

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

NITTANY.

The schools closed at this place on Thursday.

Robert Kramer, of Mill Hall, took supper at the Peck residence on Saturday evening.

On Sunday morning, the 11 inst., there will be preaching in the Ev. church by Rev. Bingham.

Mrs. S. Peck went to Mill Hall on April 1st, to help Bob Kramer and family move.

Dan Long and wife and Mrs. Zerby helped Earl Arcey move on Tuesday, and on Thursday they helped Earl Corman to move.

Mrs. Klinger and her brother Christ Young, of Bellefonte, were guests of their brother, G. W. Young and family one day last week.

Dan Dorman, Wm. Gates and C. P. McCaleb were in Lock Haven on Saturday.

Sunday was a beautiful day; the good old summer time is coming.

Miss Margaret Yearick attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Gettig, at Tusseyville, one day the past week.

Israel Yearick and wife helped their son, Noah, to move from Lock Haven to Mackeyville.

James Nolan and wife were Lock Haven visitors on Saturday.

We noticed quite a number of the Huyettville young people in our town on Sunday.

Quite a number of Lamar's young people attended Sunday school at this place on Sunday. Come again.

Richard Harpster, of Bellefonte, visited his brother and grandparents here the past week.

T. A. Williams is visiting friends in Union county.

Quite a number of our people attended the commencement exercises of the Walker township high school at Hublersburg. Miss Mary Allison was one of our young ladies who graduated.

Our band boys have some fine music for the summer season; they will also purchase new uniforms this summer.

Verne Allison, of the Lock Haven Normal, spent several days at her home here, visiting some of her many friends.

The movings in this community are as follows: Cal. Wilson moved from the B. F. Shaffer farm to a home he bought near Hublersburg; Mr. Wasson moved from Clinton county on the Shaffer farm; Harry Tressler moved from the Wm. Beck farm to Clinton county; Mike Delaney moved from near Bellefonte on the Beck farm; James Gussallus moved out of George Fisher's house into part of Charley Gussallus' house; Corman Yearick moved from the Zerby tenant house into the house vacated by James Gussallus, which Yearick bought; Frank Bartley moved out of Dr. Huston's house to Mackeyville, Mrs. Wm. J. Garbrick moved in the Huston house vacated by Mr. Bartley; J. W. Tolbert moved out of the store building into the T. A. Williams house; Rev. Bartholomew moved out of Perry McCaleb's house to Mt. Rock; and Rev. Bingham moved from Deward into the McCaleb house, vacated by Bartholomew; Adam Bethlehem went to house-keeping in the Zerby tenant house; Frank Toner moved from Hublersburg into the Joe McCaleb house.

SMULLTON.

Nora Bumgard and friend Sundayed at Livonia.

John Meyer made a business trip to Beech Creek one day last week.

Bertha Musser, of Aaronsburg, is spending some time with her grandparents, Robert Hackenberg's.

There was a great excitement in our town on Tuesday evening, March 22, someone tried to enter the house now occupied by E. Smull.

Delpha Bumgard, of Livonia, was the guest of W. E. Barr on last Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Hackenberg attended the funeral of A. Musser, of Aaronsburg, on Wednesday.

Polly Stover, of Coburn, was visiting her brother, F. D. Stover, a few days ago.

Isaac Royer is confined to his bed with dropsy.

The sawmill of A. N. Bumgard which had been shut down a few days on account of moving is now running again.

Ambrose Weber moved on T. D. Stover's farm last week.

Roy Bressler, of Aaronsburg, is at present staying at Hackenberg's.

The Bell telephone men were busy engaged in extending their line through town last week, and those receiving phones were H. H. Stover, W. M. Bierly and Mrs. Reuben Smull.

Amos Fehi attended the funeral of Mrs. Gettig at Tusseyville on Thursday.

COBURN.

Mrs. C. F. Corman, of Duquesne, is visiting her parents.

Mrs. H. G. Hartline and brother Edward Shively went to Ruthertown last week to attend the funeral of an uncle by the name of Gussallus.

The following families have changed places of residences here: John Witmyer went to Keister's farm; Alfred Auman, to Ard's farm and Elias Bressler on his farm where Auman vacated; Emanuel Kerstetter moved in his home near Millheim, W. F. Musser on Kerstetter farm and John Fultz to the lime kiln where Musser vacated; Mrs. Rachel Stover moved her goods into Mrs. A. Harter's house, F. J. Malone went in L. H. Stover's house and Nicodemus Lose into his own home vacated by Malone; Henry Esler went to Millheim and J. J. Brown into Glasgow's home vacated by Kaler; D. A. Bettleyon and Harvey Kramer will move from Paddy Mountain to this place, the former into Wm. Kerstetter's house and the latter into Elijah Burd's.

BOGGS TWP.

The protracted meeting is still in progress.

