

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Isaac Frahn gave our sanctum a call in his usual pleasant mood.

Miss Esther McGinley and Miss Margery Miller, of Bellefonte, visited at State College, last week.

Walter E. Price, wife and baby, of Scranton, have been guests at the home of Paul Shaeffer, on Allegheny street.

David Barlett, who was injured at the P. R. R. freight station, has recovered sufficiently to be at work again.

On Thursday a can of young catfish was shipped from the Bellefonte fish hatchery to Harry W. Todd who had them deposited in Cold Stream dam, Philipsburg.

G. W. Hazel and friend Roush, of Madisonburg, were business callers; also merchant Beck, of Snyderdort, and Mr. Keller, secretary of the Grange Insurance Company.

Insurance agent Rankin and some friends were in the Snow Shoe lock-up, but got out again "some how," but as he did not wish the matter told, we'll just keep entirely mum.

The ladies of the United Brethren church will hold an ice cream and cake festival on Saturday evening in the room adjoining the church, to which the public is most cordially invited.

Among those who went to Atlantic City Thursday, were: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Fetterhoff, Mrs. S. H. Williams and S. Showers.

Rodger Bayard, of the Tyrone Herald, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. He is making quite frequent visits here which indicates that there is something more than ordinary in the air.

Today High street from the diamond to Spring street will be covered with an asphaltum mixture that is expected to keep down the dust for the balance of the season. If it proves a success other streets in the town will receive a similar treatment.

Maurice A. Jackson, who recently resigned his position with the Bellefonte Trust company, has begun work as an agent for the Reading Life Insurance company. For the present he will make his headquarters at Bellefonte, which will certainly please his friends.

Envoy Matilda Schofield, of the Salvation Army, who had been visiting at the home of Mrs. S. E. Harman, in this place, departed Sunday morning for Parker's Landing, Pa., where she is at present stationed. Miss Schofield is a very pretty and accomplished young lady, whose sweet singing in church and on the streets was greatly enjoyed by all who heard her.

Oscar Irvin Noll, of Milesburg, and Miss Rose Fauble, of Bellefonte, have been elected as assistant teachers in the High school. Mr. Noll is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College Class of '08 and last winter was principal of the Pleasant Gap schools. Miss Fauble is a graduate of Dickinson college and last school season was a substitute teacher in the Bellefonte schools.

Two conventions in this noted town on Thursday were singular coincidences. There was the convention of the state association of Undertakers to devise the best methods of getting folks underground and also the State Highway commission and attendants with the county supervisors, assembled to devise the best method of having the people on the roads above ground. The undertakers will be able to get all their work "under," whether the good roads men will be equally as fortunate, will tell as "we drive along."

The Leathers brothers, real estate dealers at State College, will have a public sale of building lots in that thriving borough on Saturday, August 14th, at one o'clock in the afternoon. A free special train will be run from Bellefonte, and as an extra attraction they have arranged for a balloon ascension and band concert. One lot worth $500 will be given away. Fifty choice lots will be sold affording a good opportunity to investors or home-seekers. The advertisement is open to everybody. See advertisements in this issue.

It's up to Bert Taylor to make good, and he says he is going to do it if he has to keep his men on double turn. We are now speaking of the heavy ledge of rocks that has to be removed in the rear of the Court House before the cellar is made for the new addition to the Temple of Justice. The indications are that he will have to go through fifteen feet of almost solid rock, which will require much time and labor. The other day one of his mules went through a deep cesspool which is located back there. The heavy harness is the only thing that prevented a dire disaster.

Mrs. James Ott, of Bellefonte, who has furnished a large number of people in Bellefonte with home-made bread, has desired to go out of the business. For years the Ott bread was found on the table of a large number of families in Bellefonte. She not only furnished bread to consumers but baked excellent pies and cakes which were also in great demand. The reason she is discontinuing is that she thinks she has worked long enough, and is desiring of a rest from facing the fry furnace day after day which she has done for a number of years. The family will remain in Bellefonte.

One of the pleasantest homes in Bellefonte is that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warfield, who are located in the elegant stone mansion on the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets. It is one of the homes in Bellefonte which has many beautiful and attractive environments. The house is located on a plot of an acre of land, which is divided up into a velvety lawn, beautiful flower beds and a productive garden consisting of all varieties of vegetables, so that going to market has become unnecessary. Like all homes on that thoroughfare the occupants always enjoy a cool, refreshing breeze, even in the hottest kind of weather, while those living in the center of the town are smothering with the heat.

Girls will be girls.

This week we publish another of Pastor Russell's Sermons. Turn to page 6.

Mrs. C. D. Krieger, of Bellefonte, who had been seriously ill, is said to be improving.

Mrs. Thomas Bertram and two sons, Joseph and Ralph, left for a visit with friends in Philadelphia and Altoona.

