

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

John Knisely left Tuesday afternoon for Pittsburgh. D. F. Fortney, Esq., transacted business in Lock Haven on Wednesday. W. H. Mackler, the green grocer, went to Philadelphia on Wednesday. William Otto, wife and son left Wednesday afternoon for Williamsport and Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schad and children left on Wednesday afternoon for Punxsutawney where they will visit friends. Mrs. Wilcox, wife of Dr. Wilcox, pastor of the Methodist church, left Wednesday for Williamsport where she will visit friends. Wilbur Twitmyre, Jr., formerly of Bellefonte, is playing ball in Richmond, Va. Down there they play to crowds of 15,000 people. Miss Gene Long, an efficient operator of the Western Union Telegraph Company, of Philadelphia, is spending her summer vacation at her home in Bellefonte. We call your attention this week to Willard's advertisement in this issue. A clean-up sale—read it, and then go and invest in some good dependable goods at a clean-up price. Will some one please explain why vegetables at the Bellefonte Curb market cost our people about 50 to 75 per cent. more than the same articles are sold for at Lock Haven or Williamsport? Roasting ears have made their appearance in our curb market and sold last week at 20 to 25 cents per dozen. The Lock Haven market is also supplied and the daily of that town quotes them at 15 cents per dozen. Mrs. Lamar Stevenson, of Niagara Falls, is in Bellefonte on a short visit with relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Stevenson will possibly be better known as Mrs. Alice Cowdrick in this community. The reasons given for illuminating the dial on the court house tower are various, but the best we have thus far is—that it will enable a lot of married men in Bellefonte to know when they should be at home at night with their families. Mrs. John Hazel and two children, of Niagara Falls, are in Bellefonte for a visit of a month or more at the home of Stuart Peck in Bellefonte, her mother, Mrs. Stanton, of Wadell, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Yarrington, recently moved from Richmond, Va., to Williamsburg, Mrs. Yarrington will be better remembered as Miss Roberta Alexander, daughter of the late Senator C. T. Alexander, who at one time made her home in Bellefonte. Mr. John Bartruff, of Boston, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday for a ten-day visit among Centre county friends and while here he will likely assist in running the Scenic several days while manager T. Clayton Brown takes a little trip to Philadelphia. Miss Ione Donachy returned home from Reading, where she is employed in a large millinery establishment, for her summer vacation. She was accompanied by Master Gilbert Deratine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deratine, who will spend some time with his grandparents in Bellefonte. Miss Ella Gates, accompanied by her nephew, Charles Gates, have left for a visit of several weeks at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes C. Dixon, of Johnstown. She also expects to visit her mother, Mrs. David Gates, of Warriorsburg, before returning home. Harris Hoy, of Bellefonte, has taken the agency for the Automobile Co-operative Association of America, whose general offices are in New York and Philadelphia. The plan is to reduce the cost of the various parts of a machine. That is, the automobilist who has a membership in this Association can secure supplies considerably cheaper than buying them through other agencies or direct from the factory. See Hoy about it. J. Norman Sherr, Wallace Gephart and James Purser have returned from their big hunting trip through the forests of New England. They came back with interesting stories of their trip which sound like fairy tales. They were on the water most of the time and had thrilling experiences and marvelous escapes. In going through the wild forests they found moose and deer exceedingly plentiful, and they stood within gunshot of them, as if to say: "We are not afraid of you because it is out of the season." They thoroughly enjoyed the trip. The Pennsylvania Match Company has in contemplation the erection of several new buildings. The first to be commenced within the next couple of weeks will be an extension to the chemical department and machine shop. This building will be 60x40 feet. In order to make room for these improvements the company has leased from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. the meadow between the American Lime & Stone Co.'s operations and the site of the old nail works for storing timber. A railroad siding has been built through the center of the ground, thus making available storage facilities for 4,000,000 feet of lumber. Through the solicitation of Al Garman and the courtesy of Frank K. Lukenbach, vice president of the Blair County National Bank, of Tyrone, we received one of the now much sought after Lincoln pennies that have just come from the United States Mint. The design is beautiful and has the appearance of a gold piece of much larger denomination. It is of a smaller size than the old ones in circulation, having on one side the portrait of Lincoln with the words "In God We Trust." Of course they must have forgotten to consult "Teddy" when this favorite American inscription was placed over the head of our martyred president. On the other side are the words, "One Cent; United States of America."

