-The ladies of the Bellefonte Lutheran church will hold a bread and roll sale at Cox's store, on Bishop street, on Saturday August 28th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

-On Monday night, during the heavy rain, Samuel Decker, of Bellefonte, set out a tin bucket and in the morning found in it two inches and three quarters of water which was a pretty big downfall of rain.

-It's now banker Harry Jackson, and we hope that some day he may be able to write his check for a cool million. He entered upon his duties as a clerk in the Centre County Bank on Monday, and everything has been moving along without a ripple.

-W. S. Mallalieu, manager of the Bell telephone exchange, who spent his vacation at Williamsport, returned to Bellefonte on Monday and is now at his post of duty. Mrs. Mallalieu, who spent Sunday in Williamsport, returned with him.

-This week the Mason's camp, near Curtin, is being occupied by George Knisely and family. With them are Misses Pearl Knisely, Mame and Marjorie McGovern. They ought to have with them a couple of real nice boys to keep the girls company.

-Dr. R. L. Weston, secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., has rented the cottage owned by Dr. R. G. Hayes, known as the Collins home, and in the near future will remove his family from Parkersburg, W. Va., to Bellefonte. When the trolley cars come the Doctor will just be in it.

This week James H. Speer, of Aba line, Kansas, and David Speer, of Chambersburg, the present representative in the Legislature from Franklin county, were visiting in Bellefonte at the home of their brother, W. T. Speer, William T. Speer, Jr., of Pittsburg was also here spending a few days with his father.

-Dr. Wright, of Harrisburg, who was called to consult with the local physicians here upon the condition of little Daniel Hickok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hickok, left for his home on Monday afternoon. This is an indication that the danger is all over, and the little namesake of the late Hon. D. H. Hastings will improve.

-Harry Sheffer, who is employed by the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. was the trouble of breaking that broncho which he purchased in Bellefonte at a recent horse sale. It got contrary the other night in the stable and hanged it self. Harry lost money by the investment but if the treacherous animal had lived Harry might have lost his head.

-Mrs. Fred Bussler, who had been taking treatment in the Bellefonte hospital for several months, left on Monday afternoon for Boston, Mass., where she will join her husband, Mrs. Bussler has recovered from her illness and the indications are that it will be permanent. She very reluctantly left our beautiful town because of the warm associations she has made here.

-We have authority to state that up to this time there is nothing to indicate that either the Nittany or Bellefonte furnace will be put in operation soon. The price of iron has not been stimulated enough to warrant the starting of furnaces located as they are in Bellefonte. A little more patience, however, may be all that is required. When they start once they will be kept going, is the general opinion.

-Last Saturday's crowd was phenomenal. Exclamations of approval on all sides, both as to music and pictures. The interest was intense. Hundreds made happy and nothing to offend the most exacting. The rule of the managing of the opera house is endeavoring to please all. There are some choice attractions booked:- Girls Will be Girls, Vogel's Minstrel, Isle of Spice, Mrs. New Husband, The Holy City, Girls of the U. S. A., etc.

-Next Sunday, August 22, 1909, in our churches, Anti-Saloon-Day will be observed. The Presbyterian and Methodist congregations will worship together in the morning at 10 o'clock, at 10.45 a. m., and will be addressed by the Rev. W. H. Chase, Assistant State Secretary. Mr. Chase will speak in the United Brethren church at 7.30 p. m. Rev. Dr. Selber will speak in the Lutheran church at 7.30 p. m. Rev. Alfred Kelley, Field Secretary, will speak in the Zion Reformed church at 10.30 a. m. These speakers are worthy of a large hearing.

-Robert Cole, the architect, felt strong enough the past week to fight an entire regiment, and it would not take much to provoke him to do it.

-Leathers Bros. lot sale at State College, would have been a failure had they not used printer's ink liberally. That is what makes people think.

-Mrs. D. I. Willard, who had been visiting friends in Philadelphia and New York, returned to Bellefonte on Saturday after having a delightful time.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyer and daughter Martha, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at Nittany at the home of Mrs. Boyer's mother Mrs. Dorman.

