—Richard Quigley, brother of H. C. Quigley, Esq., of Bellefonte, who for some time past had been living in Pittsburgh, has decided to return to Lock Haven where Mr. Quigley will be associated with his brother-in-law, Calvin Armstrong, in the sale of petroleum and its products.

—Nelson K. Malbot, who during the winter had been the successful physical director at the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., has resigned and gone to his home at Buffalo, N. Y. While here he conducted himself in a gentlemanly manner and made hosts of friends who were sorry to see him go.

—James B. Stroh, of Centre Hall, who became deputy sheriff of Centre county on Thursday, has decided not to move to Bellefonte. His family will move into the house which was purchased by them recently, and Mr. Stroh will go to and from Bellefonte every Monday and Saturday.

—The First Methodist Episcopal church of York has asked for the return of the Rev. J. Ellis Bell as pastor for another year. Rev. Bell was formerly Presiding Elder of the Altoona district and is well and favorably known in Bellefonte. He is one of the oldest and most popular ministers in the conference.

—Dr. S. M. Nissley, veterinary surgeon, of Bellefonte, made a few trips recently to the E. M. Huyett farm, west of Centre Hall, superintended by P. H. Luse, on account of a brood mare becoming sick. —For some time U. H. Reamer, conductor on the Lewisburg and Tyrone division of the P. R. R. has been in ill health. Recently he left Bellefonte for Clifton Springs, N. Y., to consult a specialist in reference to his case. From there he went to Williamsport where he met his wife and this week they continued their journey to Birmingham, where they expect to remain for about four weeks. It is to be hoped that Mr. Reamer will be benefited by the trip.

—Notwithstanding Friday is considered an unlucky day Wilson Gephart left Bellefonte for Oklahoma to make his fortune. He says he is going to make it if he has to bust his suspenders to accomplish his purpose. He has the snap and if he can't make money in the oil business he will get on a bronco and become a cowboy. He is a good fellow, and wherever his lot is cast he will find friends. Being a jolly good fellow his place here among a large circle of friends will be difficult to fill.

—Monday "Kid" Pilkinton, the famous boxer from Du Bois, gave this office a call. He is the young fellow who had the glove contest with Lucas, at Snow Shoe several weeks ago. While he is a lightweight he is as active and alert as a kitten, and looks as if he could crawl the frame of a pretty large man. He left here for Snow Shoe to arrange for another bout on St. Patrick's day, Wednesday evening March 17. His opponent at that time will be either Abner or Kephart, two well known boxers. Either of them will make a fast opponent for the young athlete from DuBois. The contest will, of course, be a good one, especially for points. He has arranged for a bout in Williamsport on the 25th. Before leaving he stated we should put in a challenge to any one in Centre county at 118 pounds for a 10 round glove contest. Now is the chance for the fellow in Bellefonte or Centre county who is always carrying a chip on his shoulder.

—In the absence of Prof. Hall on Sabbath Miss Cecie Williams played the large pipe organ in the Presbyterian church and did it with considerable accuracy. She was a pupil of Miss Mary Bradley.

—Saturday night a strange negro came to Bellefonte who did not look very good to our policemen. Rather than run the risk of having any trouble with him he was put in the lock-up until Sunday morning when he was given a certain time to leave the town. He left without any further ceremony.

—Edward J. Teaman, who occupies the property on North Penn street purchased some time ago by E. C. Tuten, has bought the W. R. Shope property on Reynolds Avenue, and will take possession the first of April. Herman K. Miller, who occupies the Shope property, will take the James K. Barnhart home on north Thomas street.

—On Saturday night William Reed and his son, Boyd, had a fracas on the street. It started in front of The Scenic and wound up near the Centre county Bank building. The result was that they both were placed in the lock-up. It was a nice scene too, for our young people see a father and son chewing the rag on the street, and almost coming to blows.

—Randolph Breeze, nephew of Mrs. Harris, wife of Dr. George F. Harris, formerly assistant master mechanic of the Pennsylvania lines West of Ft. Wayne, Ind., has received a well earned promotion. Randolph has visited frequently in Bellefonte and his many friends here will be glad to hear of his rapid advancement in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

—Here's a pointer for Burgess-elect John J. Bower, of Bellefonte. Huntingdon's new mayor, R. W. Jacobs, has started on a new plan to push offenders brought before him as besides imposing fines, or when they fail to pay their fine for disorderly conduct and similar offenses, he compels them to work out sentences by cleaning the streets. That's the way to put the cleaner on the boys as well as on the streets.

—Snyder Tate and Bert Taylor, of the Bellefonte ice dealers, will be up against the real thing this summer when it comes to supplying their patrons with that commodity. They didn't get harvested one fourth of the amount that is required to supply the regular demand. It takes about $12,000 to put in an artificial plant and it is a question whether an investment of such a large outlay would pay in a town the size of Bellefonte. What are we going to do? Do without.

—Monday Mrs. John Olewine left for North Carolina, the land of sunshine and flowers. She joined her husband this week at Asheville where he has been rusticated for the last ten weeks for the benefit of his health. It will not only be a delightful trip for Mrs. Olewine but it will increase the pleasure of Mr. Olewine about fifty per cent. Her brother, Linn, and his family are also down there, and together they will have an enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Olewine expect to return on April 1st.

