HOWARD.

On next Sabbath there will be preaching in the several churches in our town, and at the appointments which centre here as follows: Methodist Episcopal—Pastor R. S. Taylor will preach at Howard at 10.30, Kennedy 2.30, and Curtin 7.30. Communion services will be observed at each of the three appointments. Church of Christ—Elder J. H. D. Tomson will preach at Flemington Saturday and Lord's day. United Evangelical—Pastor W. W. Rhoads will preach at Fairview at 10.30 a. m., Jacksonville 2.30 p. m., and Howard 7.30 p. m. Christian Chapel—Rev. Joseph C. Kelly, (Presbyterian) will preach at 7.30 in the evening. Reformed—Pastor H. I. Crow will preach at Mt. Bethel at 10 a. m., at Salona at 2.30 p. m., and at Hulbersburg at 8 p. m.

The delightful, gentle, soaking rain of last Thursday night greatly refreshed the earth and added to the comfort of living. Corn and the very late potatoes will derive benefit from it, but oats was past help, and the crop will be light. Corn is hanging back because of the decidedly cool nights which continue. Hay and winter grains are practically all housed and in the best of condition. The gathering of the Methodist clans of the Altoona district in our town today and this evening, is an event of large interest not only to Methodists but to the whole community. The program presented is an attractive one. Our good landlady of the Howard House, Mrs. Chas. McMurtrie, who has been a patient sufferer for many weeks, is recovering rapidly from a serious operation at the skillful hands of Dr. Ball, in the Lock Haven hospital, and is expected home in a few days. Her complete convalescence is greatly wished for. Harry Holtz, of Bellefonte, visited his friend, Miss Hensly, over Sunday. Mrs. George Wistar is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Mary Spangler and daughter, of Chicago. Emma Schenck entertained her friend Malcom Wetzel, of Milesburg, last week. A wide and well laid walk, of good Howard brick in front of A. A. Schenck's hardware store on Walnut street, fills a long felt want and adds greatly to the appearance of that section of the town. More such are needed in the same neighborhood. Harry Hayes, one of Howard's boys of years ago, and now a prosperous Chicago citizen, with his young son, are home visitors. W. J. Ulmer, of New York, visited his uncle, Dr. W. J. Kurtz, last week. Mrs. W. L. Harvey and niece Rebecca Lucas, of Lock Haven, and Oscar Lucas, of Altoona, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. H. T. Lucas. Auditor's Report of Howard Boro School District for 1909:

.....Sec. Mrs. Elmer Bowes, of Tyrone, was a Sabbath day visitor at the home of Thomas Bowes and family. Captain Bennison is mending to the extent that he walks the length of a square or two on the street nearly every fine day. J. Kennedy Johnson, Esq., was a Sunday visitor in town. Miss Delaney, of Milesburg, whose long retention as teacher of the school of that burg, is an evidence of the good judgment of the school authorities, was a guest of Mrs. McKinney last week. Mrs. E. C. Deitz and daughter Mary were Sunday visitors at their home here. Deputy Revenue Collector George Reese, of Bellefonte, was a last week's visitor on our streets. The veteran business man and capitalist, J. King McLennahan, of Hollidaysburg, was seen on our streets last Tuesday carrying his eighty-two years as easily as most men carry sixty-two. Mary Riddle Moore, of Spokane, Wash., who has many relatives and near friends in Howard, greatly appreciates the CENTRE DEMOCRAT, as "a weekly letter from home."

Two families of young cat birds and half a dozen homes of baby robins, in sight and almost within reach of the correspondent's desk, are cheerful and interesting neighbors. Mrs. John Holmes spent the last days of last week with friends, and returning brought with her Mrs. Wakefield, a sister of Mr. Holmes. Last Thursday Mrs. Bazlet, of Liberty township, entertained at dinner the ladies of the Aid Society of the Reformed church, and some of their husbands. Matthias Walker and family visited at Eagleville last Sunday. Mrs. Harry Stover and Mrs. William Kissing, of Eagleville, were Sunday morning arrivals.