-Miss Vena Willard, the trained nurse, has recovered from her recent illness and is able to take care of the sick again. She is very competent in her line of work.

-Mrs. McNeil and son Arthur, of Philadelphia, are the guests in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson, on Allegheny street. They will make an extended visit.

-Miss Verge Hampton and Bess McCafferty, both employees of the Brockhoff House, had a little racket in the laundry on Monday morning when "Bess" got burned.

-Maslin F., son of the Rev. T. S. Wilcox, D. D., of Bellefonte, was recently appointed government inspector of engineering at Buffalo, N. Y. His duties at first consisted of inspecting the concrete work but after only two weeks at that he was put in entire charge of the work, which speaks very well of the young man's ability.

-Montgomery & Co. have just placed in their store nine new cabinets for holding clothing in addition to three large mirrors so that their customers may see themselves as others see them. We mean when they have a new suit on purchased from this reliable firm. Other improvements are being made which will give them a modern sales room.

-Among those watching the improvement in the rear of the court house on Monday was James C. Furst, Esq., one of Bellefonte's young attorneys. While walking along the side of the building he began rubbing his hand and swearing at one of those naughty little sparrows that sat on the telephone wire just above his head. It is fortunate that the sparrow wasn't a cow.

-Paul Wetzle, son of Hon. Henry Wetzle, left Bellefonte Friday for Corning, N. Y., where he has accepted a position in the engineering department of the New York Central Railroad Co. Paul is a bright young man and there is no question but what he will make a careful study of his profession, and with the training he will receive there, he will become even more proficient; we wish him success.

-William Brouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brouse, has secured a position with the Eyre Shoemaker Construction Company who has a three-year contract with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., for making a yard near Northumberland; by the last of the month he will leave his father's store here and enter upon his new duties; "Billy" is a mighty good boy but how he is going to break away from Curtin street and its fascinations is what his friends are trying to figure out.

-Sidney Krumrine, Linn Blackford, George Knisley, J. P. Lyon, Roger Brouse, J. M. Cunningham, J. Linn Harris, Richard Sheeha and Hugh Cridler and wife John Lyon, Malcolm Mitchell, Lieutenant Richard Taylor, John Morrison and Donald Potter, of Bellefonte, spent Friday afternoon in Tyrone watching the game of ball between Bellefonte and Tyrone. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of Tyrone, and when the crowd returned to Bellefonte they felt like taking more than soda water to tranquilize the disappointment. It was too bad.

-"Jess" who for thirty long years had been a prominent piece of horsethief on the streets of Bellefonte, is dead. All these years he was a faithful and true friend, owned and highly valued by W. T. Speer. In his younger days he was a perfect picture, admired by the best horsemen in the county, and could have been sold at a fabulous price. He was foaled in Garman's stable, his mother being a much prized circus horse, thus he was intelligent and could have been trained to do most any stunt. He was only an animal, but his good, faithful service will not soon be forgotten.

-Mrs. Jas. Rowan has returned to Bellefonte after spending five weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Hockman and other relatives in DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Hockman visited in Bellefonte and Lemont, and Mrs. Rowan accompanied them to their home. While in DuBois she spent a very enjoyable time. One day which was especially enjoyable to her was spent at the DuBois driving park where a Sunday school picnic was being held by the United Brethren, United Presbyterian and the Trinity Lutheran. She believes that she never met as many pleasant, lovely people in her life as she did while in DuBois, which speaks well for that model town.

-Ladies' $2.50 Russia calf oxfords $1.48 at Yeagers.

-Harvey Hoover, of Fleming, gave us a business call.

-50 new fall suits, for ladies, at Aikens, Bellefonte.

-An addition has been placed to the platform at the P. R. R. station where the baggage is taken off and put on the Lewisburg train.

-Dr. James Sterrett, who had been visiting at the Walker and McCalmont home, left Monday for his home in Washington, D. C.

-The weather being favorable, an immense turn out to the Centre-Clinton business men's picnic at Hecla can be looked for on Tuesday, August 24th.

-Earl Dawson, who makes his home with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dawson, left Tuesday afternoon for Altoona where he will spend several weeks with his father, William Dawson.