Ben Stere, wife and family, of Ligonier, are visiting Mrs. Stere's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Houser.

Robert Kelly, son of John Kelly, is at the point of death at his home, above Coleville.

Roland Miller bought a fine team of horses last week.

A. I. Garbrick will soon have his store house completed.

Movings are almost over.

Mrs. Martin Brower is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jane Brown, of Bellefonte.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Wm. Shadie, who has not been ill for some time, is improving.

WOODWARD.

J. Frank Tolbert, of Jersey Shore, was a visitor a few days in town last week.

Minnie Grenoble, employed at Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her parents here.

The public school of our town closed on Tuesday.

A. D. Mingle and E. J. Sheesley made a trip to Millheim on Saturday night.

While shoeing a horse in Harry Kessinger's shop on Saturday forenoon, belonging to A. C. Slifer, of Lewisburg, which was so mean that he couldn't be shod without being put in the stocks, the animal dropped over dead, which certainly was a surprise to Mr. Kessinger.

The buck deer which was taken care of, on account of the dogs about two weeks ago, was found dead in Wm. Glantz's field, west of town on Saturday. It certainly is a shame that we have people through this and other valleys that will let dogs running loose at this time of the year, when very little chasing will kill a deer. The fullest extent of the law should be enforced against such people. Hope they will take heed from this and keep their dogs at home. The deer was buried by the town clerk on Saturday afternoon.

On Friday Jerry Corman moved to Coburn and Edson Fultz into the house vacated by Corman.

C. D. Motz spent a few days in Bellefonte during this week.

Mrs. Walls, of Union county, is spending some time at the home of W. E. Reffner.

Maude Corman, of Fiedler, spent Saturday afternoon with her friend Bessie Etlinger here.

B. F. Coheen, Joe Ard and A. C. Schifer attended the horse sale at Millheim on Friday.

Mrs. Wilson S. Ard, of Aaronsburg, is spending sometime at the home of Dr. Ard's.

H. O. Brown and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Kreamer, of Aaronsburg, spent Saturday afternoon here.

J. H. Bowersox and son Sandy were busy putting the wires on the poles of the Bell Telephone Company. They finish the same between here and Aaronsburg on Saturday.

Minnie Boob, employed at Lewisburg, spent some time with her parents here.

Harris Stover and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. R. M. Wolf.

Rev. Schifer preached an able bodied sermon to a crowded house on Sunday forenoon in the Evangelical church at this place which was highly appreciated by all that heard him. He used for his text the words found in St. John 14-16.

Rev. Schifer is certainly well versed in the teachings of the gospel as well as one of the best lecturers in the country. Rev. Schifer is prepared to give a lecture at any time or at any place, if an invitation to that effect is extended unto him.

WOODWARD NO. 2.

Everybody is busy plowing; next will be sowing oats and planting corn and potatoes.

Thomas Wolf and family and Emma Boyer visited at W. E. Hosterman's, on Sunday.

Rev. J. C. Reeser, presiding elder, preached in the United Evangelical church on Sunday evening.

Our public schools are all closed and the children are all happy and enjoying the open air and bright sunlight.

D. A. Snyder, of Highvalley, who was confined for some time with pneumonia, spent a few days in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Orwig, of Hartleton, is visiting at W. E. Hosterman's.

Uncle Mich is ahead of some other fellows as he had two girls out driving the other day. Now boys, this is the time to show your nerve.

Last Saturday night a certain fellow from Kebersburg was over here to see his best girl, who is a great talker, and likely she had all his attention and did not think of anything else. So some of the young boys thought they would play a trick on him, which they did; when he wanted to leave late in the forenoon he found his buggy on the over-head and his harness put on the old boy. So he had to hire some men to help him take down the buggy. Good, good, fellows; accept the scribe's congratulations.

Harry Stover and family, of Pine Creek, visited at J. W. Gusewite's, on Sunday.

Steward Hosterman, of Coburn, is spending a few days at L. L. Weaver's.

L. L. Weaver and family spent Sunday afternoon with friends at Coburn.

RUNVILLE.

There will be Easter services here, Monday eve.

Elsie Bottorf, of Milesburg, spent Sunday here.

Clyde and Milford Heaton, of Altoona, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Boyd Stere and Jesse Parsons, of Bellegrove, were seen on our streets Sunday eve. What is the attraction Snow Ball and Reddy?

Minnie Walker, who has been employed at Bellefonte, has returned to her home at this place.

Mrs. Green Watson, of this place, will move to Wingate, Monday.

On the sick list are Mrs. Claude Poorman and little son, also one of Austin Walker's children.

The farmers of this place are busy ploughing and getting ready for their spring crops.

William Watson spent Sunday with his wife and little son here.

Esther Freeze, of Milesburg, was seen on our street Sunday evening.

Claude Estright, one of Tyrone's P. R. R. breakman, spent Saturday evening with his friend, Olive Lucas.