Job printer Bartges, of Spring Mills, was a business caller. 12 dozen metal egg crates free with shoes purchased at Yeager's shoe store. J. W. Zerby, of Gregg, and J. W. Hall, of Snow Shoe, were business callers. It is crucial to jump on the Bellefonte base ball team. They did the best they could. Mrs. Agnes Moore, of Philipsburg, is the guest of Mrs. Sadie Saterfield, on Bishop street. Singelton Bell, Esq., a prominent attorney of Clearfield, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Cyrus Labe has returned to her home in Altoona, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lose. Mrs. Mary Butts came to Bellefonte on Saturday and spent Sunday among friends here. This was her first visit to Bellefonte in several years. Judge Ellis L. Orvis and Col. J. L. Spangler, with their wives, returned home on Sunday morning from a week or more spent at Atlantic City and other points. Miss Bettie Heinle, of Bellefonte, who was stenographer for Uzzie & Chambers, Snow Shoe, has accepted a similar position with the Karthaus Brick Co. Hon. John Noll, of Bellefonte, has the contract for the masonry work for the new addition to the court house. He will commence work just as soon as possible. Miss Blanche Underwood head stenographer for the Pennsylvania Match Co., has returned from her vacation. She had a very enjoyable time and returned fancy free. The Misses Blanchard, of Chicago, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte, left on Saturday afternoon for Lock Haven where they will be guests of their sister Mrs. Dr. George Green. When Capt. R. F. Hunter arrived home on Saturday from encampment at Somerset, Pa., he unloaded his new "E. M. F." car and gave it a thorough trial which pleased him with the investment. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith, who lived and kept house in part of Mrs. William Dawson's house, on Spring St., have left for Philadelphia for an indefinite stay. They have a number of friends there whom they will visit. Dr. E. F. Simpson, of Scranton, transacted business in Bellefonte this week. While cranking an automobile he sustained a broken arm that put him out of business for two months, from which he has just recovered. J. H. Road, the auctioneer, of Lemont, was in town on Wednesday. Since returning from Bellwood he will continue to give attention to the work of crying public sales, at which he has had experience and much success. Prior to the disbanding the Allen-ton base ball team, in the Atlantic League, Harry Otto, of Bellefonte, was making good. When he returned he was reinstated in the Bellefonte team, and was a factor in making the Jersey Shore boys take to the woods. Sunday evening a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Meyers, Miss Bessie Dorworth and Dorsey Hunter sang a very pretty selection in the Presbyterian church. Messic is the charm of the soul when rendered as this was which was certainly appreciated. The Centre Democrat has received a number of communications that are not signed by the writer which, according to our rules, are consigned to the waste basket; no such communication will be published and it is only a waste of time, stamp, paper and ink to send it in. Landford Ray, of the Brockert House, has posted all the main roads leading to Bellefonte with markers showing the number of miles to Bellefonte. This is a splendid card for his famous hostelry and will be appreciated by all who travel these roads. Whenever you are within five miles of Bellefonte, you will find these markers. Wednesday morning we received a letter from David McCloskey who is well known in this community. He is now in his son who resides near Tolono, Illinois. He says they have had plenty of rain out in that section of the country, thus the prospect for a good crop of oats and corn is very encouraging. He also states that he will soon return to his old Centre county friends. Fred A. Chambers, who is traveling for a large tobacco firm in Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chambers, and his wife, who has been here for some time. He left Sunday evening on a business trip to Philadelphia and Cleveland, Ohio, when asked about the condition of his father he stated he was no better than he was several months ago. On Saturday Miss Ann Nolan, the efficient clerk in the Register's office, left for Altoona where she is spending this week as the guest of the Wagner sisters; when she returns to Bellefonte she will spend the balance of her two weeks vacation at her home sewing. When a young lady takes a week off to sew it is a strong indication that very pleasant social affair, is going to take place. Oscar Peters, agent for the International Harvest Co., has moved from Bellefonte to Lancaster where he will make his future home. The change is made for the sake of convenience, and it will enable him to be with his family more frequently than when his home was here. As usual Mr. Peters will continue to cover this territory. He is a pleasant fellow and both he and his family will be missed. Bellefonte and Centre county horsemen will be interested in the fact that George Gano, the pacing stallion owned jointly by Barton Pardee, of Lock Haven, and Irv Gleason, of Gleasonton, on Tuesday won the Chamber of Commerce stake of $5,000, in the circuit races at Detroit, Mich., and in addition a large bunch of money on the side. The class was 2:12 but the stallion won in three straight the fastest of which was 2:04 1/2. Every night there is a big attraction at the Scenic. It's a great show, full of snap and go. Nobody has to sit and listen to old antiquated songs or watch pictures that have been used over and over again. If you have seen it at the Scenic you have seen it for the first time. This is what makes this place so attractive. We cannot put in type the many expressions of favor and commendation that are heard from the many who crowd the theatre every night. The singing of William Lyle is well worth the price of admission. Go and enjoy yourself.

