EDITORIAL.

THE "PROSPERITY" train has been wrecked somewhere—no word since March 4th. Millions were ready—and yet are—to get on board for a trip to "Prosperity" but have given up all hope of joining the excursion.

Use of rotten eggs in food or their sale for that purpose is now a misdemeanor in Pennsylvania, punished by heavy fine or imprisonment, Governor Stuart having signed the bill to put an end to the sickening business.

WE now have the cheering (?) news from Washington that the government will be under the necessity of issuing bonds for $135,000,000 to make up for government expenses.

THE ITEM most prominent with the stand-patters in congress, towards a lowering of the robber tariff, is to put four cents more per pound on coffee.

THE Hon J. C. Meyer informs us that he did not invite the Editor-Postmaster, of Bellefonte, to appear before the game commission, at Harrisburg, because he had no authority to do so.

SOBER.

L. P. Smith made a business trip to Lewisburg one day last week. Sadie Breen was a pleasant caller at A. Confer's, on Saturday.

Kathryn Stover spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Walker, at Spring Mills.

C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg, John Ebert Nora Zerby and Rosie Gentzel, were welcome callers at U. G. Auman's, on Saturday.

Nora Zerby spent Thursday at Centre Hall.

Furl Auman and Little Wolf attended the sale at Coburn, on Friday.

Mrs. Benj. Breen went to Millmont where she expects to spend a couple weeks.

Ches. Lingle was a pleasant caller at Nora Zerby's, on Friday.

The callers at U. G. Auman's, on Sunday were, Auman Snyder wife and daughter, H. V. Gentzel and sons, Orvis and Jacob, Nora Zerby and daughter, Tilly, and also Little Wolfe.

Mrs. Howard Eisenhuth was a caller at J. J. Gentzel's, on Friday.

John Eisenhuth, of Lemont, spent a couple days at Howard Eisenhuth's.

WEDDINGS.

KALER-SMITH

Hugh Kaler, of Blanchard, and Mrs. Smith, widow of Wert Smith, of Salona, were quietly married at Smulton Sunday, February 28.

Wednesday of last week at high noon Miss Margaret Keichline and Alfred Bowersox, of Pine Grove Mills, were united in marriage by the Rev. A. A. Black, at the residence of the bride, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by her sister, Gertrude. The decorations were beautiful. The bride, who is an accomplished and well known young lady, is the daughter of G. W. Keichline, of Pine Grove Mills. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox.

The young couple will be at home to their legion of friends, after April 1, at the Bowersox farm, which the groom will till next season.

It is given out that Dr. Kalbfus has started an Ananias club, and made his first entry from Bellefonte.

Ladies' Russia calf button shoes $3. At Yeagers.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Why pay $1.25 when you can get more for $1.00?

Daniel Rearrick has moved from Be-nore to Millmont.

The Junior class of Waddle school held a banquet on March 15, 1909.

Jos. W. Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, sold his farm in Brush Valley to Earn Stover, of Aaronsburg. Consideration $5700.

The annual Sunday School convention of Centre county, will be held in Philipsburg, May 27 and 28th, 1909. W. H. Schuyler, Sec.

Miss Rosie Kritzer, who for several years has been at the Old Fort hotel, is now at the home of William Bradford, near the Old Fort.

John Liggett, of Beech Creek, was last week appointed a notary public by Governor Stuart and has already received his commission.

Emerson Weiser, who about a year ago left Millheim for Colorado, returned home Thursday. The climate did not agree with him and he was compelled to return.

Mrs. George Williams, accompanied by her two little daughters, of Howard, have been guests of Mrs. Williams, parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Sechrist, at Centre Hall.

From various sections of the county we have reports that live stock and farm implements are bringing good prices at the public sales now going in all parts of the county.

Charles Harrison has sold his restaurant, at State College, to Messrs. Hosterman and Mingle, who hail from Aaronsburg and Woodward. Possession will be given April 4.