-Miss Sarah Miller is collecting old magazines, which she will sell to the paper mills. Miss Miller broke her hip several years ago, while walking on an icy pavement, and since then has been almost totally disabled.

-Joe Wise who spent several days in Bellefonte with his family, left on Tuesday afternoon for Spring Grove, near York, Pa., where he holds an excellent position. He expects to move his family there next week.

-Miss Margaret Tanner, of Renovo, who had been visiting Mrs. Chrissie Tanner, on Bishop street, left for her home in Renovo on Monday afternoon. She was accompanied by Forest Tanner, who left on a little vacation.

-Last week while assisting in putting on the iron structure on the bridge abutments, near the round house of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, James Weigley had part of the middle finger on his left hand pinched off.

-The iron bridge, near the round house of the Central R. R. of Pennsylvania, was completed on Friday. The abutments were built by Knisely & Rhoads and the iron was placed on them by the York Bridge Co. It's a big improvement.

-Mrs. Annie Casswell and daughter are guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, on west High street. They expect to be here about ten days. Mrs. Casswell was formerly Miss Annie Swartz, daughter of the late Dr. George Swartz, who at one time was quite a prominent resident of Bellefonte.

-Everybody who met Dr. Theodore Christ, of State College, in Bellefonte the other day was glad to see him out again after a severe illness. He gets along nicely and the indications are that he will get stronger. We wouldn't be surprised to hear of his being out on the athletic field vaulting through the air and doing the rest of outdoor stunts.

-This afternoon the Logan Fire Co. will leave over the Central R. R. of Penn. for Jersey Shore where the boys will attend the State Firemen's convention, meets there today and to-morrow. Every uniform was filled so that Bellefonte sends a large delegation. They expect to bring back one or two of the prizes. As stated last week R. A. Beck will lead the parade. The City Band, of Bellefonte, will accompany them.

-On Tuesday night Vince Bauer's horse got into the garden of W. C. Cassidy, on Bishop street, and just filled up with peas, beans, corn, cabbage and tomatoes. Wednesday morning the animal looked as if it had taken breakfast at the Bellevue Stratford. When "Billy" saw the desolation he was prompted to say bigger and more comprehensive words than are found in either the spelling book or the Bible. Billy belongs to the Universal church, which prohibits a man getting hot under the collar at a little thing like that.

-This week William Beizer and William Rider were around soliciting contributions for the erection of a tank glass works. An experienced man was here last week from Pittsburg who looked over the situation and was more than well pleased. He estimates that for $30,000 a plant could be erected here that would be a money maker, giving employment to one hundred men. Those who have money to invest should investigate this proposition. Under the new methods of making glass there is hardly any question but that an enterprise of this kind will pay.

-Rush Larimer of Bellefonte, is employed again by the Eyre-Shoemaker Construction Co., to take care of the horses used in making the big railroad classification yard, near Northumberland. Rush is a good man for the place and will give satisfaction. Over one thousand men are employed there and the question of supplying meat for this army of employes became a serious one. On account of the great demand for the product, and the large quantity needed daily the contractors in charge of the work were unable to secure a butcher who would guarantee the necessary amount until they ran up against L. T. Gettig and Edward Poorman, of Bellefonte, who undertook the job. The men will make regular trips to the stock yards to purchase cattle for this one contract. A number of the married men employed on the contract are very anxious to take their families to Northumberland, but have been unable to secure horses, which are in great demand.

-Although residing in Jersey Shore, one of the best known men in Bellefonte and vicinity is Thomas Waddle, who on Friday, reached his 70th birthday. For years it was his custom to come to Bellefonte on each birthday with a family reunion at the Williams homestead, near Axemans. His sister, Mrs. Williams, passed away since the last reunion, and he, feeling more or less the weight of years, decided to spend this birthday at his home. He wrote a postal card to his niece, Mrs. Sarah Satterfield, informing her that he would not come to Bellefonte this year but spend the day quietly at home. He stated that he was not well, thus he was getting near the end of the way. The writing was exceedingly legible for a man of his age and showed wonderful endurance and determination. He is a man who spent his whole life for the good of others, and like Paul of old, he has fought a good fight and is patiently waiting for the summons to break these earthly ties and come up higher to enjoy the fruits of a well rounded and exemplary life.