Dr. H. W. Tate left on Tuesday for Lock Haven where he transacted business. The "Y's Owls" camping party have pitched their tent at Hecla for a two weeks' outing. Miss Rose Gamble, who was visiting friends in Jersey Shore, and Williamsport, has returned. Col. Hugh S. Taylor left Wednesday for Mt. Gretna where he is attending the state rifle shoot. Mrs. M. H. Kirk, who had been visiting friends in Clearfield county, returned home Monday evening. Mrs. Harry Barnes and children left for her home in Pittsburg, after spending a month among relatives. Miss Margaret Burnette left on Tuesday afternoon for Syracuse, N. Y., where she will visit her grandparents. Miss Ella Gamble, of Jersey Shore, and Miss Mary Gamble, of Level, Pa., are visiting the Gamble home on Linn street. Miss Evelyn and Ida Showers have gone to Philadelphia and Atlantic City for a two weeks' visit among relatives and friends. Ex-postmaster John Hess, of Pinegrove, was a visitor at the home of H. Y. Sitzer and wife, being a brother of the latter. Hon. J. C. Meyer left Tuesday afternoon for Harrisburg, where he attended the Democratic convention on Wednesday. Miss Christine Curry, stenographer for Hon. J. C. Meyers, with her sister, Anna, left Tuesday for Clearfield where they will visit friends. Miss Kate McCoy, formerly a compositor in this office, left Monday afternoon for Buffalo, N. Y., and other places in that locality. Another little Shoemaker arrived in Bellefonte last week and will make his future home at the Shoemaker residence on north Allegheny street. John VanPelt and wife, who had been guests of Mrs. VanPelt's mother, Mrs. Rachel Harris, left Monday afternoon for their home in Spangler. Word has been received here that one of Dick Garman's daughters has undergone an operation in one of the hospitals in Philadelphia for appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ueber Tibbens and sons Frederic and Louis, of Wheeling, W. Va., will arrive in Bellefonte Friday afternoon to remain over Sunday with relatives. Miss Carrie Miller is spending her vacation with friends in Williamsport. Her place in M. C. Gephart's music store is being filled by Miss Mildred Kirk who is an expert musician. Rev. John Hewitt, the able and courteous pastor of the Bellefonte Episcopal church, left Tuesday afternoon for Buffalo, N. Y., where he will spend a short time and then he will go to Duluth, Minn. Prof. James R. Hughes, of the Bellefonte Academy, returned from a boy's hunt of several weeks. He says the indications are that he will have a large school this season. Prof. Hughes is a hustler and deserves success. Mrs. Harry Heffner, who had been spending several weeks at the home of letter carrier Edward Woods, left for her home on Tuesday. She was accompanied by Miss Mamie Woods who will visit her for a couple of weeks. Thos. D. Gray, who moved from Buffalo Run Valley to Williamsport, last year, writes us that he has purchased a farm at Light Street, Columbia Co., where he now resides. Of course he continues to read the Centre Democrat. James Holmes and wife, of State College, passed through Bellefonte on Monday on their way to Atlantic City. As this will be their first visit to this famous resort by the sea, there is hardly any question but what they will enjoy themselves. Davis Peters, of Wallawalla, Washington, is now a guest of his sister, Mrs. Choney Hicklen, on East Logan street. He is our old companion, who accompanied the associate editor to the World's Fair at Chicago, in 1893. He is a good fellow and his friends are glad to see him. A glance at the happy faces and the satisfied look speaks more than words of the pleasure derived from an hour spent at the opera house. The music, the pictures, the comfortable seating, and above all the safety with everything for the pleasure of its patrons. You should by all means be there this coming Saturday. On Monday Al. W. Stine, son of James Stine, of Bellefonte, was working on a house at State College when part of the scaffolding broke and he had a bad fall. His one side was injured to the extent that he was carried home. While he has been under the care of a physician his injuries are not such as to cause alarm. He is a carpenter. Hon. John Noll and Paul Fortney, of Bellefonte; Fred Smith, of Philipsburg; and W. M. Grove, of Spring Mills, left on Tuesday as delegates to the Democratic State convention which met in Harrisburg on Wednesday. James Corl, of Bellefonte, was one of the regularly elected delegates, but he was unable to go. Paul Fortney took his place. Among the Tyrone base ball rooters who came to Bellefonte on Tuesday were Al and Robert Garman. They are very enthusiastic over the popular game and enjoyed the sport which our team furnished them by its awkward stunts. Robert had with him the new Lincoln penny which has just been issued by the government. The Blair County Bank, of Tyrone, is giving out 10,000 of them as an advertisement, which has proven a good one. Today the Undertaking Association of Central Pennsylvania is holding its annual meeting in Bellefonte, with headquarters at the Brockert House. A