HOWARD.

"Flowers June. When brooks send up a cheerful tune. And grooves a joyful sound." On next Sabbath, June 6, there will be preaching in the several churches in our town and at the appointments which centre here as follows: Methodist Episcopal—The pastors of the Howard and Snow Shoe churches will exchange pulpits and Rev. B. Frank Ruch will preach in Howard at 10.30, at Kennedy at 2.30, and at Curtin at 7.30. Reformed—Rev. H. I. Crow will preach at Hubersburg at 10 a. m., at Mt. Bethel at 2.30, and at Salona at 7.30. Church of Christ—Elder J. H. D. Tomson will preach at Snow Shoe at 10.30 a. m., which will be the beginning of a protracted meeting to continue indefinitely. Christian Chapel—Children's Day Missionary Service, for which a careful program has been prepared, will be held in the evening, and therefore the usual Presbyterian service, Rev. Joseph C. Kelly, pastor, will be held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The fire fly hung out his first little lantern promptly in the evening of Tuesday, June 1. Notwithstanding continuing cold weather, which makes almost all the corn look as though only the "little yellow" variety had been planted; the winter grain and grass are looking fairly well, and early potatoes in bloom were seen on Saturday, May 29. After eight months of weary and suffering confinement to the house and dreadful malady rheumatism, Willard McDowell took a short drive about town on Tuesday last week and on Saturday was taken in a buggy to the diamond, greatly enjoying the ball game.

A missionary from Korea, Miss Gut-happel, will deliver a free lecture in the Methodist church at 7.30 in the evening of Friday, June 11, when she will tell of her work and experiences in training these people. A general invitation is extended. It is officially announced that Bishop Garvey, of this diocese, will hold a confirmation service in St. Bernard's church some time in July. Date will be given later. Mrs. Rollin S. Taylor started on Saturday for an extended visit with friends at Mill Hill, Williamsport, Muncy and Watsontown. McDowell Bennisson, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday visiting with his family here.

Mrs. G. W. Wolf, of Fiedler, and Edward Glantz and wife, of Woodward, drove across country on Saturday to visit with Sumner Wolf and family, the ladies being respectively mother and sister of Mr. Wolf. Mrs. Wolf and three children accompanied the party on their return, to spend a few days in Mrs. Wolf's old home. Helen Bennisson was a Lock Haven visitor last Saturday.

S. B. Hetrick, cashier of a bank at Thompsontown, and D. M. Hetrick, cashier of another bank at Millin, and Mrs. D. H. Kloss and daughter Pauline, of Altoona, made up a week-end party at the home of Matthew Rogers, Jr., who is cashier of our local bank. As the lady is a sister of Mrs. Rogers, and the two gentlemen are brothers of the two sisters, and Mr. Rogers' father is a bank director in the Juniata Valley, it seems to be a pretty strong family of bankers. If they are all as successful as Matthew Rogers, Jr., we are probably building the foundation of a future family of Rothschilds.

Some 75 or 80 of Howard's patriotic folk helped at the unveiling of the beautiful Clinton county Soldiers' and Sailors' monument at Lock Haven on Saturday last. Jennie Kane is visiting in Williamsport. Mrs. E. C. Dietz and daughter May spent last Sabbath in their home here. On Tuesday they again closed their house and went to Hecla, where they will spend several of the summer months with Mrs. Dietz' parents, S. P. Hockman and wife. A number of our citizens attended the funeral of Samuel Vonada in Bellefonte last Tuesday, the widow, Mrs. Vonada, having lived here in her girlhood, and being a sister of Mrs. John Weber and Mrs. W. H. Holter, two of our prominent young matrons.

Lock Haven and Beech Creek friends entertained Annie, the daughter of Jacob Robb, Saturday and Sunday. The lawn of John T. Schenck and wife will be the scene of a pie and cake sale and social, in the afternoon and evening of next Saturday, June 5, for the benefit of the Woman's Home Missionary society. Children's Day services in the Reformed church have been slated for the Sabbath evening of June 13. Mrs. Martha Packer, of Mountain Eagle, spent last Sabbath with friends and relatives here. Mrs. Henry Confer, of Keating, spent the latter part of last week with her nephew, Robert P. Confer, of the township.