J. D. Keen sold the house and lot in the rear of the United Evangelical church, known as the Mary Garsting property, at Millheim, to Mrs. W. J. Chrossell, consideration $300.

The B. Y. P. U. society of the Milesburg Baptist church, will hold a recital in "Wetzler's hall," Friday evening, March 26, 1909. The public is cordially invited. Admission 10 and 15c.

The new tenant on the Harry Shirk farm, near Centre Hill, is John H. Wiser, who moved to that place recently from Altoona. He is a young man, a brother of Edward S. Wiser, east of Old Fort.

The home of E. R. Hancock on Second street, Philipsburg, was the scene of a delightful party, given Thursday night, by the Senior class of South Philipsburg grammar school, in honor of their teacher, Miss Grace A. Vallimont.

Israel W. Nieman, formerly of Millheim, has disposed of his clothing store at Loganton, to L. Freedman, of Lock Haven, who will take possession on March 20. Mr. Nieman will go to Benton, Pa., where he will take charge of a large store.

Charles W. Slack and family, have moved from the Old Fort to the Rover farm, east of Centre Hill. He will be obliged to buy an entire outfit for farming, having sold his interest in the stock on the Bradford farm to his successor, George Earhart.

Ground has been broken for an addition to the First National bank building at State College. A plot of ground on the east side of the building has been purchased from Miss Hunter for $1,000. The bank has outgrown its present quarters and it was necessary to secure additional ground at once.

Philipsburg is rejoicing over the discovery of a new vein of coal in a local mine—a fact which assures many additional years of prosperity and activity in the bituminous industry there. Philipsburg is well supplied with men of the push and go-ahead stamp such as are a blessing to any town.

On Saturday H. L. Truckenmiller had sale of all his personal effects near Zion and this week with his family he starts for Wenatchee, Wash., where he will locate permanently and engage in farming. For some years he successfully engaged in truck farming and will follow the same line on the Pacific slope.

The Emanuel White farm, known also as the Blue Ball farm, was sold recently to Isaac Smith, of near Madisonburg. Mr. Smith moved into the White house, near Penn Cave, and Mr. White and son John B. White, occupy the farm house, and will conduct the farm for at least another year.

John W. Hubler, one of College township's young farmers, who is having sale of a fine lot of live stock and farm implements, will move to State College in the spring and begin the erection of a new home in that town. Mr. Hubler has been a victim of a severe attack of rheumatism that makes it impossible to continue farm work.

G. A. Bierly, the blacksmith, of Greene township, Clinton county, Thursday moved his shop, which is 20x30 in size, to Loganton, where he will hereafter be located. The building was placed on two heavy wagon trucks and was hauled the entire distance of three miles, by 12 horses and a traction engine, without the least mishap.

The grandstand on the old Beaver field, at State College, is being moved to the new athletic field. When in place it will have on either side long bleachers, which will give a seating capacity of 1,200. New bleachers, having a seating capacity of 800, will be built on the baseball diamond. At the southern end of the field will be 16 tennis courts. Arrangements are afoot for dedicating the field.

An effort is being made by interested parties in that vicinity, to raise by subscription a fund to provide for the re-grading and relaying of the old stone walk from Beech Creek to Blanchard. This walk has been constantly in use for many years and is now in very bad condition, wherefor it is proposed to have the community join in the work of re-grading and relaying the same, which will be a benefit to many persons through out the year to come.

On Thursday night of last week, the 11th inst., a party of about 25 relatives and friends, gave Mr. Joseph Funk, at Centre, quite a surprise, upon the event of his 72nd birthday. He knew nothing of it until they came into the room in which he was quietly spending the evening. About 10 o'clock a sumptuous supper was prepared by the ladies of the party. All fareo well and had a delightful time. Both before and after supper some special music was rendered by the party, upon the request of Mr. Funk, who is a lover of sacred music, a consistent member and class leader in the Methodist Episcopal church, and a G. A. R. man. All hope that he may be favored with many returns of the day.

