

Correspondents' Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

PINE GROVE.

Frank Mayes, of Lemont, was an early Monday morning caller at the J. I. Reed home.

J. W. Sunday returned home on Friday after a pleasant trip to Gettysburg.

Miss Earheart, of Guthrie, Okla., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. S. Bierly.

Paul Martz, accompanied by Misses Mabel Smith and Grace Musser, spent last Wednesday with Kyle Osman and wife at State College.

Lynn Bell, of Spruce Creek, is visiting with his grandparents, J. W. Sunday's.

Luther Dale and family, of Pleasant Gap, visited at the home of Wm. Dale on Saturday.

J. I. Reed lost a valuable cow last week.

Mary Decker, of Altoona, is visiting her cousin, Teoda Decker.

J. B. Goheen, of Pa. Furnace, spent last Tuesday with David Barr.

Messrs. Krebs, Heberling, Tate and Dale spent Friday at Houserville, fishing.

Mrs. Earl Smith and daughter Ada, of Altoona, spent a few days with her parents, W. D. Pork's.

On Thursday morning Mrs. Frank Swabb and son, departed for an extended trip to Illinois to visit Mrs. Gearhart.

Maudie Decker, of Altoona, visited with her parents on Sunday.

Mrs. John Musser has been on the sick list during the past week.

Don't forget the children's services to be held in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening, June 20, for the benefit of Lovsylvan Orphan's Home.

A. C. Fye, of Boulder, Col., is visiting his aged mother, Mrs. David Fye.

Harry Collins, wife and son, of Pittsburg, are visiting at the home of W. A. Collins; this is Harry Williams' first trip to grandpa's house and Mr. Collins is as happy as a lark.

Those who are attending Commencement at State College this week are Miss Estelle Heberling, Mrs. Anna Miller and Mrs. Simon Ward and children.

PINE GROVE NO. 2.

Mildred, daughter of J. F. Wieland, is quite ill.

Mrs. L. H. Osman is nursing a badly sprained limb.

Mrs. John Kuhn, the oldest lady in Shingletown, is ill.

The other morning an unusually large bird sailed from old Tussy and was brought down by the Hon. J. W. Kepler's rifle. It proved to be an eagle and measured seven feet two inches from tip to tip.

A little girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Koch.

Aunt Lizzie Kimpfort, who has been quite ill the past week, is convalescing.

Farmer J. F. Kimpfort had the misfortune to fall down a flight of stairs, sustaining ugly bruises.

The stork visited the Henry Sents home on the Branch, last Saturday, bringing a bouncing boy.

WINGATE.

Mrs. Edward Sprow and family, of Altoona, visited relatives here last week.

Edna Murray returned to the home of Chas. Myers at Tyrone, where she is employed.

Willis Hoover left on Monday for Altoona where he expects to assist his son for a couple days, returning Saturday.

Mrs. Eli Stere left on Thursday for Altoona where she contemplates visiting her daughter and son returning Thursday evening.

Clinton Murray and family, after an enjoyable visit with his parents, returned to their home at Altoona, on Tuesday.

Esther Reese, of Bucyrus, Ohio, spent a couple days at the home of Geo. Summers.

Carrie Newkirk, of Altoona, is visiting her father P. B. Iddings.

Marie and Geraldine Murray left Thursday for Altoona, where they expect to spend several days.

Fishing and boxing are all the rage here; everybody thinks they are best man; no final decision given.

Leonard Watson is now employed on the tracks under Thos. Murray as a "Paddy."

Jane Estright and family left Saturday to visit relatives at Tyrone.

Mrs. J. H. Snyder left Saturday for Philadelphia, where she expects to visit among her many friends.

Roy Peters and Margaret Taylor, of Unionville, spent Sunday with their sister Lida Hoover, at the home of Ezra Fisher.

Last Saturday No. 64, enroute from Snow Shoe to Bellefonte, wrecked two cars and tender of engine, at No. 1 switch-back near Aqua, caused by a broken flange on end car, from engine. No one hurt.

Childrens services held at M. E. church at Milesburg was well attended by our Wingate aristocracy.