On Saturday afternoon last some twenty or more members of the P. O. S. A. took No. 55 for Marthas station, under direction of District officer Wilbur F. Leathers, to institute a new camp of their order in that vicinity. This took away so many members of the band that we were deprived of our open air concert that evening. Miss Taylor, of Mechanicsburg, is spending a week or two with her brother, the Rev. Rollin S. Taylor. The serious illness from which Miss Rhoads has suffered for several weeks past has developed into a case demanding surgical aid, and on Monday last her father accompanied her to Philadelphia where she will enter the Methodist hospital to undergo an operation. The unfortunate young lady has the sympathy of very many friends, who are earnestly hoping for her complete recovery. Myrtle Fletcher is spending some weeks with her aunt in Clearfield. Eugene Fletcher and sister Alice, of Philadelphia, are vacation visitors at home. The entanglement in the halter of its mother, who was tied in the stall with it, killed a fine six-weeks old calf for W. R. Gardner, a day or two ago. West Main street is being further improved by Chief Burgess George H. Leathers, who is putting down a good five-foot brick sidewalk on his property. Capt. Bennison is enjoying a visit from his brother, George C., of Du-Bois. C. M. Muffly and son Harvey, left on Tuesday for an extended trip in the west and northwest, which will probably occupy two or three months of time, and cover a large extent of territory. "Dot" Weber and Mabel Confer shopped in Bellefonte on Tuesday. Samuel Baker, of Des Moines, Ia., is a visitor in his old home town. He is a son of Hiram Baker who in days gone by won the reputation of being one of the best teachers of the county, and a grandson of Jacob Baker, who, in his day, was the Dean, by virtue of length of service, excellence of judgment, and knowledge of the law, of the Justices of the Peace in the county.

LOGANTON.

A large crowd witnessed the base ball game between the locals and the Rebersburg teams near the passenger depot on Saturday afternoon, in which the home team won by a score of 10-6. Chester Albright had the misfortune of being hit by a swift ball on Saturday, striking him in the face and causing him much pain and a very much swollen face. Nathan Friedman and Harry Wren called on friends in Lock Haven on Sunday. Miss Besse Messinger, of Williamsport, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kline, for a few days this week. W. S. Rhoads, of Lewisburg, was in town calling on friends over Sunday. Miss Edna Edmunds, of Pine Station, paid her grandparents, George Burd and wife, a few days' visit this week. Miss Myrtle Smith, of Westport, visited at the home of Jacob Smith and family this week. B. C. Achenbach and wife, of Lock Haven, accompanied by the Misses Julia Sayer and Jennie Newberry, of Kent, Ohio, spent Wednesday at hotel Logan, coming and returning in their large auto. Col. H. S. Taylor and Chas. R. Kurtz, two prominent business men of Bellefonte, were noticed in town last week. John C. Lush has returned to St. Louis, after a short visit with his family, to resume the pitcher's box for the St. Louis National league team.

Mrs. Wilson Klister and party of seven, autoed to our town Thursday, stopping at the Logan hotel for dinner. Frank L. Dershem, of Lewisburg, was a business caller in town last week. D. Scott Currin has gone to Milton where he secured employment in a large printing establishment. E. J. Pearson, of Jersey Shore, and Miss Sus Gann, of Oval, were pleasure seekers in town on Monday. C. O. Dunlap, wife and child, of Lock Haven, greeted friends in town over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Berry, of East Nittany valley, Mrs. Wallace Lytle and daughter Florence, of Ridgway, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Karstetter last week. Jacob Zimmerman and wife, of East End, were visitors at the home of E. M. DeLong and family on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Heltman, of Clintondale, and Mr. McSwavely, of Mackeyville, Sundayed with W. C. Karstetter and wife.

