HOWARD.

"The voice of one who goes before, to make the paths of June more beautiful, is thine, Sweet May!"

On next Sabbath, May 30, there will be preaching in the several churches in our town and at the appointments which centre here, as follows:

First Reformed—Rev. H. I. Crow, will preach the Memorial sermon to the Grove Brothers post in Howard, at 10.30, and all the orders and other citizens are respectfully and earnestly invited. Mr. Crow will also preach on that day at Marsh Creek, at 2.30, and at Jacksonville at 7.30.

Christian Chapel—Rev. W. H. Patterson, (Disciple) will preach at 7.30.

Methodist Episcopal—Rev. Rollin S. Taylor will preach at Beech Creek at 10.30, at Hunter's Run at 2.30, and at Howard at 7.30. The services at Beech Creek will be the Memorial sermon, by request of the post, and the local camp of P. O. S. of A., and the lodge of I. O. O. F., and all other citizens are cordially invited to worship with them.

Church of Christ—Preaching on this Thursday evening, at 7.30, by Elder W. A. Blucher, a former pastor. On next Lord's day, May 30, Elder J. H. Tomson, the present pastor, will preach here at 10.30, at Mountain Eagle at 2.30, and at Howard again in the evening at 7.30.

Maud Sechrist, a successful teacher at Centre Hall, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George E. Williams, and will go from here to her home in Bellwood.

Mrs. Antis Confer, of the township, is seriously ill with heart trouble.

The Christian chapel is being frescoed up with a coat of paint by Charlie Confer.

H. G. Meyer, of Sunbury, was the guest, for a day or two of last week, of his cousin, Z. T. Weirick.

County Supt. D. O. Ethers examined a class of some fourteen or fifteen teachers last Thursday, and most of them are said to have made very satisfactory records.

The second base ball team of Flemington played against our Howard juniors on the Howard field, last Saturday, and made a score of 7 to 4 against our boys. Here are the titles as well as names of our fellows who tried their level best, and took their licking like little men: "She's Friendly" Shay, "Baby" DeHaas, "Rummy" Brown, "Billum" Strunk, "Shop" Brown, "Pip-pin" Schenck, "Monkey" riannon, "Chippy" DeArment, Jr., "Weasel" Confer, "Sankey" Columbine.

Rev. W. W. Rhoads and daughter Ida, left on Tuesday for their annual Memorial visit to their long time home in Reading, where Mrs. Rhoads and some of her children rest in God's acre. They will extend their visit to friends living in other parts of the state, and be absent two or three weeks.

The coat of fresh white paint which L. H. Neff has given Mrs. H. T. Lucas' always well kept house has brightened it greatly.

Archie Condo had for his week-end guest, his classmate at the Bellefonte Academy, "Pat" Rollins.

Pearl Thomas, who helped State win over Michigan last Saturday, and who won his "S" at the same time, reached home in time to spend Sabbath with his relatives here and return to college Monday morning.

Thomas Fletcher's new porch is progressing finely.

President of Council, Jackson Kline, has completed the brick sidewalk in front of his residence.

John Baney and wife spent last Saturday and Sunday with friends in Snow Shoe.

Three of our quite young boys, Walter Confer, Paul Wagner, and Edward Brown, were called to testify in court at Bellefonte last week, and have been highly spoken of as good witnesses who evidently realized the seriousness of their duty and told the truth.

Mrs. William Weber and Mrs. J. L. DeHaas shopped in Lock Haven Wednesday last.

Agatha Wentzel spent her Sunday holiday at Runville.

Rev. I. Sturges Schultz, of Juniata, who lived here during his father's pastorate in the Evangelical church, was a welcome guest among a large circle of friends last Friday and Saturday. He was the guest of Jesse Leathers.

Ralph Vanata, Ray Callahan and Forest Leitzel of Flemington, students at the State Normal in Lock Haven, were week-end visitors at the home of L. H. Neff.

Theodore Leathers, Jr., of Mountain Eagle, lost a valuable stallion on Wednesday of last week, after a day or two of illness, the cause of which is unknown.

Memorial day falling upon the Sabbath this year, its observance has been postponed until Monday, 31st.

The local post of the G. A. R. will meet at 1 o'clock and parade, accompanied by the I. O. O. F. and the P. O. S. of A., assembling at 2 o'clock in the M. E. church, where the memorial address will be delivered by J. K. Johnson, Esq., of Bellefonte.