ROMOLA.

The Children's Day service held at the Reformed church on Saturday, was quite a success.

There will be Children's Day service held in the Disciple church on Sunday night, June 20th, at 7.30. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Mary Glessner, of Howard, spent a few days at Wm. Wensel's and from here she sojourned to Orvis.

Quite a number of people from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Antes Confer, of Howard twp.

Rev. Patterson, of Blanchard, visited among his friends here on Monday.

Those who visited at Mrs. Wm. Robb's on Sunday were Mrs. Wilbur Hall, of Howard; L. N. Bickel and wife, of Mill Hall; Mrs. McKibben and Mrs. Frank Stutzman, of Williamsport.

The family of John Singer have been quarantined on account of scarlet rash.

PINE GLENN.

The Methodist will hold their Children's Day service on June 20th, in the evening, at seven o'clock.

Wm. Hoover spent Sunday with his parents.

Preston Mulholland returned from Curwensville.

Iva Askey returned from the Lock Haven Normal.

Quite a number of our young people attended the Children's service at Moshannon last Sunday.

Mrs. N. Vallimont is not any better.

It's a good plan to count the cost, and then perhaps you won't have to pay it.

MILESBERG.

Ralph E. Thomas Sundayed with his parents.

A pound party was given in honor of the Baptist minister, Rev. Eldridge and family on Friday evening, June 11th. Members and invited guests numbering 50 were present.

A game of base ball was played on Saturday between Millheim and Milesburg, the score 11 to 10 in favor of Millheim.

Robert Sellers and family, of Altoona, are guests of his parents, Joseph Sellers.

Carl Hale and Marion Hunt, of State College, visited the Bullock family.

Mrs. Margaret Fulton died Thursday morning at her late home. She was buried in the Advent cemetery on Saturday afternoon, Rev. R. S. Oyler officiating.

L. C. Brady and family attended the funeral of his son's wife at Lewistown.

Ella Confer is visiting relatives at Clearfield.

Lynn Parsons, of Punxsutawney, is visiting his uncle, E. Bullock.

Rev. R. S. Oyler returned home after attending the Epworth League convention at Altoona.

Bessie Miles, of Dickinson seminary, Sundayed with her grandparents.

Bald Eagle grange will hold a festival on Saturday evening, June 26th. All are cordially invited to be present.

John A. Whiteman, wife and son Harry, are at Hicks Run, cooking in a lumber camp.

Mrs. Harry Whiteman is visiting her parents at Howard.

Jennie Adams is employed at State College during commencement week.

The summer Normal closed a successful term on Tuesday, June 8th.

Ralph Weaver and mother, of Windber, are visiting James H. Weaver.

Daniel Boyer has returned from Allport, where he was visiting his son.

The Methodist Sunday school held their children's day services on the 13th under the tutorage of the sup't., L. T. Eddy. It was a lengthy program, lasting two hours of solid entertainment.

All participants, old and young, who had taken part in the services, rendered their parts well, bringing out their capability of committing to memory any part that should be handed to them. Instrumental music by orchestra, organ, cornet, violin, clarinet and trombone, accompanied by vocal music by the class of married women and young men. To give the full particulars of the entertainment would fill three columns. We will mention in particular two pieces that will not soon be forgotten. The drill march by the flower girls, it cannot be too highly spoken of—the drill was well rendered, not a mistake made; the building of the temple was fittingly done. Every stone was laid in relating the Christian's duty, with the building standing on the rock Jesus for its foundation, firm and solid.

BELLEFONTE—R. 3.

Prof. J. E. Wagner, and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents here.

J. D. Keller purchased a driving horse Friday.

J. O. Clark is painting Robert Brennen's house.

H. F. and William Grove have purchased Harvey Hern's outfit and expect to do thrashing the coming fall.

Mrs. Wade Herman, of Philipsburg, is visiting her parents, G. S. Keller's, this week.

C. B. Hoy spent Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon at the home of J. D. Wirt.

G. S. Herkimer lost a valuable horse last week.

The carpenters are weatherboarding D. Y. Wagner's house.