-50 new fall suits, for ladies, at Aikens, Bellefonte.

-"Girls will be girls" at the opera house on Thursday, September 9th.

-Mona Struble and Margaret Rosenhoover will leave today for Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

-Frank Smith, Neven Wetzel, Edward Shield, Miland Walker, Nelson Showers, Earl Kline and Lawrence McClure, who spent two weeks camping at Hecla, Park, returned to Bellefonte on Monday. While there the boys had a pleasant time. They know more dear girls now than they can shake a stick at. Every picnic that came their way this crowd of handsome young pleasure seekers tried to get next to the feminine beauties.

-Misses Sara and Carrie Bayard, who we stated were in Bellefonte last week, spent the greater part of their vacation in Canton, Ohio, as guests of their uncle and aunt, Robert A. Cassidy and wife, both of whom are well known in Bellefonte. On Thursday they left for their respective homes. Sara going to Williamsport, where she is employed in Goldberg's large store and Carrie continued her journey to Scotland, Pa., where she is an instructor in the Soldier's Orphan School.

WEDDINGS.

STRUBLE-SNYDER.

Harry V. Struble, and Maud Snyder, a daughter of John Snyder and wife, both of State College, went to Boalsburg on Wednesday, August 4, and were quietly married at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. A. A. Black. They left on a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

DERSTINE-IRVIN.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock a pretty wedding took place at the Irvin home on Willowbank street. The happy couple were Violet Irvin and Jesse Derstine. The best man was Jay Wallace and the bridesmaid was Mabel Gentzel, of Beaver Falls. The knot was tied by Rev. J. F. Hower, pastor of the Evangelical church, the beautiful ring ceremony being used. After the wedding an informal reception took place when Mr. and Mrs. Derstine received many warm congratulations. This was followed by a feast of good things. The groom is the son of ex-councilman W. H. Derstine, and is one of the efficient employees (in the P. R. R. freight station) in Bellefonte. He is an industrious young man and will be faithful in the discharge of every duty. The bride is a pretty and attractive young lady who will make an excellent helpmate.

LATHAM-HAUPT.

One of the pleasing events of last week took place on Friday evening when Edward A. Latham and Bernice Haupt were married by Rev. Frederick W. Barry, pastor of the Lutheran church. The young couple, accompanied by the parents of the bride, as witnesses, were driven up to the Lutheran parsonage where about 7.30 o'clock the young people were happily wedded. The bride is a charming young lady, the daughter of Newton L. Haupt and wife, of Pine street, and has a large circle of friends in Bellefonte. Mr. Latham is also well known in Bellefonte. Being an excellent tenor singer, he has made himself popular by his singing in some of our churches and at other public gatherings in the town. For the last three years he has been employed as passenger brakman between Lewisburg and Bellefonte. Recently he has been transferred to the main line, running between Harrisburg and Renovo. The young couple left on the 8.15 train, amid showers of rice and confetti, for several days' tour, visiting New York City and the seaside resorts. On their return they contemplate locating in Harrisburg, where they will go to house-keeping. Their many friends join in congratulations and in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

The Veteran Picnic.

On Saturday morning the Centre County Veterans Club met in the office of W. H. Messer, Bellefonte. In the absence of the president, Gen. Beaver, Col. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, presided. It was practically agreed to hold the picnic this year at Pine Grove Mills, but as some of the roads are not in the best shape in that vicinity it was thought advisable that the place of meeting be changed. Several places were suggested but finally Grange Park, Centre Hall, was selected and the time of meeting was set for Tuesday, September 14. The following chairman of committees were appointed: Printing, W. H. Messer, Capt. Bond; transportation, G. M. Bond, on grounds, Gen. James A. Beaver; speakers, Capt. W. H. Fry. It is hoped that the old soldiers will take a special interest in this outing and make it one of the most successful ever held. It is a basket picnic and everybody is cordially invited.

School Will Good.

