

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Look a leedle oud'—this is April fool day. —Free coffee demonstration at the Potter-Hoy Hardware this week. —Tuesday C. Y. Wagner received his new Franklin automobile. It's a dandy. —On Friday H. C. Quigley, Esq. returned from a business trip to Bedford. —Miss Prince, of Cresson, is visiting at the home of James Potter on Linn street. —Edward Nolan, engineer on the Bellefonte Central, was a Sunbury visitor over Sunday. —Trout fishing season opens on Friday, April 15th, two weeks from tomorrow, Friday. —A little girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cain at the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday night. —A young daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Casper on Half Moon Hill, on Sunday. —F. E. Nagney promises to have three new Ford automobiles in town the latter part of this week. Of course they will be for sale. —Joe Righthour, of Howard, was in town on Saturday and from what we can learn he will have a lot of fellows on the string down there for violating the game laws. —Col. H. S. Taylor departed Monday afternoon to hold inspection of the Bedford company. Tuesday night he was in Hollidaysburg and Wednesday night in Altoona. —As a security to property and in order to reduce the insurance rates in Bellefonte, an ordinance should be passed prohibiting the placing of shingle roofs on any building in the future. —Kline, the shoe dealer, now has D. M. Boileau, of Blanchard, at work in his store, in the cobbling department where all kinds of repairing will receive prompt attention. Mr. Boileau is a good workman. —Dr. Lee Woodcock, son of Mrs. Anna Woodcock, of Scranton, was in Bellefonte Wednesday seeing that his mother was comfortably located in the house on Spring street, recently vacated by Will Katz. —Samuel Taylor, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his wife and baby who have been visiting in Bellefonte for some time. Sam reports things a little dull in the City of Brotherly Love just now. —J. Kyle McFarlane, formerly of Bellefonte, who has been an invalid for a number of years, was admitted on Saturday to the Lock Haven hospital for treatment. It is to be hoped that he may be benefited. —The Underselling Clothing Co. desire us to announce that they received in one shipment a full car load of shoes on Tuesday. This, it is claimed, is the largest lot of shoes ever shipped to the town in one consignment. —On Tuesday morning a large number of ladies from the Bellefonte Castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle went to Spring Mills where they organized a Ladies Auxiliary to be connected with the local castle at that place. —Linn Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital suffering from pneumonia. His condition was considered quite serious at first, but since that time there has been a change for the better. —Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston who has been spending the winter with her son, Harry in Pottsville, arrived home on Saturday evening. She was accompanied by her son, Harry and her daughter, Mrs. Kelley, of Beaver Falls. —Ambrose Sloteman came up on Friday from Lock Haven and remained over Sunday with his family who were visiting at the home of Perry Cole at Coleville. Mr. Sloteman is bustling these days for the Kartaus fire brick works. —On Monday N. B. Spangler, Esq., was out with his Stanley steamer and was more than delighted with the manner the machine acted. He will be eliminating distances this summer between Bellefonte and his lumber operations near Port Matilda, as well as on pleasure jaunts. —The appropriation bills reported to the House at Harrisburg on Monday night were the following: Altoona hospital, $40,000; Lewistown hospital, $21,000; Nason hospital, Roaring Spring, $27,000; Bellefonte hospital, $18,000; Johnstown City hospital, $10,000. —Scott Lose, now of Williamsport, was in our office on Saturday to inform us that he was engaged in conducting a repair shop at 3rd and Market streets, Williamsport, and also was a member of the famous Repax band. That puts him in fast company but Scott will step as lively as the rest of them. —Special services will be held in the Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap, next Sunday afternoon at 2.30. Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D., of Bellefonte, will at that time deliver the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Pleasant Gap High School. —Are you an attendant at the vaudeville every night at Garman's opera house. A big, long program is given for the small sum of five cents. Some of the best vaudeville attractions on the road are presented which is causing much favorable comment, by our people in general. Those who have not been there don't know what they are missing. —Rev. Richard Mallaleu, father of W. L. Mallaleu, manager of the Bellefonte Bell Telephone exchange, was placed on the supernumerary list of the Central Pennsylvania Conference which adjourned in Harrisburg on Wednesday. Among the others placed on the same list who are known in Bellefonte were: Dr. S. C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, and Rev. George Warren, formerly of Milesburg. —Wednesday evening of next week there will be a great show at the Bellefonte armory under the auspices of the Bellefonte Athletic Club. The main event will be a six-round sparring bout between Wilber McCoy, of Philadelphia, and Kid Snyder, of Jersey Shore, two noted athletes. There will also be three other four-round bouts by prominent pugilists in the state. The Taylor Brothers will also give a boxing exhibition. Admission $1.00, Reservations $1.50. Tickets on sale at Blackford's restaurant.