Miss Elva and Elsie McKenzie, of Altoona, who spent the past week at the Bertram home up Spring Creek, returned home.

Mrs. Malcolm Heine, with her little son, left Thursday for Niagara Falls, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Ray Acheson.

Miss Mary Rapp will leave Bellefonte shortly to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Lena Brown, of New York City.

Mrs. D. I. Willard and her son Minot, left on Tuesday for Philadelphia and New York City, where they will visit friends.

Mr. Potter, who spent several days of last week at the home of engineer Thomas Bertram, returned to his home in Conemaugh.

Miss Helen Bible, daughter of Prof. George Bible, of Philadelphia, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Benjamin Bradley.

Miss Ruth Kerstetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kerstetter, of Harrisburg, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her aunt Mrs. Harry Yeager, on Spring street.

Annie Goldberg, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Finklestein, left Bellefonte Monday afternoon for her home in Philadelphia. She came up to see her little niece, of which the baby's father has been blowing so much about.

On Monday "Kid Edward" arrived in Bellefonte with a chip on his shoulder. That is, he is here this week looking over the field for a good square fight. He is the man who three years ago knocked out "Barry" at Lock Haven in seven rounds.

J. H. Bressler, of Tytersville, was a pleasant caller. Mr. Bressler has been in the employ of J. W. Eby, of Zion, as a sawyer, for the last three years, which establishes him the reputation of a faithful employe, and our friend Eby knows when he has a good thing.

Mrs. Aaron Katz, of Bellefonte, can't get done talking about the grand trip she had while out along the Pacific Coast. She was with her son Joe, of Lewistown, who took great pleasure in showing her the sights. The people out there extended them every courtesy.

The potato crop and corn crop in this county have a backset from the recent dry spell. The prospect for both was good six weeks ago, but the want of rain leaves little more to expect than half a crop. About the same reports come from other counties of the state.

To Lewis Ettinger we are under obligations for a handsome souvenir volume of Milton, published in connection with the Old Home Week, which, like the souvenir, was a first class and most enjoyable affair. Mr. Ettinger is superintendent of the large Shimer Manufacturing Co's works.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Daggett and children left recently for Glenn Falls, N. Y., to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Achenbach. From there they will go to New York and Alantic City and will be away two or three weeks. Randolph Daggett went to Watkin's Glenn and Miss Lettie Boynton is out in Cleveland, Ohio, visiting Mrs. Murch.

Horton S. Ray and Edmund Blanchard formed an automobile party who left Thursday for a trip to Auburn, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., and then to Lake Ontario, where they will take a steamer for Montreal and Quebec, Canada, and return home by way of Lake Champlain and Albany, N. Y.

On Sunday, August 1st, Rev. David S. Monroe, D. D., the well known Methodist divine, celebrated the 6th anniversary of his ordination of a minister of the gospel. A number of years ago he was pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church. He is still preaching with almost as much vigor as in younger days.

Girls will be girls.

Mrs. C. D. Casebeer, who had been visiting her home in Somerset for several weeks, returned to Bellefonte on Friday.

John Harris, Jr. of Unionville, was a visitor in Bellefonte on Monday. It has been some time since he had been in the county seat.

Miss Mary Bradley left on Monday afternoon for Bradford where she will spend part of her vacation with her brother, Robert Bradley.

Rev. W. J. Wagner, of New Bloomfield, a native of Potter township, was a caller accompanied by Rev. George Ely, a theological student.

Mrs. Frank Torbit, who has been a guest in the McCarger home, on Bishop street, left for her home, at Jersey Shore, on Monday afternoon.

Saturday, August 14th, is the date fixed for Leathers Bros' lot sale at State College. Special train will be run from Bellefonte for the event. A large crowd is expected.

Judge Harry Alvin Hall and party, of Ridgeway, Pa., spent Friday evening in Bellefonte. Saturday started for Penn Cave. They were making the trip in the Judge's touring car.

Nevin E. Cole, of Zion, favored us with a fine post card showing the ruins of the Country Club, at Hecla Park. He is doing some clever stunts in the line of photography, as this instance shows.

Miss Minnie Hastings left Bellefonte Wednesday for Howard where she will join her mother and her uncle and together they will go to Elmira, Niagara Falls and other places in New York state.

John D. Sourbeck was among those who left Thursday for Atlantic City. He stopped in Philadelphia to see his son Harris, who has been in the hospital in that city for the last year suffering from spinal trouble. We are glad to state that he is improving.

Miss Gertrude Fulton, a stenographer in one of the business places in Lancaster, has been a guest in Bellefonte of Mrs. Walter Fulton and Mrs. Sarah Fulton. She will leave today for State College where she will visit friends.

Don Poske, who holds a lucrative position with the Chronicle Telegraph at Pittsburg, is visiting his uncle, sheriff W. E. Hurley. He is one of those young men who makes friends wherever he goes. While in Bellefonte he is being shown a good time.