Esther Hamilton and Tacy Lucas accompanied by Roy Rodgers attended church at Pleasantvalley, Sunday eve.

Mrs. Floyd Davis has been suffering with a bealed head and is some better.

A bright little daughter came to brighten the home of Lewis Davidson.

HOUSERVILLE.

Prof. Geo. Bible was the guest of his mother last week.

Many are suffering with colds and grip around here, and Hutch Thompson is down with measles.

John Gross moved into the Houser here.

Prof. Jonas E. Wagner, of Bellefonte, came to see his father, who was suffering with grip.

Samuel Hazel is very sick.

John M. Dale and George Coble spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. John Dale and Wm. Emenhizer.

WINGATE.

A. J. McLaughlin, of Milesburg, and C. F. Warner, filled the P. R. R. vacancies caused by the absence of Jacob and James Snyder.

An evidence of spring was some of our young men springing new suits Saturday evening.

Mary Swartz and brother William, of Tyrone, Sundayed at Rev. John Zeigler's here.

John Bender and wife, of Altoona, spent Sunday at Henry Estright's here.

Guy Alexander is very ill with typhoid pneumonia. His many friends are wishing for his speedy recovery.

Daniel Boop, one of our up-to-date farmers, is putting a new roof on his house.

Mrs. John Smith, Harry Haines, Maud Murray, Thomas Murray, and Mrs. Rachel Warner were on the sick list.

Eva Sylvius, of Stormstown, visited her sister, Mrs. L. S. Way, here, last week.

Edward Long and son Aaron, our expert gardeners, were the busiest men in our village last week.

A. P. Woodring, of Port Matilda, visited among his many friends here on Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Brown has sold 72 dozen eggs from 17 hens from December 1st, 1908 until April 1st, 1909, which she claims is the country's record. Let us hear if it can be beat.

Horseshoe pitching and baseball are out-door sports which are the most popular here these warm evenings.

Mrs. Mary Snyder attended the funeral of her son-in-law, William Kepler, at Baltimore, Md. last week. She was accompanied by her sons, Jacob and James.

Edna Murray spent a few days last week at J. B. Alexanders, at Plum Grove.

Mrs. Elizabeth Simmons and children, Ruth, Marcella and Fred, who have, for some time, been at her father's, John Harshish, here, left Wednesday for their future home at Alta Pass, North Carolina, where her husband is employed.

Mrs. Hannah Warner and son Lemuel, of Bush Hollow, spent a few days last week at Lemuel Warner's here.

We had the pleasure of the P. R. R. floating gang in our village; de-lighted, as the ladies and Teddy say.

Mrs. Thomas Murray and grandson, Murry Parks, spent Monday with friends at Tyrone.

Mrs. Anna Fuller, after an extended visit among friends, left Sunday for her home at Williamsport.

Mickey Flynn, the P. R. R. operator here, was off duty a few days last week, on account of illness caused by eating too many apples.

STORMSTOWN.

The robins and bluebirds have arrived to tell us that winter months have glided by and spring has come. Overdale and meadow you can hear the songsters chirping their sweetest carols of Easter time.

Martha A. Way, who was visiting in the west, arrived at her home on Saturday.

The sale of Jacob Mattern, also J. P. Sebring were largely attended.

The Rev. A. L. Frank, who attended the conference, has returned; we are all glad to know that he is going to spend another year with us.

The social held at the Epworth League at the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening was largely attended.

A. J. Way and John Eaves each purchased a fine colt last week.

The farmers are busy with their spring plowing.

John Cronemiller moved into his new home on the first.

Mrs. Captain Hunter and Manda Behrens are on the sick list.

Dr. S. G. Coons has made a new improvement on his barn by putting a new roof on it.

Mrs. Charles Farber is visiting her parents, George Loner's.

John A. Way has been busy surveying on the Allegheny mountains.

Mrs. Susan Smith, of Pittsburg, is at home visiting her mother, Mrs. Captain Hunter.

William R. Biddle, who was staying with his sister, Mrs. Maggie Lytle, at Baileyville, has returned to this place to stay with his other sister, Mrs. I. G. Burk.

Mr. Mills and wife are visiting at Greene Grays.

The boys had quite a lively time on Saturday night. They gathered around the home of George Loner and serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Farber and after the serenading was over they were treated to cigars.

Miss Eva Sylvius went to Wingate to visit her sister, Mrs. L. S. Way.

J. H. Griffin is visiting his sons at Tyrone.

ZION.

Our schools have closed and "Young America" is again free for five months. Both teachers have been very successful.

The weather having been very favorable, some of our farmers are about done with their spring plowing.

Wm. Hassinger has equipped a front room in the house vacated by Jacob Trause for a barber shop. "Billy" is a good one and deserves the patronage of the vicinity.