REBERSBURG.

Winter has only a few more days to make up for time lost this season. Brrr-r!

The last few meetings of banking efforts in our town, consisted of night sessions and filibusters.

The cat-that-ate-the-canary smile belongs to Thurston Diehl.

Levi Fulmer, our wagon builder, had been to Lewisport several days visiting his son, who is a locomotive engineer on the Pennsylvania R. R.

Mervin Kuhns has been to Boalsburg looking after his prospective home for the near future.

Samuel Bierly is housed up with tonsillitis.

Our hustling agent, Clark Gramley, has been to the state capital looking after automobile inducements.

Charles Heller made a flying trip to Lock Haven and Williamsport.

Mrs. Sallie Ocker, of Pittsburg, is at present the house guest of Mrs. Annie Walker.

C. O. Mallory and wife returned from Pittsburg on last Thursday and expect to remain here during the summer.

Will the nominations to the Ananias club close permanently while Roosevelt is facing the queer jungle beasts of South Africa? If so, Liar-shrieking will be attended with personal risk and responsibility.

Ed. Small, the genial merchant of Smulton, who provided the comforts of life to the people of that town and vicinity for four years or more, sold his merchandising emporium to John Meyer, of Millheim, who will conduct and run a general store. The store is in charge of Mr. Small until Meyer moves.

The sale of Manasses Gilbert, three miles east of town, was well attended, prices good.

Rev. L. A. Miller, who is ministering to the people of that town and vicinity for four years or more, sold his merchandising emporium to John Meyer, of Millheim, who will conduct and run a general store. The store is in charge of Mr. Small until Meyer moves.

An exciting runaway occurred on last Friday morning. Rev. Snyder hitched a horse which had been attached to a buggy to a post in front of the parsonage; the horse became frightened broke the bridle, dashed madly through town, several times nearly colliding with vehicles on the road. The horse was caught by J. J. Shultz at Spring Bank. Very little damage having occurred. The horse and buggy belonged to Jonathan Spangler.

Hoa. Henry Meyer and his estimable wife returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., where they spent two months with their son-in-law, and also noticed the vaudeville element in political life in Washington run riot, during the inaugural ceremonies. The fact that Mr. Meyer is neither by person nor temperament inclined to such things, but rather to have every thing in proper bounds of decorum and simplicity, we wonder how he enjoyed the frothy element of our national life's show?

Rev. S. A. Snyder of the U. E. church after being an acceptable pastor the time limit of the annual conference, has been elected at Centre Hall. The people of Centre Hall are to be congratulated. Conference ordained Rev. McLaughlin for U. E. church of Rebersburg.

Rev. Haney has been returned to his charge by the Ev. Association Conference held at Norristown.

John Meyer and family, of Spring Mills, Sunday at the home of Mrs. Cornelius Stover.

MOSHANNON.

Clementine Creamer, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Harry Hoover, at Pine Glenn, returned home on Thursday.

Mrs. Jennie Hinton, of Altoona, and Mrs. Mary Reiter, of Harrisburg, are visiting their father, Mr. Howard, who is very ill.

Rita Lucas is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. L. Zimmerman, at Altoona.

Master Daniel Kerin has been slightly ill the past week.

Mrs. James Diem is very ill with appendicitis.

Emory Barzer and Bruce Culver attended Literary at Snow Shoe on Friday evening. What is the attraction boys?

The festival at "Sunshine Cottage," on Saturday night, was well attended; a number of young folks from Pine Glenn were there. Come again boys and girls we are glad to see you.

Edith Quick has been staying at the Beightel home at Lodebar the past few weeks.

Mrs. Brady Beightel, who has been sick at her daughter's, Mrs. Alma Bierly, at Jersey Shore, has returned home somewhat better.