—Look at this week's issue for change of label for money sent during March. —Harry Robb, of Pittsburg, is spending a few days at his mother's home in this place. —Chas. McLaughlin, of Bellefonte, has broken ground for a double house to be located on Logan street. —The Centre county public sale season is now over, and the record for higher prices is better than usual. —William Smith, of Johnstown, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, on Spring street. —Rev. Father Shay, of Pauline, Pa., is spending several days this week at the home of Philip Beizer, on Spring street. —Mrs. James Clark, of Bellefonte, spent several days recently with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Bullock, at Beech Creek. —Edward Cunningham, of Oak Hall, was a business visitor in Bellefonte Saturday. Ed. is now one of Centre county's practical farmers. —Miles Saylor, who is employed on the Middle division at Altoona, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlam Saylor, of Bush's Addition. —Roy Shillings, of Bellefonte, is now employed on the Howard Hustler. He, no doubt, will find a number of pretty girls down there who will suit his taste. —Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyle and child, of Youngstown, Ohio, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Boyle's mother, Mrs. C. D. Tanner, on Bishop street. —Dr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Hayes, who have been spending the winter in Atlantic City, have gone to Asheville, N. C., where they will be until they come to Bellefonte to open their home for the summer. —Monday afternoon Mrs. Ralph Mallory and her two children left Bellefonte for Philadelphia where they will remain until Albert Schady has their house on Spring street ready for occupancy. —This week closes the great Centre county public sale season, the greatest in the history of the county. It lasted eight months with from one to four sales each week day. Live stock and implements brought good prices. —Mrs. Bricker and son Howard, of Boalsburg, were Bellefonte visitors Monday. The latter is just recovering from a serious attack of necrosis at the bone. He was in Hahneman hospital Philadelphia for two months. —A pound of coffee will last you a third longer, if you use the "Universal" Coffee Percolator, because the water circulating through the ground coffee takes out all the strength desired. You will agree that it is perfectly delicious coffee, too, if you try a cup this week at Potter-Hoy Hardware Store. —G. Fred Musser, receiver, and W. Harrison Walker, attorney, will sell at public sale on Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd, the entire stock of merchandise with store fittings, wagons, etc., of William J. Copenhaver, of Colyer, who recently went into voluntary bankruptcy. Everything must go, regardless of cost or price offered. —Frank M. Crawford, the assignee, of E. P. Irvin, proprietor of the Racket store, had R. S. Brouse and G. Fred Musser, make an appraisal of the stock which amounted to $1500.50. There were seven prospective purchasers but the highest bid, $1600, was offered by Turner & Spector, of Philadelphia, who got the stock. They then packed up the goods and shipped them to the Quaker City. In summing up Mr. Irvin's affairs it was found that the preferred claims, including rent, wages, taxes etc., amounted to $600, and the liabilities are $7000. —Manager T. Clayton Brown, of the scenic, continues to be well pleased with the throng of people who nightly crowd his place of business. There cannot be more elaborate pictures thrown on the canvas than can be witnessed here. In fact, they are making a big hit because they come straight from the manufacturers' hands. Every picture that comes here passes through a committee of censors so that no offensive or objectionable pictures can possibly be shown. This, of course, makes it perfectly safe to send children who cannot help but enjoy the entertainment. —C. N. Meserve has tendered his resignation to the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. as general secretary, a position he successfully filled for several years. About six months ago he was afflicted with nervous prostration and threatened with tuberculosis, which latter ailment has practically been eliminated by heroic treatment. Mr. Meserve took this course upon the advice of his physicians and after consultation with the board of directors of the association. A complete rest is what Mr. Meserve needs for recuperation and that is why this course was taken. We have not learned whether Mr. Meserve will remain here in the future. —The report of the auditors on the accounts of the E. J. Pruner home did not please the Board of Managers who passed a resolution censuring the auditors. There is no doubt but the auditors had an unusually tedious task, as this was the first audit, and the accounts were not in a systematic order. They also made some timely suggestions whereby the income for the home could be largely increased in which they were clearly right. Auditors are not mere adding machines, to dilly dally up and down a column of figures as we have machines to do those things these days. Let us hope that a little criticism will be beneficial to all parties concerned, and the institution particularly. —The latest success, "A Race for a Widow" which will appear in Garman's opera house Friday evening, April 2, 1909, is a laughable comedy with a love story running through it. Not of the wispy-washy kind, but mainly dependent for its success on the unique comedy, unusual episodes and pleasing specialties which make it go with a whoop and a bang from start to finish. Arthur Wilber, formerly "The Minister to Dahomey" in Hoyt's "A Texas Steer," and Miss Nina Wilber, formerly as "Bossy" in the same play, head the cast, and are assisted by an excellent cast of comedians, including Eleanor Russ, Leonard C. Long, H. R. Cory and others.

