NITTANY.

Esta Winkelman, of Flemington, visited her many friends here on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Mauck is still under the doctor's care and is not improving very much; we hope when the weather settles she will be alright.

Wilson Ammerman was to Lock Haven on Saturday.

Mayme Zerby has been under the doctor's care for some time with a heavy cold and neuralgia of the head.

Mrs. Wm. Long, of Snyderstown, was the guest of Israel Yearick and family one day last week.

Helen Rossman has gone to live with Harvey Vonada's at Hublersburg.

Wm. Mauck is building a large manure shed on his farm, which will make quite an improvement.

A terrible wind storm passed over this place on Tuesday night, 6 inst., blowing trees down and shingles off the roofs and laying down fences.

The temperance talk given in the Evangelical church on Tuesday eve, by Miss Cogart, of Bedford county, was very much enjoyed by most of the people and we hope that her talk will be the means of doing at least some good here as well as wherever she lectures.

Ross Rumberger, of Hublersburg, was the guest of Ralph Swartz on Sunday.

Boyd M. Emerick visited his lady friend in Bellefonte over Sunday.

Henry Mowery and wife, of Fishing Creek, were guests of H. F. Rodgers and family recently.

Rev. Crow of Hublersburg, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Garbrick one day last week.

T. A. Williams visited in Sugarvalley on Sunday.

Jesse Dean, of Huyettville, accompanied by several of the Nittany gentlemen, were guests of J. W. Tolbert and family on Sunday.

Charley Gunsalus had a fine new corn crib erected on his lot. G. E. Snavely did the work, which is all right.

Now that Easter is over everybody seems to be tired of eggs.

O. N. Yarnell had a new telephone placed in his residence.

One of our gentlemen who lives at Huston while in town one day last week, bought a ticket for Nittany, at which place he used to live. He didn't forget to tell the conductor to put him off at Huston—of course, he got off at the right station.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Rev. Bierly and family, of Port Matilda, moved into the Methodist parsonage, formerly occupied by Rev. J. S. Phillips, who has recently moved to Thompsonstown, Pa.

A young son arrived at the home of Edward Elder; both mother and child are getting along nicely.

Mrs. J. A. Decker is able to be about again after several weeks' illness.

Mae and Olive Tanyer transacted business at Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mrs. John Markle returned home on Friday after a week's visit with relatives at Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the Lutheran church, on Sunday; there was a large attendance.

In spite of the cold weather on Friday afternoon our baseball team played a very interesting game with the State College high school and defeated them by the score of 8-16. On Saturday they went to Bellefonte and played against the Bellefonte Academy team, the score being 2-5 in favor of the latter.

Mr. Allison and family moved from Spring Mills on Monday and now occupies part of A. J. Tate's house on Water street; he expects to act as miller for our community.

The primary school closed on Friday.

PORT MATILDA.

Saturday evening, March 11, was an eventful one at the home of John Reese; his sons and daughters with his ever-thoughtful wife, conceived the idea to surprise him; to that end they congregated at his home in Reese Hollow, bringing with them the best the market afforded, preparatory to having a sumptuous supper in which they fully succeeded. About seventy-five guests in turn surrounded the table, your correspondent included; among the number were 6 children and 36 grandchildren, who presented the venerable parent with valuable gifts, among which was a fine suit of clothing entire from head to foot. He has reached his 70th mile post in life, yet hale and hearty. The event was closed with a cotillion party for the young people, which was highly enjoyed by them; thus ended a pleasant event.

The household goods of the late William Lewis, deceased, of Port Matilda, was sold at public outcry on Saturday, April 11, at his late residence.

Miss Mertie Reese certainly is an industrious student, having traveled on foot with a few exceptions each day during the entire winter in all kinds of weather, from her home in Reese Hollow to the graded school in Port Matilda, some 2 1/2 miles distant; she deserves encouragement.

Rhodie Reese has returned to her duties in Tyrone after a short visit to her home here.

George McBelwain, of Marengo, visited relatives here a few days ago.

Fears are entertained by some of our older citizens that the sudden changes in the weather from warm to cold have injured the fruit.

SANDY RIDGE.

Mrs. Lloyd Stonebraker spent Easter Sunday in Osnoda.

Mrs. Lilly Bryan, of Vail, visited at the home of Mrs. George Lane, the past week.

RUNVILLE.

The Easter service will be held in the U. B. church Sunday evening, April 18. All cordially invited.