Among the prominent Miltonians in town last week were: H. H. Harris and wife, J. E. Moore, C. H. Moore and Howard Moore. W. R. Montgomery, of Williamsport, A. Henderson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Margaret Montgomery, of McEwensville, were registered at Hotel Logan on Saturday. Definite action has been taken in the matter of holding the annual camp meeting, since a large number of the cottages have been rented. The services will commence August 18th and continue until the 26th. Mrs. Morris Banzhof and Miss Ella Puss, of Philadelphia, and Miss Creta Saylor, of Norristown, are spending a week at the home of Rev. J. H. Rosenberger and wife.

MEXICO.

Local capital is being solicited to help finance the Mexico Gold Mines & Investment Co. The Vice-President and General Manager of the company took a committee, composed of the following gentlemen, over the company's properties situate in the state of Durango, Mexico: T. B. Motz, of Millheim, Pa.; A. R. McNitt, Bellefonte, Pa.; and Jas. W. Keenan, 369 Cortelyou Road, Brooklyn, N. Y. The party left New York on June 17th and returned July 13th, having spent two weeks in and around the various mines, during which time they carefully examined same in every detail, as well as visiting many other properties in the near vicinity. These gentlemen have made a very interesting report of their findings to the company, a copy of which can be had free of charge by writing any of the following: the company's office, 78 Broad street, N. Y. C.; Carl Motz, Woodward, Pa.; or Ex-Judge John G. Love, Bellefonte, Pa. This report is an especially valuable one in view of the fact that Mr. T. B. Motz, of Millheim, is a practical miner of many years experience in the silver mines at Leadville, Colo., and Couer-de-Leone, Idaho. Mr. McNitt is well known hereabouts for his business sagacity. The Mexico Gold Mines and Investment Company have eleven big mining properties, one of which is to day producing (and has been for two years) about $10,000 per month. The company is capitalized very low, and its affairs are in the hands of careful, conservative, and honest men. To the people who are looking for a conservative and permanent investment, the stock in this company offers many inducements. A close study of the report will convince you that this proposition merits your careful consideration and co-operation. Any of the above named gentlemen will be pleased to give further information on request. Write to-day for a copy of the report.

PENN TWP.

Miss Kathryn Stover spent a couple days with her friend, Furl Auman, H. V. Gentzel and family spent Friday at A. D. Smith's, and Marilla Lingle spent Sunday at U. G. Auman's. Mrs. Howard Eisenhuth spent a couple days in High valley. C. Auman was a pleasant caller with J. J. Gentzel on Friday. Childrens' $1.25 oxfords now 75c. At Yeagers.

WOODWARD. Not having any rain of any amount for more than a month the shower on last Thursday night was certainly welcome to all the field crops as well as the garden vegetables. E. J. Stover, wife and little son, Daniel, visited at David Musser's, of Wolfs Chapel, on Sunday. Harry Wolf, of Straw Berry Park, and Chester Stover, of Fiedler, spent Sunday very pleasantly at the hospitable home of W. E. Hosterman. Two certain young gentlemen, north of town, left suddenly on Saturday night for places where they were welcome and cordially entertained until sunrise. They returned safe and sound, but it was almost an impossibility for John to keep awake in Sunday school. No wonder he was so impassionate all day on Sunday. Harry Wolf and Fred Guisevite made a flying trip to Coburn on Saturday night. Harry goes quite frequently; suppose he thinks the day is coming when he will be rewarded for his faithfulness. Nuker and uchy were welcome visitors at W. E.'s on Sunday. W. C. Smith, an old resident of this neighborhood, but now has his home with his oldest son, Elmer, of Sober, is her visiting his many friends at present. W. E. Hosterman, wife and son, Earl, spent Saturday in Union County. O. Perry Smith, wife and two children, Charles and Owen, of Fairview Ave., and Harry and Lodie Wolfe, of Rebersburg, took a pleasant drive through town in their surrey, on Sunday evening. C. E. Kreamer, one of our public school teachers, left last week for South Dakota, where he expects to remain for some time visiting his sister, Mrs. L. K. Dennis, and their friends. T. G. Wolfe and family spent Sunday at Harrison Stover's, at Pine Creek. Don't forget the festival on Saturday night; come one and all and enjoy yourself.