John Wirts and mother spent Sunday in Altoona.

Grant Cobel has gone to housekeeping in the Ira Benner property.

Sadie Rumberger has returned home after spending the last eight weeks here attending the Lemont normal.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Benjamin Arney, of Centre Hall, spent a few days at the home of Ira Gramley's.

Walter Orwig and daughter Florence visited his parents at Hartleton.

The citizens band played for the Odd Fellows at Tylersville, on Saturday and in the evening they furnished the music for a festival at Rebersburg.

Among those who are at State College this week are E. G. Mingle, Mrs. Mary Burd, Flossie Stover, Ardenna Harmon and Nellie Mingle.

James Breen and wife attended a funeral in Georgesvalley, on Monday.

Claud Wert and family, of Tusseyville, visited his parents, James Wert over Sunday.

Prof. R. U. Wasson and wife have gone to spend some time with their people at Lemont and Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Lizzie Bowersox and children are visiting her parents J. P. Condo's, at York.

James Wert has gone to spend a few days with his children at Tusseyville.

Neal Musser and wife, of Zion, spent the Sabbath at the home of John Haines.

BUFFALO RUN.

T. A. Hartsock and son are preparing to plaster the house of John A. Hoy at State College.

Mrs. Woodford and daughter spent Monday of last week here.

Our ball team played a game at Scotia. The score was 20-21 in favor of Scotia. Boys, you must do better than that.

Syra and Margaret Hartsock spent a day with Mrs. Richards last week.

Mrs. Dr. Harshberger and sister Frank were visiting J. C. Hartsock last week.

Mrs. Robert Gray, of Stormstown, was at Gray's church on Sunday afternoon. She says there will be a lawn social at Mrs. May's for the benefit of the church.

Quite a crowd of our young folks attended children's day services at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

A number of young people were invited to spend an evening with J. L. Hartsock.

The man who sympathizes with the under dog doesn't always stop to consider that the under dog may have been the right.

Spectacles are sometimes worn just for the looks of the thing.

WOODWARD.

Harvey Garrett and family, of Sugar Valley, spent Sunday among friends here.

L. L. Weaver, wife and daughter Maud, Dorothy Whitney and Dolly Kerstetter spent Sunday at L. D. Orndorff's.

Roy Musser and Harry Wolfe made a trip to Sugar Valley, Sunday.

Bruce Motz and Charles Musser spent last Thursday on a fishing trip in Brushvalley, returning home on Friday.

The members of W. C. No. 357, P. O. S. of A. of this place, are making preparations for Memorial services to be held on Sunday, July 4th, at 2 p. m. The Sunday schools, ministers and also W. C. No. 625, P. O. S. of A., of Aaronburg, will be invited to participate in the services. A capable speaker will be obtained for the occasion. Everybody is cordially invited.

Jay Ettingler and Lydia Williams, after spending some time in this community, returned to their home at Moose Run.

George Smith and family, of Wolfe's Store, spent Sunday at Israel Runkle's.

E. F. Orndorff and mother, Miss Phoebe Wise, also L. D. Orndorff and wife made a trip to Millheim on last Friday afternoon.

Spike and lady friend, Miss Bessie, attended the festival at Rebersburg on last Saturday night.

Abe Treaster and wife visited in Union county last Saturday.

Remember the Children's Day services to be held on Sunday night, in the Evangelical church. Everybody cordially invited.

Jackson Sheesley received the sad news on last Saturday, that his daughter Mrs. Wm. Miller, of Carroll, Pa., was at the point of death, not having heard any news since, the scribe hopes a speedy recovery of Mrs. Miller.

T. D. Bowersox, our up-to-date cobbler, is ready to do all kinds of work. Therefore give him a trial.

WOODWARD NO. 2.

Farmers are all busy working their corn and potatoes; next will be heard the sound click-click of the clapper in the grass fields.

W. E. Hosterman, Reuben Sheasley and Uncle Mich. transacted business at Millheim on Saturday.

Wm. Smith, formerly of this place, but now has his home with his son Elmer, near Sober, is visiting his many friends in our neighborhood.