—In noting the improvements in Bellefonte we neglected to say something about the pretty and comfortable home of Ex-sheriff Woodring on Howard street. It has been painted white, with green trimmings, which sets it off to good effect.

—The vaudeville at the Electric is as follows: Reiff and Claton, in refined comedy, and rope dancing, with change of act each night. Ada LeMar, in refined singing and dancing. Lockey and his friends, in the best so far vaudeville season. Saturday matinee only 5 cents to all.

—You will find the opening announcement for Kline's new shoe store, in another part of this issue. While March 15th was set for the opening day, a delay in the arrival of some stock made it necessary for them to extend the opening from Monday to Saturday of next week, when their stock will be complete.

—Captain Robert F. Hunter, adjutant of the Fifth Regiment, N. G. P. left Monday evening en route to Huntingdon where he held a preliminary inspection of Company A. Captain Hunter will inspect most of the companies in the regiment before the annual inspection which takes place the latter part of this month.

—The announcement that the work on the enlargement of the Avis shops of the New York Central railroad is to be begun on April first was interesting news to the people of Jersey Shore, Friday. Public interest impels the hope that the proposed change will mean the employment of a still larger number of men than now.

—Jessie Derstine, one of the obliging clerks in the P. R. R. freight depot, Bellefonte, left town on Wednesday and before getting on to train some of his friends offered him their heartiest congratulations. There may be some special significance in utterances of this character, and thus if there is anything doing along the line of matrimony we extend our hand.

—Wednesday morning Benj. Gentzell, of Bellefonte, shipped the third car of horses to W. C. Walter, at West Chester. This was one of the finest lot of horses ever sent from the county.

—Among them was a team from the Fusi Supply company. This makes the third car load within six weeks. Mr. Gentzell says he will ship another car load in about two weeks. If you have any to sell see Mr. Gentzell.

—Keep your eye on the Scenic from this time on, because Manager Brown has his eye on some extra fine pictures that will be shown there in the near future. Of course all the pictures are up-to-date, but the ones we are speaking of now are something extra fine. Those who do not attend right along will certainly miss the coming treat. Remember that these entertainments are clean and wholesome and are giving the best of satisfaction. Mrs. Florence Tullen will continue to please the people with her excellent voice.

—Owing to the week's stand of Howell Keith Stock Co., last week at Garman's opera house the regular moving picture show and the vaudeville were cut out. This week it started again with new and special features. The vaudeville acts this week are among the best ever presented here, and still there are even greater things to follow.

—George Norman, has secured some of the best attractions on the road which insures an entertainment worth four or five times the admission of 5 cents. To-night there will be a complete change of program.

—To stimulate a little activity in sports basket ball league has been organized in the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. Two games will be played each week, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. An admission of 10 cents will be charged. The teams are as follows: The first named on each team being the captain; No. 1—Mona, Olewine, E. Hollabagh, Shields and Willard; No. 2—Lamb, Bair, Dickinson, Kirk, J. Wallace, No. 3—Keichline, Gamble, Morgan, Barnes and I. Walker; No. 4—M. Walker, Mabius, D. Wallace, H. Hollabagh, Beaser. These games will be interesting and should be liberally patronized by our sports.

—Remor has it that John A. Daley, one of the most popular residents of Centre county, is seriously ill at his home in Curtin township. During the war a bullet grazed his cheek making simply a scar wound. It refused to heal permanently but for thirty years or more it practically gave him no trouble until within the last year, when the sore partook of a cancerous nature, and he was compelled to have it treated. The indication, at first, was that a cure would be effected, but later developments have proven the case to be a very contumacious one, unwilling to yield to any treatment. The growth is causing him excruciating pain and is gradually working up toward the eye. It is to be hoped, however, that he may yet find something that will stop the ravages of the disease and alleviate his sufferings.

—Mrs. Daley was always a genial, whole-souled gentleman who left the imprint of his bright and cheerful life upon all with whom he came in contact, and his frequent visits to Bellefonte were always a tonic to the man with the blues. He was also an inspiration to the G. A. R. gatherings held throughout the county, where now his presence is greatly missed.

—In one month, Thursday, April 15th, the trout fishing season will open in Pennsylvania. The drought last fall was unfavorable, as many small streams were so low as to cause the death of the speckled beauties.

—The sale of horses, vehicles, harness, etc., at the Hagg House, on Friday, will attract the attention of horsemen, and others as there is a large list of articles. You will find a full list on page 3 of this issue.

—On Tuesday evening the moving pictures at the Scenic were simply magnificent. They came within an ace of being the finest ever shown in Bellefonte. They were dandies—everybody speaking in the highest terms.

—The wife of "Bobby" Fry, of Bellefonte, presented him with a son the other day. They say the little fellow was about twenty-five years getting here, but Papa thinks he's little dandy, notwithstanding his long trip. A baby every quarter of a century ought to be appreciated.

—The student from State College who came to Bellefonte Tuesday evening for the purpose of making "goo-goo-eyes" at the chorus girls on the stage, at Garman's opera house, got it where the chicken got the axe. It will be an evening in his career that he will not soon forget. There is nothing that beats being a gentleman.

—Prof. James Hughes was in New York part of last week. We do not know the exact business, but according to a recent conversation we suppose he was going ahead making arrangements to leave Bellefonte. We understand he has been offered several flattering positions.