CURTIN. Mrs. Elmer Justice and children, of Coleville, are visiting friends here. Joseph Shope and wife, of State College, visited friends here over Sunday. Hunter Dukeman returned home after a two-weeks' visit with his brother at Clearfield. Charley Richards, of Port Matilda, visited his aunt, Mrs. Bion Williams on Sunday. Mrs. Rachel Glenn, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her son Jerry. Samuel Baker, of Des Moines, Iowa, was calling on his many friends here last week. It has been twenty years since he was in Centre county. Everybody was glad to see him. Miss Myrtle Bathurst is suffering with a very sore arm. Communion services will be held in the M. E. church Sunday evening, at 7.30 o'clock.

COLLEGE TWP. ALTO. Mr. Martin's two little girls are ill with fever. Bill Bodie, of Pleasant Gap, spent a day with his mother Mary Bodie, here. Mr. Tressler and family, Mr. Bowmaster and family spent Saturday fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Vail, of Julian, spent part of a week visiting the home of Mrs. Vail's parents. The meeting at Thompson's mill is still going on with good turnout. They claim that State College is without a licensed hotel; if such is the case some one had better look out for there are many drunk men come from there. Cloyd Lomison, of Snow Shoe, is working for G. B. Thompson, all are glad to see him back. Mrs. Carrie Gummo and five children spent a few days at Dunn Gavir. Childrens' $1.50 oxfords now $1. At Yeagers.

ZION. Jacob Struble, of Pittsburg, is spending a few days at his home here, after attending the funeral of his uncle. Fannie Stein has gone to Jersey Shore for a few days. Mr. McEwing and wife, after spending their vacation here, have gone to their home in Philadelphia. The wheat and hay crops in our vicinity were good, and put away in fine condition. The oats crop looks fair but unless we soon get rain the corn and potato crop will be short. Our Sunday school will picnic at Hecla Park on Saturday, Aug. 7. The community and all their friends are invited. Last Saturday afternoon, the men working at Eby's saw-mill near here, found a large blacksnake hanging to an oak tree, about 20 feet from the ground. After it was killed the reptile was measured and found to be 5 ft. 9 inches in length. While fishing in Greensvalley on Monday, Chas. Fisher, of this place, while wading the stream stepped by the side of an old stump, one of the roots of which penetrated his foot and inflicted an ugly wound. Samuel Frank and wife, of Jackson-ville, were callers at the home of Mrs. M. Corman on Monday. Wm. Smith has started his threshing outfit. He does first class work and deserves the patronage of our community.

COBURN. W. J. Rote, of Chambersburg, is here preparing lumber to ship to that place where he intends to erect a new house. Mrs. James Smith, of Johnstown, spent a short time here this week. W. D. Sholter and wife are visiting at Gettysburg and other places in that part of the state. Clarence Fryer, who is employed in West Virginia, is visiting his aged father. Dr. G. A. Harter and wife, of Maytown, paid a few days' visit to the doctor's mother, Mrs. Andrew Harter. Anna Hartline spent last week with friends at Spring Mills. John Keen and wife, of Millheim, visited at the home of W. J. Harter. John Zeigler, of Swingle, visited for a few days at J. D. Marks. Stella Hosterman is spending this week with friends in Brushvalley. After spending a few weeks here O. E. Meyer and wife returned again to their home in Philadelphia. They were accompanied by Marion Kerstetter, who will be a student in the Pierce school in that city. Last Friday a girl was born to Newton Boyer and wife at the Beahm home east of this place, and Newton is happier than ever.