John A. Thompson, who has been assisting Charles Walizer in his butchering during Mr. Walizer's disability, returned to his home in Tyrone Saturday.

William Weber and wife started for Philadelphia last Sunday evening. Mr. Weber to attend the convocation of the Knights Templar, while Mrs. Weber will probably remain to witness the commencement of Jefferson College, at which her brother, Dr. George Hensyl, will be graduated.

Dr. Kurtz spent last Sabbath at Williamsport, where he attended an operation upon his sister, late missionary in India, for appendicitis. Her case is serious.

Our base ball club went to Beech Creek on Saturday and played the first game of the season with the local team of that place. At the fifth inning Umpire Pletcher called the game because of rain, neither side having scored a single point up to that time. Competent observers say that it was an exceedingly close and well played game, and that honors were easy. The pitching of Bullock was the feature of the B. C. team's all round good work. The fielding of Howard was pronounced exceptionally brilliant, and Archie Condo's spectacular catch, and Cam Holter's perfect throw from deep left centre to home base, was worth an hour's rooting in the rain to see.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowes are entertaining their daughters, Mrs. C. G. Evans, of Wilkes-Barre, and Adeline, who spent the winter at Rockville, S. C. On her way north Miss Bowes stopped at Charlotte, N. C., and took in the Mecklenburg celebration, of which President Taft was the prominent figure.

Mrs. Mary E. Casselberry celebrated her 60th birthday on Tuesday, May 18. Her friends remembered her very kindly, and among the tokens was a shower of handsome post cards equal to the number of her years.

Delegates to the Reformed classis of Bellefonte last week were Mrs. H. Yearick and her daughter, of Jacksonville, and Mollie Yearick, of Howard.

Mayes, the monument man, has just placed markers at the graves of Andrew Walizer, in the Methodist cemetery at Howard, and Charles H. Hoffman, in the Presbyterian cemetery at Jacksonville, in time for Memorial day.

Helene and Lauretta Weber are enjoying the Bellefonte High School commencement this week.

Mrs. J. Will Mayes and Miss M. H. Lucas looked over the Lock Haven stores on Monday.

Nellie Weber spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend, Lulu Stover, at Mill Hall.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church is among the most active of the religious organizations in the town. On Sabbath last an interesting sunrise prayer meeting was held in its behalf, and in the evening just preceding the regular preaching service, the officers for the coming year were installed with appropriate ceremonies. President J. Edward Taylor; 1st vice president, Mrs. T. A. Fletcher; 2nd vice pres, Mrs. Clyde Long; 3rd vice, Mrs. W. F. Hall; 4th vice Mrs. John Foreman; secretary, Stewart D. Taylor; treasurer, Ella Hall. On Monday evening the annual social was held at the home of Wilbur F. Hall and wife, where proper games, music social intercourse and a feast were the order of a most pleasant evening.

John B. Wetzel was unfortunate enough to lose a horse on Monday last.

Mrs. George Long closed her house on Tuesday last and went to Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap, where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Father Logan McKinney stopped off between trains on Monday afternoon, for a few hours' visit with his mother.

George Williams' new house is rapidly taking on form and comeliness, and when completed will be an unusually well organized and comfortable home.

John Jacobs, of Boalsburg, and Mrs. William Resides, of Bellefonte, son and daughter of George A. Jacobs, visited their father here for a day or two in the early part of this week.

FERGUSON TWP. BAILEYVILLE.

Samuel Irvin, wife and daughter, also Miss Rhoads of Lewistown, spent Sunday with relatives in our town which was formerly their home.

E. D. Isenberg spent last week in Bellefonte as a juror.

Karl Houser and his cousin Emmet McClintock spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Maude Stover, of Warriors Mark spent last week with Mrs. Isenberg. Chester Geist also spent Sunday at the Isenberg home.

R. G. Goheen is a juror this week, corn and oats seem to be growing nicely in this part of the valley.

Memorial services will be held May 29, at the Pa. Furnace cemetery, at 10 o'clock, and at Graysville at 9 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. Campbell and Rev. Armstrong.

Laura Cole is improving as rapidly as is possible.

HOUSERVILLE.

Wm. Bible and Prof. George P. Bible made a flying trip here last week, to see the latter's mother, Mrs. William Coble.

John Marshall, wife and little son Fredrick, took a drive to Bellefonte last Saturday engaged in fitting themselves out for the summer.