The heavy thunderstorm of last Tuesday will long be remembered by Miss Butler, who was on duty at the exchange at the time. While answering a call from Beech Creek, a heavy current from the skies followed the wire into the exchange resulting in a severe shock to the operator, from the effects of which she has not fully recovered. Our base ball team played its first game on its own field last Saturday, with the Beech Creek nine against them, and have been feeling about as small as fifteen cents ever since. This encouraged the Mill Hill team to come up here on Memorial day, hoping to take all the hair that the Beech Creek fellows had left on the heads of the Howard team. They were thoroughly disillusioned and wallowed to the very loud music of three to one.

K. G. Shutt, of the firm of Shutt & Pouison, who built the Howard Handle factory nearly thirty years ago, and whose wife was Jennie, daughter of Jackson Gardner, was a visitor at the home of his father-in-law, last Sabbath. Mr. Shutt is now a successful building contractor with his home in Warren, Pa., and said very pleasant things of the improvements in Howard since he was one of its enterprising citizens. Foundryman John Wetzel spent last Sunday with his parents in Lock Haven.

Taken all in all Memorial Day and its observances were more than usually attractive and satisfactory. The weather, on both Sabbath and Monday was all that could be desired, and no untoward incident occurred to mar the celebration. On Sabbath day the Post, accompanied by all the orders of the town, attended the First Reformed church, and listened to a strong, well-wrought sermon by Rev. H. I. Crow, based upon 2 Timothy, 2nd chapter, 3rd and 4th verses: "Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life: that he may please Him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." On Monday at 1 o'clock, the Post and the several orders formed again, and led by the Howard band, marched and counter-marched through our streets, finally halting at the cemetery where the usual ceremonies which accompany and constitute the decorations of the graves of the comrades who have been finally mustered out were very beautifully performed. The old war drummer boy, Al. Roberts, took his drum and most effectively rolled "taps," as the roll of the dead heroes was called by Commander H. C. Holter. Then, filling in the church, the large audience heard good music specially practiced by the choir, and a very thoughtful oration by J. Kennedy Johnson, Esq. Henry Thompson followed by reciting and pronouncing a well selected oration originally delivered during the Revolutionary war. Comrade Joshua Pheasant added a few well considered remarks, and the ceremonies closed by the audience standing and singing the Star Spangled Banner, led by the choir. Much attention and work had been bestowed upon cleaning up the cemetery and adorning the graves with flowers, and it seemed to be the common judgment that the old resting place never before looked so well. The rapid thinning out of the old heroes who fought the great fight of the early sixties was made painfully manifest at these ceremonies, as but thirteen, all told, answered to their names during the two days: J. R. Pheasant, James Wyble, W. J. Wilson, H. J. Pletcher, W. H. Neff, Charles Rush, James Tison, William Rymert, John Knarr, M. P. Holter, J. B. Holter, H. C. Holter, David Tanyer.

Little three year-old Doyle, son of Clarence Poorman, at Jacksonville, fell from the porch of his home last Sunday evening and suffered a bad break of his arm at the elbow. It so chanced that Dr. W. J. Kurtz was close by in attendance upon a patient and at once looked after the poor little fellow. The successful efforts of our citizens to give our streets a clean, neat, tidy appearance on Memorial day were largely handicapped by the unsightly advertising signs and bills of all colors, shapes and sizes stuck upon telegraph and telephone poles. Why should not the street commissioner be instructed to remove those now already defacing the streets and an ordinance against the nuisance be enacted at the council meeting next Monday evening. William Edman, of Chicago, is a visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. C. Lucas. Dr. C. M. Fox entertained his sister, Mrs. John Wasson, of Lock Haven, last Thursday. Edward Leathers and his sister, Mrs. Gardner, of Renovo, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Ira C. Leathers.

