She was a consistent member of the Evangelical church all her life; funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Haney. She leaves surviving her, her husband and two sons who, with the community in general, mourn their loss. The husband has lost an affectionate wife and the sons a kind, loving mother.

The Republican party machinery is the only thing we can see that is set in motion and running without cessation since the election. And not a single grist has been ground out for the proverbial "dinner pail." Better have some oily tongued campaign orator come around and revive the emphatic promises of good times of the whole G-grafting, Oil P-party will be put into the ananias club.

Prof. J. C. Morris, the acceptable teacher of the Huntington Reformatory, is sojourning with his family. Mr. Morris was born and raised here and taught in our public schools many years his ideal life was service. He always was prompt to bring his life and labor into conformity with this high idea, and did it in a quiet, unostentatious way.

Last Thursday afternoon one might have, if so incited, taken a flight, like greased lightning, south east, in an aeroplane the wind helping him along at the rate of 60 miles an hour. Shutters were torn off their moorings, shingles and broken limbs were flying, umbrellas turned inside out, pedestrians seeking shelter. Rain turned into a blinding snow storm which lasted during the night, mantling the earth with several inches of snow, concealing the onions and lettuce in the new made gardens. It was a veritable Dakota blizzard.

Noah Brungard purchased a building lot from the Samuel Gramley heirs, consideration $300. Ground has already been broken for a new home, west end. We are in a home building age. We would need a dozen more houses this spring in Rebersburg, to accommodate our people. Why not build more houses? We have men with means. We do not ask you to put up palatial residences, build to gratify the taste and to make way with surplus money, but homes, convenient and sanitary, where little ones may grow up and love their surroundings, and look back to in after years as the home of their childhood. The majority of the citizens of town are to be congratulated for being utilitarians, striving to get that which is a necessity and comfort without extravagance and unnecessary ornamentations. Quite a few bathrooms are in our homes a number more contemplating putting them in.

The United Evangelical preacher, Rev. McLaughlin, was seen on our streets on Saturday.

William Meyer, who was assisting A. M. Kreamer to move, was sitting on a load of hay, when a limb of a tree on the road near town caught him and threw him to the ground, dislocating his hip. He suffered excruciating pain. Dr. Bright, our village physician, was called and rendered immediate assistance to the suffering man. He is getting along nicely.

Henry Meyer, Jr., Prof. in the preparatory department, Bucknell University, is spending a day at home. He stands high at the University for his learning, ability and zeal and is steadily climbing upward toward the top of the ladder. He certainly fits his job. Miss Sallie Meyer and brother Robert, who are students at Bucknell, are also visiting at home a few days.

The Evangelical church was neatly re-carpeted during the week by Joseph Bros., of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Blanche McClincy was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday.

Anna Shank gave a party on Friday night in honor of Miss Mary Morgan, of Tyrone. About thirty young folks were present and had a most enjoyable evening.

Shuman Pownell was home over Sunday.

Toner Fetzer was to Fetzertown recently.

W. M. Grove, of Spring Mills, made sale a few days ago, and has moved to Lamar where he will be employed with his father in the tinning business.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.