We greatly sympathize for the misfortune that came to Grant Coble, last Monday evening, on the burning down of the house they occupied which was printed in last week's issue of this paper; they are very comfortably cared for in the home of William Coble's here, and the people around the vicinities, are helping them in their needs, which they are very thankful for.

Mrs. Jeffery Houts and son Ira, spent a few days with her parents last week.

J. W. Dale and D. Tressler transacted business at the county seat last Thursday.

John Stover and family took a drive last Sunday afternoon out in the barrens among the beautiful pines.

Sparr Wert, of Tusseyville, was the welcome guest of his parents, over Sunday.

Paul Stover has gone to Philadelphia, where he secured a good job; his many friends wish him abundant success as he stands very highly in our community.

Harry Crouse, our wide awake huckster, made a business trip to Renova last week.

Mrs. Annie Detwiler, accompanied by her brother, was down to see their father who is seriously ill with his son James.

Mrs. Haines, who has been confined to her bed for eight weeks, we are glad to say, is able to be around.

Herbert Hosterman and wife, of State College, visited a few days at the home of E. G. Mingle's.

J. H. Bailey, of Pennsylvania lodge, of I. O. O. F.; J. L. Holmes, of State College lodge; John Grove, of Lemont lodge, and Al. Gingerick, of Boalsburg lodge, were representatives at the Grand Lodge meeting at Harrisburg last week.

MADISONBURG.

On Sunday morning Rev. Bixler preached a very appropriate sermon to a large audience and afterward communion was administered. At the close of his service he announced that in four weeks from that morning he would preach his farewell sermon. We are sorry to see him go.

Charles Grimm and family were over on Sunday from Flemington to attend the communion service and remained to fix up his burial lots.

Bloom Shaffer and wife were here from Lock Haven over Sunday with his father, U. S. Shaffer. Bloom is pleased with his clothing store. He says he can't complain for want of sales.

Frank Erdley and wife, of near Lewisburg, were visitors at Harvey Miller's and William Limbert's.

Mrs. Nathaniel Shaffer and daughter, of Tyersville, were over on a visit to her parents, Joseph Rachau's and Mrs. Shaffer's. Maggie says, "Give me Madisonburg and surroundings to live in."

Mrs. Samuel Gettig and her daughter, Mollie Kern, went to Spring Mills to visit her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Moyer, as Mrs. Kern is going to Ohio next week to her husband who has rented a house there and secured carpenter work for the summer.

Mrs. Elmer Miller is in the Lock Haven hospital for treatment, but so far there is not much improvement.

We had a heavy frost Monday morning but the fog was so heavy that no harm was done.

The corn which was planted two weeks ago is up nicely, but the crows are playing havoc with it. Wheat has come out wonderfully. Fields which looked almost bare are promising a fair yield, but what sowed in August is fine. It pays to sow wheat in August.

Frank Yearick and son are busy skidding their bark and have teams hauling it to Coburn. When done with the bark they will have a few car loads of staves to haul.

Evans Yearick, our lumberman, is on the sick list and is in bad shape. His many friends would like to see him well. He employs a lot of men and pays them well, and he is a great help to the community financially.

Frank Miller has been in bed a few weeks, and Dr. Bright is attending him, but he is not improving any. His many friends are anxious to see him get well again if it is God's will.

Mrs. Harvey Miller is seriously ill.

A. Ocker has been sick for awhile but was able to come to church on Sunday, but is far from well yet.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure. Renders the food more wholesome and superior in lightness and flavor. The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

BENORE.

Grace Farber, Henrietta Laufer and Viola Laufer, of here, and Marie Muffett, of State College, spent last Tuesday evening at the home of Blanchard Mattern; report having a glorious time playing the piano and dancing, after which they retired. They returned home the next day and the girls certainly were surprised when they saw the two-horse carriage hitched up to take them home.

Harry Murtorf, who is employed in Bellefonte, spent Sunday at home; also Wm. Gates, who is employed at Dr. Fay's, at Pine Grove, spent Sunday at home; also Frank Fields spent Sunday at home; also Bond Mattern, who is employed at Tyrone, spent Sunday at home.

Pennsylvania Railroad Bulletin

SUMMER TRIPS AFAR AND NEAR. Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have begun.

America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither wend the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation.

Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by the Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets.

From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all-summer guests.

Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.

Information may also be secured by addressing Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa. St. Louis, D. P. A., 205 Fifth Avenue, New York City; Wm. Pedrick, Jr., D.