Rev. O'Hanlon celebrated mass in St. Bernard's church early last Sabbath morning and later in the forenoon at Nittany Hall. The Doctors Tibbens and Mrs. Tibbens, of Beech Creek, autoed here on Sabbath, visiting and dining with their friends. The girl who can sharpen a lead pencil has been found. Luther Stephenson and wife, R. H. Bennisson and wife, Peter Robb, Jr., and wife, constituted a congenial party who were entertained at the hospitable home of Charles E. Yearick last Sunday. Oscar Miller, of Punksutawney, with his daughter, visited his aged father, Carpenter Miller, at the home of Shuman Holter, over Sunday. Morris Crispin, of California, Pa., was also a visitor.

The "hiking party" fad, which is to be highly commended, has attacked the young ladies of the community and on Wednesday morning last ten from among "our bunch of girls" walked to Beech Creek, calling upon friends by the way, and returned on No. 53. These were the capable girls: Anna and Josephine Muffley, Emma, Edith and Nellie Weber, Minnie Robb, Sara Water, Jennie Kane, Susie Confer and Flora Pletcher. J. Edward Taylor and Arthur and George Long joined an excursion from Beech Creek, and visited Watkins Glen, on Monday last. They are enthusiastic as to the beauties of the place. Mrs. William P. Lucas was an outgoing passenger on 51 Tuesday morning. There was an alleged show in town Monday evening. It was one of the sort that any community can get along very well without.

Mrs. Dr. Hensyl, so long a patient sufferer from a complication of physical ills, is now in a very serious condition. George Robinson, son of Irvin Robinson, who recently bought the Jacob R. Leathers farm, was brought home on No. 51, Tuesday morning, from Tyler, Clearfield county, seriously, though not dangerously injured. He was working in the woods and on Monday afternoon a heavy limb of a tree fell, striking him on the right side of his head and shoulder and terribly bruising him. Dr. Kurtz skillfully patched him up and bandaged him, and he was taken to his father's house with hope of speedy recovery. Mrs. Antes Confer, of the township, lies near death's door. Miss Bowes is on the list of the seriously sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. Eliza A. Pletcher, of Dakota, Ill., formerly Miss Muffley, and now the widow of Henry Pletcher, who was a member of the old Pletcher family of this place, reached her 83d birthday last Tuesday, June 2, and her relatives and friends here deluged her with a shower of post cards which probably outnumbered her years by far. Capt. S. H. Bennisson still holds his own and, with undaunted courage and unflinching cheerfulness, looks forward hopefully to complete recovery.

Alfred Lucas, of Romola, was badly kicked in the face by a horse on Monday last. No bones broken but his face is badly cut in several places, particularly over his right eye and upper lip. Dr. McIntyre sewed and fixed him up, and hopes he may recover without great disfigurement. Charles V. Woodward, of Howard, who has been for nearly three years with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. at Pittsburg, and has, in that short time, been advanced through several of the most important departments of that great corporation, has just been promoted to the selling staff, in charge of Eastern Pennsylvania. To be placed in the department of sales indicates a most thorough knowledge of electric business and manufacturing. "Charlie's" friends are congratulating him upon his fine achievement. He is a sterling fellow, well known, and well liked. The new schedule which went into effect on Monday last establishes these hours for passenger trains at this point: Eastward—No. 50 at 10.02, No. 52 at 1.47, No. 54 at 8.46. Westward—No. 51 at 8.55, No. 53 at 12.40, No. 55 at 4.17. The congregation of the Church of Christ is putting down a fine new brick sidewalk in front of its meeting house.