Mrs. D. G. Mingle and son Ammerman spent Saturday and Sunday at W. E. Breen's, of Spring Mills.

C. H. was a welcome visitor up the valley on Saturday night.

Wm. Fultz is sawing shingles for H. E. Hosterman.

John says "I wish the school would come."

C. E. Kreamer made a business trip to Millheim on his "bike" on Saturday.

I. M. Smith, wife and two children, Sherman and Nora, of Haunsbarrack, spent Sunday at Wesley Naaveley's, at Pine Creek.

Angrily wishing to buy a large night owl, call on Charles Orndorff, Woodward.

SMULLTON.

Arthur Rachau and family, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday at Harry Smull's.

Edwin Winters, of Spring Mills, was the guest of his parents P. D. Winters, over Sunday.

H. R. Brungart spent a few days at Selmsgrove, visiting his brother Prof. Edwin Brungart.

Roy Lambert, son of Harry Lambert, had the misfortune of having his elbow dislocated through a fall while at school, last week.

S. A. Walizer who spent a few weeks at the Bellefonte hospital, is home again.

John Winters, a mail clerk, at Philadelphia, is staying a few days with his parents Perry Winters.

Serene Harry and wife were to Tylersville last Saturday.

Maud Winter, who was working at State College a few months, is back again.

W. M. Bierly made a business trip to Mill Hall last Saturday.

A. N. Brungart moved his saw mill from this place, east of Rebersburg last week.

The festival held at Rebersburg, by the base ball team, was well attended by people from here it being a nice evening and the boys had a large crowd.

Jason and Miriam Moyer, who are attending school in Virginia, are spending their vacation under the parental roof.

Maud Corman, of Penn Hall, is at present staying at Geo. Corman's.

A few more weeks then the air will be filled with the fragrant smell of the new mown hay.

GREGG TWP.

The U. E. Sunday school held children day services on last Sunday evening which was well attended, and every thing seemed to pass off nicely.

Sunday School in the U. E. church next Sunday at 1.30.

Mrs. Hiram Grove and daughter Pearl of East Pittsburg, were visiting at her parents last week.

Some of the farmers are working corn, and I saw where there was some grass mowed.

Mr. White, our road supervisor, is making great improvements on the road at this place.

STORMSTOWN.

John Giffin, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Chester Ever and wife, Willie Way and wife and two children spent Sunday here with Martha Way.

Mrs. White, of Altoona, is visiting at George Lona's.

Some of our young folks attended commencement at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Goodman and two children and little niece are visiting her parents, C. W. Hunter's.

Edith Lytle has returned home from White Haven. Everybody glad to see her.

ZION.

The Children's Day exercises held last Sunday were the best held here for years and a word of praise is due those who took such active part in the work.

D. C. Grove and Joel Struble still remain in a critical condition. Their recovery is doubtful. George Rockey, who was injured in the runaway last week, is able to be out again.

Don't forget the festival at the Evangelical church next next Saturday evening, June 19.

Miss Fisher, of McAllisterville, is visiting her uncle Dr. P. S. Fisher.

BENNER TWP.

Mrs. Wm. Stover, of Boalsburg, spent a few days last week with J. F. Stover's.

Geo. Noll made a fine improvement on his barn.

Earl Grove had the misfortune of cutting his thumb on Friday.

Flossie Marble, of Axemann, just got back from a very pleasant visit with friend Earl Pine Grove and left on Thursday for State College where she will locate for a week.

J. F. Stover had the misfortune of losing the best hog he had.

William P. Irvin, foreman of the White Rock Railroad, with Markle and Noll, are getting the track ready for the Taft boom. I told them.

E. E. Sunday, of near the Gap, is feeling a good bit better this time a girl.

James Musser, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with J. F. Stover's.

Geo. Miller, of Axemann, is looking for a first class trustworthy man to help handle the goods during the boom hours.

Samuel Markle, of Axemann, I notice, painted his front yard fence; I guess he used White Rock lime, it looks well.