Don't fail to call and examine our team and buggy nets and get prices on the same. At the same time we are offering bargains in buggy clusters and sheets. This will be on for the next three weeks. Go see Schofield's horse nets which he is offering at great bargains.

Mrs. Verna Daley, of Philadelphia, and her aunt, Mrs. George Gates, of Wilkesbarre, left for their respective homes on Tuesday afternoon. They had been visiting Mrs. Daley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas Mrs. Daley was here for a month and had a sumptuous time.

Monday morning Bert Robb took up his new position with the Bellefonte Trust Co. Harry J. Jackson, for some years, Col. H. S. Taylor's assistant in the office will be found in the Centre County Jail on Monday and will certainly prove a competent man in that position. The Centre County Bank certainly made a good selection.

Miss Grace Getzel, daughter of Robert Getzel, of Beaver Falls, left on Wednesday accompanied by her aunt, to visit in Altoona, after having spent a six-weeks' visit with her grandparents and sister, of this place. After spending a short visit in Altoona she will leave for her home accompanied by grandparents, A. F. Bartley and Mrs. Charles Heisler.

On Wednesday afternoon the following persons were among those who left Bellefonte on the P. R. R. excursion to Niagara Falls: Van S. Jodon, Andy C. Jodon, Misses Jennie Longacre, Helen Harper, May Taylor, Mrs. Ed. Nolan and son, Gilbert, Mrs. Harry Garbrick and Mrs. George Rothrock, who had been visiting the home of Henry Rothrock, of near Bellefonte.

On Tuesday the Pennsylvania Rail road Co's weight car was in Bellefonte. With this it is a little like Christy Smith going the rounds and tuning pianos and organs. The man in charge of the weighing car ran it on the railroad scales at the Nittany and Bellefonte furnaces and balanced them up so as to make them weigh correctly. While the test is going on nobody has any say except the man in charge of the machine.

Mrs. John Ripka, of Williamsport, who had been visiting at Altoona, stopped off in Bellefonte a short time the other day to see her mother Mrs. James Ott, and her sister, Miss Sarah Ott and Mrs. Samuel Hazel. When she departed for her home she was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Margaret Freerer, who had been spending a week at the Ott home on east High street. She is quite a pleasant young lady who is bound to make friends wherever she goes.

RUNVILLE.

A festival will be held on the school house lawn Saturday evening, August 14. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Ether Hamilton has returned home after a pleasant visit with her aunt in Tyrone.

Myra Lucas, who is employed in Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her parents.

Tacy Lucas has returned to her home after a four-weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Altoona.

Prof. J. P. Miller, of Indiana county, expects to teach our winter term of school; the people of Runville extend their congratulations to him.

Mrs. Willis Poorman is on the sick list; her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Minnie Crook and little daughter Bertha, of Snow Shoe, are guests at the Willis Poorman home.

Mrs. Sarah Walker, of Austin, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Poorman.

Alexander Lucas and family, of Philipsburg, are visiting relatives here.

We have in this world two classes of people, those who attend to their own business, and those who attend to other people's business; the latter are found prominent among some of the social rank in Runville.

Edward Maze, of Clarence, spent Saturday night in town.

Charles Harnish, better known as "Dick," who is employed by the P. R. R. on the Tyrone division, was seen on our streets Sunday evening. What is the attraction?

Tacy Lucas, after spending several weeks with friends in Altoona, returned to her home.

Mrs. D. E. Yeager and her children of Vitas were the guests of Chas Smoyer over Sunday.

Mrs. Walker, of Austin, is visiting her daughter Mrs. E. Poorman, here.

Mrs. Willis Poorman, who has been very sick is improving.

T. A. Alexander, who is employed at Philipsburg, is spending some time with his family and children here.

Orvis Lucas is spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. Geo. Lucas.

Miss Lucy Smoyer and sister, Mrs. Alice Yeager, of Vitas, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. John Rocky, near Milesburg.

Rumor of a festival in the near future.

Mrs. Annie Crook, of Snow Shoe, spent several days at Willis Poorman's home.

Miss Eva Witherite is spending a

Prof Fowler injured.

Prof Sterling D. Fowler, formerly connected with the engineering department of Penn State, but who is now located at Berwick, met with a serious accident a short time ago. While descending a steep hill in a new auto, he lost control of the machine and it crashed into a telephone pole, shattering the front section. Mr. Fowler was thrown with considerable force, the fall breaking his jaw bone.

25 Were Disappointed

A. P. Fletcher of Howard, does not approve of advertising in the Centre Democrat. Listen to the story: He wanted to sell a good driver and put a little "want" ad in last week's issue and soon sold the animal to a party at Nittany. He had twenty-five other parties after the same animal, and all saw his little advertisement in this paper. In fact he could have sold an entire drove. Does it pay to advertise in the Centre Democrat? Ask him.
