Breezy "That" Column

THAT the square fellow in Bellefonte. is the one who is round when he owes you money.

THAT the man in Bellefonte with a nervous wife needn't to have an alarm clock in his room.

THAT the man in Bellefonte who goes to church without paying the preacher his religion can be carried in a thimble. THAT the best man in Bellefonte is the one who bestows a favor and forgets it, but when he receives one he remembers THAT when some fellows in Bellefonte die they will have the consolation that they will never have to dress in a cold

THAT when you come to think of it, it's funny the Prohibitionists of Centre county always want to nominate a "full"

THAT Dr. John Sebring, of Bellefonte, says that microbes have been found in everything on the globe except tobacco and whiskey.

THAT the girls in the Bellefonte High school are now making as much fuss about graduating as they will when they get married, THAT it doesn't take W. H. Macker, the Bellefonte fruit dealer, to convince you that bridal pairs are softer when they are green. That many a woman in Bellefonte who doubts the veracity of her husband believes everything she reads in a patent medicine almanac THAT it is quietly rumored around there will be an engagement announced in Bellefoute that will take your breath. No, it isn't "Davie." THAT some women in Bellefonte lace so tight that it is really a wonder that when they eat anything as large as an apple it doesn't show. THAT the young man sitting on the sofa with a Bellefonte girl need not tell her he is going to kiss her. She can tell that quicker than he can. THAT Bellefonte has in it a certain rich man who in eternity will find that it would have been better for him to have gotten wisdom and less gold THAT many people on Howard street, Bellefonte, never give a thought to the hereafter except when they have to pass the Union cemetery on a dark night.

THAT Gen. John I. Curtin, of Bellefonte, says that the reason the Spaniards want Admiral Degree a picture of being of ter whether it is sanctioned by law or want Admiral Dewey's picture on their postage stamps is because it is the only way they can lick him. THAT Henry Fox, the shoemaker at A C. Mingle's shoe store, says that about the only two things in Bellefonte that go with their heads downward is a crook and the nails in his shoes. THAT the young lady in Bellefonte who desires to have a good time in life should never get married. If you don't believe this statement just ask some of the girls who have tried it and put their foot into it.

THAT there is a widow in Bellefonte who talks entirely too much for her own good. She possesses too great an esti-mate of herself which makes her look like thirty cents in the eyes of those who have better sense.

That there are some fellows in Belle-fonte who are troubled with insomnia "Billy" Brown, the Recorder, says that a sure cure is to borrow a baby and try walking the floor with it from I o'clock at night until daylight.

THAT they say Bellefonte has in it a ren mother who is dictating all her daughter's love letters with the hope that there one. Undoubtedly he belongs to the Cenganton and Milheim already having for there might something drop.

THAT if the young ladies in Bellefonte keep on shedding their superfluous garments when they go to a dance or card party, we may have the felicity of get-ting back to the good old economical times of Eve when dresses and bonnets from a tributary of Fishing creek in