Owing to the fear of many that the foundation of the new school building were not properly constructed, last Thursday, Prof. Walker, a civil engineer, of State College, made a thorough inspection of the same. His report to the school board pronounces them in good condition, ample for the purpose intended. In his report he made some excellent suggestions of a minor character that will be carried out to still further improve the stability of the building.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The Benner township high school will hold a festival next Saturday evening, August 21st, at the Rock View school house. Everybody is invited.

Harry Meyer, wife and son, of Olean, N. Y., who had been having a pleasant time at the home of C. H. Shephard, at Fillmore, left for their home Tuesday afternoon. They were accompanied by Eva Kephart.

Rev. Stanley West, who recently resigned from the pastorate of the Newberry Disciple church, is now at Blanchard conducting a series of Evangelical meetings in a new tent. He will continue in this work in other towns until the winter season sets in.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.

Monday evening L. T. Munson and J. C. Meyer appeared before Council asking for a franchise for the Centre County Traction Co. Mr. Meyer read the conditions under which the company would operate the line. He stated that one of the capitalists of Pittsburg, who is back of that movement, had been in Bellefonte and everything was thoroughly gone over, so that things are in good shape to commence work, as soon as the franchises are granted. The fact that trolley lines can carry freight make the project more plausible than several years ago when a franchise was secured by a former company. The route would be from Milesburg to the Central R. R. of Pa. tracks at Linn & McCoy's furnace, then over that company's tracks to their station, thence up Water street to High; and then up High street to Allegheny street, on Allegheny to Bishop street, west on Bishop to Spring, north Spring to High street, down High to the bridge, out South Water street to the Tyrone and Lewisburg railroad and from thence to the borough line on the pike. The road is to be substantial in every way and to be in operation within the next two years.

Dr. Kirk, chairman of the water committee, submitted several estimates on repairing the reservoir which is in bad condition, the leaks in it causing much extra expense in pumping water. With a brick wall backed with cement the cost would be about $1,000. A nine inch brick wall backed by a composition of asphaltum, and the bottom covered with the material would cost $4,500 to $5,000. The matter was laid over for further consideration.

J. C. Harper, chairman of the Street Committee, stated that the County Commissioners had made the request that they be permitted to terrace the ground out to the gutter on the south and north side of the Court House. This would be a great improvement to the general appearance of the centre of the town, with no inconvenience to the public. The matter was referred to the street committee.

The Spigelmyer petition, asking for the prohibiting of the sale and use of fireworks within the borough limits on the 4th of July or any other time, was passed and an order made for an ordinance to be drawn.

AUCTION LOT SALE.

On Saturday several thousand people attended the auction lot sale at State College under the auspices of the Leathers Bros., of Howard, the real estate agents. A free train, of six cars, was run from Bellefonte, the crowd being so great that standing room in the aisles was at a premium. Hundreds of people from the surrounding districts came to the seat of learning to see a lot sale, the first ever pulled off in the county. It was a novelty and everybody seemed anxious to witness one. The State College band, which was in Bellefonte in the morning, drumming up the crowd, furnished the music during the sale, which began promptly at 1 o'clock. In a neat, characteristic speech Dr. Benjamin Gill spoke of the wonderful advancement Pennsylvania State College has made in the last thirty or forty years and predicted that within the next fifteen years the attendance would be 5000. Naturally he threw in a word for the Leathers Bros., who have been doing much to increase the growth of the borough. He then introduced Col. J. C. Morrow, of Pittsburg, the real estate auctioneer, who has that personal magnetism about him that draws people to him like flies to fly paper. After getting the crowd in good humor by telling several good stories he proceeded to sell lots, which seemed just as easy as rolling off a log. He was driven from one lot to another in a carriage, the crowd following him while the band played. It was not long until the fifty lots were sold at prices ranging from $280 to $450.

After the sale the free $500 lot was given away. After several thousand coupons had been deposited in a large box Helen Knisely, the little daughter of Andrew Knisely, put her hand down among the coupons and drew one out. The lucky number was held by Miss Irene McKinley, of near Julian. Of course she received many warm congratulations. She is a young lady who can appreciate the gift. The final event of the afternoon was a balloon ascension by an expert aeronaut who made a double parachute descent which was a novelty. The affair throughout was a success and reflects considerable business ability upon the part of the Leathers Bros.