—Good morning, Miss dandelion, welcome, oft, to our family. —Will Katz and family are now comfortable in their new home on High street. —Communion on Easter Sunday, morning and evening, in the Lutheran church. —The little German band that was on the streets on Monday made more noise than music. —On Monday Earl C. Tuten moved from Thomas street to his own residence on Penn street. —Every woman who enjoys a good cup of coffee should visit the Potter-Hoy Hardware this week. —Thursday Mrs. James P. Coburn returned from Clearfield where she had been visiting friends. —Mrs. Evelyn Rogers is able to be out again after being confined to her room the past four weeks. —Mrs. Clara Stein, of Philipsburg, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her sister, N. C. Lingle on Linn street. —Col. Hugh S. Taylor and Robert F. Hunter, assisted at the inspection of Co. A, at Huntingdon, on Friday night. —Miss Daisy Smith, of Bellefonte, left recently for Williamsport and Philadelphia. She expects to be absent about three weeks. —Mrs. Lincoln Musser was taken to the Bellefonte hospital recently and operated on for a tumor. Her conditions not considered serious. —County commissioner John L. Dunlap has been summoned to attend a session of United States District court at Harrisburg, as a juror, in May. —Charles Lukenbach and wife have given up the apartments in Petrikin hall and have taken two rooms in the Benner residence on High street. —Miss Lottie Robb, stenographer in the law office of W. Harrison Walker, returned to Bellefonte, Thursday, from Altoona where she had been visiting her sister. —Dr. John Keichline and bride, of Petersburg, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as guests of the groom's parents, Squire and Mrs. John Keichline, on Bishop street. —Today being April 1st, used to be the date for tickling trout with fly and worm. But now one must hunger and thirst for the speckled beauties until April 15th. —Albert Schady, of Bellefonte, is hustling to get those four houses, on north Spring street, ready for occupancy. Just as soon as they are ready they will be occupied. —Many folks, just now don't know where many other folks live in these changeable times. Some folks, absent mindedly may even try to enter their former domicile. —Squire John Keichline and son Edward, of Bellefonte, attended the wedding of Dr. John Keichline and Miss Martha Thompson, which took place on the groom's birthday. —Miss Anna Keichline, a student at Cornell University, who attended the wedding of her brother, Dr. John Keichline, at Petersburg, last week, is visiting her home in this place. —On Friday the Bellefonte Central Railroad Co. shipped one of their coaches to the Idaho Southern Railway Co. It was painted inside and outside by the artistic touch of Joe McCully. —Charles Dorworth, connected with the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Press, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his family and friends. He is now in Harrisburg reporting the proceedings of the legislature. He says things are very dull at the State Capitol just now. —Among the early ones—perhaps the earliest—in this town to plant a large bed in his fine garden with spring greens, eight two weeks ago, was attorney Clem Dale. If the stuff "comes up" to schedule time we might have some of it on our editorial table, soon. —Don't forget that the Crystal Springs lodge of Rebekahs, of Bellefonte, will hold an oyster supper in the L. O. O. F. hall in the Crider building on Friday evening, April 2nd. It will be a public affair and the price charged will be 25 cents, with ice cream and cake extra. —The other day Miss Virgie Hampton nurse for the children of Horton Ray, has been nursing a sore hand the result of trying to save one of the "kids" from falling from a window on the third floor of the Brockholder House. In attempting to grab the child her hand struck the glass, breaking it. Her hand was severely lacerated causing her considerable pain. —Isaac Miller and his men are getting the room in Crider's Exchange, recently occupied by E. P. Irvin, ready for the Underselling Clothing Co. The front is being changed so that the door to the entrance to the store will set back about nine feet into the room, thus giving much larger show windows than found in any store room in the block. Other minor changes will be made in the room. —Joseph Nolan and family has moved into the McQuistan house on Thomas street, near High, while James Gregg and family are occupying the house vacated by the Nolans. Charles T. Noll has moved from Linn street into the Jacob Marks' property on Bishop street, and Mr. Hurwitz, who will open the new clothing store in Crider's Exchange, has moved here from Lock Haven and now occupies one of the new houses erected by F. W. Crider on east Lamb street. —Toner McCallister, once a familiar and wellknown resident of Bellefonte, was brought here on Thursday from Eiworth, Pa. and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Boney, on east High street. He was suffering from a stroke of paralysis. "Tony," as he was known here, has been quite a musician in his day, and for years made his living by playing the horn. He is a good-hearted fellow and his friends here hope to hear of his speedy recovery. When taken ill he was working for a physician. —Miss Minnie Cole, formerly a compositor in the office of the Bellefonte Daily News, has been advanced to the position of local editress and business manager. Her long and varied experience with the office makes her perfectly competent to grapple with the knotty questions that come up in the life of those who are in charge of a newspaper. Of course, when it becomes necessary to swear she just calls in "Jim" the devil. The Daily News shows signs of new life since she has been occupying the editorial chair, and the indications are that from now on the sheet will sparkle with rich gems from her versatile pen.