P. P. Miller spent Sunday in Pittsburg.

Prof. J. P. Miller, of Indiana county, opened his ten weeks' term of summer normal, Tuesday, April 13.

The beautiful Spring days are here—days of work and pleasure; plowing is the main industry for the village folks at present.

Asbury Pletcher closed his seventh month term of school, Friday. Mr. Pletcher is a fine teacher and knows how to use hickory oil.

Nelson Marshall has purchased the Hugg farm, and John Weitzler, of Millersburg, occupies the farm vacated by Marshall.

Nellie Rathmell, a most charming young lady of Yarnell, was the guest of Lanning Irvin's, Sunday.

Mrs. Michael Sennet and little daughter, Azalea, did some shopping in Bellefonte, Saturday.

Mrs. Myrtle Markley and two little daughters departed for Indiana county, Monday.

Chester, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Poorman, had the misfortune to have his hand caught in some machinery and have two fingers mangled. W. U. Irvin was soon called in and the wounds dressed.

RUNVILLE NO. 2.

J. A. Alexander is all smiles over the arrival of a young son.

Mrs. Green Watson moved from this place to Wingate last week.

Mrs. John Rockey and son, of near Milesburg, spent Sunday with her brother, Charles Smoyer, at this place.

Mrs. Hetta Reiter, after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Lydia Witherite, departed for Petersburg where she will visit a few days then return to her home at Keewaydin.

Measles are the latest thing out in our town. Only last three days.

Word reached this place of the serious illness of Willis Witherite, at Connelville. He was removed to the Baltimore Hospital, and is getting along nicely. Hope for his speedy recovery.

Adaline Smoyer, of Butts station, visited her aunt at this place recently.

Wm. Adams, Jr., and lady friends, of Milesburg passed through our city Sunday.

Preaching Sunday morning at 10.30 by Rev. Hamilton.

Carl Garbrick, of Bellefonte, and Eva Witherite, Sunday with the latter's mother Mrs. H. A. Witherite at this place.

MADISONBURG.

Madisonburg movings: N. H. Hazel moved into Mandy Miller's house; Samuel Gettig, our postmaster, moved in the house he bought, known as the Andrew Shaffer property; Calvin Kreps moved into his own property bought from S. B. Schaffer, and is going to live a retired life; Homer Kreps moved on his father's farm, known as the Royer farm; Wm. Heckman moved on the Frank farm, near Madisonburg; Evans Yearick moved up into John Hoy's house near his saw mill, where he has a large timber tract to saw out; Charles Grimm moved to Flemington—we were sorry to see them go as they were the best kind of neighbors—and his son Harry said to Pearl: "It goes hard for me to leave thee, but that mountain is not too long nor too steep; I will climb it every four weeks to see thee."

Mrs. Susan Royer, living at James J. Gramley's, fell down the stair-steps on coming down, cutting an ugly gash in her forehead.

Jacob Hazel, our merchant, was on the sick list the last six weeks, but is able to be in the store again.

Our old stage driver, Charles Sheets, of Millersburg, was seen here on Saturday; he still has his contract to carry the mail.

Emannul Bigler's son, Robert, has been on the sick list for about four weeks, but he don't seem to improve much.

Lots of our good intentions die from lack of nourishment.

WINGATE.

The beautiful birds of spring are again in our midst and it is now appropriate to sing Tom's favorite song "Red Wing" and "She was only a bird in a gilded cage."

Maggie V. Thomas, the teacher of public school here with a very successful term Thursday chose a choice selection of dialogues, recitations, etc., which was very pleasing to those present. It would be an injustice to mention any particular scholar excelling but among the most noticeable features was recitations by Misses Sue Murray and Ethel Irwin. Her scholars and many friends were sorry to see her leave and wish her a pleasant trip to Oregon, where she contemplates spending the summer.

Miss Whitehead, of Clearfield, was a caller at the home of Eli Stere's here, Thursday.

William Summers, formerly employed near Aqua, was seen on our streets on Thursday evening.

The old proverb "A wise man contracts for his fuel in the summer and his ice in the winter," is not suitable here as very few of the ice houses in the vicinity are filled.

Grace Boop has returned to her home here from Bellefonte.

Dora Stere and Jennie Watson visited friends at Milesburg last week.

Has anyone heard Dave Hoover sing "Oh please Mr. Conductor where art thou?"