significant incident is that the automobilists of the county are also holding forth here today, so that if any accidents happen among the occupants of the horseless car there will be no trouble in finding an undertaker. A large number of the latter are here and are enjoying the hospitality of our town. This week a steel ceiling is being put in Petriken hall, now being used by P. Clayton Brown as the Scenic. The hall will then be repapered, making this one of the finest moving picture halls to be found in the state. The entire building has been rewired by Francis Miller and Max Heinle, making it more convenient for the tenants to illuminate their flats. A switch board has been placed at the main entrance so that the electricity can be turned on at that point.

Mrs. Snavely visited friends at Avis, last week. Ray Showers, who is attending school at Philadelphia, is spending some time with his parents and friends here. Walter Harpster spent part of last week with his parents in Bellefonte and while there he visited the jail. He says he is going to be good so he won't need to go there to stay. S. R. McCaleb's home was a very happy one last week on account of the children's home-coming, namely: Mrs. Ernest McKibben and two sons, of Erie; Lillie McCaleb, of Pittsburg; and Eugene, of Philadelphia, where he is attending school. H. P. Zerby and wife were at Lock Haven on Saturday. Mrs. P. S. Rossman and Marie Young went to Lamar one day last week on business. Mrs. Clyde Holmes and little daughter, of Salona, were guests at the Snavely home. Jess Dean and Nelson Rossman were in Lock Haven one day recently. P. S. Rossman was in Avis last week looking for work, but failed to get a job. James Gunsallus and son Charley, William and Elmer Snavely, William E. Garbrick and a man who has been working for Mr. Gunsallus, composed a party from here who spent several days in the Alleghenies fishing and gathering huckleberries. Some of our band boys gave an open air concert at the home of W. J. Mauker, on Sunday, which was appreciated very much by all who heard it. Harry Baker took a load of one hundred bushels of wheat to Knecht's mill one day last week. George Gates had a new roof put on his house last week. His son William did the work. William Gates had a large back porch erected last week, which adds greatly to the appearance of his home. Several gentlemen from Bellefonte, while passing through our town on Saturday enroute for Fishing Creek, to take their last fish of the season, had to abandon their trip on account of their automobile getting out of order. Ollie Sweely, of Avis, visited his wife and baby here over Sunday, who are visiting Horace Winkelman and wife. Our band was at Hecla park Saturday night to furnish music for the festival which was held there. They report a good time and a large crowd. Mrs. William E. Garbrick and two children visited her parents, Ben Fisher and wife, at Snyderstown, over Sunday. Wilson Ammerman went to Howard one day last week on business. Mrs. John Delaney, of Hubersburg, visited her parents and friends here one day last week. Oscar Kramer, of Mill Hall, was guest at the Peck home for several days last week. Mrs. Perry Webber and Mrs. W. J. Mauker, who have been on the sick list for some time, are not yet much improved. We are sorry to note that Mrs. Fannie Emerick is lying very ill at her son Charley's with sciatic rheumatism. Huckleberries through here are not very plentiful, there being too much dry weather—the berries are drying up. Mary Nolan visited Mary Deitrich, of Mingoville, Friday and Saturday. Ruth Johnson, of Lock Haven, and Alma Walker, of Williamsport, are visiting at the home of J. H. Beck. A party of automobilists, of A-shland, had the misfortune to break down in front of the home of W. E. Kessinger, last Friday. After much deliberation and hard work they gave up the attempt of going farther, and borrowed Mr. Kessinger's horse to haul the machine to Emerick's barn and stored it. Ex-County Supt. Gramley, of Rebersburg, with his broad, happy smile, passed through our town on Friday. Mrs. Miller, while setting up some farm implements at Huson, met with a very painful accident. His finger was caught between heavy cog wheels and was badly crushed. Dr. S. S. McCormick dressed the wounds. The little shower of Sunday has freshened up the vegetation greatly, but we need a great deal more if we are to have a corn crop. W. H. Harter and wife, of Tyersville, accompanied by Mrs. T. R. Harter, and daughter Margaret, of Logan, were guests at the home of B. F. Shaffer on Sunday. J. C. Nolan and wife were Lock Haven visitors on Saturday. B. M. Emerick accompanied Rilla Williams and Maud Miller to their homes in Bellefonte, Sunday afternoon and returned Monday morning. Several of our young people attended the Friday evening dance at Hecla, also the festive Saturday night. Jennie Beck, accompanied by George Ery, of Reading, spent a day in Tyersville. J. C. Bergstresser, accompanied by Margaret McCormick and Pearl Hoy, two of his many friends, of Hubersburg, were driving on our streets one evening recently.