Frank Charles and wife, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday afternoon with J. F. Stover's.

ROCK FORGE.

Harry Benner visited in our town on Sunday forenoon; in the afternoon he left with his lady friend, Nellie Struble, to attend the commencement at State College.

Ira Benner and family went to Boalsburg on Sunday to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Maurice Bohn.

Henry Walters returned from Pine Grove, Saturday evening, bringing his lady friend, Ann Gummo with him to spend a few days with his parents and friends at Rock.

Runkle Frazier and lady friend, Mollie Crape, spent Sunday with friends at Jacksonville.

William Walters sold his fine grey horse last week for the sum of $200, to Mr. Hartle, of Bellefonte.

Henry Walters and wife returned home on Sunday from Centre Hall where they had been attending a funeral of the latter's cousin.

J. Harris Hoy visited at Rock one day last week and took a look around the old quarry where he used to run full blast; he says it looks lonely; come again Harris you're welcome.

Miss Mary Wands, of State College, visited her parents and friends here on Sunday.

PORT MATILDA.

Mrs. Gilbert Eller and Mrs. William Hoover, of Port Matilda, are undergoing treatment in a Philadelphia hospital; we are pleased to note from report that they are improving.

Mrs. Rudolph Gingery has returned from the Bellefonte hospital in a fair way to recovery.

The barn on the farm of Lemuel Reese was destroyed by fire last week; no particulars.

Robert Kelley, of near Port Matilda, and Miss Gertrude Warren, of Decatur township, Clearfield county, were united in marriage on Thursday, June 3rd, 1909, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Warren, of the above place. We not only wish them success in life but hope the sunshine of kindness toward each other may shine on them constantly through life's journey.

George Stine, who for two years past has been traveling through the far west, after visiting several different states, he rates California as the garden spot of the west.

Mrs. C. Reese has returned home after a visit of a week or more with her son, James and Arthur, residing in Tyrone; she reports an enjoyable time.

Lizzie Crum has been enjoying a vacation since closing a successful term of school teaching in Philipsburg. Lizzie is not only a successful instructor, but a close student in her profession as well, and deserves a term of recreation a portion of which she spent visiting friends in Tyrone, Bald Eagle and elsewhere in Blair county.

Robert Kelley has had a both neat and comfortable dwelling house erected on his farm in Reese Hollow, Geo. Harshberger and Lafayette Ross, of Port Matilda, did the carpenter work and the McAfee brothers, of Stormstown, did the plastering; both jobs are a credit to the contractors.

The recent rainfall has greatly improved the growth of both the grain and hay crop; the spring crop looks highly favorable in this vicinity.

JULIAN.

John Straw, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks, is very low with little hopes for his recovery. He is now in his 83rd year.

Boyd Williams and wife, of Grampian, are visiting at the home of G. H. Buckley.

Children's Day will be observed in the M. E. church on next Sunday evening, June 20th, beginning at 8 o'clock. A good program and fine music will be rendered. All are invited to this service. A silver offering will be taken up to pay the expenses.

Maggie Stevens, of Half Moon, is visiting at the home of Irvin Gray's.

Harry Coble, who has been in the Bellefonte hospital for several months, is home again and is able to resume his carpenter work.

The U. B. church will hold their Children's Day service, Sunday, June 24th. A full account will be given in next issue of this paper.

Allen Boyer is all smiles now since the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

Mrs. J. P. Anderson, of Emporium, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Tallheim.

Wilbur Myers made a trip to Williamsport on last Thursday, being his relief day.

Our town is beginning to look something like it now—quite a number of the property owners are improving around their homes which adds greatly to the looks of the town.

Ella Fleck was called to Snow Shoe to attend the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Williams, who died very suddenly.

Mrs. C. M. Swope transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday.

Don't forget the Methodist Children's service next Sunday evening promptly at 8 o'clock.

STORMSTOWN.

On first of July our mail will be changed and we will have free delivery.

Dr. Coons spent a day in Bellefonte last week.

John Cronemiller transacted business in Bellefonte, last week.

Mrs. Coons and three children left on Friday to spend a few weeks where she spent her childhood days.