We are glad to say Guyer Alexander is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

The first ball game here of the season was played on Friday between Wingate Tigers and the S. S. Int. Indian's, resulting in a tie 4-4. The features of the game were a catch by Aaron Long, of the Indians, and the fielding of the Tigers; considering the weather, a snow ball game would have suited the occasion better.

Rachel Warner, of Bush Hollow, spent last week at the home of Lemuel Warner's here.

Charles Conard, of Bellevernon, was a guest of Sue McLaughlin a few days last week.

Milligan Walker and Mrs. Green Watson, of Runville, and Jacob Kerchners, of Moose Run, completes the moving list to our village this spring.

The gale on Wednesday played havoc here, with some buildings and apple trees.

The sick of the week composed of John Haines and wife, Milligan Walker, John Eckert, M. E. Flynn, Lemuel Warner and wife.

R. M. Sumner, of Tyrone, A. P. Woodring, of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Effie Hosband, of Unionville, were Wingate visitors Saturday.

Joseph Fisher spent Sunday among friends at Mt. Eagle.

Mrs. Oscar Summers and son visited friends at Tyrone last week.

Wm. Eckert and daughters Helen and Viola also Blair Fisher, of Tyrone, visited among friends here on Sunday.

WINGATE NO. 2.

The Wingate Tigers administered a crushing defeat to the formerly-unbeaten P. R. R. floating gang's baseball team in a twilight game on Monday, to the tune of 15 to 4. Features of the game were the playing of Patton and Beech Creek for the losers, and Ryan, Murray and McLaughlin for the victors; also the large crowd of lady fans. The manager of the Tigers would like to arrange games with Gum Stump and Plum Grove.

STORMSTOWN.

Schools closed here on Wednesday.

Flow Capp, of the West, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Coons.

J. M. Ward and I. G. Burket each purchased a fine cow last week.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

See that you get what you ask for.

TYLERSVILLE.

Some of our young folks started for the summer school at Rebersburg last Monday.

Jacob Quicquel, wife and family, of Pine, are visiting her father, A. J. Allbright.

Adam Fiddler and family, of the east end of Sugar valley, visited her parents over Sunday.

A baby came to the home of John Herlacher and found that it had a nice home. One also came to Mr. and Mrs. Alva Wagner and will make it's home with them.

You can generally tell a married man when you meet one, but not always—occasionally you run across a bachelor with a grouch.

Legislature Adjourns.

By the time this paper reaches its readers the Legislature of Penna. will have concluded the session of 1909. In our next issue we will attempt to give a concise summary of the session, showing the most important measures that have been passed and now are in the hands of Gov. Stuart for consideration.

To cure a cough or cold in one day take Krumrine's White Pine and Tar. It stops the tickling in the throat and allays the irritation promptly. One bottle should always be kept on hand, as it takes but half as long to cure a cough or cold when taken in time. Money refunded if it fails to relieve. At Krumrine's Drug store.

Plan for Summer Comfort

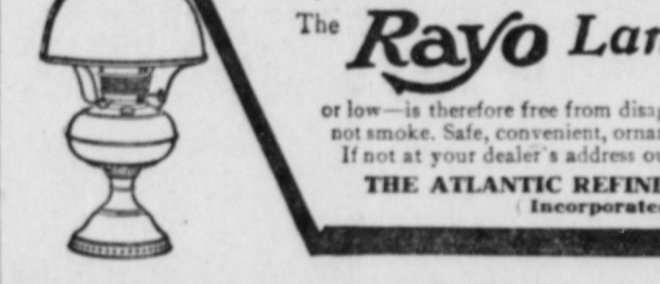

Don't add the heat of a kitchen fire to the sufficient discomfort of hot weather.

Use a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove and cook in comfort.

With a "New Perfection" Oil Stove the preparation of daily meals, or the big weekly "baking," is done without raising the temperature perceptibly above that of any other room in the house. Another great advantage of the is its handsome CABINET TOP, which gives it every convenience of the modern steel range. Has an ample top shelf for warming plates and keeping cooked food hot, drop shelves for holding small cooking utensils, and is even fitted with racks for towels. Made in three sizes, and can be had with or without Cabinet Top. If not at your dealer's address our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp gives perfect combustion whether high or low—is therefore free from disagreeable odor and cannot smoke. Safe, convenient, ornamental—the ideal light. If not at your dealer's address our nearest agency.