Rev. Kelsey will preach his last sermon, before going to conference, on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, in the M. E. church.

Miss Dingy is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grover Duck.

Clinton Cramer has been housed up the last few days with a cold. We are glad to say that aunt Rachel is feeling better again.

WOODWARD.

The sale of old Mrs. Mary Vonada, dec'd, was well attended; things all brought fair prices, especially some old glassware, as two plates were sold for $4.05, one brought $3.00, the other $1.05 and a cup and saucer was sold for $3.75.

Mrs. T. H. Motz and daughter Lodie, visited at W. E. Hosterman's on Sunday.

Those who visited at D. G. Mingle's on Sunday were S. C. Mingle and family and Jacob Wanta, of Aaronsburg; and W. E. Breen and family, of Pine Creek.

I. M. Smith and family Sunday at Wm. Burd's along the summer mountain.

Uncle Mike seems to be real young since he has two young girls to work for him.

William Fleisher Hurt.

The Lewisport Democrat and Sentinel has this to say of William Fleisher, who is a son of Thomas Fleisher, of Colyer:

Wm. Fleisher, the Mann avenue tea agent, met with an accident the other evening. He hooked up his horse in a wagon to go down to a stable in Yeagerstown where he has hay stored and, while leading his horse, it became unmanageable and tore loose from him, the wagon passing over Mr. Fleisher's chest. He was picked up and carried into his house and a physician summoned, when it was found that one rib was fractured and his body badly bruised. The horse ran some distance when the wagon caught on a board fence where the animal freed himself from the wagon. He then ran on down the pike where he was captured shortly afterwards and brought back to Mr. Fleisher. Money refunded if it fails to relieve. At Krumrine's Drug store.

UNIONVILLE.

There will be a public sale, at the residence of the late B. F. Leathers, on Saturday next at 1 o'clock p. m., consisting of carpenter tools, and household and kitchen furniture.

Harry M. Stere says the next time he goes to a presidential inauguration he will wait till the weather settles. He went to the Taft inauguration but got "stuck" at Baltimore and now he thinks it would have been a good job if Bryan had been elected.

Ed. Griest and his other half, of Philipsburg, Sunday with friends in town.

Joe Stover and family, of Tyrone, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Stover's mother.

James Brown, who lives on the Stover farm, is ready to tackle the spring plowing. By the way, Jim is one of the best farmers in the county.

I noticed in last week's Centre Democrat, a challenge from "Kid Pilkerton," the famous puglist, who a few weeks ago so effectively settled Mr. Lucas's coffee. Now if the "kid" will put up sufficient guarantee that his friends or relatives will not bring an accusation of murder against me, I will meet him in the ring for one round. It is all he'll want. I refer him to Dr. Neff, Bob Gilliland, John Kelley, Jim Uzzle and others.

The tall, handsome, jolly, good-natured, inevitable John Q. Miles, dropped in on us the other day looking, if possible, handsomer than ever, except that his face betrayed a sort of a hungry look; but John declared his appetite had been thoroughly appeased and he emphatically refused and proffered "hand-out."

There are 117 copies of the Centre Democrat come to this office weekly. How's that for "Way up in G"?

Among the sleek, sly citizens of our town is Mrs. Allie Cadwallader Richie. On last Saturday evening a genteel, handsome young man of Philadelphia dropped off the p. m. train, made a straight push for the Cadwallader home and then, armed with the proper credentials, accompanied by Mrs. Richie, they marched to the office of the Hon. Chief Justice Riley Pratt, who, in the presence of a few friends went over a certain harjunge, at the close of which he said "I pronounce you man and wife."

The gentleman's name is Lawrence DeBayare. They will make their home in Baltimore. That was real sly, Allie, but you deprived the boys of a lot of fun—and a treat.