UNIONVILLE. Beautiful city—Our town has donned her summer garb of brilliant, verdant here, and now she's a thing of beauty and a joy till fall. Col. Eli E. Erhart of Ardara, is shaking hands with his many friends in this section. Thomas McClellan, wife and interesting progeny, and Mrs. Charley Stover, all of Altoona, were visitors over Sunday at grandpa G. W. Morrison's. Mrs. Ada Fultz and granddaughter, of Shepherdstown, West Va., is a visitor to friends in town. Charles Rowan, of Bellwood, and his sister Maggie, of Tyrone, spent Decoration Day at their home here. Harry Braid, of Bellefonte, a nice looking fellow, and a representative of the Centre Democrat, made a business call on ye writer, Monday. Mrs. Maggie Young, nee Bonham, who about 20 years ago, resided in this town, but now of Olean, N. Y., with several of her bright offspring, is visiting friends in town. Mrs. Albert Hazel wishes the world to know that she will have a goodly supply of her home-made, toothsome ice cream for sale every Wednesday evening and Saturdays during the summer. Billy Parsons is the first to put down concrete pavements—verily thou shalt have thine reward. There are many more to follow, will give a full list when all are completed. Ed. Barton has a faithful old horse of the female gender, that is 30 years old. He bought her 23 years ago and she has never voted the Democratic ticket. Henry Irvin Stere, whom the boys have nicknamed Pete, has purchased the house and lot he has resided on for twelve or fifteen years, paying rent therefor of course. Good move, Pete. Hereafter his name will be found on the list of taxpayers, among the owners. Howard R. Pratt, son of Squire Riley Pratt, a graduate of State College in civil engineering, has climbed to the top rung in his chosen profession. He has recently been appointed chief engineer of the Western Maryland railroad, with headquarters at the Continental building, Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. Nannie Williams has climbed on the band wagon and has taken a front seat. She is beautifying her home by giving it several coats of paint. Artist Billy Rothrock, of Lock Haven, is doing the "coating." Mrs. W. B. Parsons will accompany her son George to the Mont Alto sanitarium on Wednesday, where he will remain for treatment. George has been sorely afflicted for several years with a terrible cough which was generally believed to be caused by tuberculosis, but it is now believed to be throat trouble. George is a fine young man and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Granger S. K. Emerick, has taken the first step towards the erection of a 20-foot addition to the grange hall by hauling a load of building stone for the foundation wall. Decoration Day was observed at this place on last Saturday and as heretofore a large number of people from out of town came in dressed in holiday attire, to participate in the solemn proceedings. The day was an ideal one and all the Sunday school boys and girls as well as grown up people were seen carrying loads of beautiful flowers with which to decorate the graves of our brave soldiers who gave their lives that the Nation may live. Rev. J. S. Oyler delivered the Memorial address in the afternoon, in the old Union cemetery in town, which was of such an interesting character as to hold the crowd spell-bound; at the close of his address they adjourned to conclude the ceremonies in the M. E. church at 7 o'clock. One of the most interesting incidents was the address delivered by the Hon. E. Senator Wm. C. Heinle. We have had the pleasure many times to hear the Senator speak on various topics and I believe this was one of his best efforts. Mr. Heinle is too well known as an orator, to need comment at our hands. On Sunday evening the grand army men belonging to Peters Post, went to the M. E. church in a body, where the annual Memorial sermon was preached by the Rev. Oyler. An attempt to give a synopsis of this great sermon would be futile. Suffice to say, it was full of patriotism and religion. The church was practically filled to the doors and the entire audience was fairly thrilled and charmed with the words of eloquence and patriotism that flowed from the lips of the speaker; many being affected to tears. The following is a list of the old veterans who were present: Fred Senser, Tommy Senser, Dr. E. A. Russell, W. R. Potter, Eli E. Erhart, I. G. Alexander, Geo. P. Hall, I. B. Stere, George W. Morrison, John Biddle, A. J. St. Clair, James McClincy, George Neiman, and Al. Roberts, of Bellefonte. The inevitable Al. Roberts came up from the county seat to play the drum for our parade. He brought with him his little son Joseph, who was the hero of the day on account of the way he handled the drum sticks. Joe is after his father's scalp and if Al. don't draw the brakes on his young hopeful he will lose all the laurels he has spent so many years to obtain. Prof. Bob Cambridge was the fifer and Ed. Barton pounded the bass drum. Master George Griest came in from Phillipsburg to spend the summer with his gran'parents to recuperate and "fatten up." Woe be to the minnies and stony cats, also sparrows.

No Wonder She's Cross. Among the medicines that are recommended and endorsed by physicians and nurses is Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. For many years it has been regarded by doctors as the medicine most likely to cure coughs, and it has a strong hold on the esteem of all well-informed people. When Kemp's Balsam cannot cure a cough we shall be at a loss to know what will. At druggists and dealers, 25c.