Bergstresser, accompanied by Margaret McCormick and Pearl Hoy, two of his many friends, of Hubersburg, were driving on our streets one evening recently.

Dave Holter, of Howard, was a happy little duck who paddled down the valley through the rain on Sunday evening. Some of our farmers are improving their places very much by trimming up the trees. COUNCIL MEETING. Monday evening the Bellefonte Council held its semi-monthly meeting with Pres. Judge in the chair. The other members were Messrs. Harper, Shaffer, Musser, Beezer, Yergler, Grinnay, Kirk. A communication was read from the Moshonunk Coal Co. stating that they would furnish the Council coal for $1.75 a ton, F. O. B. Kirk made a report stating a number of repairs had been made to water pipe on streets. He also reported progress as to the relining of the reservoir. A communication was read from the American Lime & Stone Co. notifying Council that the tenants in their houses at their works, near the old glass works site, would be furnished with water from their own plant, and from now on they would not pay water tax to the borough. Mrs. McNickols, who lives in one of the houses, offered to pay the borough the taxes herself if the borough would leave the water in her house. It was a question whether they could do that under the recent ordinances of the borough in which the owner of the property must pay the taxes instead of the tenant. There were also some doubts as to whether the American Stone and Lime Co. could be exempt from taxation when their property was within the borough limits. Harper, chairman of street committee, called the attention of council to the bad condition of a number of boardwalks in town. It was suggested that the annual inspection of these walks be made by Joseph Conigomer, that a sewer pipe be laid on Lamb street, so as to keep the water from his house. Kirk stated that when Lamb street was cut down to suit his purposes he promised to put in a gutter and curb but it hasn't been done. A leak in the sewerage pipe at the old Richards property, on Linn street, was also reported which was offered to be fixed. An effort is being put forth in Bellefonte to try the experiment of oiling the streets to keep down the dust, which is very annoying since Bellefonte has become a mecca for automobiles. A suggestion was made to council that if High street was prepared in the proper way and the oil applied by the borough the citizens of this thoroughfare would supply the oil. The suggestion was favorably received and commented upon and the proposition accepted. It is now up to the citizens and business men on High street to make good on their promise. It will cost less than sprinkling, and will be more effective. If a coat of extra heavy oil is put on the street now it will last until next spring. Where it has been tried it has proven a great success. Ralph Spigelmyer presented a long petition to which was attached a long list of names of our best citizens asking that an ordinance be passed prohibiting the sale or putting off of fireworks on the borough on the 4th of July. The petition is a sane one and the petition should receive proper attention. It was referred to the Fire and Police committee. Owing to a mistake in the assessment of the Stine property on Thomas street the assessment was reduced from $6 to $3. Burgess John J. Bower stated that a number of fellows had been put in the lock-up and, with the exception of one, they had all served their time, so that the borough was in for the costs which were $8. Mr. Musser reported progress on the municipal light plant. Treasurer Ed Ghret, through Kirk, chairman of the finance committee, made the following report: Balance in hand July 31, $2180.41. Bills paid to July 19, $2040.41. Balance on hand August 2, $140. Amount received from Musser for toll at Green's mill, Milesburg, $5.00; amount received from William Ishler for water taxes, $700; from J. Thomas Mitchell for tax liens, $30. This left in the treasury $875. A note for $2500 was ordered drawn for 30 days. A special meeting will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. PENNY A WORD AD.