Then comes George Fisher; now what did I tell you last week. George thought he was sly, too, but it leaked out and our boys were simply "resting on their oars" till the opportunity time would arrive. It arrove on Saturday night, and such a bedlam and racket as those kids kept up for nearly an hour would put to shame the war shrieks of a thousand Comanche indians. You see, on Wednesday, George went to Bellefonte and procured his marriage license—and on his return in the evening I met him coming from the station and, Oh, Gee! didn't he look innocent.—but George, your guilty countenance betrayed you. Next day he bounced the 1.30 p. m. train and landed at Fort Matilda. From thence he was conveyed to Stormstown, where at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Ward, he was happily united in holy wedlock to Mrs. Belle Ward Dumaire, by the Rev. Franks. A number of friends and relatives of the bride being present. Both contracting parties having been married before, are satisfied that "Marriage is not a failure." Both being comparatively young, we hope and wish they may live to enjoy many years of connubial bliss.

ROMOLA.

David Confer and daughter Katherine, of Orvis spent a few days here.

E. B. Confer has had hard work trying to secure a helper for his brother Toner to build a barn on his place beside the store.

Peter Robb, Jr., will move his household goods to Howard on 23rd; Jacob Confer, of Mt. Eagle, will occupy the farm when vacated by Peter Robb. We all wish Robb success in the bakery vacated by Mr. Williams.

Harvey Weaver is now setting up the cigars to the men and boys of this place. This is an example of a green dandelioner in last week's issue we saw in the latter part of the Romola items on the last page, about those two boys taking the pleasure trip. They said "We were on a trip for work not for pleasure, and we didn't enjoy it much either. We did not take in Clearfield or Tyrone and only went through Philipsburg on the passenger." Now the writer of that piece didn't know much about it.

Roy Confer is able to walk around again as his cut foot is almost healed.

Mrs. T. S. DeLong, and young friend, of Beech Creek, were seen here on Sunday.

It was pretty windy on Sunday. It wasn't hot air either.

Joe Poorman and son Frank were seen peeling paper wood for Joseph Council a few days last week.

Howard Baker is around again after an attack of pneumonia.

Our school teacher took ill on Friday afternoon and had to dismiss school a little before the regular time.

Mrs. Andrew Boone has been seriously ill for the last few weeks and is not improving much.

ROMOLA NO. 2.

Margaret Bowes, who has been visiting at Hecla and Howard, has returned home.

H. S. DeLong spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. N. J. Wilson, at Warriors Mark.

Toner Robb and family have moved into their home at Robbs Store. The house is undergoing extensive repairing.

The Grange meeting Saturday afternoon at Robbs Store, was well attended.

The dance at the home of John Cornman last week, was well attended.

Lee Markle went to Glen Harris last week, and he is greatly missed by certain young people—wonder who?

We have quite a large sick list this week: Mrs. Andrew Boone is seriously ill at her home; Chester Brickley, who has been ill with pneumonia, is improving; David McCloskey, after a serious illness, is again able to be about, and Howard Baker is improving after a severe attack of pneumonia.

David Confer, of Orvis, was in our midst Saturday.

To cure a cough or cold in one day take Krumrine's White Pine and Tar. It stops the tickling in the throat and allays the irritation promptly. One bottle should always be kept on hand, as it takes but half as long to cure a cough or cold when taken in time. Money refunded if it fails to relieve. At Krumrine's Drug store.

At the March term of court in Lewisburg the grand jury ignored the bill against J. O. March, of Pottstown, charged with shooting a doe last fall near Brushvalley narrows, by Joseph Berrier, state game protector.

Two Ways of Doing

In days ago, a builder dealt with a dozen different supply houses. He bought his brick and stone here, lumber there, glass elsewhere, and nails and bolts round the corner.

A building that didn't "jibe" was the usual result, but no one person could be blamed for it or held responsible.

In THESE days Mr. Builder does it differently. He makes his plans, orders everything from one complete supply house, and when the material comes, IT SUITS.

And you are here now, today, with the B. L. Co.—not yesterday with the dozen.