COBURN. Charles Mallory is assisting F. J. Malone in the creamery. C. B. Breen and family, of Union county, spent a few days with relatives here. We are glad to note that E. A. Bartges, who was sick, is gaining strength again. Esta Rishel accompanied Paul Kerstetter and wife to their home at North Bend and spent a few days with them there. C. Alexander and daughter Nora, of Smithtown, visited at W. J. Harter's and J. W. Kerstetter's on Sunday. All are invited to attend the Children's Day services in the United Evangelical church on Sunday evening at 7.30. Mrs. N. F. Braucht and two sons, Arthur and Paul, of Dewart, visited at the home of W. L. Hosterman. Mrs. J. C. Krumrine, of Weiker, spent a few days with her parents, T. W. Hosterman's.

Quite a number of farmers and others listened to the State College Educational train lectures, and were well pleased with what was said. John and Blaine Hosterman and Eugene Stover, sons of two prosperous farmers near Woodward, spent a short time here on Saturday. FERGUSON TWP. BAILEYVILLE. We are glad to see C. B. Hess able to be around again. The memorial services of May 29, were well attended. Rev. Campbell delivered the address at Pa. Furnace and Rev. Armstrong at Graysville cemetery. Very good music was furnished by the Baileyville cornet band. After the exercises a festival was held by the band. Nora Goheen and Mrs. Denton Peterson, attended the Sunday school convention in Phillipsburg, May 27 and 28, as delegates from the Baileyville Sunday school.

Mrs. Hamill Goheen and two children are visiting in Bellefonte and vicinity. Thomas Gates, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his brother. Isabel Goheen, of State College, is visiting friends here. Edward Irvin and wife, of Altoona, spent Memorial day with his mother. Preparations are being made for children's service to be held June 20. Paul Farber, of Benore, assisted with the music on Memorial day. Mrs. L. M. Houser and daughter Mildred, spent Sunday with friends in Tyrone. SOBER. Edward Noll and wife, of Pleasant Gap, spent a couple days at U. G. Aumans; also Margaret Dunklebarger. Viola Harter from Centre Hall spent Sunday with her lady friend Edna Shook. Daniel Shook spent Sunday at Geo. Bowers. Furl Auman made a business trip to Centre Hall one day last week. Milton Vonada and family spent a couple days in Sugar Valley. Mave Vonada who is working for her brother Milton, was home over Sunday. Furl Auman also Rosie Gentzel spent Thursday in Millheim. Mrs. Harry Gentzel and daughter Rosie were callers at Jim Bangers on Tuesday. Furl Aumans was a pleasant caller at Lemont on Monday. Mrs. A. Bower was a welcome visitor at Daniel Shook's last Sunday. Sadie Breen spent a couple days in Georgesvalley last week. Mrs. A. N. Bierly, of Boonville, having spent part of last week visiting friends at Spring Mills, Penn Hall, Coburn and Millheim, having made her journey on foot, she has something to boast of. That's the good old way—get out with your autos. JAMES SCHOFIELD

GREGG TWP. NORTH PRECINCT. Quite a few of our people attended the show at Bellefonte. The festival was well attended on Saturday. J. B. and A. W. Rossman spent Sunday with their parents. Mazie Bailey and Mayme Zerby spent Sunday at J. W. Rachau's. The Union Sunday school will hold a picnic and festival June 6. The picnic will be held in Frank Duck's woods and the festival at Hoy's school. The band will be there afternoon and evening. Highly Complimentary. One of the leading merchants in Bellefonte is James Schofield who is the veteran harness dealer, whose place of business is on South Spring street. The following letter will fully explain to the reader as to the kind of goods he handles: Mr. James Schofield, Bellefonte. Dear Sir:—I find that you charged me five dollars more than what we had contracted for but the harness suits me so well that I will pay the amount of the bill most cheerfully, and not say any more about it, as I think they are dandy set of harness. So you will find enclosed check for same. Yours truly, W. L. HOSTERMAN. I need not state that I appreciate this compliment coming from the above gentleman. We have sold this firm in the last five or six years quite a number of harness, some touching the hundred dollar mark. I recognize no competitor in the county or any other place in getting up fine heavy double team harness or any other style of harness. Mr. Hosterman knows where to buy, he deals in fine horses, and wants the harness that fits. Truly yours, JAMES SCHOFIELD
