—Miss M. J. Johnson, of Bellefonte,

-Last Friday it was discovered that Bellefonte has a Board of Trade. It required considerable dusting about among the dry bones to get an awaken-ing. The name 'Board of Trade' sounds ing. big, broad-even significant-but it don't amount to a darn unless there are some energetic, intelligent men back of it, willing to give time and effect to the promoting of new industries.

-The Bellefonte Board of Trade, at its next meeting, could do no more com-mendable thing than to take note of the members, to be located in the central portion of our state. A committee will reach Bellefonte soon to see if we have

-Friday Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meyer, of Bellefonte, accompanied by Mrs. J. C. Holmes, of State College, returned from work well in the past year. —Mart B. Garman has moved from Linn street to his own residence on Curtin street. The house he vacated will be occupied by Mrs. Sheldon, who has been making her home at the Bush law makers. They discovered it a little bit swifter than at either Bellefonte or State College, but it is a good thing to get out of the old ruts once in a while.

-In another part of this issue will be found the advertisement of the Pennsylvania Concrete Brick & Manufacturing -Clifford S. Thomas, formerly of Co., of this place, who are making ap Bellefonte but now of Lewistown, has plication for a charter. The compan

-The Bellefonte Academy basket ball team and the Big Five team, of Tyrone, are now playing a series of three games. The first one was played in Tyrone on Thursday evening. The Bellefonters were putting up a winning game when Candless, the backbone of the team, was injured and was compelled to retire, From that time on the Academy team was like a ship at sea without a rudder, the result being they lost by a score of 53 to 33. The next game will be played in Bellefonte and the final game at either Johnstown or Huntingdon. It is not presumptious to say that the Academy expects to win out.

Ott, of Lewistown, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with their mother, Mrs. James Ott, on east High street. Mr. Ott has decided to move from Lewistown to Williamsport where he has secured on excellent position. The reason he is making the change is that Lewistown is on the burn.

Rev. Stein will return for the Sunday services, which are special, being the last Sunday of the Conference year. The reports will be read in the morning and the mortgage will be burned at

-Edward K. Rhoads, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Maria D. Rhoads, and his sister, Rebecca, departed Monday morning for a month's sojourn at Had-den Hall Atlantic City. Mr. Rhoads, who is a very busy business man felt that he needed a rest and so now is taking the longest vacation he has taken In addition to this his in many years mother's health has been bad and it was thought a change of climate would be beneficial.

-The plot of "The Choir Singer" which comes to Garman's opera house on Wednesday next, March 24th, is said to be more than usually absorbing from the fact that the love intercst between "Alice Leighton" and "Franklin Merritt," the parson of the village church, is interrupted by the parson's old maid sister, who is jealous of every woman to whom her brother shows partiality. The means used to separate this interesting couple are, while thoroughly natural, equally novel and ingenious, and it is not until within a few moments of the fall of the final curtain, that the old maid's confession of her wrong doing clears up the misunderstanding, and to the great delight of the audience, unites the long parted lovers.