—Miss Maude Fuller, of Allegheny, spent Sunday with Miss Nellie Conley. —Dr. Geo. Hayes, of Pittsburg, was a visitor in Bellefonte this week at the residence of Mrs. M. H. Wilson. —Robert Laurie, son of John L. Laurie, of Tyrone, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte at the Laurie home. —Mrs. C. M. Bower and her grand child, who had been visiting friends in Williamsport, returned home on Wednesday. —Monday Benjamin Gentzel bought the fine team of gray horses from the Lock Haven Good Will Hose company, for John Yearick. —We learn from representative Meyer that the school bill was defeated, on second reading, in the house, at noon, yesterday, Wednesday. —Edward William, clerk for the Centre County Commissioners, returned Wednesday from a trip to Harrisburg where he was transacting business connected with the office. —Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gochbauer, of Gap, Lancaster county, spent Sunday at the home of C. C. Shuey, on High street. Mrs. Gochbauer will be remembered as Miss Margaret Brachbill. —Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker entertained a party of friends at bridge on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Leonard Betz, of Canton, Ohio, a sister of W. C. Cassidy. Mrs. Betz returned home Wednesday. —No muddy, weak, bitter or insipid coffee at our store this week. We are demonstrating the "Universal" Coffee Percolator. That's why. But you ought to see and taste the coffee we are making. Potter-Hoy Hardware. —W. D. Dukeman, of Winburne, was in Bellefonte on Saturday shaking hands with his friends. "Billy" at one time was deputy sheriff of Centre county, and when he returns, occasionally, he always feels at home. He has a nice position in Winburne and is getting along sumptuously. —Monday the family of Kyle McFarlane left for Lock Haven where they will make their future home on Bellefonte Avenue. They had decided to locate on a small farm, near Mill Hall, but they since changed their minds. William McFarlane, who is in the light Co., will remain here and board at Philip Beizer's. —MARRIAGE LICENSES Samuel H. Beck - Spring Mills Annie C. Long - " Homer G. McKinley - Milesburg Evelyn E. Shuey - " —A woman may consider her husband the light of her life until he begins to go out at night. —Even though she looks scared to death, the girl who is getting married is always spoken of as a blushing bride. —When a fellow's mother thinks the girl her son is going to marry is good enough for him, that girl must be next to an angel. —Some fellows would be perfectly happy if they could borrow enough to pay their debts. —LEGAL NOTICE Notice is hereby given that in the assigned estate of E. P. Irvin, for the benefit of creditors, the assignor has filed his claim in the office of the Probationary, for the benefit of the $300 exemption. A. B. KIMPORT Probationary, 115 April 1, 1909 —Every woman and every man desires beautiful hair. And everyone may have it if they will but give it proper care and attention. —The first and most important step toward the prevention of baldness and grayness and toward promoting a luxuriant growth of fine silken hair is to keep the scalp sweet and clean, and free from dandruff. —There is, however, one safe, sure and economical way that is to use Hay's Hair-Balm. —Hay's Hair-Balm "Keeps You Looking Young." It positively removes dandruff and always restores gray and faded hair to its youthful color and beauty, no matter how long it has been gray or faded or what its original color. —It is not a dye, promotes the growth of luxuriant hair when all other remedies fail. It is not greasy or sticky and does not soil skin or clothing. —Send for Free Book, "The Care of the Hair." —You can get $1.00 and 50c bottles of Hay's Hair-Balm of any druggist, or they will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by Philip Hay, Specularies Co., 30-32 Clinton street, Newark, N. Wetzler, March 23rd, 1909, tract of land in Union twp. $2000. —That the other night, after services in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, a young man walked up to a young lady, expecting to be her escort, but he ran against a snag. She objected by saying, "I don't let any young man see me home from church; if he hasn't gumption enough to take me there and sit through the service with me, he must remain away altogether." The spunk of the young lady gave her admirer a chill and he disappeared in the darkness. —The speed limit of automobiles will be increased to 24 miles an hour on suburban and country roads and 15 miles in towns with consequent increase in danger to life and also in damage to roads which you must pay, unless you use your personal influence at once upon your representative to oppose Senate Bill No. 85 now in the House. adr. —PENNY A WORD ADV.