SMULLTON. Clarence Musser and family, of Aaronsburg, spent last Sunday at Hackenburg's. Everybody welcomed the refreshing rain which fell last Thursday. Mrs. Henry Winkleblech and two sons, of Renovo, are guests of her parents, James Miller's. Nita Greninger is spending several days with her brother at Clintondale. Mr. Hackenburg and wife left on Saturday for a few days' visit at Hartleton. Mr. Weaver and wife, of Tusseyville, spent several days at Sereno Haugh's last week. Curt Bierly and family, of Dents Run, is spending some time with friends and relatives here.

Marriage Licenses. Nittany { Lewis Peck Sarah E. Michtley Paul Weaver Pearl Gulgery Albert Fulton Sarah Gentzel Joseph Walizer Susannah Miller John Reed Blanche C. Turney Port Matilda Martha Spring Mills Eagleville Bellefonte

PINE HALL. Most of the farmers are done hauling in grain. The ball game was well attended, Saturday. The score was 7-8 in favor of Pine Hall boys. Alfred Albright made a flying trip to Bellefonte, Thursday. A festival will be held at Pine Hall, Aug. 14, by the B. B. team; everybody is invited.

LYONTOWN. The stork, though very busy in our vicinity, found time on the 21st to deliver a ten pound boy at the home of Charles Tierney, at Curtin. Just arrived in time to take care of mother. C. M. Tierney left on the 22d for the encampment at Somerset. Mrs. Maud Haney, of Marysville, is a pleasant visitor at the home of E. W. Tierney, at Lyontown.

Pennsylvania Railroad

Bulletin FORTY PLAYGROUNDS BY THE SEA This is seashore time. The dog days call to the worker in home, office, and mill and the answer brings up thoughts of the many resorts beside the sea where comfort, recreation, and pleasure alike await the coming of the holiday-maker. Along the shores of New Jersey from Cape May to Sandy Hook lie forty beaches, each offering delights for outings long or short and each easily accessible by the splendid train service of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Atlantic City, with its myriad attractions for young and old, needs no introduction, for its charms are known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Cape May, for a century the summering place of satisfied thousands of seekers after cool breezes, fine bathing, and the refined amusements of the seaside, is more attractive than ever in its new life. Ocean City, Wildwood, Sea Isle City, with their smaller neighbors, Angelsea, Holly Beach, Wildwood Crest, Avalon, and Stone Harbor, afford summer pleasure to thousands. To the north lie Beach Haven, Seaside Park, Island Heights and the other resorts about Barnegat Bay, where the lover of fishing and sailing finds the choicest sport. Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Spring Lake, Long Branch, Sea Girt, Point Pleasant, Allenhurst, Elburon, and Belmar on the Upper Coast where the country meets the sea right on the beach, appeal with mighty force to the vacationist. Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will be glad to give full information regarding excursion rates, time of trains and arrange your outing whether it be for a day, a week or the whole summer.

REDUCTION SALE OF OXFORDS AT KLINE'S SHOE STORE In order to make room for our Fall and Winter Shoes I am compelled to reduce my stock and am therefore offering all oxfords at a greatly reduced price. The oxford season is now fairly on and if you wish a bargain call and examine our styles before going elsewhere. HENRY KLINE, BELLEFONTE, PA.

REDUCTIONS End of the Season GOODS that have not been marked high in order to mark down. CLEARANCE SALE IT HAS been our custom each season, towards the close of the season to make big reductions in the piece of all clothes on hand, so as to have nothing but new styles every season to offer, and make room for incoming stock. For this season our reductions will be bigger than usual—but we are determined to clear our racks and tables. You'll find good selections of the newest season's styles, and all reductions positively as advertised. MEN'S SUITS AND TROUSERS $10.00 Suits, reduced to $ 6.66 12.00 Suits, reduced to 7.90 15.00 Suits, reduced to 9.85 18.00 Suits, reduced to 11.90 20.00 Suits, reduced to 13.50 $25.00 Suits, reduced to $18.51 Men's Trousers, one-third off Boys' Suits, one-third off Boys' Wash Suits, one-half pr.