Rev. Bingham delivered his first sermon to a large audience in the Evangelical church on Sunday.

Robert Homan has improved his house by building a new porch to it.

Frank Hockman, who is a student at the Central State Normal, at Lock Haven, is spending a few days with his parents at this place.

Our postmaster J. G. Royer has purchased a fine driving horse and some of his lady friends are just tickled to death about it.

The carpenters are at work building a new house on the Truckenmiller property, recently purchased by J. A. Hoy.

Fitzeszy comfort is the real thing for ladies only. At Yeagers.

BENORE.

Mrs. Sarah Zimmerman, of Bellefonte, spent a few days last week with her mother here.

Mrs. Mary Meiss, who spent part of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Ghauer, left for her home at Lauvertown.

Mrs. Bill Kellerman, of Buffalo Run, spent Thursday with Mrs. D. G. Day-walt.

Bess Woomeer is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Mortoff, here.

W. H. Ghauer is starting a sad bank on his land.

The spring movings are: Charles-Alkey and Mr. Rearick moved to Millmont; F. G. White and John Long moved to Centre Furnace; John McKiverson moved down on the stock farm; Bill Curry moved on the Demp Meek farm.

Strange, ain't it, not a drop of rain any place in town on Wednesday, except on Geo. Kellerman's home. It was to him a real cyclone—a regular cloud burst; it was a shower of birthday post-cards, each one bearing a message of best wishes for many returns of the happy event—it being his 13th birthday anniversary.

We all have our ups and downs and its when we feel low down.

BENORE NO. 2.

Mary Parsons is not improving.

Ally Williams is visiting her brothers, Judson and Clemson.

Mrs. Ornel and daughter, Carrie visited J. B. Parsons on Sunday.

Mrs. Chester Young and sister, Nan-nie Hassinger, returned from a visit to Port Matilda.

Our grammar school will close on Friday and all the scholars wish the teacher a happy vacation.

Assist nature and you will effect a speedy cure. Krine's Kidney Pills aid nature and succeed when all others fail. They give prompt relief in all cases of Kidney and Liver trouble. If you have pain in the back and loins or any urinary disturbances, get a bottle at once and try them. One month's treatment $1. Money refunded if not relieved. At Krumine's Drug store.

BOALSBURG.

Spring, spring, beautiful spring! Where have you gone, your flowers to bring?

Walker Shutt's sale on the L. E. Kinder farm, was well attended last Monday. He has moved back to his old home again on Tussey mountains.

The primary school here was closed on Thursday of last week. Many of the pupils were as happy as sunflowers.

John Kimpfort, of Boalsburg, moved on a farm at Walnut Grove. He has resolved to stop butchering and go to farming.

Elmer Houtz and family, who have been living at Nittany mountain moved to our town last week.

William Brouse's youngest child has been ill with pneumonia.

Israel Young's have some small chickens hatched out. Miss Ruth will have to knit stockings for them, or they will freeze their feet, unless it stays warm.

John Parks and family, of near here, were visiting his sick father at State College, last week.

Charlie Isenberg and family have moved to our town last week.

Ruth Ross, of Linden Hall, has past the examination for the high school, here, next winter.

John Hannah and family moved to Oak Hill last week.

Mrs. Rollen Kramer, of Aaronsburg, is visiting friends here.

Bad Breath.

A well-known physician, who undoubtedly knows, declares that bad breath has broken off more matches than bad temper.

There are ardent lovers who must sometimes wish their sweethearts presented a sweeter mouth to be kissed.

Good teeth cannot prevent bad breath when the stomach is disordered.

The best cure for bad breath is a cleansing out of the body by use of

Lane's Family Medicine

(called also Lane's Tea)

the tonic laxative.

This is a herb medicine, sold in 25c. and 50c. packages by druggists. It saves doctor bills.

It cures headache, backache, indigestion, constipation and skin diseases. 25c. at druggists.

Write to-day Mention this Paper.

SEND CENTS

to your postage and receive this valuable collection of seeds, together with my new Autograph, Beautiful Seed and Plant Book, tells all about the Best varieties of seeds. Please, etc.

Write to-day Mention this Paper.

H. W. Buckbee

HOCKFORD, ILL.

SEEDS

BUCKBEE'S SEEDS SUCCEED!

SPECIAL OFFER!

Make a trial of my seeds. A trial will make you our permanent customer.

Prize Collection

Send me 10 cents for a trial of my seeds. I will send you a beautiful seed and plant book, and a collection of seeds, together with my new Autograph, Beautiful Seed and Plant Book, tells all about the Best varieties of seeds. Please, etc.

Write to-day Mention this Paper.

SEND CENTS

to your postage and receive this valuable collection of seeds, together with my new Autograph, Beautiful Seed and Plant Book, tells all about the Best varieties of seeds. Please, etc.

Write to-day Mention