Mrs. Frank, and little son, has gone to spend a while with her father.

NITTANY.

Harvey Corman and wife, of Rebersburg, were guests of S. Peck and wife and Tillie Peck and sons several days last week.

Don't forget the big band festival at Nittany on Saturday, June 26th; all are cordially invited to attend and have a good time.

Wm. Harris, of Lock Haven, was here one day last week. Mr. Harris is a very pleasant gentleman and we are always glad to have him in our midst.

Mrs. Butler, formerly Miss Elsie Gates, of this place, now of Bald Eagle, with four of her children, were visiting her parents and many friends here.

Mayme Zerby and mother were Bellefonte visitors one day last week.

Those from a distance attending quarterly meeting here on Saturday were Mr. Gross, Mr. Smith, Mr. Bartley and Alma Stine, of Zion, and William Minnick, of Hubersburg; the meeting was presided over by Presiding Elder J. C. Reecer.

Horace Winkelman and wife are visiting relatives at Avia.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Charles Gunsallus is able to sit up again and Mrs. Webner is improving slowly; Mrs. Mauck stays about the same, Amanda Dorman has laid away her crutches but she still limps some yet.

W. E. Kessinger lost a valuable horse one day last week.

Boyd Emerick was a Bellefonte visitor over Sunday.

Green Rodgers, who is away attending school, spent last week with his parents and many friends.

Quite a number of our people attended Children's Day service at Clindondale, Sunday morning.

Tillie Peck and sons were Jacksonville visitors on Sunday.

Merrill Robb was a Lock Haven visitor on Sunday.

Charley Emerick and mother, of Snydertown, were visitors to our town, Sunday.

Charley Gunsallus and his father and the Snavely brothers have gone to the Alleghenies for a week's fishing; we hope they will have good luck.

HECLA.

The park is being cleaned up beautifully.

Saturday afternoon and evening the Hecla Park Athletic Association held a festival in the park for the benefit of the Hecla base ball team. They had a large crowd and the boys took in the sum of $70. This will undoubtedly be of great importance to the boys in defraying their expenses and in purchasing material. The citizens of this vicinity contributed liberally to the team, which shows the interest they take in the national sport. In the evening our local team crossed bats with the Hubersburg nine and defeated them by a score of 7 to 3. Any team wishing to have a game will apply to L. N. Fisher, m'gr., Zion, Pa.

FAIRVIEW.

Rev. Hamilton, wife and little daughter Margaret, of Runville, spent Friday at the home of John Baijets.

Nancy and Nellie Kelley spent Sunday at Yarnell.

Lloyd Shawley and Ezekiel Lucas spent Saturday evening at Curtin.

Harry and John Shawley, of Yarnell, were in this part of the country last Wednesday.

Irvin Confer and wife spent Sunday at the home of John Watson, of Divide.

Kodibel Yarnell spent last week at the Kelley home here.

WADDLE.

Children's Day service will be held in the U. B. Church Sunday evening, June 20. All are invited.

H. B. Sellers is improving.

Mrs. Dailey, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas.

We Give Away Absolutely Free of Cost

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English, or Medicine Simplified, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, a book of 1008 large pages and over 700 illustrations, in strong paper covers, to any one sending 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, or, in French Cloth binding for 31 stamps. Over 650,000 copies of this complete Family Doctor Book were sold in cloth binding at regular price of $1.50. Afterwards, one and a half million copies were given away as above. A new, up-to-date revised edition is now ready for mailing. Better send NOW, before all are gone. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION
THE ONE REMEDY for woman's peculiar ailments good enough that its makers are not afraid to print on its outside wrapper its every ingredient. No Secrets—No Deception.
THE ONE REMEDY for women which contains no alcohol and no habit-forming drugs. Made from native medicinal forest roots of well established curative value.

Children's Barefoot Sandals

50c

GOOD QUALITY

SIZES 8 to 2;

Worth $1.00 and $1.25, on sale at 50c a pair. Do not come too late.

YEAGERS SHOE STORE.

BELLEFONTE PA.