner of 23 Easy street and Skiddo Ave. Ellis Pownell, of Yarnell, has secured the position as operator and Malcom Poorman as ticket agent, at School House crossing. D. F. Poorman attended the supper held at the grange Hall in Milesburg, Saturday evening. Jesse Larson, of Bell Grove, has secured the position as night watchman at John Walker's. Lucy Spotts, of Bellefonte, also Miss Miller spent Monday at W. T. Shirk's. Mrs. Ida Poorman was called to Snow Show to see her grandchildren, who are on the sick list. Wm. Kesling's smiling face was seen on our streets Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Elizabeth Fetzer and son, Roy, of Bell Grove, visited her daughter, Mrs. Alice Walker, one day last week. Asbury Fletcher spent Sunday at Philipsburg. Geo. Musser visited our school on last Thursday. Mrs. Mary Hancock returned home on Sunday evening after spending a week in Philipsburg. Sue McLaughlin, of Wingate, has returned to their home. Fred Waite and wife, of Oak Hall, were Sunday visitors at Mrs. Jane Lucas's.

That some of the young ladies in Bellefonte would enjoy a ride behind that beautiful span of black horses driven by Andrew Shivery in the milk wagon, even if they did run away on Friday. That's what the girls would like, because it would become necessary for Andrew to put his big, strong arms around them and hold the little creatures. That would be a cinch.

ORVIS.

Miss Katie Casher, of Snow Shoe, was a visitor at Martin Thompson's. Chicken pox has taken great hold on our town, 16 cases reported so far. A cow belonging to Asa Nelson was badly bitten by a strange dog last week. Alva Confer and sister Maude spent a few days with their brother, Jacob Confer, of Romola. Do not forget the services at the Church of Christ, Sunday March 7th, Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Young Peoples meeting at 7:30 p. m. Everybody welcome. John Haines entertained a crowd of his friends with his new phonograph which they say is a dandy, and greatly enjoyed the evening. James Osborne, who has been on the sick list, is able to work again. Claude Lucas, of Marsh Creek, was a visitor at the home of his brother-in-law, A. A. Miller. Kitty and Lou Kelsey spent Sunday with their parents Oliver Kelsey's, of Flemington. C. W. Fillman, of Jersey Shore, operator at Hayes station, on the sick list for the last week, has returned to work. Mrs. John Fisher, Mill Hall, is visiting her parents, W. W. Barnheart's. Mrs. Anna Long, of Marsh Creek, is visiting her daughter Mrs. James Heverly. Corl Brown spent Sunday at Lock Haven. Bert Morgert, who was operated on for appendicitis at Lock Haven hospital, has returned home and is getting along nicely. Charles Hall and wife, of Johnstown, are visiting at this place. Many of our scholars are absent on account of the chicken pox. Mrs. Emory Moyer, who has been very sick, is some better. A. A. Miller has purchased the large flock of chickens belonging to John Howard. Mrs. John Anderson, who has been suffering with a sore arm, is some better. Martin Thompson and wife entertained quite a number of their friends at their home in Cottageville, Saturday evening. Bion T. Nelson had a valuable dog poisoned last week. The chicken thieves are still roving the vicinity of Orvis—so be careful. H. B. Bixel, of Bethany College, W. Va., preached here Tuesday evening, and had a good sized audience. The brick business is picking up; everybody is kept busy. Jared Allison Welsh spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Welsh, at Lock Haven. Edward Bierley, of Youngdale, spent Sunday at Orvis. Chris B. Page is again in the picture business. The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson is on the sick list. Everybody welcome at Christian Endeavor, Sunday evening. N. W. Mower, of Watsonstown, was a visitor at Geo. Bixel's, his brother-in-law. Essie Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gray, who had been very sick, is able to be around again. John A. Mann is on the sick list. Roy Reynolds, who has been sick for several days has returned to work. Gertrude Council, of Romola, is visiting her relatives D. R. Confer's.

SMULLTON.

The last Friday of February, if it is to rule the month of March, as the old saying goes, will make it an agreeable one. Moving day will soon be here and quite a lot of changes will be made here. Newton Brungard recently bought the Ruben Smull property, north of town, the finest farm location in Brush valley. S. A. Walizer, who has been confined to the house the greater part of the winter, is, we are glad to say, again able to be out. Clayton Winters recently bought a new organ from C. E. Zeigler, of Spring Mills. H. H. Stover has put an addition to his studio, in which he expects to put up his printing press, and thus make better room for the post office, which was moved to his place of business on the 10th of February. Clyde Waite will move to Freeburg on the 9th. Post cards of all kind at the post office. There will be three new phones installed in this town this week. Geo. H. Small, W. M. Bierly, and H. H. Stover are the contracting parties. Rev. Lantz of the Methodist church, will preach here twice yet before conference, which convenes at Harrisburg March the 24. N. A. Brungard expects to have his saw-mill east of town in operation within a few days. The Saints had prayer meeting in their tabernacle here on Sunday afternoon. They expect to have Rev. Drew to be back to preach for them again in a week or so. T. D. Stover has purchased the Newton Brungard property here, and expects to move in the same by fall. A. E. Strayer is busy taking orders for wall paper, in which work he is busy during the summer months.

PENN TWP.

SMITHSTOWN. Emanuel Confer's sale was well attended; all things brought fair prices.

H. B. Frankenberger also Orlando Hackenberg, from this district, attended court at Bellefonte as traverse jurors. W. H. Musser sold his big team of horses last week. Lewis Rossman sold one of his horses last week. G. W. Frankenberger's salesman for the Walter A. Wood farm machinery, spent Monday at Bellefonte, on business.

That there is one thing that has been thoroughly demonstrated in Bellefonte, is, that politics and religion, like water and oil, will not mix worth a—

CONGO ROOFING advertisement with image of a man roofing and text describing the product's durability.

For Lame Back advertisement featuring an illustration of a man in pain and text describing Sloan's Liniment.

Sloan's Liniment advertisement with detailed text about its benefits for rheumatism and muscle pain, and a small portrait of Dr. Earl S. Sloan.

FREE FROM SMOKE AND ODOR advertisement for Family Favorite Lamp Oil, featuring an illustration of a lamp.

Prof. Angel Eyesight Specialist advertisement with text about eye examinations and services.

Will YOU Succeed or Fail? advertisement for Bellefonte Trust Co., featuring an illustration of the building and text about financial services.